Pearl Harbor–1941. Korea–1951. Only ten years. But in that time the Bell System's capacity to serve the nation has literally doubled!

And the Long Distance telephone network which ties America together has grown even more. In 1941, there was very little coaxial cable in use. Radio relay was still in an experimental stage. Yet today there are 8,000 miles of coaxial cable in service – plus thousands of miles of radio relay. And Long Distance telephone circuits have increased in ten years from about 4,800,000 miles to 20,800,000.

In times like these, telephone lines are defense lines. For they are helping America rush its big production program. It's fortunate this nationwide network has grown so big, so fast.

Fertilizer, Manure Make Alfalfa Seeding Pay Better Dividends

Bob Raidal is shown with County Agent Ed Rebmen and Susan and Eddia Rebman in an alfalfa and red clover field. This picture was taken nearly three weeks ago. The hay was knee high at the time but the growth today is more than three feet.

A good soil management program with plenty of fertilizer and heavy applications of barnyard manure is responsible for a good seeding of alfalfa and red clover on the Charles Reidel and Bob Reidel farm near Boyne City.

Corn was planted in the field in 1949 with a very heavy application of manure and 200 pounds of 3-12-12 fertilizer used per acre. In the fall of 1949, another very heavy application of manure was made and the field seeded to rye. This 14 acres of rye was turned down in the spring of 1950 and seeded to oats, alfalfa, clover and bromegrass.

A TOTAL of 300 pounds of 0-20-20 fertilizer and 200 pounds of 4-10-16 fertilizer was used per acre. Oats was seeded at the rate of 0 pecks and the seeding was made at the rate of 6 pounds of alfalfa, 2 pounds of red clover, and 1 pound of bromegrass. The ground was cultipacked both before and after planting.

The grass seed spouts on the grain drill were placed behind the drill so that the gross seed fell on top of the ground and were only cultipacked in. Bob Reidel thinks that 6 pounds of alfalfa is too heavy to plant when it is seeded right so the 1951 seeding was made with only 4 pounds of alfalfa and the seeding is still thick enough.

Harvesting this field will start this week if the weather is satisfactory. Charles Reidel thinks that because the stand is so heavy and will probably go around 3 tons per acre of hay that there may be some trouble cutting the stand. He may try to use the grain binder and harvest it that way rather than with the mower.

THIS FATHER and son partnership operate a 277 acre farm with about 76 acres of tillable land. Their main crops are small grain, corn and hay. They are milking 24 Holstein cows and have had about 10 head of young heifers. Six of these heifers were purchased from Wisconsin last fall and they are about 8 months of age now. They are really beautiful heifers and will make a very good addition to their herd.

Charlie Reidel is 65 years of age, Bob is 29 and Carl who lives with them, is 40 years of age. They belong to the Lutheran church and also to the farm bureau. Bob is a director of Boyne City Artificial Breeders Association board and is also PMA township committeeman.

Any veteran interested in on-the-farm or any other type of training with the government paying the expenses must enroll on or before that date.

The On-the-farm training program in the Veteran's Farm Institute includes horticulture, dairying, stock raising and general farming. Veterans who desire to enroll may call Max Novak for further information.

All Charlevoix county students are asked to enroll at once so students from Emmet and Antrim counties may enroll in the Charlevoix county Veterans institute if there are vacancies.

What Makes Quality Hay Told By MSC Farm Crops Specialist

Purity, a high percentage of leaves, pliable stems, a bright green color, and a pleasing aroma are characteristics of high quality hay, advises Dr. R. Clanahan, Farm Crops Specialist at Michigan State College. Leaves constitute half the tonnage and contain 2/3 to 3/4 of the protein. Both yield and quality are sacrifices when they are lost.

In making hay, the Crops authority makes these suggestions.

Time to Cut—Early cutting (for maximum yields and to maintain stands alfalfa should be cut when one half the bloom is out) timothy, brome grass, clover, etc., should be cut in early bloom stage.

The weather factor—50 years of weather data indicates that chances are that 2 to 3 consecutive days without rainfall may be expected the first two weeks in June; whereas, the last two weeks will have only one to two days without rain.

Mow-drier comes to the rescue—For earlier cutting ond to take some of the weather hazard out of hay-making.

* * *

HAY, WHEN first cut, carries 70-75 percent moisture. For safety this may be put in the mow when down to 25 percent. With a mow drier it can be put in at 35 percent. This shortens the period of exposure. For putting chopped hay in a mow, the drier is necessary. Heating the air used in the mow drying process helps.

Generally, a mow drier will get the job done before crop is over mature, it will save when cut at an earlier date, get a better second cutting by getting the first cutting off in time. Information on mow drier can be obtained from Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent.

The field baler—Saves storage space. High investment cost necessitates large usage—100 tons per year should be the minimum. Custom baling simplifies operation with only hauling and storing left to the farmer. The crew with the custom baler provides extra man power to get the job done (if you can get the machine when you want it.)

ORCHARD NOTES

By Claude Fairman

Further spraying on young fruit trees planted this spring is not necessary unless some insect eats the leaves. Use Marlate according to manufacturers directions. If marlate is not obtainable use DDT for old pastures hair leaf hopper.

You will soon be setting your young orchards by to wait till next spring. See that the trees have been well hoed and quack grass roots removed as some times these roots will grow down to the bottom of the freshly dug holes and this will stunt the trees.

Have your land well leveled off and sow a good cover crop of oats or weeds, something that will die over winter to make for early cultivating next spring.

If you are using sod strips in the centers sow the cover crop in the tree rows. Here at home we stop cultivating bearing trees June 15 and young trees the first week of July.

We use sod strips according to whatever wash that we would be liable to have. We do not cultivate apples and pears and in place use lots of mulch.

Old hay or straw sometimes saw dust on top of strow and the next year straw on top of saw dust. Manure is always beneficial to trees. It can be applied any month of the year except August, September and October. Mulched peaches grow too late in the season and freeze back.

Storing Rubber Garments

Attic, basement and storage rooms, if they are cool, are good places to store winter rubberized wearing apparel.

Now Better Than Ever
BECAUSE . . .

SIX GOOD REASONS

1. More efficiently powered, with the famous Ford Farming engine.
2. Reel is ground driven—ground travel determines speed of reel.
3. Longer lasting Draper Rolls are solid rubber, not just rubber covered.
4. Fan blades are metal, instead of wood. More durable and efficient.
5. New Cylinder Front Sheet is strongly reinforced. Built to last.
6. More uniform distribution of air blast, due to new Throttle Control.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

It's the good old summer time on Beaver Island. Swim suits are having their initial dip in the big tub. Youngsters were splashing in Lake Michigan and in the inland lakes Sunday afternoon. It was a beautiful warm day and just what we have been waiting for.

Dasies are in bloom and the lovely island orchids (Lady's Slippers) are out. Some of the youngsters report bringing home wild strawberries. Loretta LaFreniere and Margaret Ann LaFreniere said they each brought home a quart. The harvest should be bountiful judging by the vines which are loaded with blossoms.

To develop the berries and to help the crops along, the island needs rain badly. Prayers for rain were offered after both Masses Sunday.

• • •

FATHER Victor Gallagher arrived on the island Monday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher. Father had five days on the island.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gallagher and daughter, Colleen, are the guests of Norman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie John Gallagher.

After accompaning several of our sick to the mainland in recent months, Mrs. Bid Sandenburg flew across Monday in her own behalf. After the examination at the doctors, reservations were made for her at the Charlevoix Hospital and Wednesday morning the operation took place Bid is getting along very well, is the latest report. She will be in the hospital for at least two weeks.

• • •

MR. AND MRS. Hugh Ray have arrived to spend the summer months at "Raycroft" their island home. Mr. and Mrs. Ray spent the winter at Gulfport, Miss.

Mrs. Mark Cross and family have arrived to spend the summer. Mrs. Cross' father, Eddie Gallagher, will also spend the summer here.

Rodney Nackerman has completed his course in ground crew training, also, a specialist course on the B47 Stratoget Bomber. He has been promoted to Corporal and will be stationed at MacDill Air Force Base at Tampa, Fla.

Mrs. Larry Davison returned Monday from Leslie, Michigan where she attended the wedding of her nephew. Mrs. Davison was organist during the ceremony. Returning to the island, Mrs. Davison was accompanied by her daughter, Betty, and Kenn Kammeraad of Grand Haven. Betty has returned to Grand Haven where she will be employed during the summer months.

WEDNESDAY evening, members of Holy Cross Parish met with Father Giles in the Hall to formulate plans for the August Dinner. The dinner will be held Sunday, August 12th. Since food prices have soared, tickets for the dinner will be $2.00 for adults this year; 75c for children. Those selected to serve on the August Dinner committee are Mrs. George Ricksgers, Mrs. Frank O'Donnell, Mrs. Elizabeth McCauley, Mrs. Frank Nackerman, Vernon LaFreniere, Walter Wojan, Walter McCauley and Francis Mooney.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen and children, Louise, Tom, Julia, Mary, Agnes, Betty, Mike, Joe, Janie, Patsy and baby Angela arrived on Thursday's boat. Mr. Allen will commute back and forth from Ann Arbor to the Island over the week-ends but the rest of the family will spend the summer months on the Beavers. They are occupying the house they recently purchased, Which was the former Priest's home. Mrs. Allen and the older children will take charge of running the cabins.

• • •

MRS. TEDDY Wojan and sons, Robert and Richard, are visiting in Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Grossi, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Grossi, Andrea, Mary Ann and Bobby Grossi, all of Chicago Heights, arrived Friday to vacation at the Grossi's cabin on Little Sand Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Davison of Muskegon, parents of Larry Davison were recent visitors. One of the high lights of their visit was a trip over the island and the surrounding islands in Sylvester Howard's plane.

Mrs. Rita Elms left Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. David Pike in Montague. Later on in the week, she will go to Grand Rapids for medical attention.

In the absence of Mrs. Elms, Patricia Ramsey will operate the Shilleleigh. Patricia arrived Thursday from Central Michigan Teacher's College.

• • •

MR. AND MRS. George Miller and children, Carolyn and Billy, Clark Lake, arrived Saturday to spend a vacation at their cabin on back beach.

Bob Malloy, who is on the U.S. Survey boat during navigation season, sent his maroon deluxe car home last week for the family to use.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Leonard recently traded their black '50 car for a beautiful blue four door '51 model. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard are back in their Font Lake home after spending the winter months in the village.

Gary McDonough and Brian Gallagher are our newest altar boys. They served Mass for the first time together last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Joseph, Chicago, will be interested to know that the pair of wild canaries are back nesting in lilac bush in the yard of their island home. Every spring, a pair return to nest in the same bush and right now, they are singing their little hearts out.

Church of God To Dedicate Hall

The Community Church of God Fellowship Hall located on the church property on West Hurlbut ave. will be dedicated at 3 p.m. Sunday in a special ceremony, Rev. W. D. Wood, pastor of the church, announced.

The Rev. R. J. Tuttle, of Traverse City, executive secretary of the Church of God state extension board, and Rev. Herman Smith, of Anderson, Ind., a returned African missionary, will officiate with Rev. Wood at the service.

A reception will be held at Fellowship Hall following the dedication ceremony.

The hall features a large club room with a stone fireplace, kitchen facilities and a small basement with a heating plant and a tunnel to the church proper.

Weather Holds Key to Resort Prospect As Local Hotels Open

The weather continues to hold a key to the hopes for a successful season for Charlevoix hotels, restaurants and rooming houses.

Most operators are looking forward to a good season this summer, provided they are given a hand by the weather which was a disappointment last year in northern Michigan.

The Beach Hotel, overlooking Lake Michigan, opened Saturday for its fifty-third season under the management of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kramer who are starting their sixth season here.

With them will be Larry Gannon, of Tucson, Ariz., widely-known chef, who is returning for his second season; Miss Dorothy Crossman of Boston, will again be social hostess.

Malcolm Gravelle of New York will join the staff as maitre d'hotel; Milton Bronstein of Fort Wayne will be night auditor; Sara Coleman of Charlevoix, head clerk; Miss Doris Wolf of Grass Lake, cocktail lounge hostess; Pete Locke of San Francisco, head bartender; Clarke Bergeon of Charlevoix, bell captain; Frida Stoy of Sun Valley, Ida., baker; Mrs. Nina Hull of Norwood, housekeeper; Charles Evans, chief engineer

The cocktail lounge is also open for the 1951 season.

The Belvedere Hotel will open tomorrow for the 1951 season under a new manager, E. J. Edwards, who has been associated with the club for 20 years.

Mr. Edwards has been secretary-treasurer of the Belvedere Association and has also been warden since September 1931. He will continue in these offices as well as serve as manager of the hotel.

Assisting him in the hotel will be Mrs. Q. E. Wood of Clearwater, Fla., who is returning as assistant manager. Prior to this season she served as secretary for seven years.

Joan Ward Will Vie for Cherry Queen

Charlevoix's Venetian Queen, Joan Ward, will go to Traverse City Friday to compete with the queens of other northern Michigan counties for the title of Cherry Queen.

Queen Joan will be the guest of the Queen's committee at a dinner at Batsakis Inn at 6 p. m. Friday evening and at 8:30 will appear before the judges at the Traverse City high school auditorium.

Each girl will be presented and at the close of the program, the name of the queen of the National Cherry Festival and her court will be announced.

Carroll Fiedler's Father Passes

William S. Fiedler, 80, father of Carroll C. Fiedler, died Sunday at the Grandvue Hospital, East Jordan, where he had been a patient for ten days.

Funeral services were held at the Church of the Nazerene in Mason Wednesday with burial in the Mason cemetery.

Born in Marietta, Ohio, Nov. 5, 1870, Mr. Fiedler resided in Ohio and at Holt, Michigan, until six months ago when he came to Charlevoix to live with his son.

Besides his son, Carroll C., he is survived by two other sons, L. W. of Holt and L. K. of Flint; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Phillips of Mason and Mrs. Floyd Hefflebower of Hastings; several brothers and sisters; 18 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

101 Crippled Children in Area Attend Clinic

One hundred and one crippled and afflicted children from four northern Michigan counties were examined by three orthopedic specialists at the special clinic held Tuesday at the Charlevoix Elementary school.

Dr. Carl Badgley and Dr. Sylvester O'Conner of the University Hospital staff and Dr. Jerome T. Jerome of Traverse City, Orthopedic specialist, Dr. A. E. Litzenberger, director of District Health Unit 3, Dr. G. B. Saltonstall and Dr. L. E. Grate, local physicians, examined the children, suggested treatment and ordered x-rays when necessary. Physicians who referred children to the clinic will receive copies of the specialists' findings.

THE CLINIC was sponsored by the Michigan Crippled Children's Commission in cooperation with the Northern Michigan Medical Society and the District Health Unit.

Others here with the staff were Elizabeth Ober, consultant for the Crippled Children's Commission, Mildred Lineberger, R. N., Jessie Wadell, R. N., Madeline Kingerski, R. N., nurse physio therapists and Shirley Patterson, occupational therapist, of the Commission; Aldean Dahl, occupational therapist in the northern district for the Society of Crippled Children and Adults; Charles Crawford of Traverse City, of the Michigan Vocational Rehabilitation Association; Jane Kohne, Eileen Ludtholz, Elizabeth Doyle and Frances Albers, medical secretaries.

A luncheon at noon was served

Correction

It was incorrectly stated in last week's Courier that Harold Withers would be a candidate for re-election to the board of education. Competing for the position at the July 9 election will be Mayor John Knight and Vernon Mathews.

Voters Asked For Opinions On School Issue

Voters in the Charlevoix school district will receive letters from the board of education asking for their opinions on proposals to alleviate the overcrowding in the high school.

This letter, formulated by the board of education, after district voters flatly turned down a proposal to build a new high school building June 14, asks all those who cast ballots in the recent election to indicate their choice.

The Four Proposals Are:

1. We shall vote a bond issue of not to exceed $225,000 for the following: An additional 4 rooms on the existing Elementary building for the 7th and 8th grades; a metal and woodworking shop and music room adjacent to the present high school. This to be a one-story building.
2. We shall establish a building and site fund this year and continue until at least one-half the money is raised for a new high school building. This would take approximately eight years with an 8 mill levy.
3. We shall at present bond for enough to build a complete new Elementary building on Kipke Field and special rooms on the present site to be used with the present Elementary building for the high school.
4. Regardless of the crowded conditions and lack of room for classes, we should get along with the school buildings we now have.

• • •

The letter states that elections are costly to the taxpayers and that it apparently has been impossible to obtain the true thinking of the majority of the voters at school open house meetings where the need of the school building has been discussed.

It also relates that it appears unwise to hold any election until it is determined what the majority of taxpayers are willing to vote for in the way of a new building.

The letter indicates that it is not necessary to sign the form letter which should be returned in the stamped envelope.

Church of God Dedicates Hall At Special Rites

Members and friends of the Charlevoix Community Church of God gathered Sunday for the dedication of Fellowship hall which was completed recently.

They heard Rev. Herman Smith, returned African missionary, tell of the interest Jesus had in social and material things as well as spiritual things.

He also commended the pastor of the church, Rev. W. D. Wood, Mrs. Wood and the members of the church for the fine work accomplished by the construction of Fellowship Hall which will furnish a place of meeting for the entire community.

Mrs. Ingma Pontious, treasurer of the church, gave a report on the cost of the building. Which was $6,081. Except for $1,027, the cost of the building has been paid.

She also voiced the appreciation of the church for all that had been done to aid in the construction and completion of the building which was started in May 1950.

Rev. Nathan Hargett of Petoskey gave a Scripture reading and Mrs. C. C. Fiedler sang "Bless this House".

Following the dedication refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Clarence Murray.

The building, which is of masonry structure, is 30 x 70 feet and features a large hall with a fireplace designed by Earl A. Young, kitchen facilities and a basement heating plant.

Mrs. George Belding and her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Converse and son, Billy, of Garden City are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Belding.

Dental Unit Working on Beaver Island

The District Health Unit No. 3 Dental Unit, sponsored by the Children's Fund of Michigan, was moved to Beaver Island June 18 where it will operate until July 13, Dr. A. F. Litzenberger, unit director, announced.

Miss Cora Dunn, Hygienist, who is conducting the fluoridization program, went to the island Friday with the equipment.

Dr. C. O. Whitten, dentist, his assistant, Mrs. Whitten and Mrs. Marian Rice, Charlevoix county nurse joined her Monday to set up the equipment in the St. James high school.

All island boys and girls through high school age will be given as much service as time will permit during the four weeks the clinic is in operation.

Miss Loyola Malloy, of St. James is arranging the scheduling of patients for the dental clinic.

The staff reports a most co-operative spirit among the island people and finds only one criticism, mosquitoes, which seem to have escaped the mainland and which mar the transquility of beautiful Beaver Island.

The clinic will be returned to the mainland July 13 and opened in Charlevoix.

The Michigan State Association of Cleaners and Dyers will hold their convention at the Beach hotel July 13-15.

The convention invitations are being sent to some 450 members by Mike O'Neill, managing director of the group and Frank Pingatore, association president, urging its members to attend and enjoy the hospitality of Charlevoix and the Beach hotel.

Mayor Knight and S. E. Coleman made necessary arrangements to obtain the convention for Charlevoix.

Several members of the Michigan State college coaching staff will attend this convention.

Optometrist to Open Office Here in July

Dr. Robert W. Anderson of Jamestown, N. Y. will open his optometry practice in Dr. Young's building shortly after the first of July.

The optometrist completed his five-year course last September at the Northern Illinois College of Optometry. Prior to that he attended a college in New York state.

A veteran of three years service in the Air Force, he will bring Mrs. Anderson here this week.

This Dream May Bring Money

They Dream of Raising Horses

Beaver Island — The two remaining horses on High Island. there were three until one fell in an open pit which was formerly an old basement and starved to death, will soon have plenty of company.

During the winter months when there was time to sit around the stove and talk shop, two Beaver Islanders got their heads together and dreamed up a scheme which, if it hatches, will bring fame and maybe fortune to this part of Michigan and the mid-west.

As you probably know, High Island was once a stronghold of the House of David. They left the island in 1935 when King Ben died and the religious cult became divided. After the Isrealities left, the Indians followed suit in a few years.

• • •

For the past 12 years, the horses roamed the island. They became wild and could only be spotted from an airplane. So, here's the scheme.

Archie and Ed have purchased a beautiful Golden Palamino stallion and are now buying up a dozen mares. The mares will be bred and taken to High Island to roam. They expect to develop a herd of horses comparable to the western horses that roam the range.

LaFreniere and Burke have obtained permission from the House of David for the use of the large acreage which they still own.

SO, THE TWO old mares on High Island are going to have their peace and solitude ended about the middle of July when the twelve mares are taken aboard the ferry North Shore for delivery on the island. LaFreniere and Burke plan to make the event a real occasion with an excursion planned to go along with the horses.

Might add, there's plenty of good grazing on High Island and feeding the horses will not cost the men nary a cent, so this dream should pay off.

Local Men on Furlough Will Speak at Public Program in Park

Charlevoix will honor its Korean War veterans Saturday at a program planned for 3 p.m. in East Park.

At that time Korean veterans who are home, their families and the families of others who arrived home earlier or who are still in Korea will be guests of the city at the celebration.

Here for the celebration will be Cpl. Andrew Essenberg, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Essenberg, sr.; Pfc. Lawrence Klooster, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Klooster; Sgt. C. Clair Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jones; Pfc. Earldean Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stephens who now reside in Tecumseh.

• • •

PFC. GERALD Russell who landed on the West coast Monday enroute home from Korea is also expected to arrive in time for the program. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Russell.

The family of Sgt. Hubert Olach, husband of Mrs. Dorothy Olach and son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olach, who was killed in action in February will also be invited.

Others who are being honored although they will not be present will be Joseph Schwab who returned home recently after flying 25 missions over Korea and who is now stationed at Forbes Field, Topeka, Kan.; Louis B. Kohler and Albert Fox who are in Korea with the Marines; George Fratrick, Leonard Dubey, Howard Struthers, Carl Zeitler and Richard Webster.

• • •

THE PROGRAM will begin at 3 p.m. in East Park with the unfurling of the colors by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion while the Charlevoix City Band directed by C. A. Odmark plays the Star Spangled Banner.

Invocation by Rev. Joe Bekkering will be followed by a brief greeting from representatives of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Ralph S. Hamilton, representing the city council, will act as master of ceremonies and will introduce Rev. W. D. Wood who will give an address.

• • •

MR. HAMILTON will also present the returned veterans and Mayor John Knight will present each veteran with a gift in appreciation for their service.

Taps will be sounded in memory of those who will not return. Rev. Bekkering will give the Benediction and the program will close with God Bless America.

The Charlevoix City Band will also play several other numbers during the program.

All business places will be asked to close during the program.

Seating facilities will be provided for the families of all veterans, V.F.W. and American Legion members will serve as ushers.

State Amateurs To Vie Here For Golf Title

Charlevoix will be host to the Michigan Amateur Golf Tournament at the Belvedere Golf Course July 12-13-14-15.

The four-day tournament will open Thursday, July 12, with the 18-hole qualifying round, medal plays. The best 64 scores will qualify for match play.

Entrants must have a handicap of 10 or under.

• • •

THE FIRST and second rounds of match play will be held Friday with the third and fourth rounds scheduled for Saturday.

The semi-finals and finals will be played off on Sunday.

A special event for those eliminated from the championship will be held Saturday, July 14.

• • •

THE BELVEDERE course will be open for practice, without charge, Wednesday, July 11.

Knight Named Regional Chairman In Softball Setup

Mayor John Knight has been named regional chairman of the Michigan Softball association.

His territory covers all of the upper peninsula and the northern part of the lower peninsula, extending to Ludington and Alpena.

It is reported that Charlevoix is likely to obtain the regional playoffs in September. The mayor has extended an invitation for the directors and officials of the state association to come here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dalton and children, Joyce and Kay, of Detroit, are spending ten days vacation with Mrs. Dalton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ashdon.

Floyd Brown Will Preside at Convention

The anual convention of the Michigan Automobile Dealers Association will be held at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island this week-end with president Floyd Brown, of Brown Motors, presiding at the business sessions.

This Is Political Taxation

The Democrat members of the House Ways and Means Committee have jammed through a 12½ per cent tax increase on 1951 incomes. The flat rate addition—called a "defense tax"—marks a desperate attempt to please a President's demands that the taxpayers furnish more revenue to support the inflationary costs of his Administration.

The demand was based on estimates of receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30. Columnist Raymond Moley notes these estimates are low and that "in every year since 1946 the President and the Treasury have been wrong—and for the same reason." They apparently do not take into consideration the effect of a rising national income on tax receipts. Moley offers an explanation for this: the "intent for political reasons on getting new taxes by any means, even by making absurd underestimates of income."

Moley expressed hope that the Senate will reject "these confiscatory tax increases now approved by party vote in the House Ways and Means Committee."

What Price Appeasement?

"I have just buried my son . . . a boy who in dying earned the award next in rank to the Medal of Honor, the Navy Cross.

"My son was killed by a piece of metal: a piece of metal shipped to the enemy in all likelihood by our so-called allies. . . . He was killed by a piece of metal brought down over the supply lines we were forbidden to bomb, and made into ammunition by power from Korean dams we were forbidden to destroy; a piece of metal whose transporation was protected by Red planes we were forbidden to pursue . . .

"The name for . . . this . . . is appeasement. Our leaders prefer to call it by another name . . . It has, they say, given us more time . . . It has, they say, kept us out of a big war. Those excuses are but echoes of the words of the man with the umbrella at Munich . . .

"The reasons for paying blackmail are always compelling, and the alternative to paying it is always horrible. Pay or have your house burned down; pay or have your children murdered . . . Pay or have World War III, pay or have Washington atom-bombed . . .

"Our blackmail payments in American blood purchases neither time nor security." —From a letter by a Marine hero's Army dad, Capt. Eugene R. Guild, U. S. Infantry (Ret.) of Colorado.

Swimming Can Be Hazardous

The advent of another summer season points up the continuing dangers of careless swimming.

Parents are urged to send their children to the public beaches in Charlevoix and surrounding areas. Swimmers are many times much safer at a public beach.

As a means of added safety, the city should rope off any areas along the docks if they are unsafe for walking.

It is interesting to note that of the 159 people who drowned last year in Michigan, only seven were swimming at a place set aside or designed for swimming. Rivers, streams, quarries, gravel pits and lake areas not set aside for swimming took the lives of 122. Of this number 108 were men and boys.

Two-thirds of all drownings occurred during June, July and August, the "swimming months".

Teach your child to swim, but teach him to swim safely, at a guarded beach, during daylight hours with one or more companions. This is the advice of the Michigan Health department.

Cool off and rest after a rough game, hard work, or a long trip before entering the water. Wait about an hour after eating. Go into the water slowly. Leave the water when chilled or tired.

Be a responsible swimmer. Know the waters in which you swim or dive. Keep in mind that horseplay, showing off, racing, trying to swim too far, and rocking or overloading a boat are dangerous for you as well as your companions.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Martin

Did you think you were seeing things last week when you saw the shiny new black police car in town? . . . It's the new one delivered last week with its gold leaf and all . . .

Remember Lewis C. Reimann of Ann Arbor, who operated Camp Charlevoix for so many years? . . . You'll be interested to know that he's releasing a book entitled "Between the Iron and The Pine" . . . It is devoted to the Iron River country and will be a feature of the Iron Ore centenial . . . Mr. Reimann is a native of the country of which he writes . .

• • •

HAVE YOU noticed how high the water level is this spring . . . In fact, the conservation department lists it as a near-record height . . . And if you don't believe it, take a look at the piling in the channel next time you cross the bridge . . .

Don't know when we've seen the peonies anymore lovely then they are this spring . . . So we were more happy to receive beautiful bouquets of them from the John Stebes and the Gerald Gibbonses. . .

SUMMER here and with it an interesting new orchestra at the Argonne . . . this season it's the Gee Cee Trio . . . three musicians who alternate on nine instruments . . . About them Jack Theisen of the Detroit Times said "Their versatility, in arrangements and performance, rates high praise" . . . We'll be looking forward to hearing them following their opening Friday night.

Have you seen the recent issue of Holiday with its picture story of Holiday in Michigan . . there's quite a spread on our wonderful state . . . And on a page and a half map, Charlevoix is shown . . Added to that we're mentioned in the accompanying story written by author, Phil Stong . . . Of course, it's as the place where you take off for Beaver Island . . but we did get mentioned . . .

WE WISH ALL of you could have been around last week to listen in on the interviews with the Korean war veterans . . . The first thing that strikes you is their youth and the fact that, outwardly, they seem so unaffected by the war . . . After you've talked with them you realize that this isn't true . . . Soon you know that despite their youth they are men who have undergone more than young eyes should have to see . . . And suddenly you realize that they're the personification of all our soldiers in Korea . . . and our armed forces the world over . . and you wish you could end it all right now and have them home with you where they belong . . . And you're proud of them and grateful that we have them . . . If you gather that we feel it was a privilage to talk with them and all the others before them and these to come . . . you're right . . .

HEARD in Barber's Harbor View the other night . . . Do you know that deer hunting season will open in only 140-some days . . . we couldn't believe our ears til we noticed it was hunter, Elmer Barber, talking with one of his hunting pals . . .

Little Sue Gill had a special reason for seeing the movie at the Palace theatre last week, The Last Outpost, starring Ronald Reagan . . . Earlier she had received honest-to-goodness snapshots of the star and others in the east taken by her aunt, Mrs. Franklin Olmstead, at Tucson, Ariz., where the film was made . . As you can imagine she was the envy of every kid in town . . .

Can you imagine going swimming in those bathing suits worn in the parade recently . . . those 1901 numbers? . . . We were interested in knowing where they could find authentic models like those and were surprised to learn they were the real McCoy and were borrowed from the Catalina company . . . by Charles Levinson for the Kiwanis float . . . We're wondering how anyone stayed afloat in them . . .

Marilyn Ikens, Dale Boss Exchange Vows At Candlelight Service on Saturday

Marilyn Margaret Ikens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenroy C. Ikens, became the bride of Dale Edwin Boss, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Boss, at a candlelight service solemnized at the First Methodist church Saturday evening.

The Rev. George E. Whitten read the double ring service before an altar decorated with baskets of gladioli and lupine and ferns and lighted with tapers in candelabra. Lighted tapers in candlelabra circled with ferns at the end of each pew marked the center aisle of the church.

Wedding Music

Roger Sweet sang "Because" and "O Promise Me" preceding the service and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt during the ceremony. He was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. A. C. Belding who played a program of traditional music and the wedding marches.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, chose a gown of white satin for her wedding. It was styled with a high neckline, long sleeves and a skirt which had a long train. A seed-pearl tiara held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with red roses.

Assists Sister

Kay Ikens, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mary Roberts and Rheta Boss, cousin of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Miss Ikens' gown was of pink taffeta and the bridesmaids gowns were of aqua and gray taffeta respectively with capelets and matching mitts of white lace. They wore headdresses of pink carnations and carried matching bouquets.

Beth Ann Boss, cousin of the bridegroom, as flower girl, wore a floor-length gown of white satin and carried a basket of rose petals.

Best Man

Dean Boss assisted his brother as best man and Herbert Boss, cousin of the bridegroom and Fenn Welscheimer were ushers.

Mrs. Ikens chose a beige print dress and brown accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Boss, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy dress with white accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors. A tiered-wedding cake centered the refreshment table which was decorated with tapers and summer flowers. Mrs. Lawrence Boss, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Clarence Rabach, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Ingma Pontious presided at the refreshment table. Mrs. John Norton, Mrs. Ralph McRae and Mrs. Carlton Ikens, aunts of the bride, assisted.

Wedding Trip

The couple left on a ten day wedding trip to Niagara Falls, New York and other eastern cities. For traveling the bride chose a white pique dress, matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

They will reside at North Point when they return.

The honey bee, with his precious cargo of pollen, may become too scarce on Michigan farms for the good of agriculture in general. Agricultural Experiment Station researchers at Michigan State College are reminding farmers that the honey bee, so necessary for the development of fruit and seeds, cannot survive without sufficient nectar and pollen resources. Approximately 50 cultivated crops require insect pollination and the job of pollinating fruit blooms is now almost entirely dependent upon honey bees. But Michigan's honey bee population is growing dangerously small. For advice on ways to help save the important honey bee, farmers should consult their County Agricultural Agent.

Patience Will Reward You!

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

Let us say, just for the sake of emphasizing a truth, that we are talking about you.

All your life, since you were old enough to see and understand, you have known that Cadillac represents unquestioned supremacy in the motor car world.

And you have said that—"when the time arrived"—you would own a Cadillac.

Now, "the time has arrived." You have reached the point in your endeavors where you feel you are entitled to a Cadillac—and all the things it represents.

But you hear that some delay in delivery has become unavoidable.

"Maybe," you think, "there is a substitute. Perhaps some other car, which I can get more quickly, would do."

For the sake of your own welfare—please listen to this:

There is only one car which is recognized wherever highways lead as the "Standard of the World."

There is only one car which is held in the highest respect by newsboys and millionaires alike.

There is only one car which is the hope and the ideal of motorists everywhere.

And there is only one car which you, yourself, really and truly want.

So stand firm in your convictions! Be patient! For patience will bring you the richest reward in the motor car world. It will bring you—a Cadillac!

The Cow That Can't "Run Dry"

Sandy Johnson showed me his Jersey cows last week. It was a warm day and they were all under the trees near a watering trough.

And derned if one cow wasn't pumping water into the trough! It's a fact—she'd raise the pump handle with her nose, and use her throat to push it down again.

"That's Mabel," Sandy explained as she moved away. "Sometimes they drink that trough dry, and she's learned how to fill it again. But she doesn't know her own strength—turns the place into a swamp if we don't watch her."

From where I sit, Mabel isn't the only one who sometimes doesn't know where to stop. For instance, people often carry personal opinions too far—like the person who wants everyone to accept his choice of political parties, or ballplayers . . . or beverages. I prefer a glass of beer with my meals. I know that a lot of other people prefer milk. But nobody ought to insist on "herding" others around to his way of thinking.

Many Children in State Get Tooth Decay Prevention Aid

Thousands of Michigan children in 13 Michigan communities are getting tooth decay preventian treatment at a minimum charge this summer, while 15 University of Michigan dental hygienist students are getting paid experience in their prafession, the Michigan Department af Health annaunced today.

Through the cooperatian af the University of Michigan, the Michigan State Dental Society, the Michigan Department of Health and local schaals, dentists and health officials, summer sodium fluoridization program are getting underway in Shiawassee, Montcalm, Washtenaw, Huran and Ingham caunties and in Traverse City, Grand Haven, Holland, Flint Buchanan, Edwardsburg, Battle Creek and Ludington.

The University students conducting the program are utilizing the Michigan Department of Health's 15 portable fluoridizatian units which are used in schaols during the remainder of the year; they are canducting their clinics in schools which are otherwise unaccupied during the summer; and they are supervised by the local dentists of the cammunity who valunteer their time. A minimum charge made for the fluaridization treatment pays far expendable supplies and a cast-af-living stipend for the students.

The students were given a briefing in public health dentistry techniques, the use of portable fluoridization equipment, the preparatian of dental records and basic public relations in the Michigan Department of Health and field orientation in local health department fluaridizatian pragrams in Lansing, Mt. Clemens, Pontiac, and Saginaw before the pragrams started.

From the programs yhich began in most areas, June 18, the students will gain experience in their profession while receiving a cost-of-living stipend and they will develop skills in handling children, in dentist-child-parent relationships and in conducting community programs.

Participating communities will benefit through greatly reduced dental decay among children. The painting of children's teeth with sodium fluoride solution at age three, seven, ten and thirteen years can reduce new toath decay in groups of children as much as 40 per cent, according to the Michigan Department af Health.

Two Local Girls Are Practical Nurses

Two Charlevoix women were members of the class of practical nurses who received their diplomas fram the Narth Central school of practical nursing at Traverse City June 15.

They were Mrs. Astrid Arlen and Miss Bonnie M. Smith.

Owls Face Traverse City Here Saturday

Rained out of their last two starts, the Knight Owls will face Parts Manufacturing Co., of Traverse City Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at South Side field.

Most of the games are played on Sunday but because of the Fourth of July, the game was moved up to Saturday night. The Knight Owls face four opponents in eight days, playing at Cheboygan Monday, July 2, and meeting Big Rapids July 8.

On the Fourth of July the Owls play an all All-Star team from the city league managed by Dean Davenpart. Atwood's and Barnard's players daminate the All-Stars. Bob Patter will probably pitch against Al Doraw, Michigan State quarterback, who is a counselor at Camp Charlevoix.

Erma Deschemeier Honored on Birthday

A large birthday cake was a feature af the refreshments which were served at a table decarated with iris and spirea.

Totem Poles Placed At Charlevoix Cabins

Almost a past art, the totem poles are alleged to have originated in centuries past to chase away the evil spirits. The Gibbons family, owners of the cabins, say it took the Indian most of one winter to do the carving.

The tatem poles are eight feet high. Residents and visitors are invited to look at the fancy carvings on the poles as a good example af Indian craft.

Beginning Thursday, July 5th I shall have books and gifts for sale at my cabin 1.6 miles north and east from city limits. L. F. Edson, The Charlecote.

Mrs. Curtis to Run Western Union Office

Mrs. Franklin Curtis will be manager of the local Western Union office this summer. She assumed her duties June 15 and will continue in the office until September 15.

Beginning July 1 the office will be open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. and from 9 to 11 a. m. on Sundays and holidays.

Until then the hours are from 8 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1:25 to 5:25 p. m. and from 9 to 11 a.m. on Sunday.

Barney Adair Buys Petoskey Alleys

The completion of the sale of the Petoskey Bowling Alleys to Barney Adair, East Jordan merchant, was announced Wednesday.

The alleys in Petoskey, completely reconditioned, will be opened July 1. Mr. Adair said that the improvements include complete resurfacing and refinishing of the interiors.

Adair who also owns the East Jordan recreation will operate both places. The public is invited to visit the Petoskey and East Jordan alleys for open bowling

Card of Thanks

To my many friends of Beaver Island, Charlevoix and elsewhere, Father Leo Malinowski, Dr. Saltonstall, nurses and aids, my sincere thanks for the numerous cards, telegrams and calls and my splendid care while in the hospital. "Nonie" Gallagher. 26c

IT HAPPENED ON .... BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

The opening day of the bass season brought fishermen from far and wide to Beaver Island. Saturday, Sunday and Monday's boat were booked solid with car reservations. Planes brought fishermen from Detroit, Toledo and Grand Rapids.

Destination of the fishermen, Garden Island area, the best spot in Lake Michigan for the gamest black bass that an angler could hope to hook.

Before the dawn breaks, the fishermen will be over to Garden Island. All available boats have been engaged, including island fishermen who will take parties across in tugs. The fishermen will start the day about 3 a.m.

• • •

SENATOR COUZEN'S generosity to the children of Michigan has been a wonderful help to many a child. We on the island are grateful for the services of Dr. and Mrs. C. Whitten who are conducting a dental clinic for all school age children.

Miss Cora Dunn is cleaning the children's teeth and giving the fluorine treatment to all grade school children. The clinic began Monday in the High School building where all necessary modern dental equipment is installed. Loyola Malloy is taking charge of appointments. The clinic will continue for three weeks.

Mrs. Marion Rice, county nurse, loves Beaver Island and Beaver Islanders love her. She was here from Monday until Friday.

• • •

JOHN MCDONOUGH, rival and party of the second part in the race for the mayor of Beaver Island, came to the island early to campaign to get a head start on "King" Bill Whalen who is due to arrive in a week or two. McDonough belongs to the power boat gang and Whalen to the blow boat gang of the Chicago Yacht Club. McDonough tied up at Gallagher's dock the first of last week and began campaigning. To help the cause along, he brought along an evenings entertainment. Tuesday night at the Shamrock Tavern, McDonough showed about a half dozen movie shorts with sound. The one most enjoyed was the short showing scenes in Ireland. Mrs. McDonough brought along her talking parakeet with a mike attached inside the cage, but the poar bird got stage fright and didn't sqawk a word. The McDonoughs and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Askins of Phoenix, Arizonia, cruised across to Charlevoix during the week but are back at the island for more politicking.

• • •

Eileen Gatliff, who recently graduated from high school in Detroit, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gatliff.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Hobus, Leslie, Michigan, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Davison during the week.

It won't be long, now, before Beaver Lodge will be ready to receive guests. Mr. and Mrs. Davison have moved into quarters at the hotel. Interest in Beaver Lodge is keeping Mrs. Davison busy, showing visitors around.

MRS. JOSEPHINE McCourt has arrived to vacation at her island cottage. Thursday, Sylvester Howard flew Robert Bonner to Grand Rapids to meet a friend, a former air line pilot, and from there the two flew to Rena, Nevada. By Sunday, Robert was back in Grand Rapids, which was some rapid travelling. 'Tis o small world these days.

Father Giles was on the mainland for a couple of days last week. In his absence, a television set was installed in the rectory, the gift of Edgar O'Donnell and Chester Marshall of Detroit. Edgar came to install the set. The aerial was placed on top of the steel tower in front of the rectory (at one time the pastor of Holy Cross church was weather man on the island and the tower was used in connection with his duties) After the installation, it was hoped the reception would be good, but even with the aerial at such a height, the results were not satisfactory. We hope before long, there will be a relay station in these parts.

Mrs. Agnes O'Donnell has returned to her island home after spending the past six months with her daughter, Marcello Beasfman, in Detroit. It didn't take Agnes long to be back in her blue jeans and work gloves to start her garden, rearrange plants and set out the shrubbery she brought back.

Mrs. Bea Townsend, Mrs. Bernice Townsend and son of Holland, and Mrs. Mary Towsend and two children, Philadelphia, arrived Friday to spend two weeks in Allen's log cottage.

• • •

JUDGE AND MRS. F. R. Hoyles, Lansing, arrived Sunday to spend the summer at their cottage on Sand Bay.

Doctor and Mrs. Eugene Bales and children, Kathy, Patsy, Martha Jean, Indianapolis, arrived Sunday to vacation in their cottage facing back beach. Dr. and Mrs. Bales have as their guests Miss Louise Turner and Tootsie Noone.

Gus Mielke was across last week for a check-up at the doctor's.

Mr. and Mrs. Elston Pischner were across to Charlevoix last week.

Sunday's cloudy condition kept some of the flying fishermen from making it to the island as scheduled. Monday morning dawned bright and beautiful and soon after day break, the planes began to drone in from the mainland. It's a wonderful day for the opening of bass season.

Large Turnout

Those from Charlevoix who attended the annual Methodist youth camp for the Grand Traverse district at Lake Louise last week were Beverly Trimble, Phyllis Trimble, Janet and Susan Crump and Velma May. It was the largest camp ever held for this district with 195 boys and girls attending.

Rock Elm News

By Mrs. A. B. Lawton

Both the Jensen and Porter cherry orchards have been well cultivated and been sprayed three or four times each. Here is hoping that the owners may at least receive enough from the crop of fruit to meet expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawton spent the last week-end at their farm home returning to Grand Rapids Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hipp and Ernest Mather of East Jordan enjoyed a visit and dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jensen and Mrs. Whitfield Sunday at the Jensen cabin.

Mrs. Jessie Durance McClutchen and Miss Winnifred Maddaugh both of Flint were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Jensen. Miss Maddaugh taught the Rock Elm school 37 years ago and Mrs. Jensen, then Cora Metz, was one of her pupils.

Inwood News

Mrs. John Fratrick

Glad to hear Mrs. R. R. Farmer is much improved in health and she has sure been enjoying the daily visits of Mrs. Grace Demeroukas and Mr. and Mrs. Jule Skusa.

Mrs. Brusoe from Barnard was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ager. Mrs. Jennie Ager from Charlevoix was also a dinner guest at her sons home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lord and son from East Jordan were afternoon and evening visitors at the John Fratrick home Sunday.

The community is sorry to hear of the death of W. S. Fiedler. Deepest sympathy to the family.

Mrs. Warren Schoals from Inwood just recently returned to her home from a visit up north with friends.

Bob Fiedler recently visited at the home of his parents.

Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Fiedler and two daughters are spending a few days with the former's parents, while they are getting settled in their new parsonage at Horton Bay.

Recent visitors at the C. J. Fiedler home were Mrs. Robert Phillips from Mason and Mrs. Floyd Hefferbower from Hastiogs both sisters of Mr. C. J. Fiedler and Mr. and Mrs. Darrow Phelps from Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar and children from Mt. Pleasant visited their mother, Mrs. R. R. Farmer a few days last week while staying at her son's in Charlevoix, Mrs. Farmer is now at her home in Inwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiles called on Mrs. Farmer one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Farmer and Mr. and Mrs. Don Bogart all from Charlevoix visited Mrs. Farmer last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Farmer from Lansing are visiting their mother, Mrs. R. R. Farmer for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Fiedler from Ellsworth are attending summer school in Mt. Pleasant.

Summer Is Bad Time for Children In Accidents

Summer vacation days are dangerous days for pre-term and early teens, the Michigan Department of Health warned parents today.

Forty per cent of accidental deaths of children five to fourteen years of age occur during June, July and August.

Running into or playing in the streets, crossing streets carelessly and bicycling in the streets constitute the gravest danger, with automobiles crashes and drowning vieing for second place. Fires, falls and farm machinery also take their tolls.

Enrolling your children in a supervised park or playground program for the summer is a good safety precaution. Teach them why they must not play in the streets or run into the streets after a pet, ball or playmate. Teach them by example and by word of mouth to cross only at crosswalks and with the light. Teach them bicycling safety and be sure they can handle a bicycle well before they take it into the street.

Make sure that your pre-teen and teen age children do their swimming at a guarded beach. Put matches aut of young children's reoch and teach them to stay away from all fires. Remove stumble-traps from your homes. Keep the children off farm machinery, especially the tractor.

Keep a weather eye out for the playing child as you drive in residential, play-ground or theatre areas. Give every child a 'brake' so he may enjoy his summer vacation.

Our Congressmam COMMENTS

By Charles Potter

A few weeks ago I talked to yau about trading with the enemy and mentioned how President Truman had severely criticized Congress far adopting an amendment to a supplemental appropriations bill prohibiting the expenditure of funds for economic aid to foreign countries who continue to trade with Red China.

Now—only 13 days after this amendment became law—the President and other members of his security council have suspended it for 90 days. This mave dims any praspect for the revival of bipartisan support of our foreign policy.

This act—which bans American assistance to Governments which sell strategic goods to the Soviet bloc—has an "escape clause" provided by the Congres under which the security council could permit exceptions to the law to avoid working particular hardships upon friendly nations. However, it certainly was not contemplated that this relief clause would be used to nullify the law.

Our Country is giving away billions of dallars in money and materials on the theory that by so doing we will be able to prevent the spread of communism. But it seems to me—and I'm sure you will agree—that when goods provided ar praduced by our generosity find their way into the Iron Curtain countries, all of this money we are spending abroad is defeating its own purposes. Many Members of Congress—including myself—will accept this view when new funds are asked for the fareign assistance programs.

Our economic strength is our principal means of survival in this present struggle against communist agression. When it comes to the point where we are dividing our strength by sharing it with the enemy, we invite our own destruction.

After Red China entered into the Korean war, many af us urged an embargo on shipments of material to the Chinese Communists. But even when the United Nations finally acted to impose such an embargo, only the United States, the Netherlands, and Belgium got around to complete compliance. And not only that—only our Country has completely suspended shipments of all goods to Red China.

Other United Nations members have delayed this action while deciding what may be classified as "war materials". It seems obvious to me that most of them expect to go right on doing business with the Reds.

Geoeral MacArthur has urged a naval blockade of the Coast of China to prevent strategic materials from getting into that Country and being used by the Chinese Communists against the United Nations forces in Korea. Such a naval blockade, if approved by the United Nations, would end all legal business with the Reds and might serously curtail their war-making capacity. However, our timid State Department compromised as an appeasement ta the nations which did not want to go all the way in cutting off supplies to the Red aggressors.

It was because of this attitude of timidity on the part of the State Department that Congress took things into its own hands aod voted to ban further American assistance to nations which were trading with the communist bloc. Now that the will of Congress has been circumvented by the National Security Council, we may have to vote stringent restrictions to get the desired results.

It should not be necessary for the Congress to resort to extreme measures to compel the executive branch of our Government to safeguard the national interest. But when our State Department is surrendering American interests to European politics and Soviet strategy when foreign capitals appear to have the last word on our own policy decisions, then we in Congress have no other recourse.

Packard Patrician '400'—most advanced motor car in America
Car details as shown subject to change without notice

Close-up.... of an American Tradition!

Sooner or later, every quality-conscious family falls in love with a Packard. That's an American tradition.

And never has the pride of Packard ownership been so completely practical, because here you're getting not only the newest new car of the year . . . but the car most likely to stay that way for many a year to come! Just consider points like these:

You get the efficiency, and the incredible smoothness, of new Packard Thunderbolt engines—America's highest-compression eights. Plus: the service-free simplicity of a design with up to 25% fewer working parts than in engines of comparable power.

You get the amazing smoothness of Packard's exclusive Ultramatic Drive. And with it: the extra efficiency of no gas-wasting slippage when cruising.

You get the famed Packard Limousine Ride, with all its new refinements—a ride that's unequalled anywhere for gentle smoothness and enduringly firm roadability.

The deeper you look, the better you'll know why Packard has chalked up the most illustrious durability record in automotive history. For it's a fact that of all the Packards built—in the last 52 years —over 50% are still in service!

It's more than a car—it's a PACKARD

Should Children Be Immunized in Polio Season?

Should Michigan children be immunized during the polio season"

Many such questions on the advisability of giving Michigan children immunization treatment for diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus or booster shots during the late summer poliomyelitis season have come to the Michigan Department of Health during the past week.

To help answer the questions in the minds of parents, the Department today issued this statement.

The Michigan Department of Health recommends that the established initial immunization procedure calling for the child's immunization to be underway by six months and completed by his first birthday be continued. Careful studies show that the danger of unprotected children under one year having serious cases of either diphtheria or whooping cough, alone, is much greater than the risk of the infant's contracting paralytic polio.

Some evidence is now accumulating which appears to indicate that there is a greater incidence of paralysis among poliomylitis victims who have had immunization treatment within a month of the onset of the disease. For this reason, when polio is prevalent in a community, physicians may wish' to defer immunization of older children.

Major League Hi-Lites

Cadillac-Olds' first win of the season came at the expense of Silver Birches, who suffered their first loss.

After losing their first 2 games rather meekly, Sees bounded back and have now won four straight. Defending League Champions for the last two years, Sees are finding the competition tougher this year.

Bob Klooster was the first player in the League to hit a home run over the new fence.

The U. S. C. G. lost their last two games, each one run, in the last inning.

The younger players who have moved up from last years' Junior League are more than holding their own. Two young pitchers have turned in good performances, Bobo Bennett for Mailhots and Deano Davenport for Sees. Hank Klooster for Ellsworth Hdw. is hitting .423. Other players from the Junior League include Ted Potter, Stan Whitley, Jim Lewis, Ted Browe, Ray Sanford, Bob DeYoung and Howard Pearl.

Two extra inning games have been played thus far. Mailhots dropped an 8 to 7 decision to Sees and it took Silver Birches 9 innings to finally edge Ellsworth Hdw. 7 to 5.

Interest is running high for the coming game between and all-League team selected by Dean Davenport, and the Knight Owls under John Knight. This game will be played July 4. The all-star league team will stress speed and defense against the heavy hitting of the Knight Owls.

New Ruling Permits Change in Enlistment

Selective Service regristrants may now voluntarily enlist in the Army or Air Force even after they have taken or been notified to take pre-induction physical examinations, it was announced today by Major Harry G. Drapeau, Michigan's Army and Air Force Recruiting Officer.

"Prior to the issuance of the new order, which goes into effect today for one month, men who had received their notice for physical exams were automatically denied the right to enlist voluntarily. Now, only those who have received notice for actual induction are ineligible to enlist voluntarily". Major Drapeau said.

Men desiring to enlist before they receive their induction notice are requested to visit their nearest U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force recruiting office immediately.

Charlevoix County Farm News

Antrim 'Pasture Days' Attracted Many Farmers

Bill Grimm, right, Charlevoix county farm planner and County Agent Ed Robman inspect plots of legumes in combination with different grasses at the Antrim County Pasture Day program on the Robert White farm near Kewadin.

A large number of farmers from Charlevoix county attended the Antrim Pastures Day last week according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Many of these farmers left their own hay fields to see the demonstration plots showing different pasture seeding mixtures that were established on the Bob White farm north of Kewadin. Farmers who missed this program really missed seeing results of pasture renovation as was carried on on the Bob White farm.

The morning was spent looking over the five plots that were composed of the different seeding mixtures. These seeding mixtures included alfalfa, birdsfoot, trefoil, ladino, brome grass, orchard grass and alta fescue, in different combinations. The surprising thing about this particular piece of ground was that the livestock showed no preference for any of the mixtures but liked them all exceptionally well. It was reported that Bob White pastured 32 cows all last summer on the five acres contained in these plots.

There was a demonstration of making grass silage both in the morning and the afternoon. Several neighboring farmers brought their equipment to chop and put into the silo this grass silage. Specialists from the college were on hand to explain this method of harvesting grass and also to demonstrate the gutter cleaner as is used in Bob White's dairy barn.

The afternoon was spent listening to Dr. Hodeson from the U. S. Department of Agriculture speak on Forage Utilization for the Dairy Cow. Following this talk, a tour to four different farms showing pastures of ladino clover, reed canary grass, balboa rye and white dutch clover were made. The group ended at the farm showing the Martin Hay dryer and listening to a discussion of its qualifications and shortcomings.

The entire program was built around better grass program and the utilization of this grass, in feeding farm animals. Pasture is the cheapest food that can be raised with grass silage coming next. The picture shows Bill Grimm, farm planner and the county Agent, Ed Rebman examining some of the hay that was made into grass silage.

Cows Sweat Little, Eat Less When Hot

When the weather really gets hot, a man breaks out in a sweat and the perspiration keeps his body heat down. But a cow sweats very little and as the temperature climbs, her body heat rises sharply.

C. F. Huffman, dairy research authority at Michigan State College, has found that different dairy cows vary in ability to stand high temperatures. When the barn temperature was 95 degrees some cows had body temperatures up to 106 degrees with respiration rates of about 125 a minute. Another cow, next to these, had a normal body temperature of about 101.5 degrees with respiration of about 25.

The average cow converts about one-fourth of her feed into milk, the other three-fourths of her food energy is waste heat. Since her "cooling system" is not very effective, she often stops eating. That cuts down milk production.

Dairy Cattle Need Minerals On Pasture

The dairy cattle are out on pasture now after the long barn feeding season in Charlevoix County. If you've done a good job of bringing them through you're certainly entitled to take a pat on the back.

There's no doubt about it, good pasture is a valuable and economic source of high quality feed for dairy cattle. Cattle on pasture are lots easier to take care of than when they're in the barn in the winter.

* * *

NOW COMES the advice — don't let mineral feeding slip just because the cows are out on pasture says Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. There is no reason to believe that pasture plants contain any greater quantities of minerals than crops dried and stored from the same soil. George Ward of the Michigan State College dairy department reminds us that it is just as important to feed minerals to cattle on pasture as when they are on dry feed in the barn.

Most of you know the four minerals that are lacking in Michigan. In some places all four are not present in the farm grown feeds. They are salt, iodine, cobalt, and phosphorus. Salt is not present in natural feeds in large enough amounts for dairy cattle. Most plants grown on Michigan soils are short of iodine. In some areas the soils and crops are deficient in cobalt. Whenever little or no grain is fed, the possibility of a deficiency of phosphorus arises.

* * *

THERE ARE several products on the market which carry one of more of these minerals. There is plain salt, iodized salt, cobaltized salt, and trace mineral salt which contains both iodine and cobalt. To furnish phosphorus if needed, you can use steamed bone meal or defluorinated phosphate.

If a phosphorus supplement is necessary it works well to mix one-third steamed bonemeal with 2 3 salt. This mixture will furnish salt and phosphorus as well as cobalt or iodine if trace mineral salt is used. Free access to this mixture will prevent any known mineral deficiency in Michigan cattle. Feed the mixture in a box or trough with a roof over it to protect from rain and put it where the cattle have access at all times.

County Oat Fields Showing Mildew

Many oat fields in Charlevoix county are showing symptoms of mildew according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. A number of oat plants scattered throughout the fields have their lower leaves turning brown. Several farmers have called in to ask questions why their oat fields were showing this discoloration, and what they could do about it.

D. L. Clanahan and the county agent visited several oat fields this past week and the trouble was diagnosed as mildew. Mr. Clanahan thinks that this will have little effect on the yield of grain and that this condition is due primarily to weather. He cautions farmers not to be too alarmed about the presence of mildew in their oats.

Sawflies Now Feeding On Pine Plantations

The larvae of the pine sawflies have now started to hatch and are feeding on the needles of Jugho, Scots, Red and Jack pines, Michigan State college authorities report. Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent warns Charlevoix folks to check their pine plantings for this insect.

These insects are green-brown worms about one inch long and are usually found in large numbers. When there is a heavy infestation in a plantation they are capable of completely defoliating a small tree in a matter of four or five hours. The early hatch is out now and there will probably be a second hatch around the tenth to the twentieth of July.

Lester E. Bell, extension forester at Michigan State college, says these insects can be controlled by use of a foliage spray of 3 pounds of 50 percent wettable DDT and 4 pounds of lead aresenate per 100 gallons of water. A 5 percent DDT dust is also effective for control on small trees that can be easily covered with the dust.

ORCHARD NOTES

By Claude Fairman

I have had many inquiries about children picking cherries that were under 16 years of age. The labor board says that children under 16 may pick or do other farm work as long as school is not in session.

That is children under 16 years may pick cherries during their summer vacation while schools are closed. A Mr. Dusking living south of us planted 40 acres of cherries last year. He just brought up a jar of large bugs, which proven to be the Rosechafer. These bugs had eaten all of the leaves off from a great many trees before he noticed them.

While we have not had them and a good many more orchards have not had them they are no thing new. It pays to inspect orchards often. D. D. T. or Parathion will kill the rosechafer. Parathion is faster acting.

Cultivated cherry orchards have benefited by our recent light rains whereas sod orchards have not.

Our early sweet cherries are scattered about. It keeps one busy from 5 a. m. to 8 p. m. as the crows come in fast for these early cherries before the regular picking crew starts.

If your orchard spraye is used for blossom thinning sprays be sure to run several tanks of clear water through it before doing other spraying.

The spayer that is used for a weed killing sprayer can not be used for spraying fruit trees. All fruit will be earlier this year.

Wood Tick

The common wook tick is responsible for the transmission of Rocky Mountain spotted fever, a rare, but extremely serious, disease.

New, Easy Way to Farm
One Minute TO PUT ON IMPLEMENTS
NEW EAGLE HITCH
EASIEST 3-POINT HOOK-UP YOU EVER SAW

1 LATCH ON
2 SLIP IN PIN
3 ...AND GO
CASE
See it... Try it...

The new Eagle Hitch on the 1950 Case "VAC" tractor takes hold of the new latch-on implements and picks them up—fast and easy. Without getting off the seat you just latch on, slip in a pin, and go! You get to the field quicker, finish sooner. Work is done better because the Eagle Hitch keeps implements working at a steady depth in spite of hard spots and uneven ground. Come in and see it! Try the new low-pressure hydraulic implement control. You'll like the way it works with both latch-on and front-mounted implements. This isn't push-button farming but it's the nearest thing to it. And you'll be amazed at the eager power wrapped up in this low-cost 2-plow tractor.

Banks School Mapping Plans For Expansion

Ellsworth—At the last monthly school board meeting which was attended by the P.T.A. School Planning Committee, a proposed program was formulated to be presented to the voting people of Banks Township Public School. These proposals are being edited and will be a part of the ballot for the July ninth election.

It was the general belief of the group that the school program planned for 1951-52 year was adequate and that no department of the program should be curtailed; the Domestic Science department with courses in cooking, sewing, decorating, and personal evaluation; Shop with a complete wood-work program plus plans next year for metalwork, electric, plumbing, and farm-mechanics; the Commercial department will include classes in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and office practice; Agriculture this year will stress farm mechanics, farm management, and conservation; and a class in drivers training.

The already mentioned program only suppliments the already full program in the Three R's such as English, History, Mathamatics, Chemistry, Physics, Spelling, Phonics, General Sciences, Civics, Government, Sociology, Economics, and a new but important program in Public Speaking. Add to this the extra curricular activities such as Band, Chorus, Forensics, and Athletics and you have a program to be proud of although necessitates the work of qualified, hardworking teachers. This year the elementary school will be more efficient with the addition of another teacher to relieve overcrowding of our grade rooms.

No one phase of this program should be sacrificed nor neglected. Realizing this, the group evaluated the income of the school and the expenditures necessary and found that the financing of such a program would fall short. After discussion it was ascertained that the needs would require about a 5 mill tax levy to carry this program. This is 2 mills less than the millage for schools last year.

The group also suggested that the land which the school owns should have the large timber cut off and sold to allow the growth of the smaller trees. The right to allow this to be completed requires the vote of the people. The trees that the school have been planting have reached the growth that a small number of the Christmas trees are ready to be cut.

The school and its program belong to the people which it tries to serve and only as the majority vote will it be carried on. The voting on July ninth without your vote would not be complete.

ONE GREASE FOR ALL Lubrication Jobs!

Yes, SINCLAIR LITHOLINE* means faster, better lubrication!

With just one grease, Sinclair Litholine, you can lubricate chassis, wheel bearings, water pumps, universal joints . . . of your car, truck or tractor . . . winter or summer. Farmers find it does a better job at each lubrication point than the "specialized" greases they formerly used.

FARM ADVANTAGES at-a-glance:

1. A finer grease at every point.
2. Less danger of applying the wrong grease.
3. Quicker greasing operations.
4. Smaller grease stocks — one instead of 3 or 4.
5. Fewer grease guns.
6. Less waste.

Choose a JOHN DEERE No. 12-A Combine!

Get clean, undamaged grain and seed that grades higher—use a dependable John Deere No. 12-A Straight-Through Combine. It's a six-foot, full-width combine that successfully harvests all combineable crops in a wide variety of crop conditions.

Here's why! The No. 12-A is a big-capacity machine capable of harvesting the heaviest crops quickly and efficiently . . . without overloading any important combine units. All crops are handled in a straight line from the cutter bar on through the machine. There are no turns . . . no corners to cause piling or clogging. Its easily-adjusted threshing unit threshes cleanly . . . without cracking. Full-width separating units do a thorough job of separating the seed from the straw.

Add to this the light weight for low power requirements . . . the lasting strength for field dependability and low operating costs. You'll understand why owners say—"With a John Deere, it's one-man harvesting at its best." See us for further details.

PFC Howard Struthers Reports Tough Time In Building Pontoon Bridge Under Fire

Pfc. Howard Struthers, who was re-called to active duty with the Army Reserves last fall, is now in Korea with an Engineers outfit and is spending a great deal of time placing pontoon bridges over rivers. He recently sent his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Struthers an interesting letter about his work.

It follows in part: Just a short letter to let you know that I'm still alive and OK.

We have had a pretty busy week. At 3 a.m. June 7 we left for the front lines to put a pontoon bridge over the Im Jim river. It is a quarter of a mile wide and is the second swiftest river in Korea.

• • •

WE STARTED to work on it about 8:30 a.m. and at 10 a.m. a truck was blown up by artillery and after dinner they really zeroed in on us. We had to move out fast and take what trucks we could. I drove the air-compressor truck out to where it was fairly safe and found a hole to crowd into.

We went back at it about 2:30 p.m. and worked until the mortars started dropping on us. We moved out till after dark. We came back and they hit the second and third trucks and we moved out again until daylight but all night our artillery shelled their hiding places and we finished the bridge without any more trouble.

• • •

OUR CASUALTIES were two dead and two seriously wounded and a few cuts on about five more. One fellow from our company was hurt pretty bad and is in the hospital with shrapnel wounds in his leg.

The bridge we built before was over the Han Ton river. We were under fire there also but the infantry was out in front enough so they couldn't get a good shot at us. Also we had a high hill on the other side of the river and it was just a small river.

One took 14 pontoons and this last one took 40. It took us close to 34 hours to build the large one and about six for the small one, due to the swiftness of the current.

• • •

NO ONE has ever swam across the river where we put the bridge. In fact you can't turn a small motor boat around in it because it will tip right over. I tried and so did everyone else to see how far out we could walk. By joining hands and going down stream a little we got 14 or 15 ft. Everytime we moved a pontoon it took 15 to 20 men to move it upstream where on a slow stream three men can handle it nicely.

In a second letter to his sister, Mrs. Bea Richardson, written at the same time he wrote: The closer to the front we get the harder we work. We put in a bridge in 52 hours and only 34 of it was working. The rest was ducking behind rocks trying to get away from Chinese mortars and artillery. They sure hated to see that bridge go in for it means more dead Chinese.

• • •

AS LONG as I'm a pfc I should be coming home pretty soon. I turned down a corporal's rating two months in a row now so I'd better be getting out soon.

Earl A. Youngs Fete State Realtors Here

Officers of the State and national associations of realty boards were guests of the Earl A. Youngs at a buffet supper Sunday.

The realtors were here while on their six day caravan which took them through most of the state. The caravan was climaxed Monday at Traverse City where they met in an all-day session with the five boards of realtors of northern Michigan.

Mr. Young and his daughter, Mrs. Virginia Dubas attended the Traverse City meeting. Edward F. Lambrecht of Detroit, president of the Michigan Real Estate Association, headed the state officials and Walter F. Perschbacher of Grand Rapids, regional vice-president of the national group, represented national officers.

Weather Holds Key To Summer Prospects

Mrs. Andrew H. Dykes of New York, Hotel hostess, is also returning for her second season.

Johnny DiCicio and his orchestra of Detroit, who were an outstanding success last season, will play for dancing.

Mr. Edwards reports that reservations have been fairly good and if the weather is warm he anticipates a good season at the hotel.

As in the other years most of the cottages are expected to be filled.

The new manager of the Chicago Club is Harold W. Peterson, a veteran of private club and hotel operations for 30 years. For the past several winters, he has operated the Keewaydin club at Naples, Fla. He brings to his new position, a wealth of experience in exclusive club operation.

For 10 years he was manager of the St. Charles Country Club at St. Charles, Ill., and for 12 years was manager of the Inter-Fraternity club in Chicago. He is president of the Chicago district club managers association.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson assumed their duties here June 25.

Chef at the Chicago Club is Francis Bailleul, who is serving his second year. The past winter he was at Pinecrest Lake club at Avon Park, Fla. He has been a chef for more than 40 years.

Chef Bailleul has supervised the cuisine in some of the best-known places in Europe and the United States. He got his start under the famed French chef, Escoffier, often called the world's No. 1 chef.

While in France, Bailleul was chef at the Cafe de Paris and was chef of the Ritz-Carlton Hotels in London, Switzerland and Philadelphia. For 20 years he was chef at Sautter and Son in Philadelphia, one of the east's best restaurants. He came to the United States 38 years ago.

• • •

THE LAKEVIEW HOTEL has been open since June 1 under the management of Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn who are here for their thirteenth season.

Mrs. Fonda Searle of Detroit will manage the dining room and Robert Richards will return as night clerk.

• • •

John Hallett's Hallett House is also open for the season. The hotel provides rooms without meals throughout the year.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. William Butters who are starting their ninth season in Charlevoix have made extensive alterations at their Sunset Lodge on Michigan ave. which will open this week-end.

A new guest lounge overlooking Lake Michigan has been added to the large lodge. Two shuffleboards have been constructed on the east side of the lodge on the Michigan ave. side.

• • •

THE GREY GABLES INN on Belvedere ave. has been open for some time under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dundas.

The dining room where they feature steaks and chicken, home-made rolls and pastries, is their main attraction.

• • •

The Parklane Lodge, on Park ave., formerly known as the Bartlett Hotel, will open July 1 for the 1951 season. Mrs. Marie Edna Mitchell is beginning her sixth season as manager of the popular summer hotel which has 17 rooms in the main building and two cottages which have two apartments and four rooms.

• • •

THE TOWER HOTEL, managed by Mrs. Eva Smith and also located on Park ave., will open July 1.

The hotel proper and its second building overlooking Pine River have 17 rooms. There is also a cottage connected with the hotel.

• • •

The Palmer House on Michigan ave. will be managed by Mrs. Guy Smith, sr. this season and will have only rooms. The dining room will be open for breakfast only.

THIS WILL BE the seventh season for Mr. and Mrs. William Heering at Shady Corner, located at Michigan and Dixon aves.

The dining room, which was enlarged last season to accomodate 50 guests at one time, features home-cooked meals. They also have a few rooms still available.

• • •

The Avondale, on Michigan ave. operated by Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Houston for the sixth year, will open Monday.

The hotel on Lake Michigan includes three cottages and dining room. Mrs. Lucy Hollewell of St. Louis is returning for her sixteenth year as cook.

• • •

The Northern Guest House on Petoskey ave. is open for the season under the management of Mrs. Esther Miller who is starting her seventh season here.

Comfortable rooms with private baths are the feature of this popular rooming house.

The Rainbow cottage on W. Dixon ave. is operated by Mrs. Marie Marshall, a sister of Mrs. Miller. The house on a terrace overlooking Lake Michigan also has rooms.

Mencarelli's Guest Home at 501 East Dixon has been open for several weeks. Its large comfortable rooms appeal to many tourists and resorters.

Mayor John Knight, center, presents identification bracelets to to PFC Lawrence Klooster and Sgt. C. Clair Williams, Korean veterans in recognition of their sacrifices. Korean veterans were honored at a city ceremony Saturday.

Community Pays Tribute to Korean Veterans at Rally Here

As the first rumors of a peace truce in Korea were heard Saturday, Charlevoix officially welcomed home its first Korean War veterans.

More than 500 people gathered in East Park for the civic welcome planned by the city of Charlevoix as a welcome to all Korean veterans even though some have already returned and others are still on the fighting front.

Rev. W. D. Wood, in addressing the group, said "It was a paradox that we are gathered here to honor these veterans and to recognize their full devotion for they do not seek praise, credit or glory. They have the true secret of sacrifice.

• • •

BUT WE MUST say something in recognition of their sacrifice and consecration to a cause."

He went on to say "Greater love hath no man than this . . . That he lay down his life for a friend. These veterans have done this for they have laid down their lives for a friend, for a country, for ideals and the principles of democracy. In this hour we must reconsecrate our lives for the cause for which they gave theirs.

"There will be no peace until this same devotion and consecration is found on the home front."

In speaking of Sgt. Hubert Olach who was killed in action in February he said "This boy played on the peaceful streets of Charlevoix in a happy childhood. He gave his life that other boys may play on these same streets and know the same happy childhood."

In a quote from Father Keller's new book he said "If all communism were lifted immediately from our country, there would still be a great job to do for their would still be the soil in which Communism was given life.

We must also avoid a socalistic form of government for in this men are taught to lean on one another and in so doing lose the ability to stand alone.

• • •

HE CONCLUDED his inspiring talk with an appeal to rededicate and reconsecrate our lives to the great American principles.

Mayor John Knight presented a gift, an identification bracelet engraved with the serviceman's name and with the Inscription "In appreciation Charlevoix the Beautiful 1951" to Sgt. Clair Williams and Pfc. Lawrence Klooster, Cpl. Andrew Essenberg and Pfc. Gerald Russell. Mrs. Andrew

Alderman's Car Given Ticket

Alderman Ralph Hamilton and Harry Gebeau were the objects of the well-known Bronx cheer Monday night.

It happened when the city council met to consider the bills for payment. Among the bills was a police ticket issued for illegal parking.

The ticket was issued on Hamilton's car while the alderman were inspecting parking facilities (so they said). The ticket was allowed after much eye-raising by other aldermen.

Registration Slow for Amateur Golf Tourney

Registrations for the Michigan Amateur Golf tournament scheduled for July 12 through July 15 are coming in slowly, according to Archie L. Livingston who is registrar for the event.

This is not unusual, Mr. Livingston added, because registrations are accepted until Wednesday noon, July 11.

Ben Smith of Detroit, runner-up in the 1948 tournament here, is among the first to register. Among the other top players are Robert Ackerman, Jr., of Bridgeman, Richard Norton and T. R. Schoonback of Grand Rapids.

The field is expected to reach more than 150 before the qualifying rounds start next Thursday. The best 64 scores will qualify for match play which will start Friday.

The Belvedere Hotel will be the headquarters for the tournament.

Auto Mishaps Claim Three Lives in Area

Slippery roads due to heavy rains on black-top highways are being blamed for three fatalities in the Charlevoix area late Tuesday and early Wednesday.

Anson Carpenter, 60, of Central Lake and Gerald Garvelink, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Garvelink sr., of Muskegon were killed in a two car crash on US-31 a half mile south of Eastport at 5:40 p. m. Tuesday. Five others were hospitalized at the Charlevoix hospital.

MARCIA PINNEY, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pinney of East Jordan, was killed outright at 2 a.m. Wednesday when the car in which she was riding went out of control three-fourths of a mile south of the junction of M-32 and M-66.

In the Charlevoix hospital as a result of the accident near Eastport are Gerald Garvelink, 39, driver of one car, and his wife, Gertrude, 37, both of Muskegon, John Kennedy of Central Lake, driver of the second car.

THEY ARE in serious condition. Mr. and Mrs. Garvelink have possible internal injuries and severe lacerations. Kennedy has a possible back injury and internal injuries. The Garvelink daughters, Judy, 11, and Christine, 8, are in fair condition with lacerations and bruises.

Both cars were traveling north on US-31 near the village of Torch Lake at the time of the crash. Sheriff H. E. Tanner, who investigated the accident, said it is believed the first car went into a spin on the slippery highway and was struck by the second car which was following directly behind. Visibility was poor at the time due to heavy rain and fog.

The bodies were taken to the Dockery-Wilhelm funeral home in Elk Rapids.

Gerald Russell Arrives Home From Korea

Pfc. Russell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Russell, had been in Korea since July 10, 1950, when he went to the front with the First Cavalry Division which had been doing occupational duty in Japan.

He was wounded in action twice and taken to Japan for hospitalization. Besides two Purple Heart medals he has the Korean ribbon with stars and the Japanese Occupation ribbon.

He enlisted in the army Dec. 5, 1949 and went to Japan the following April.

Graduates

Jack Geiken, nephew of Miss Caroline Geiken and Cornelius Geiken, received his Master of Arts degree from the Graduate school at Harvard University recently.

Becky Badger, Bill Barker Win Interlochen Music Scholarship

Becky Badger and William Barker have been awarded the Interlochen Music scholarships for 1951, Mrs. E. D. Hawley, chairman of the selection committee has announced.

The scholarship which is provided by contributions from local clubs, pays $50 toward the $67.50 for two weeks at the National Music Camp at Interlochen beginning July 23. The recipient must earn the remainder of the amount.

Becky, daughter of Mrs. Dorothea Badger, plays oboe and Bill, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Barker, plays the euphonium or baritone horn. Both will be seniors next year.

Nancy Ikens and Robert Richards were selected as alternates.

At Interlochen the pair will play with the all-state band under the direction of Dr. William Revelli of the University of Michigan and Kenneth Bovee of Oxford. The band is composed of approximately 130 pieces and presents two Sunday afternoon concerts during the two weeks.

They will receive instruction in their particular instruments and attend classes in various phases of music. They will also receive instruction in a secondary field which may include dramatics, art, ceramics, radio, workshop and other hobbies. They will also participate in a planned recreation program.

Candidates for the scholarships are members of the Charlevoix high school band who are recommended by the director, C. A. Odmark. The final choice is made by the scholarship com-

He graduated from Ellsworth high school in 1946 and enlisted in Marine aviation, serving at Cherry Point, N. C., after serving in the maritime service. His wife, the former Frances Vlick of Miani, Fla., lives with his parents here. They own the Windsock Grill.

Ask Change In Sewage Disposal Levy

A plea that residents not be penalized for sprinkling their lawns was voiced by Probate Judge Floyd Supp at Monday night's city council meeting.

Judge Supp said that he does not believe that a sewage charge of 16 cents per 1,000 gallons should be levied on water which is used for lawn sprinkling. "Let's begin creating good will instead of ill-will", Judge Supp said.

When asked by the council for his suggestions on how to solve the problem, he said: The city should take a survey of the water bills of some 100 or more homes during a three-month period, other than during the summer months, to arrive at a set charge for single, double and multiple dwelling units.

HE POINTED out that the existing charge provides a penalty on a property-owner who wants to keep his lawn in the best manner. Actually, the city might be selling less water than it could if there were no sewage charge on water used for sprinkling.

Utility Superintendent Hal Hill reported that Rathbun-Jones, the company which sold the city two engines for the light plant, is continuing to ask for the $2,500 owed it. The council moved to pay $500 on it monthly until it is paid.

Alderman Charles Bellinger reported that his committee saw no need for moving the tree in East Park is said to be blocking part of the Quality Food Store sign. Robert Neff appeared at the last meeting and offered to pay for the moving expenses.

A discussion was held on the feasibility of having a starting wage for temporary employes set at a lower figure for the first several weeks of employment. No definite action was taken.

The council was told by the mayor that Charles Marshall who has been recovering from an accidental wound, is now back on the job.

Tom Donaldson Gets Apprentice Job

Tom Donaldson, a 1951 graduate of the Charlevoix high school, has been accepted in the apprentice program in the engineering and drawing department of the Saginaw Steering Gear Co., his former instructor, Uno Sounela announced.

He was a four year drawing student in high school.

William Reed, a member of the same class, has accepted a job in tool design in a Grand Rapids plant.

Governor Speaks At Banquet Here On July 19

Governor G. Mennen Williams is slated to appear at a banquet at the Belvedere hotel when the Michigan Committee for Economic Development will meet here for a two-day meeting, July 19-20.

The committee, headed by Dan Gerber of Fremont, is composed of 18 leading industrialists in the state who are attempting to obtain more industrial development for Michigan.

• • •

THE GOVERNOR will speak at a banquet July 19 when the Northwestern industrial group will meet with state leaders for an evening's discussion on the possibility of obtaining more industrial expansion for the area.

Details of the program will be announced in a week or so, Mayor John Knight told the council Monday night.

S. E. Coleman and Mayor Knight attended a meeting of the Northwestern Industrial group at Elk Rapids last week and asked the state group to meet here.

Venetian Court Takes Part in E. Jordan Parade

Charlevoix's Venetian queen, Joan Ward, accompanied by her court exercised the first of her royal duties Wednesday when she and her four attendants rode in a convertible in the East Jordan Homecoming parade.

Her car carried an invitation to visit Charlevoix's Venetian Boat Parade July 29.

Earlier Queen Joan had represented Charlevoix in the National Cherry Queen contest at Traverse City on Friday evening. She was accompanied by S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Board of Commerce and Mrs. Jean Gallagher.

School Asks Two Mills For 1951-52 to Balance Budget

Authorization of a two-mill levy for one year and the approval of the sale of the north side school building will be asked as well as the election of two trustees to the Charlevoix board of education at the annual school election Monday, July 9.

The polls will open at 10 a. m. and close at 8 p. m.

Candidates for the school board trustees are Mayor John Knight and Vern Mathews of Charlevoix township. They seek to replace Harold Withers who elected not to run for the three-year term.

Mrs. Kit Carson is unopposed for a one-year term.

The two-mill levy is needed to permit the balancing of the school budget for next year, Roy G. Bennett, school superintendent, said. He also pointed out that one of the two mills is needed so that the school can qualify for state aid.

AS IT stands now, pending the appeal to the State Tax commission, the schools in the county have been allocated four mills, the same levy as last year. The tax commission last year awarded the schools an additional mill. To date it is not known whether the ruling will be in favor of the schools or not.

In the meantime, the legislature at its session this spring passed a law denying state aid to any school which does not allocate five mills. So the schools in this county face the possibility of not receiving state aid.

Asking for the two mills at the annual election is being done, Mr Benett said, to save the expense of more than $100 for a special election.

Voters will also cast ballots on the sale of the north side school. There have been several offers to buy that from the district in recent months.

City Will Be Host to Regional Softball Play

Charlevoix will be host to the regional softball playoffs as part of the state tournament setup. The regional play will be in the middle of August.

Mayor John Knight who recently was elected chairman of the region which includes all of the upper peninsula said that there will be four teams in Class B and four teams in Class C in the double elimination tournament.

The games will start on a Friday night and will be climaxed Sunday night with winners in the two classes who then advance to the finals in Lansing.

• • •

THERE WILL be 14 games of softball here for the regionals. Exact dates of the regionals will be announced by the Michigan Softball association, whose executives meet here July 14-15.

The district tourney was awarded to Cheboygan. The regional winner will go to Lansing to compete in Class B and the runner-up will compete in Class C.

This region is the largest in Michigan as it includes the upper peninsula, all of northern Michigan as far south as Ludington and as far east as Alpena.

Youth Given Prison Term For Auto Theft

Judge Charles L. Brown, at a special sesion of circuit court here Tuesday, sentenced Albert S. Tyler, 21, of the U. S. Coast Guard Lifeboat station at Beaver Island, to two to three years in the southern Michigan prison for unlawfully driving away a car belonging to Clinton H. Painter of Charlevoix, June 9.

The coastguardsman was in Charlevoix on leave at the time.

Levi Balch, 31, now of Detroit was ordered to pay $871.00 in which he is in arrears for non-support. Ten dollars of the amount was for court costs. If payment of the full amount is not made by July 20 he will have to serve a two to three year sentence for non-support.

Summer Concert Series Started

City Band Boasts Two Musicians With a Century of Experience

Band Director C. A. Odmark, rehearses with the older members of the city band. Left to right are Odmark, Arthur Nettleton, Albert Novotny and Will Bellinger.

The Charlevoix city band directed by C. A. Odmark last night inaugurated its 1951 series of weeklp summer concerts in East Park.

This started another season for this unique musical organization . . unique in that is is one of the few municipal bands still in existence. It is true that many Michigan communities have summer band concerts but usually they are presented by the local high school band.

Charlevoix's band, however, is unusual for still another reason, or rather two reasons, Will Bellinger and Arthur Nettleton, whose combined years of playing with bands round out a century of clarinet playing. Bellinger has played for 59 years and Nettleton for 41 years.

• • •

THESE TWO veterans with several who are mere beginners by comparison with only 20 years service form the nucleus for Charlevoix's city band.

Time was when every town or city had its own municipal band. That was when Mr. Bellinger first played with a group known as Jarvis' Boys band in 1892. That was when he was 11 years old and since then he's played a lot of clarinet with bands of every description from dance bands, country style, to

Mrs. Alice B. Wilson, wife of John P. Wilson of Chicago, and Chicago Club resident here for many years, died Thursday at her home following a long illness.

Funeral services were held at St. Chrysostroms church, Chicago, at 2:30 p.m. Monday with burial in Rosehill cemetery.

Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Albert Keep, two step-children, John P. Wilson, Jr. and Mrs. Cynthia W. Compton; one brother, Edmund Burke and a sister, Mrs. Donald S. Clark.

Money Order Setup Changed at Postoffice

The U. S. postal department has changed its money order set-up. Peter H. Tanner, acting postmaster here, reports that the new punched card money order is issued more quickly and paid more conveniently.

No specific postoffice is named for payment as it may be cashed at any postoffice or bank.

Persons having money orders are asked not to fold, staple, or mutilate them.

Voters Asked for Opinions on School Issue

School district voters are urged to return their replies to the school board's letter on the four proposals, aimed to alleviate overcrowding of the high school building.

The letter to the voters who cast ballots in the recent election when they turned thumbs down on a new building plan, appears to be a logical way to attack the overcrowding problem.

A number of citizens feel that the school board should have sent this letter before the election in an effort to determine what the district taxpayers want to pay for in the next few years.

The answer to that question will never be given. It is unimportant at this date and would not serve any useful purpose. The important thing is that the voters spoke out in a vehement fashion against the proposed plan.

It speaks well of the board of education to continue efforts to relieve overcrowding, despite a reversal to their original plan. They continue to labor on behalf of the children who must be protected by all means at the disposal of the board.

The letter to the voters gives them a chance to give their opinion on four proposals. They include:

A bond issue not to exceed $250,000 for an additional four rooms on the existing elementary building for the seventh and eighth grades; a metal and woodworking shop, and music room adjacent to the present high school. This would be a one story building.

Establishment of a building and site fund this year and continue until at least one-half of the money is raised for a new high school building. This would take approximately eight years with an eight-mill levy.

Bond for enough to build a complete new elementary building on Kipke field and special rooms on the present site to be used with the present elementary building for the high school.

Regardless of the overcrowding school and lack of room for classes, the school should get along with the present facilities it now has.

The voters are asked to vote for their first and second choices. The board will seriously weigh the response in planning the next step.

It's a democratic way of determining what is wanted by the taxpayers who in the final analysis pay the bills for the school. At least there are several alternatives offered the taxpayers. It's up to them to decide what they want the school board to do.

More -- More -- And Still More

It took a Republican—Representative Paul W. Shafer of Michigan—to show the extent of Truman spending:

From 1789 to 1933, when Roosevelt first took office, the Government spent $112,203,367,065.

By 1945 the Government had spent an additional $372,235,200,271.

During the past six years under Truman the Government has spent $266,077,122,621.

The budget and authorizations requested by Truman for the fiscal year beginning July 1 now total nearly $100,000,000,000.

The Truman Administration still has another request to make—for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1952.

At this rate, the Truman Administration, even without a total war, will spend more in eight years than Roosevelt did in 12.

At this rate, the Truman Administration will spend almost as much as the grand total of all other administrations combined from the time of George Washington!

Voice of Our Readers . . .

Editor of the Courier:

As a taxpayer I am not in favor of any more taxes or going any more in debt at present when prices are so high.

Building material and labor are all to high.

We got along with the present school so long we can get along a little longer until prices come down.

Now if they have to have more room, fix up the school building on Petoskey ave., and that will give two or three more rooms.

Our taxes are over one-half school tax. What will it be if we go in debt.

H. E. Coblentz

From looking over the proposistion of the school board, as to what the voters would vote for I don't believe there is anything mentioned that they would go for.

I would like to suggest a seven mill levy for ten years that should raise about three hundred thousand dollars. To be used for an addition to the present site. Either to extend across Grant Street, or go east, parallel with the Gymnasium. And to be two story and basement. Which should give eight rooms, with woodworking and metal shop in the basement.

It would be nice to hear what our summer visitors who are also taxpayers think of the issue at hand.

I do not think that there are many people that don't think that something is needed. If we can just get them together on something that is agreeable to all.

Sincerely,
Harry Gebeau

Several good games were played last week as the teams are playing better ball with fewer errors. Silver Birches held on to first place by beating an improved Parsels' team 8 to 3. B. Potter struck out 9 men as he held the garage boys to two hits.

Cadillac-Olds who are capable of giving any team a battle if they are in the mood, out-hit Mailhots but dropped a 5 to 16 ball game.

PARSELS UPSET Mailhots 13 to 9 by scoring all their runs in the first three innings. Mailhots came back to score 8 times in the fifth but the lead was too much to overcome.

The feature of the week brought the two outstanding pitchers of the league together when Silver Birches tangled with Sees. Al Dorrow, now pitching for Sees, was bested by Bob Potter as Silver Birches dropped them into third place 5 to 2. Potter held Sees hitless until the sixth when D. Carey doubled and Chick Gallagher singled for their only hits and runs of the game. Al Dorrow, quarterback on Michigan States football team showed plenty of stuff and will make it plenty tough for the rest of the teams for the rest of the season.

ELLSWORTH HDW. handed Freedmans their fourth straight setback 20 to 5. Bob Klooster hit his second home run of the season over the left field fence.

The U. S.C. G. scored in every inning to beat down the boys from Cadillac-Olds 10 to 5.

The Junior League is tightening up, each team having lost at least once. Charlevoix Oil jumped on the Lions for a 17 to 1 win. Bob Morrow pitched a two hitter for the Oil boys. Kiwanis lost their first game when Atwood edged them 8 to 6. Then Charleviox Oil knocked Atwood out of first place with a 15 to 10 beating. Bob Doctor hit the first home run of the year for the Juniors, driving the ball into the lake for the Atwood boys.

The Kiwanis and Lions staged a real battle with the Kiwanis edging their rivals 12 to 11. The Lions also dropped their second one run game to Ellsworth 7 to 6.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Gene Allaman
Lansing Observer for Michigan Press Association

No one can say Fred M. Alger, Jr., doesn't profit by his mistakes. He already has tossed the Alger sombrero into the ring for the gubenatorial race of 1952.

In 1950 Alger hemmed and hawed too long before getting into the running and Kelly beat him out by a nose in the primary.

What of Williams? He says he likes being governor and that at the present time he expects to be in there fighting. His aides state flatly, "He'll run."

Governor Williams welcomed the annual convention of the National Association of Tax Administrators to Mackinac Island by reciting the details of the state's financial troubles and dumping the blame on the Republican controlled legislature.

"The governor spanked us publicly and called in the neighbors to watch," said Rep. Roy H. Brigham (R-Battle Creek), while others stormed that Williams' remarks were "entirely out of place at a gathering like this."

But Williams made his point.

SOME REPUBLICAN legislative leaders have estimated that only $20 million was needed for the coming fiscal year. These spokesmen are in disagreement with Auditor General John B. Martin of Grand Rapids, avowed candidate for the United States Senate, who recently predicted a substantial treasury deficit of upwards to $60 million by June 30, 1952.

Most observers forecast an increase in the treasury deficit in the new fiscal year starting July, 1951. Thus the pressure is due to mount for additional tax revenues to finance public services of the state and local governments. Among the discussed new sources are a corporation profit tax, as advocated by the Governor; an industrial processing tax, such as the proposed 3 percent levy on purchase of industrial equipment; an amendment of the state constitution permitting a state income tax on individuals and corporations; and a federal constitutional amendment limiting federal taxation to five percent of the national income, thus permitting local and state governments to recapture part of revenues now going to Washington.

Says Auditor General Martin, "Federal encroachment on every available field of taxation threatens the very existance of our state governments."

Martin was addressing the Michigan Law Institute. All sources of revenue for the state are being milked dry by federal taxes, he told his audience.

CROW, ROBINS and blackbirds in the upper peninsula stuffed themselves for several weeks on the caterpillar plague which stripped trees on over a half million acres. The worms have left, the trees will survive and the birds are happy.

Michigan's 1951 sour cherry crop is expected to go 83,000 tons. If this estimate is realized is will be 10,000 tons below 1950's record yield.

As summer begins in earnest, Michigan conservation officials again open their endless campaign to halt forest fires. But on the practical side of it, eight more tractor-tankers are under construction.

A Wayne county farmer sold a load of hay he represented as weighing 19,920 pounds. The load was 11, 643 pounds short, costing a riding academy $116 says Miles A. Nelson of the State Agriculture Department, "And $116 ain't hay".

A survey of northern breeding areas shows a decrease of 10 to 30 percent in sharptail grouse and prairie chickens.

• • •

DISGRUNTLED Michigan motorist and tourists will be happy to know that 200,000 more state maps are being distributed. Already 300,000 have been given out.

Commissioner Donald S. Leonard of the Michigan State Police has gone on record as favoring legislation to permit wire tapping by law enforcement agencies. "Properly used," he said, "It would be a detriment to gamblers and racketeers."

Insubordination seems to be a bigger reason for dismissal than inefficiency.

Poor eyesight won't get you out of the army nowadays. They just put you up front where you can see better.

'Tis said that the proposed H-Bomb is more potent than any yet conceived. Reason: It's an A-Bomb dipped in Hadacol.

Judging from the number engaged in it, the day must have passed when crime doesn't pay.

One thing can be said for multi-married women, they are well groomed.

Tomorrow's weather is on the wires today for the forces which guard the nation's skies and shores.

Today the largest Long Distance network of its kind brings them detailed "isobar" weather charts around the clock.

These charts are sent by a system known as "facsimile" from the Weather Analysis Center in Washington, D. C. There, an electric eye scans the weather "picture" as it turns on a special drum. The signal waves produced go out over thousands of miles of wire to military installations throughout the country where the picture is automatically reproduced.

This weather network was designed and completed in less than two years. It's another demonstration of the importance of Long Distance lines to the security of the nation — especially right now, when there may be stormy weather ahead.

To help speed your Long Distance call, please give the operator the out-of-town telephone number.

Telephone lines are busy with national defense.

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

It's wild strawberry time on Beaver Island The berries are delicious and well developed and the vines are loaded. Parties of berry pickers are out every dap in the countryside making a day of it and taking their lunch along.

Cora Dunn, our hygienist, is an enthusiastic berry picker, before and after work, she's out picking and she's been canning the berries, too.

Lizzie Mooney spent a whole day out picking berries. At the end of the day, the berries were cleaned and sugared down to be canned Lizzie, in the manner of all cooks, tasted the berries to see if there was enough sweetness, but instead of smacking her lips over the taste, she gulped and ran for the water. She had poured salt all over the berries instead of sugar.

Edward Deschermeier Marks 14th Birthday

Music was furnished by Joseph and Edward Deschermeier. Refreshments were served by his mother and aunt, Mrs. C. L. Todd. He received many gifts.

Meyers-Randall Wedding Rites Solemnized By Rev. Wood at Albert Edwards Home

A bay window flanked by baskets of garden flowers formed the setting for the wedding of Mrs. Susie Meyers and Cecil Randall, both of Ann Arbor, at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edwards, Saturday afternnnn.

The couple exchanged their marriage vows before the Rev. W. D. Wood in the presence of 75 guests. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Fred Willis Played two accordian solos. The bridal party entered the room to the strains of Lohegrin's Bridal Chorus and Mendelssohn's Mid-summer Night's Dream.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Joseph R. Williams, selected a gown of pink nylon sheer, brown accessories and a corsage of pink carnations and sweetpeas for her wedding.

Sister's Attendant

Mrs Edwards was her sister's only attendant. She chose a pink linen gown and navy accessories. Her corsage was also of pink carnations and sweetpeas.

Mr. Edwards assisted the bridegroom as best man.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony. Roses decorated the refreshment table which held the tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Mrs. Walter Williams and Mrs. Lottie Tunath, of Ironton and Mrs. Will Williams of Sioux Lookout, Ont., aunts of the bride presided at the refreshment table.

After a wedding trip through western Michigan they plan to return here for the week-end before going to Ann Arbor to make their home.

Among those from away who came for the wedding were Mrs. Eva Walch of Hazel Park, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Meyers and Mr. and Mrs Versal Shearer of Ann Arbor Mr. George Neebes and sons, David and Don of Davison Elmer Randall of Mesick, Mrs. John Nordrum and son, Mark and daughter, Sonja of Sebewaing, Judith White of Ontonagon and Sgt. Clair Williams who was en-route to Fort-Riley, Kan. .

Three Persons Here Observe Anniversaries

Three major anniversaries were celebrated earlier this week by well-konwn Charlevoix people.

On Tuesday, July 3, Mr. and Mrs. George Meggison observed their fifty-eighth wedding anniversary. Mr. Meggison who has resided in this area for III years and Mrs. Meggison, the former Edith Phelps of Norwood, who has resided here for 70 years, were married in Charlevoix and have always resided in this community. They have lived in Charlevoix proper for nine pears.

They spent the day quietly with relatives and friends paying calls.

On July 4 Mr. and Mrs Ben Yettaw observed their fifty-third wedding anniversary. The couple were married here and lived at Atwood for several years before moving into Charlevoix. Mrs. Yettaw is the former Mary Supernaw.

The couple spent the day quietly.

John O'Brien, father of Mrs. William Gibson, was ninety-seven years old July 4 He now lives at the Charlevoix convalescent home. He reads without glasses, enjoys life as much as always.

City Band Starts Summer Season Here

orchestras and municipal bands. He is undisputed dean of musicians in Charlevoix's present band.

Playing with him this year are two of his grandchildren, Dwight Smith, clarinetist and 1951 graduate, and Barbara Smith, flutist. Two other grandsons, Joe and Don Bellinger, once played in the city band with him.

When not playing with the band he operates a novelty store which he purchased from Ray Faulkner in 1901 where he sells, you guessed it, music and musical instruments.

Nettleton, the second oldest band mamber in years of sarvice, is also a native of Charlevoix and a former student of Mr. Bellinger's. In 1910 he purchased his first clarinet from Mr. Bellinger and right then and there becama his pupil.

He recalls how the band used to use the old Opera House for a practice hall and on occasion used the second and third floors of the old Ayres building on Bridge st. and the second floor of his father's barn located in the alley behind what is now Mont's cafe.

* * *

IN 1914 he left Charlevoix and worked in Detroit and Chicago and when World War I came along he enlisted. He served in the infantry for a short time before joining the 337th Infantry band. He went to Europe with this band and after the war played in Paris and London.

It was while he was at Fort Custer that he played under the great director, Bohumir Kryl.

The wanderlust hit him after the war and he did a bit of traveling, playing with this circus band and that carnival band and seeing a lot of country. He recalls how the owner of one circus deserted them in Arkansas because of the debts and he and two other musicians decided to operate it. They left before long because there were too many sheriffs following htem. It was a lot of fun, he relates, but not much money so he sought more lucrative fields.

HE RETURNED here early in the 1930s and played for a short time with the band which had just been re-organized. Again during World War II the band was disbanded and he went to Detroit where he was employed until 1946. It was while there that he studied for three years with Albert Laconi, former first clarinetist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The Charlevoix city band was re-organized in 1946 and he rejoined it.

Since his return he has been employed as custodian at the Charlevoix county court house.

Both men, like all other members of the band, contribute their time and talents to the band, rehearsing weekly throughout the year and playing weekly concerts during the summer.

* * *

IN ALL there are about 38 players in the band including such veterans as Ho Helms, cornetist, who is said to be one of its most faithful members, Pat Moran, trombone, Clifford Riley bass and Albert Novotny, drums and business manager.

The band welcomes back each summer graduates of the local high school who look forward to returning home and playing with the band. Among these are Doug Byers, clarinet; Frank Partridge, flute; Bob Shanahan, trombone; Bruce Shanahan, bass; Nick Hamilton and Bob Bartlett, drums; Roger Sweet, alto clarinet; June Guild, tenor sax and Marilyn Blissett, baritone sax.

TWO 1951 graduates are also on the roster. They are Dwight Smith and Viola Anderson who plays alto sax.

The remainder of the band is composed of outstanding players of the high school band, Barbara Bice and Barbara Smith, flutes; Becky Badger, oboe; Faye Meggison, bassoon; Carolyn Smith, Dorothy Allers, Leona Scott, Milford Saunders and Clara Miles, clarinets; Amy Kipke, alto sax; Victor Gibbons, bass clarinet; Dorie Nielsen, Charles Krabnke, Marilyn Bulow, Jon Henry and Charles Donaldson, cornets; Jean Swanson, Nancy Ikens and Betty Gill, horns; Jack Paul and Bill Barker, baritones; Tom Bleha, trombone; Art Taylor, bass and Bob Richards, drums.

The Charlevoix band is supported financially by the city. The financial aid pays the director's salary and such expenses as hauling, new music incidental supplies and the occasional purchase of a new instrument.

It is pointed out that the players themselves receive nothing but the satisfaction of presenting to the people of Charlevoix and its summer visitors a series of well-planned and executed concerts. In order to adequately pay the players in the band plus the other expenses would require a budget of nearly $6,000, almost five times the present appropriation.

The summer concerts will be presented at 8:30 p. m. each Wednesday throughout the summer months.

Atlantic Guest House Opens For Summer

The Atlantic Guest House, owned and operated by J. Berns of Detroit, is open for the second year at 309 Dixon avenue. He specializes in Jewish-American food. The home, completely refurnished and remodeled, also has several rooms for the traveling public.

Miss Glenda Maxwell, 19, presided over Fourth of July festivities as Miss Rainbow City at East Jordan yesterday. Leaden skies and a drizzle marred the annual celebration featuring many activities.

Two East Jordan Men To Be Inducted

The names of the two Charlevoix county men who will leave here July 16 for induction into the armed services were released by the Charlevoix county draft board.

They are Floyd H. Allen and Walter L. Fales, both of East Jordan.

They have been instructed to report at the court house here at 8 a. m. Monday, July 16, for transportation to the Detroit induction center.

The county's draft call for August has been set for one man.

Mable Bingham Feted On Eighth Birthday

Little guests who gathered for games and refreshments were Marilyn, Jeanette and Nacy Novak, Barbara Tooley of Boyne City, Lynette Mayne, Sandra Tuomela, Cynthia Holley, Julie Smith and Janice Burns.

Couple Honored on Wedding Anniversary

Eighteen relatives and friends honored Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burnett of Walloon Lake on their first wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deschermeier at Bay Shore June 29.

The table was beautifully decorated with bouquets of roses. A large wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered the table. Refreshments were served and a mock wedding featured the entertainment.

A Friendly Message to Jewish Folks

Here on South Torch Lake (America's Most Beautiful) we would like the privilege of showing you our very interesting and much copied model dream ranch home.

It is nearly new but illness necessitates a sale. You will like it here, and we can also provide sufficient wooded vacant sites for a large group. In addition, some nice homes and business are available to you.

May we have a visit from you? If unable to come will mail picture and description upon request. Quick possession will be given. Come from Charlevoix on U.S. 31 to Eastport, then along east side of Torch via Alden and then 2½ miles around to south end of lake. Watch for large sign on lawn.

This really is your opportunity and I will be pleased to show you the area and provide the necessary information.

Sincerely,
F. H. Ladd, Alden, Mich.

Lead Spray May Poison Livestock

When you're spraying with materials containing lead arsenate, take care in places where livestock feeds. This caution comes from Ray Hutson, head of the Michigan State College entomology department.

Hutson states that spraying trees and pasture or where livestock can feed on forage beneath sprayed trees is risky, Numerous cases of livestock fatalities can be attributed to lead poisoning. He recommends no spraying with lead arsenate in pastures, nor should cattle be pastured in a sprayed orchard if lead arsenate has been used there.

Many of the newer insecticides are also poisonous to livestock, Hutson says.

Michigan Amateur Golf Tournament July 12-15

The Belvedere Golf Course, one of the finest resort courses in the middle west, will be the scene of the Michigan Amateur Golf Tourney July 12-13-14 and 15.

The four-day tournament attracts the cream of the state's amateur golfers and will be one of the high points of the summer golf season.

The tournament attracts golfers and fans from several states who come here to see some of the nation's crack amateur golfers. The Belvedere is rated a difficult course even for the tournament golfers.

The tourney opens Thursday, July 12 with the 18-hole qualifying round for medal play. The best 64 scores will qualify for the match play.

The first and second rounds will be played Friday with the third and fourth rounds scheduled for Saturday.

The semi finals and finals will be played off Sunday.

Summer visitors and others interested in golf are invited to witness the tourney.

It will be a wonderful opportunity to watch some expert golfers compete in a tournament highlight.

101 Boys, Girls In County Attend Annual 4-H Camp

A total of 101 4-H boys and girls closed their 4-H camp last Friday at the Church of God camp grounds. There were 39 boys and 62 girls in attendance at camp.

Tuesday was registration day and the weather was extremely wet. The picnic and treasure hunt planned for the day was canceled and other games were played and movies were shown instead. Wednesday was parents night. A total of 165 parents and other members of the family attended the program. This included some mouth organ solos and accordian solos and some group singing by the members themselves. Two movies were shown to the group. Following this the candle lighting ceremony was held with the members participating after which refreshments of ice cream, candy and pop were served. Bill Grimm, farm planner, was present during the morning and took the boys on a field trip in soil conservation.

Thursday, Charles Schick, extension specialist in game management from Michigan State College, was present and gave the boys and girls some training in wild life, forestry and conservation. The group also went swimming on both Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. The evening was completed by a treasure hunt and the showing of some more movies. On Friday afternoon, the group broke camp.

Many of the games, kitchen duty and other camp activities were under the direction of the four councilors of East Jordan. These four councilors were Alice Gibbard, Mary Ann DeForest, Ethel Murphy and Kay Sinclair.

Miss Emma Fero, home demonstration agent was in charge of the menu and also the girls program. K. C. Festerling, 4-H club agent was in charge of the boys and their program. Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent, was camp manager. The 4-H clubs are deeply indebted to the Church of God for the use of their camp, also to the Charlevoix High School for furnishing buses to transport the members to the Charlevoix beach, and the Boyne City Gas Company furnished the bottled gas to operate the kitchen.

Ed Shanahan Buys 34 Herefords at Afton

The purchase of 34 head of Hereford cattle, all two-year-olds, from Bernard Wines of Afton was announced by Edward Shanahan, Charlevoix.

The animals weigh about 800 pounds each. This is another addition to his herd of cattle. He purchased the first 20 head of Herefords from a Kansas City herd late last year. He also has a registered Hereford bull, Aguam President VIII, and two months ago purchased J. Annie Domino, a registered cow and a bull calf, Rosebush.

He reports some 15 calves from the original Kansas City cattle. He also purchased two calves with his latest addition to the herd.

Extracting Honey

The honey extractor is a machine which removes honey from the comb by centrifugal force. These extractors are manufactured with a capacity of two to 50 frames. A two- frame extractor, with baskets that can be reversed without removing the combs, is large enough to take care of at least twenty colonies.

Take Steps to Prevent Slump In Milk Output

Hot weather, flies, and poor pastures are a combination that causes milk production to drop during this season of the year, Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent stated today. Once the slump has occured it is difficult to regain an increase in milk production.

In most instances, this supplementary feed would be provided at lowest cost by planning a pasture program that includes a grass or legume that will grow and yield sufficient feed to maintain milk production throughout the summer and fall. If the pasture is not available, then sufficient hay, grain or silage should be fed to keep up production. Many dairymen are putting up some grass silage for feeding the dairy herd during July, August, and September. Another common practice is to have a rack of hay available to the herd. Though herd owners estimate their pastures to be pretty good, it is quite surprising how much hay will be eaten in addition to the pasture. It is not so important what is fed, but rather to feed sufficient amounts of hay, grain, or silage to maintain the milk flow.

Planning Cuts Building Costs

Farm families with plans for building a new home may be wondering how they can cut some costs and still have the home they want. Ted Brevik, Michigan State College agricultural engineer, has some tips that may save many dollars on the job.

First, he advises that the family have a complete plan for the whole construction job even though some items may have to be postponed. This will help to prevent adjustments later on.

1. Use stock building materials.
2. Use home-grown materials whenever possible.
3. Use farm equipment for hauling, excavating, and grading.
4. Do some of the building yourself, especially if you can hire a skilled person to direct the work. The job may take longer if you do a lot of the work yourself but under the direction of a skilled carpenter, a lot of work at a lower cost can be accomplished.

How much should be spent for the house is another problem which sometimes puzzles farm families. Brevik says that the decision should be based on a number of considerations.

It is necessary to balance the problems of financing. If income is low, it may be necessary to defer or even sacrifice some of the housing plans in order to take care of the necessities.

Long-time earnings must be considered in planning finances. Part of the cost of housing is justified by its contribution to the farm business. It provides a home for the operator, accommodates for farm workers and a place to process and store foods.

Dairy Cattle Neglect Causes Breeding Trouble

Dairy cows should not be neglected during the rush of spring and summer field work, says George Parsons, Michigan State College extension dairyman.

Breeding troubles are likely to occur if cows are not closely watched. Many times busy farmers do not see the cow when she comes to heat, or may notice her and are too busy to call the inseminator-manager.

Parsons advises getting a breeding calendar to be placed in a conspicuous place on the farm. Keep the records on this breeding chart up to date. Don't wait until next week or when it rains to fill out the record.

A good practice is to spend some time observing the cattle in the morning when they are turned out. More than half of the cows will be noticed in heat at this time of day. It is a good time to observe the condition of the herd.

Keep the heifers growing steadily and breed to freshen about 24 to 26 months of age.

Make use of the breeding record by watching the chart. It is very easy to determine the next heat period if you know the date of the last one. This chart will tell you within one day, on all normal heat periods, when to be a little more observant. With a lot of summer work, it is much easier to detect the heat period and determine the correct breeding time if you are forewarned.

Planning on the part of the farmer and a desire to see the breeding plan work will eliminate many breeding troubles due to management, Parsons believes.

Cultivation Will Control Quack Grass

Quack grass is one of the big farm problems in Michigan, D. L. Clanahan, farm crops extension specialist, says the the best and most economical way to rid a field of the obnoxious grass is through summer following.

Late June or early July, as soon as the hay is removed, is the time Clanahan recommends that farmers start working the fields with a field cultivator. The grass is the weakest right after it is cut and the weather is usually warm and dry.

By working the field first in one direction and then the other with about a week between cultivations the roots and stems are brought to the surface. The heat and wind finally take the life from them after six to eight weeks.

The dead material should be left in the field as organic matter and worked into the soil, the crops authority relates. About August 15, fall rye, well-fertilized with a commercial fertilizer, can be planted. It can be used as a fall and early spring pasture, then turned under for a green manure crop and the field is ready for crops the following summer.

ORCHARD NOTES

By Claude Fairman

A prominent cherry packer and canner called on me recently to offer 11 cents a pound for sweet cherries and 13 cents for sour cherries.

In receiving cherries at the factory, our best varieties are held for the fresh fruit market. For maraschino cherries, Napoleons are liked the best. Napoleons are often called Queen Annes, Royal Annes etc.

For this variety, the cherries are picked a little on the green side. These cherries are often called brine cherries as they are put into barrels of brine to keep for future processing and bottling.

At this vantage point, it would appear there is a good crop of sweets in this area and a light crop in other sections of the state. This will result in a stronger price at the canning factory and a better price for our fresh fruit in the larger cities.

As a word of caution cherry growers should not have their young trees banked up by tillage tools especially on heavy land as the roots need air.

If a portion of your trees are not growing as a satisfactory rate, remove the earth at a lower level than the natural land level. For deer damage, you can obtain a killing permit from the game warden. Growers needing cherry lugs will be pleased to know that they are being manufactured in Charlevoix and East Jordan.

Portable Shelters For Hogs Offer Many Advantages

Portable shelters for hogs offer farmers many advantages, according to James Boyd, agricultural engineer at Michigan State college.

Farmers know, he points out, that it is recommended by some hog men to arrange pastures so they can be used every other year or every third year. This can be done with a permanent house, but many advantages are found with smaller temporary units.

The portable houses are less expensive to construct and farmers can get in and out of the hog business without having an expensive building to stand idle. It is also easier to vary the number of hogs kept. Portable houses are easy to build, too.

The "A" type house is preferred by many farmers but is hard to clean. The agricultural engineer reports. It is often difficult to keep the sides fastened to the floor.

Plans for hog houses that employ the latest in building design are available from Michigan State college. For details, see your county agricultural agent or write to the Agricultural Engineering Department, Michigan State college, E. Lansing, Michigan.

Kill Those Flies

Yes, the Co-Op has the stuff to do it.

Cooper's Stock Spray

Contains Pyrenone. It's deadly on stable flies, horn flies, lice, fleas and mosquitos.

Also Unico Stock Spray. A good all-around spray. It has quick effect on the flies and other insects.

Sweet Sudan Grass

A planting of Sweet Sudan Grass will help you solve your summer pasture problem. Farmers who have used this grass are enthusiastic about its growth in hot weather when other pastureland fails to produce. Now is the time to plant buck wheat and emergency hay.

Dow Weed Killers

For best control of broad leaf weeds in oats and corn, farm authorities recommend Dow weed killer. If you never have used this, you will be amazed as to its effectiveness on broad leaf weeds.

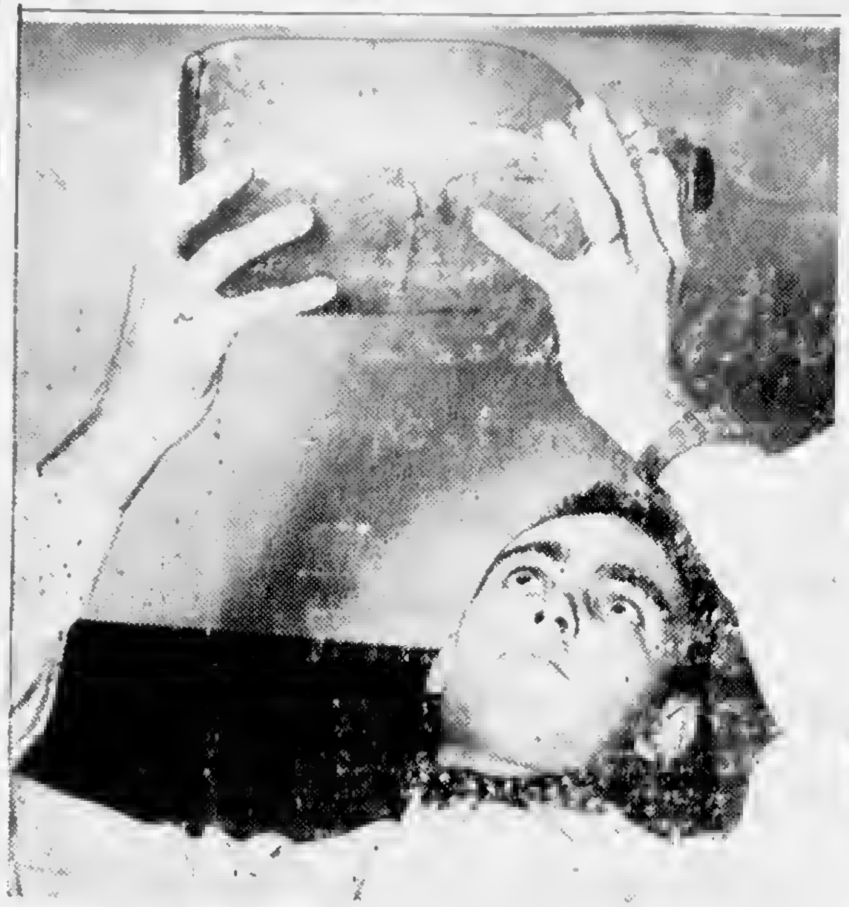
Jugs of TB Bugs Aid U-M Research



That's not a jug of cider being examined by Dr. Donald W. Smith of the University of Michigan Medical School's Department of Bacteriology. It's a jug containing enough live toberculosis germs to infect 2,000,000 people. Dr. Smith, a native of Flint, is growing the TB germs in a laboratory where careful precautions are taken to confine the germs to research uses. They are being used in research aimed at developing a new chemical substance to prevent tubercotosis. The research is sponsored by Parke, Davis and Company, the United States Public Health Service and the Veterans Administration.

What's Doing at Camp Charlevoix

Boys from all over the country assembled at Camp Charlevoix on Saturday, June 30, for the start of the Silver Anniversary year of the camp. Boys are enrolled from Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Iowa, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Missouri, Ohio and Michigan. All places in the camp are taken and the season got off to a good start.

Much excitement prevailed all day as boys arrived by car, by train, by plane, and when the bus pulled into camp from Detroit, everyone was ready to greet the boys.

The camp is owned and directed by Mr. and Mrs. Ken W. Smith of Grosse Pointe. The staff this year comes from all over the country, too, with 17 different colleges or universities being represented on the staff. This year also finds the largest number of college graduates on the staff, there being nine men who hold college degrees.

• • •

HARRY BINGHAM, of Charlevoix, is back as business manager for his thirteenth year. Don Dannecker, graduate of Dennison University is program director and starts his third year. Sam Sargeant, graduate of the University of Michigan, is assistant business manager. Joe and Helen Shaw, of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, are back as the cooks, being ablely assisted in the kitchen by Mrs. Ellen Umlor of Charlevoix, Bob Berkley of Albion, Bill Gearhart of East Detroit, and three boys from Grosse Pointe, Hank Hubbard, Tom Lister, and Dick Scales.

The riding department is headed up by Ron Geis of Oklahoma A. & M., Merle Jenkins of Michigan State, and Frank Smith of Albion. Claude "Tex" Johnson, who is the camp tutor, and teaches school in Texas, will assist also in the riding.

• • •

WEBB WILSON, University of Michigan, will start his third year at Charlevoix and head up the senior section. Chuck McKean, University of Michigan and Wayne University, will start his fifth year as a staff man and head up the intermediate section, Harry Bigelow, Michigan State, is in charge of the junior section and will teach fishing.

Al Dorow, Michigan State quarterback on last year's great team, will head the athletic department. He will be assisted by Jerry DeFries, graduate of Cornell college and captain of last years football team. Joe Lester, Jim Ball and Chuck Curtis are here from Florida State University. John Jackson, Princeton University, will head up the waterfront program.

Bill Cameron, graduate of Michigan State and now at the University of Michigan will teach canoeing. Other men on the staff are Chuck Hickey of Michigan State, Ken Nyquist of Wayne University, Doug Walker of Michigan Normal, Dean Smith, graduate of Albion college, is head of the handicraft department. Larry Cope of Miami University and Bob Price of Denison University, complete the counselling staff.

Sunday morning the season started off with the church service at which time the camp director, Ken Smith, spoke on "Growing Up". In the afternoon, the boys had physical exams and swimming tests. Vesper services were held in all sections on Sunday night.

"Once Again We Come Together", a favorite camp song has been echoed in the camp, and everyone is here for a summer of fun and learning to live together.

Fly Control On Farm Takes Plenty of Effort

Fly control is no easy job around the farm, but sanitation and use of recommended spray materials can make it less difficult, Ray Janes, Michigan State College entomologist explains.

Sanitation means getting rid of all places where flies breed. Janes says unless breeding places are done away with, it is doubtful that spray materials will do the control job. Before starting to use spray materials he suggests manure piles, damp areas, calf pens and all such areas be thoroughly cleaned up.

Present regulations are against use of DDT in the dairy barns. Lindane or methoxychlor will give good control of flies in barns, Janes reports. Ten pounds of 25 per cent wettable lindane powder or 40 pounds of 50 per cent wettable methoxychlor powder in 100 gallons of water is the right strength. Janes says it should be applied in a coarse spray, but not in quantities that will run off the walls. Care should be taken not to spray feeds, watering cups or mangers.

For treating outside walls or pig pens, DDT may be used at the rate of 40 pounds of 50 per cent wettable DDT powder to 100 gallons of water. Chlordane, at a rate of 16 pounds of 50 per cent wettable powder for 100 gallons of water may also be used. Lindane, mixed the same as for inside use, is also effective.

Janes says farmers find lindane a bit more satisfactory than methoxychlor for inside use and some have mixed the two for good control.

Alger Clubs in County Will be Formed

Organization of "Alger for Governor" clubs in Charlevoix county will be formed after Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., announced that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor in the 1952 primary election.

"For more than two years, the people have been entertained by a one-ring political circus at Lansing," he said. "It is time the clowning stopped. The problems facing the people are more important than the selfish ambitions of a few men.

Alger declared he will enlist the aid of "good people everywhere to give Michigan a responsible and morally honest administration."

A state-wide organization to support Alger is being formed. Alger said that he will name a campaign manager and disclose his platform soon.

Motor Vehicles

By 1940, motor vehicles in the U. S. accounted for nearly nine out of ten passenger-miles of travel outside of cities.

CSO Now Sending Courier to Some 77 Local Men in Service

The Charlevoix Service organization which finances and arranges for send-off packages for all draftees leaving Charlevoix county for the service as well as sending the Charlevoix Courier to local boys and girls in the service has collected a total of $173.21, Ralph S. Hamilton, C. S. O. chairman has announced.

Expenses have been $49.19 leaving a balance of $124.02.

Contributors to date have been the V. F. W., American Legion, V. F. W. Auxiliary, Barnard Grange, Pine Lake Lodge No. 122 K.P., American Legion Auxiliary, Guild of Lutheran Women, Margaret Erber, Larry Swenson, Mrs. Charles Bellinger, Dick O'Neill, Ray Kipke, Hubert Paddock, and Burr Blanchard.

Stewart Coleman, Myer Levinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bice, Harold Withers, Carl Kohler, Mary J. Freedman, John E. Boss, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bennett, E. W. Miller, Henry C. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Hull and family, Mr. nnd Mrs. Reuben Pearl, Andrew Miller.

Earlier this spring the CSO asked for the names and addresses of local serviceman and women who are in the service so that the Courier could be sent to them. At the present time some 77 are receiving the paper.

If you want your serviceman to receive the paper leave his address at the Courier office and ask that the paper be sent to him through the CSO.

No man leaving through Selective Service has left this county without a gift from the obove donors through the CSO.

Boyne City and East Jordan have offered contributions to the above fund and on receipt of these a fund will be established for send-off packages to selectees and the balance will become a fund for sending the local newspaper to the boys and girls in the service.

Contributions may be given to the Charlevoix Service Organization at the Charlevoix County State Bank.

Helpful Hints Given for Safe Home Canning

Can fruits and vegetables in tip-top condition, only.

Be sure that everything used in canning is thoroughly clean . . the food, canner, jars, holders, towels and other equipment.

Use government checked pressures, temperatures and times. Get a copy of "Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables" from your county agricultural agent's office; follow its instructions and precautions; do not cut down on processing times. Have the pressure gauge on your canner checked annually by its manufacturer.

Buy iodized salt for your canning.

Can "freshness." Two hours from garden to can, is a good rule to follow. Prepare only one canner load at a time. Let the young folks help pick and carry the produce. Let the high school daughter help prepare and process.

Keep the little children out of the kitchen or fenced away from the canning area. Turn pot handles away from the edge of the stove. Wipe up spilled food or liquid at once. Keep a jar or bottle of burn treatment preparation in the kitchen.

Do your canning in reasonable amounts over days or weeks. You'll be less tired, more careful of ordinary canning precautions and, therefore, safer. Your home schedule will be less upset. And your canned goods, carefully handled, will have more food value, look better and taste better.

AT EAST JORDAN the car in which Marcia Pinney was a passenger was driven by Dale Keller, 19, of East Jordan, who was unhurt. The car, believed to be traveling at a high rate of speed, went out of control on the wet highway and rolled over twice, throwing Miss Pinney from the car.

Chief of Police Harry Simmons of East Jordan, who investigated, said Keller had his driver's license revoked three weeks ago on a reckless driving charge.

Elizabeth Nemec, 15, also of East Jordan, was taken to Grandvue hospital for treatment of minor lacerations and bruises.

Leonard McRoberts, 17, the fourth passenger in the car was unhurt.

Mrs. Dorothy Avery, 40, of Ellsworth, is in Little Traverse hospital, Petoskey, with a fractured left, upper arm suffered at 1:30 a.m. Wednesday in on accident three miles west of East Jordan on the East Jordan- Ellsworth road.

State Golf Tourney Opens At Belvedere

(See other story on pages 6-7)

More than 100 players will be trying for a good score in an effort to go into the play-offs of the tournament.

The best 64 scores will be eligible for the matched play which opens Friday, July 13, and runs through Sunday with two rounds scheduled for each day.

This will be the eighth time in the past 21 years the tournament has been played here. The last time was in 1948.

The course is in the best condition in recent years, according to Frank Supernaw. superintendent and greenskeeper. Continued rains this spring and early summer have put the greens and fairways in perfect condition for the tournament.

Continue Plans For Road Meeting

Preliminary arrangements were formulated for the Northern Michigan Road Commission Association convention to be held at the Charlevoix Beach Hotel Sept. 6 and 7.

The executive committee of the association met with the host committee composed of Lyle Wangeman and T. B. Reynolds of Boyne City, Sam Rogers of East Jordan, Karl Erber and Ralph S. Hamilton of Charlevoix Sunday to make tentative plans for the event.

The convention is expected to bring more than 300 visitors to the city in September.

Owls Play Benefit Tilt

The Charlevoix Knight Owls play Cheboygan here Sunday night, July 15, at 8:30 p.m. in a benefit game for Perry Smith, a former star player who has been ill for two years.

All sports fans in the local area are urged to turn out for the benefit game.

The game will be a feature of the Michigan State Softball association meeting, and a Northern Michigan umpires' dinner will be held prior to the game.

The Owls dropped Boyne City last Sunday 15-6 with Don Whiteford and Ghick Gallagher leading the attack with three hits apiece.

Mrs. A. N. Meech, 64 Die Suddenly At Russell Home

Funeral services for Mrs. Aldy Nellie Meech, 64, matron of the Juvenile Detention home here for 25 years, were held at the See Funeral Home Saturday with the Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

She died unexpectedly Thursday at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Russell, where she had lived for several months.

Born in Vesjie, Sincoe county, Ont., the former Aldy Nellie Russell came to this community 57 years ago. She was married to Darwin F. Meech who preceded her in death July 7, 1939.

She is survived by one son, Garfield Russell of Petoskey; four grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Edith Douglas and three brothers, Millard Russell of Grand Rapids and Milton and Robert of Charlevoix.

Hi-Lites

A total of 7 games were rained out last week, including the all-Star game scheduled for the 4th. Plans to hold this game at a later date are being made and will be announced in the near future.

Silver Birches are finding it harder to maintain the top spot in the League. They managed to gain a split during the week. After out-scoring Mailhots 19 to 5 they were bumped by the U. S. C. G. by a score of 11 to 8. The feature of this game was the lusty hitting by the Coast Guard boys off the leagues' top pitcher, Bob Potter. Shelton pitched steady ball for the Coast Guard although touched for 9 hits including a real wallop by H. Potter which cleared the fence in dead center field. Mills hit an inside the park home run for U. S. C. G.

The Coast Guard also swamped Parsels 25-4 Mills again hit for the circuit this time over the left field fence. By virtue of these two wins the U. S. C. G. team moved into a 4th place tie with Mailhots. In the only other game in the Major League Freedmans out-scored Parsels 17 to 10. J. Swanson hit an inside-the-park

Plans Progress For Annual Venetian Night

As the date of Venetian Night parade draws near the Charlevoix Marine club is meeting regularly to complete plans for the event held annually on the last Sunday in July.

Lyle Miles, commodore of the club which each year sponsors tha unusual parade of decorated boats, mat with his co-workers in the club to plan all details.

S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Board of Commerce, announced that fireworks for the overhead display have been ordered and shipped. He also reported on the progress of the program to be held in East Park prior to the boat parade.

AN INVITATION is being extended to all boat owners to enter their crafts in the parade.

Except for the years of World War II, the Venetian boat parade has been staged on Round lake since 1934 and has grown to be Charlevoix's major summer spectacle.

Other officers of the Marine Club are John MacIntosh, vice commodore; Franklin Ochs, secretary; Capt. Joseph F. Howard, treasurer.

Two Hawaiians Join Beach Hotel Staff

Two Hawaiian boys, who came to the states from their native islands, to continue their education, have joined the staff at the Beach Hotel for the summer months.

They are James Kurihara and Edward Kageyma, both 23, who are natives of Hawaii and who attended island schools for 12 years. In 1949 they came to Ohio where they attended Marietta College for one year before transferring to Michigan State College.

Jim is majoring in accounting and Ed in business administration and will graduate next year. They plan to return home following graduation, their first visit since coming to this country.

State Press '52 Convention To Be Held Here

Charlevoix was selected the host city for the 1952 convention of the Michigan Press association. The three day convention will be held here the last week-end of June. The Beach hotel will be convention headquarters.

Several Northern Michigan communities invited the state's publishers, editors and their families. Some 300 to 350 persons are expected.

• • •

A GROUP of directors favored returning to Mackinac, and others favored Ramona Park, but it was decided to return to Mackinac in 1953.

Efforts to have the publishers and their guests meet at the Beach hotel have been made for more than a year. At the 1950 convention, the Courier publisher invited the MPA to meet here. Since that time the Courier and S. E. Coleman have tried repeatedly to obtain the summer outing for Charlevoix.

• • •

SEVERAL publishers came to the aid of the city when they related how enjoyable their visit was here in 1948. This played a prominent part in obtaining the MPA next year.

MPA directors are working on a plan whereby the summer outings will be placed on a rotation basis. This would mean they possibly would convene here every third year, alternating between Charlevoix, Mackinac and one other point in Northern Michigan.

Hal Hill Leaves For Co-Op Post

Genial Hal Hill, superintendent of utilities for more than a year in Charlevoix, has resigned. He is taking a position with the Northern Michigan Electric Co-Operative at Boyne City.

Hill expressed thanks to the council, city officials and others in the community who have given their co-operation during his stay here. He has been employed by the city here for nearly three years.

He begins his new duties Monday, July 16. His successor has not been appointed.

Father, Son Leave For Long Canoe Trip

Robert Burns and son, Bob, of Detroit, who are spending the summer at Oyster Bay, plan to leave Friday for Canada where they will make a canoe trip down the Missinaibi river to the southern most tip of Hudson Bay.

Accompanied by a Cree Indian guide, the pair will take to the river at Hearst, Ont., after driving directly north from Sault Ste. Marie. They will negotiate the river to Moosnee, Ont., on the southwestern side of Hudson Bay.

They plan to be gone about two weeks.

Pvt. Russell Greene Feted at Farewell

Beaver Island—Pvt. Russell Greene, who came home prior to being sent overseas, was given a farewell party Thursday evening by his mother, Mrs. Anthony Greene and his brothers and sisters. The party was held at the Greene's home in Greenetown. About one hundred and fifty guests called during the evening. Round and sqaure dancing was enjoyed and refreshments served. Music was furnished by Elston Pischner, Mrs. Gene Kinney and Russell Palmer, harmonicas and John Martin and Jewell Gillispie at the piano.

Pvt. Greene left Friday afternoon by plane for the mainland. A large number of friends were at the airport to give him a real Beaver Island send off.

Board Authorized To Sell North Side School Building

School district voters at the annual election in Charlevoix Monday authorized a two-mill levy for one year and gave the school board authority for the sale of the north side school building and elected a new member to the school board.

In a surprisingly large turnout, Vernon Mathews defeated Mayor John Knight 281 to 211 for a three-year term on the board of education. Mrs. Kit Carson was unopposed for a one year term.

By a vote of 270 to 221, voters authorized the levying of an additional two mills for operations during the next year. The school board had asked the extra millage to permit the balancing of the budget. The district also by this levy qualified for state aid which is being withheld from school districts which do not levy at least five mills.

The county allocation board had approved four mills to school districts. This allocation was appealed to the Michigan Tax commission. No decision has been handed down.

• • •

VOTERS authorized the board of education to sell the northside school building which has not been used for school purposes in recent years. The vote was 306 in favor and 184 against.

At the school meeting following the election, financial reports were given and results of the questionnaire were given to some 75 persons who attended the annual session.

Some 350 questionnaires of more than 1,000 which were mailed, were returned. The voters were polled for their opinions as to what course the school board should follow in relieving overcrowded conditions.

Some 218 voters favored No. 1 proposal which called for voting a bond issue not to exceed $225,000 for an additional four rooms on the existing elementary building for the seventh and eighth grades, a metal and woodworking shop and music room adjacent to the present high school building.

Other alternatives were establishing a building and site fund for eight years for a new high school building, a new building on Kipke field and leaving the present facilities as they are now.

• • •

A TOTAL of 108 voters believe the school board should get along with the present school building and existing facilities, no matter how crowded conditions are.

Harold "Pete" Withers, retiring member of the board was given an ovation in recognition of his 12 years of service on the board.

Board President Bonnie Nickerson called upon the district voters, particularly the young people, to promote an addition to the school.

• • •

MRS. CATHERINA C. Bergeon, county superintendent of schools, urged the voters to get behind a new school before some calamity forces the decision.

It was pointed out by Roy G. Bennett that the seventh and eighth graders are the victims of much overcrowding.

Voters at the annual meeting turned down a motion by Probate Judge Floyd Supp that the north side school be sold to the Veterans of Foreign Wars for $1. The vote was 42-33.

It was announced after the vote that the VFW would contribute up to $2,000 toward lighting the football field or for band purposes. No action was taken on this proposal.

Let's Make Charlevoix a Convention City

The summer business, the bulk of which the geat number of Charlevoix residents depend on for their living, appears to be changing rapidly.

Uncertain weather last summer and so far this year have plagued every area in northern Michigan. The first week of July has provided a poor start to activities centering on Michigan's choice vacationland.

While attending the Michigan Press meeting last week-end, we heard about the concentration of time and effort . . . not on transient visitors to this section of the state . . but on conventions and allied activities.

Several large hotels in northern Michigan which before this year attempted to book conventions for June and September to prolong their seasons are now doing their utmost to induce convention groups to spend a few days at their establishments during July and August.

As one operator of a large hotel put it: "This weather factor has become so uncertain that we are spending the bulk of our time attempting to contact state, regional and district associations and groups who come to Northern Michigan for their outings.

We find that it pays to have a number of conventions in our hotel during the summer. In this way we are fairly certain once we make necessary arrangements, how much business we can expect."

These statements were not said in desperation but are indicative of the change in summer business. While the district has always faced an uncertain summer element, it seems well for Charlevoix to spur its efforts to induce convention groups to meet in this city which has so much to offer.

This does not mean that efforts have not been made by numerous people here on convention promotion. But it does mean that more and more residents are going to become Charlevoix ambassadors and spread the word among the state associations and fraternal groups.

We happen to know at first hand the efforts being made by S. E. Coleman, Mayor Knight, E. L. Kramer and several others. They have made many trips around the state in an attempt to interest conventions in meeting in Charlevoix.

They need help in this important job. Success will not be achieved overnight. It's a long haul. There are many other communities doing their utmost to interest groups to meet in their respective towns.

Fortunately, Charlevoix has much more to offer the convention-goers than most communities. But the advantage is lost if every merchant and all others who are members of a state or regional organization do not make a strong effort to sell Charlevoix as convention site.

There is a great effort underway for next year's conventions because the sites are normally chosen a year ahead of time. So the groundwork must be done now.

One of the groups slated to come here next year is the Michigan Press association. The state's publishers, some 300 strong, will come here the last week-end of June. But the arrangements for this convention did not merely happen.

It took the time of three local men who finally succeeded in selling the Michigan Press convention committee to meet here rather than at some other Northern Michigan town.

Six other cities in Northern Michigan issued invitations by letter and wire. It was nip and tuck among the board of directors as to where the publishers would meet next year. One of the things which played a part in Charlevoix's favor was the friendliness of the merchants and townspeople when the convention met here in 1948.

Possible trips to Beaver Island during their three-day stay here also came in for consideration.

Merchants and others having memberships to business, fraternal or allied groups are urged to lend a hand to Mr. Coleman and the mayor in obtaining conventions for Charlevoix.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Martin

A letter the other day from Mrs. Harold Geiken brought us word of their son, Jack's graduation from the Harvard Graduate school and also the news that Jack and his wife will be at the Geiken cottage at Eveline Orchard for two months . . . The Harold Geikens are back in the north to make their home after 26 years . . They're at Five Mile Road north of Traverse City with the address of RR 1 Williamsburg . . . And, she adds, we would be happy to see anyone who's down this way.

DID YOU READ about the recent old-fashioned spittin' contest that was revived at Newaygo recently? . . . One of the contestants was a former resident, O. P. North, now superintendent of schools there . . . His pix with another prominent contestant appeared in a recent Muskegon paper . . Wonder if he won . . .

IT'S ALWAYS nice to hear from old friends . . . and this week we've had several letters . . . one from Clair Webster . . . now with Chris-Craft . . . selling marine motors in Florida . . His territory, he tells us, is south Florida from Daytona to Key West and Miami to Tarpon Springs on the Gulf . . . so, he says, can give a sales talk' for or against every town in the area . . . And knowing the Websters we'll bet they're doing a bit of talking about Charlevoix . . . We understand they might get north some time this summer . . . We'll be looking forward to seeing them . . .

And from Mrs. Earl Gillette, the former Geraldine Halverson, who now resides in Grand Rapids. She was in the east recently and spent a day with another former resident, Mrs. Pitkin, the former Virginia Parker, who resides in New York . . . they did a bit of reminiscing about the old home town and their friends here . . . Both are looking forward to a reunion in the not too distant future . . . with those friends . . . Possibly the next Alumni banquet . . .

• • •

ISN'T IT GRAND to see the sailboats out again . . . Don't know why but there's something about this particular type of boat that we love . . . Maybe it's because it takes skill to operate them properly . . . And they're so pretty, scuttling across Round Lake, through the channel or on Lake Charlevoix . . . with their red or white sails against the blue of the water . . . it's so picturesque. . .

Colin McKenzie had quite an experience last week while mowing hay . . . He saw something in the deep grass and here was a tiny, wobbly new-born fawn . . . he'd almost run over it with the mower . . . He removed it to the edge of the field where it was later claimed by its mother . .

• • •

WHICH reminds us of another fawn story we heard recently . . . a good-sized animal was chased by dogs and injured before rescued by a couple of boys near Atwood . . . They had it along side the road when a family from Central Lake stopped to see it and asked if they might have it . . . The boys said sure without informing them that one wasn't supposed to keep the animal . . .

Upon arrival at Central Lake one youngster was minus a pet when the woman's husband called the conservation department which came for the fawn and turned it over to some children's camp to be raised . . . But I guess they had fun while it lasted . . .

• • •

IF YOU'VE been wondering who all the soldiers were in town recently . . . its fellows from an Illinois National Guard Unit over at Camp Grayling . . . We got curious and asked them . . . seems there's about 7,000 from this particular unit there now and they're cruising around northern Michigan in their spare time . . . They told us that in all there's about 9,000 at the camp . . . Quite a deal for Grayling we'd say . . . And yet, what a headache . . .

IN CASE YOU hadn't noticed, something new's been added along Bridge st. and for our money it's just about the best thing yet . . . A public phone booth between the Birches and the Surplus store . . . Now when someone needs a phone in the middle of the night or want to call when on the street . . . they have what they need . . . We've often wondered why they didn't do something like that before . .

About people you know: If you've missed Jim Gaskin on the police force recently it's because he's a patient at Veterans hospital, Dearborn . . . He's a bit improved according to Mrs. Gaskin who returned home Saturday . . And guess whose pic is on the cover of the coaches trade paper . . . The Athletic Journal . . . None other than our own Bob Carey . . Nice, huh?

Champion Steer

Top market price ever paid for a grand champion steer at the International livestock exposition in the Chicago union stock yard was $11 50 per pound This was paid in 1949 for a 661-day-old Hereford, Judge Roy Bean, weighing 1,240 pounds

Files Ancient Tools

Though files were used 3,000 years ago, they were laboriously cut by hand until 1750 and the first really successful file cutting machine was perfected by James Nasmythe of England in 1840. Today, there are more than 5,000 different kinds and cuts of files, including rotary files, and rasps.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Might Say The Birds Got "Nettled"

Had dinner with Tik Bradley the other day, and over a frosty bottle of beer I found out about his job with the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

"Now just exactly what do you do?" I asked him. "Shoot birds with a cannon" he calmly replies.

Seems they actually do use a cannon—to shoot out a net over a flock of birds feeding on the ground. The birds start to take off at the sound of the shot, but the settling net brings them back to earth. Then they're banded around the leg so more can be learned about their migratory habits. Afterwards, they're let loose—and everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it was a good example of how when you learn the real facts they're often not as bad as they may sound at first. Like with people. Get to really know your neighbor and chances are you'll be more tolerant of his preferences—even though they're not your own. Take a good look, before you jump to conclusions.

Sample May Affect Soil Test Result

If you want a "true story" from your soil tests, make sure that samples are taken where they will show the correct condition of the field being tested, says James Porter, Michigan State college soil scientist.

Two or three samples from a ten-acre field should be sufficient, Porter advises. The story told by the test will mean more if you avoid lime or marl piles, manure storage piles, and edges of roads which have been graveled recently.

Around gates leading to fields you may not get a true story because of lime or manure that has fallen from loads hauled to the fields. Ashes are high in lime and potash, so stay away from places where brush piles have been burned.

Ranking Amateur Golfers Gather Here

The Belvedere Golf Club will be the site of the annual Michigan Amateur Golf tournament July 12-13-14-15.

The course, which is one of the toughest in the state is also one of the most beautiful. Built on rolling hills it overlooks three lakes, Lake Michigan to the west, and north, Round Lake and to the east, Lake Charlevoix.

Its 18 holes cover a total of 6,579 yards. The longest hole and its most difficult is the fifth which is 542 yards and is played over a creek and made more difficult with a dog leg. Par for the hole is 5 strokes.

The Belvedere course is observing its twenty-fifth anniversary this year. It was planned by William Watson, for many years pro at the Chicago Club course, now operated by the city. It was started in 1925 and the last nine holes were first used in 1926. The following season the entire course with its spacious club house were completed.

The Great Lakes Open was held on this course in the early '30s with many of the great golfers of that day participated in the event.

The best score ever posted was 65 made by Walter Hagen, the first time he ever played the course. He never equaled his record after that time. Par for the 18 holes is 72.

Clarence Gamber, the longest driver in the world, once shot 412 yards on this course.

Since then several amatuer tournaments have been played here, the last in 1948 when Chuck Kocsis won the title.

OTTO HAZARD
TRAFFIC SAFETY EXPERTS FIND DANGER DEPENDS ON THE STAYE OF THE DRIVER'S MIND!

Don't Take Chances on the Road

Taking chances on the roads and streets usually means flirting with accidents and possible personal injury to yourself or family. That is why it never pays to teke a chance to pass on a curve or hill or any other unsafe driving practice. Drive safe. You will never regret it.

Taking chances with insurance is also unwise. Negligence to carry adequete insurance usually means thet someday you will be involved in an accident, perhaps not your fault, when you will need protection. A few cents a day will provide you and your family adequate insurance. Come in and let us help you with your insurance problems.

Or do you check cars feature for feature, price for price—then pick the one that gives you the most for your money?

Whichever you are, we'd like to suggest that you come in and see our 1951 Buicks.

It's a sure bet you'll go for the swift, smart look of a SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER—fall seriously in love with the pace and power of its bonnet-filling engine.

And it's a cinch you'll go for the room and richness of those Buick interiors—the serene smoothness of Dynaflow Drive* and all-coil springing.

Note that the power that gives you such a big kick here comes from Buick's famed valve-in-head Fireball Engine—which means you get a lot of miles from each gallon of gas you buy.

Note that the silken ease you enjoy with Dynaflow* goes hand in hand with real money savings in maintenance costs.

Above all, note what a Buick's price tag includes—how much more sheer automobile you get in a Buick than the same money would buy elsewhere.

How about making tracks to our showroom right soon—checking thoroughly into the matter—and see if you don't fall in love with a smart-buy Buick?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.
*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:
DYNAFLOW DRIVE* • FIREBALL ENGINE
4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING • DUAL VENTILATION

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Henley

Beaver Islanders prayed for rain three weeks ago. The rain clouds gathered the day after the prayers were said and it has rained and rained every since. Now, we are praying for a let up. A stretch of hot summer days is badly needed to benefit the farmers and the resort business.

For the past few years, Lake Michigan ebbed away from Beaver Island twenty-five to fifty feet. This year, the water is higher than this reporter has ever seen it. High water reached a zenith Sunday for a record. The Lake extended to flood the low lots around the harbor, to cover the lumber loading dock and to wash over the North Shore's dock. A pounding wind from the sou'-west drove the waves high and reckless. The water receded at intervals, but still the level was high.

The fourth of July was everything one would not want a fourth of July to be, rain all day and cold. To forget the weather, most of the gals took to the kitchen and went on a baking spree.

In the evening, though, the weather cleared for the dance sponsored by the members of the Sodality of Our Lady. There was a fine turn out and the dance was a big success. Home talent furnished the music for the occasion.

• • •

Mrs. Warren Wilmot and daughter, Karen, Cleveland, arrived Tuesday to visit Mrs. Wilmot's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Feindt and son, Larry, returned to Charlevoix Sunday after spending two weeks on the island on a survey job.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hooker, Chicago, are visiting Mrs. Hooker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Donnell. Mrs. Hooker was the former Patricia O'Donnell.

• • •

JEAN LYONS came all the way from New York City to visit her girlhood friend, Mrs. Patrick Kennedy. Both girls went to school together in Ireland and have not seen one another in several years. Jean thinks Beaver Island is a lovely spot and very much like the Emerald Isle.

Looking around for a name for the Golden Palamino stallion, Archie LaFreniere and Bub Burke decided on "Strang". Since King Strang had a harem of gals and the Palamino is acquiring a harem of mares, there is a common denominator and the name is appropriate. Young Paul Kenwabakise is breaking "Strang" in for the saddle.

For awhile after the perch run, the perch seem to have cleared out of the harbor. Now, they are back again and biting fast, according to "Captain Perch" Sonderegger.

• • •

MRS. CARRIE Sonderegger is back again for the summer season. She arrived Saturday looking as young as ever.

Robert Delany is spending his vacation on the island.

Rose Greene, Grand Rapids, came to the island to visit at home before Russell, her brother, departed for the west coast and overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Libbs and daughter, Barbara, Ann Arbor, are spending two weeks in one of Allen's cabins.

A familiar sight, Wilfred O'Brien and his big, black, shaggy dog in Wilfred's sail boat gliding out into the harbor to either set nets or lift . . . a picture of companionship between a man and his dog.

Jack Cull, who is now employed in Chicago, is also visiting the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Connoghan and sons, Danny and Robert, arrived Saturday to vacation on the island.

Sunday, after the ten o'clock Mass, baby Ronald Lloyd Wojan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wojan, was christened. Father Giles officiating. Ronald's godparents are Kay McDonough and Vernon LaFreniere.

65 Bass Caught By Local Group

The bass near Hog Island should be warned the next time Jake White organizes a fishing party.

Last Sunday White and 12 others went over to Hog Island. And did they catch bass? Everyone in the party caught their limit in about six hours of fishing.

The fish averaged between 1½ and 2 pounds. The biggest weighed 2 pounds.

Pasture Is Valuable For Swine Feeding

Pigs are not normally considered grass eating animals. But a practical feeding test by one of the farmers holding a Grass Day program in June proved to many that pigs get a lot of gain from high quality legume pasture.

Thirty days before he was to entertain 3,000 farmers at Grass Day on his Calhoun county farm. Ralph Cook divided 22 pigs weighing about 50 pounds each into two lots. One group was kept in a dry lot, the other 11 allowed to run in legume pasture. Both groups got free choice of ground feed, shelled corn and 35 percent protein supplement.

Pigs on the pasture at but 79 pounds of supplement compared with 196 pounds for those in the dry lot. The average pig gained 36 pounds in the dry lot and 42 pounds on pasture.

Feed cost for each 100 pounds of gain was $9.95 on pasture and $11.33 in the dry lot.

Doctors' Studies Show Antihistamines Work

New anti-histamine cold research covering 10,000 more cases, endorsing low-dosage tablets and answering any lingering doubts about the efficacy of the drugs, has been published within the past month.

Four industrial physicians published one report, based on a cooperative study covering 8,538 cases in 18 major, diversified companies. The second was a rigidly controlled study conducted within the confines of Lawton Reformatory near the nation's capital.

Underwood & Underwood

Science Finds 3 of 4 Colds Helped

The Lawton Reformatory study was cited by Paul de Kruif, world-famed science writer, in a consumers' report to Reader's Digest's 15,000,000 readers. Dr. Harold L. Hirsh, conducted the study among 1,008 inmates. He reported that three out of every four treated were relieved by the 10-milligram drug prophenpyridamine, sold to the public without prescription as Inhiston.

Dr. Hirsh stated that the tablets not only relieved 76%, but shortened the duration of colds. He advocates that treatment be instituted whenever possible, even if the cold has been neglected for several days.

De Kruif pointed out that government permission to advertise the tablets as stopping, checking, or relieving cold symptoms was a victory for the manufacturers. As he said:

"When you stop the symptoms of a common cold, what have you got left? Nothing. The symptoms of this malady are all that science knows about it. All the cold victim cares about is whether he can take something that minimizes his misery."

The lowest-dosage tablet available without prescription in the drugstore is Inhiston, the 10-milligram prophenpyridamine medication utilized by Dr. Hirsh.

County Fair Plans Crochet Contest Sept. 4-8

Somewhere among the crocheters of the country are the 1951 champions of crochet. They will be chosen by their entries in the nationwide Crochet Contest, an exciting competition for all crochet enthusiasts, held throughout the United States at state, county and local Fairs.

Entries in the contest are submitted to the Fairs who do the preliminary judging. In this vicinity, anyone man, woman or teen-ager who wants to get in on the fun, can enter one or more pieces in the contest at the Charlevoix County Fair, September 4-8.

What are the prizes in the nationwide Crochet Contest? $2500 in cash awards, including $500 to the Grand National Champion, the contestant whose pieces are judged superior to all others and all-expense paid trips to Chicago for the Grand National Champion and the Male Champion. Cups, ribbons, needlework honors and the excitement of taking part in the contest are additional incentives for entering the competition. Pieces of original design may compete for extra awards amounting to $500 offered by Womans' Day Magazine.

All pieces must be crocheted of mercerized crochet cotton and must have been completed since January 1, 1951, though not necessarily started after the first of the year. To be eligible for the national judging in November, entries must win a special Nationwide Crochet Contest ribbon at a participating Fair. The Needlework Department of the Fair will judge the entries in all sixteen classifications and to award the special ribbons to the best piece in each category. A Gold Sunray Loving Cup will also be awarded to the crocheter whose work is chosen "Best of Fair."

Anyone who likes to crochet will enjoy taking part in this biggest of all needlework contests. For further information about how to enter the Contest and for an official Rules Leaflet, contact the Fair Secretary, Ed Rebman.

Farm Vets to Hear Traverse City Man

Bruce Needham of Cherry Growers Inc., of Traverse City will speak to the Veterans Institute farm training classes July 16 at 8:30 p.m at the high school here.

Mr Needham will discuss farmers co-operatives, their advantages, organization and operation. Mr. Needham was obtained through the Michigan Council of Co-operatives of which he is a director.

Previous to the meeting, he will speak to the Kiwanis club at the Beach Hotel.

Farmers interested in co-operatives are urged to attend the veterans meeting.

Potato Growers Vote on Federal Market Order

Potato growers in Charlevoix county are receiving ballots from the county PMA committee, to use in voting "Yes" or "No" on the question of continuing Federal Marketing Order 60, which regulates the marketing of potatoes in six North Central states.

Price support has nothing to do with this referendum" LeRoy Hardy, chairman of the county PMA committee said. "Price support on potatoes was stopped by order of Congress at the end of the 1950 marketing season.

The only question for potato growers to decide is whether they want a means of working with other growers to hold culls and small potatoes off the market, to help keep supply in balance with demand and to give the consumer a better quality potato as a way of getting a better price."

ORCHARD NOTES

By Clauda Fairman

There has been a leaf drop on sour cherry trees. It has been very bad on the Old Mission peninsula. In fact it has extended from Manistee to this area. The leaves turn yellow or partly yellow and drop off.

The experts did not consider it a virus disease. The large brown spots on the leaves resembled spray burn. In tests where no spray or arsenate was used, the same thing was found. It resembled ice water poured on hot leaves.

At a meeting in East Jordan it was termed a weather condition. The moist spring, fast-growing and changeable weather were factors.

This is the sixth heavy crop in a row and the trees are weaker. Weak trees spray burn easily and this water burn had a better chance to work. Over many orchards the weakest orchards and weakest trees seemed to bear the most loss of foliage.

As insurance it would be well to look for any deficiencies as lack of boron manganese and other trace minerals, particularly in older trees. An alternative would be to use a complete, all-mineral as, El Min El. If there is a brown deficiency, extra borax has to be added to the El Min El or complete mineral.

Humus, manure or anything that will keep the trees vigorous helps to avoid leaf drop and burn. There appeared to be no difference in spray materials, the kind of materials used or use for additional applications of spraps.

For best results, you notice other orchards and their practices and determining which do the best on the whole. Home experimenting will soon tell you which is better. You should try out different materials on a few trees or short rows in order to find out what is best for your soil, climate and conditions.

Plant More Trout In District Lakes

Among the public fishing sites in northern Michigan where work is scheduled on are the South Arm of Lake Charlevoix, Six Mile lake and Lake Louise in Charlevoix and the Jordan river in Antrim county, the Michigan Conservation department announced.

Improvement work at 54 developed public fishing sites in Michigan is being directed by the department. The work includes such development as access roads, parking facilities, ramps for launching boats where necessary, toilets, fences and boundary markers.

Completion of the scheduled work will bring the total of developed fishing sites in Michigan to more than 200.

What's Doing at Camp Charlevoix

The first week of camp has come and gone and campers are in the midst of their activities, all learning and having fun.

Rain caused activities to be curtailed a bit, however, sunny weather has now permitted activities to run as scheduled.

During the week the Green and the Grey competition got under way with a track meet, which the Greys won, giving them two points. The captains elected to head up this activity in each section are: Senior Greens, Tim Barnes, captain; John Lagie, and Tony Love, lieutenants; Senior Greys, Larry Reisinger, captain; Tom Watkins and Dick Degener, lieutenants; Intermediate Greens: Jerry Martin, captain; Chuck Eisendrath and Chris Roosevelt, lieutenants; Intermediate Greys: John Watson, captain; Tom Hoerner and John Beenan, lieutenants; Junior Greens: Hugh Drum, captain; Bud Dunham and Gary Reiveschl, lieutenants; Junior Greys: Ira Bank, captain, Ron Rovin and Steve Levis, lieutenants.

EACH SEASON the campers elect cabin representatives to the camper council, and this year those chosen are: Rob Waterman, Hugh Drum, Tod Cobey, Dick Schultz, Bobby Mehring, Clem Gill, John Mueller, Scott Cappel, Dwight Smith, Tom Hoerner, Peter Williams, Peter Barrett, Tom Gravengood, Frank Roosevelt, Dick Degener, Sandy Wiener. These boys meet each week and help decide the policies of the camp.

An all-camp night of cabin skits saw a remarkable bit of the camper's ingenuity. Last Wednesday evening cabins 2 and 3 in the junior section won the first award for the most outstanding entertainment in their unique interpretation of a "Variety Show". Ira Bank's impersonation of the TV Sid Stone and Todd Cobey's rendition of "Me and My Shadow" were the highlights of the evening and helped their cabins to win highest honors.

• • •

OTHER CAMPERS which aided Cobey and Banks were Chris Baldenhofer, Devy Barnes, Ted Grace, John Martin, Garr Youngren, Hugh Drum, Mike Grossman, Chuck Hinsch, Steve Levis, and Bobby O'Brien. Receiving honorable mention for their versatile "Puppet Show" featuring the "Twinkle Toes" Trio and the "Funny Boys" Chorus, Cabin 7 and 8 presented the following campers as potential commedians: Tim Crowe, Simmie Leonard, Ron McDonald, Al Merrill David Milligan, John Mueller, Mike Millis, George Black, Scott Cappel, Peter Dodenhoff, Billy Gamble, Douglas Jarsen, Robbie Swigart and David Keller.

• • •

THE COWBOYS at the stable surprised the camp the other evening by pulling up in front of the clubhouse in a fourwheel buggy which has been painted a shiny black and the wheels are bright yellow. Old Smokey was doing the pulling and this vehicle is now a popular means of conveyance around the camp.

On Sunday morning the chapel service was held with Chuck McKean as the speaker. He spoke on "Individualism": Ken Nyquist sang the "Lord's Prayer."

• • •

SUNDAY AFTRENOON all sections met in a Green and Gray Soccer Game which netted the Greens three points.

As we enter the second week of camp, enthusiasm is high and the boys are having a great summer.

School Band Marches At Cherry Festival

The Charlevoix high school band and its director, C. A. Odmark, will march in the National Cherry Festival Floral parade Friday.

The parade is set for 2 p.m. Friday.

If the weather remains hot the Charlevoix band members will replace the heavy uniform coats with white shirts and blouses.

The group will leave here at 10 a.m. and return that evening after the festivities.

MAKE THE 2-Way Test
...prove Mercury best!

Standard equipment, accessories, and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

3-WAY CHOICE!

For "the drive of your life!" Mercury offers a triple choice in transmissions. Merc-O-Matic Drive, the NEW automatic transmission, Touch-O-Matic Overdrive, both optional at extra cost; or silent-ease synchronized standard transmission.

Get into a Mercury and out on the road—and you'll find power, smooth and purring V-eight power—more of it than you may ever need.

Now, swing into traffic and discover what a joy it is to handle. Climb a hill. Try an S-curve. Turn down the roughest road you can find and see how Mercury's springing smothers the bumps.

Comfort? There's move-around space for six. It's room with a view: big windows for extra visibility. Drive a mile and you'll want to drive it home.

Try it today—
MERCURY
for "the best deal of your life!"

Does it have a down-to-earth first price? Mercury's price tag you can understand—gives you a big dollar's worth for every dollar invested.

Will you be sure of good gasoline mileage? Mercury has proved its more-miles-per-gallon by winning officially sponsored economy tests.

Is it famous for long life? It is indeed! 92% of all Mercurys ever built for use in this country are still on the road, according to latest annual official registration figures.

Will trade-in value stay high? Mercurys keep their value; and used car market reports consistently prove this to be true.

They Haven't Forgotten Their Teacher

Former Students Pay Honor to Prof. Holden

Three former students of Prof. Perry G. Holden, retired agronomist and teacher who now resides here, will come to Charlevoix within the next few weeks to pay homage to the master.

They are Prof. R. K. Bliss of Iowa State college, Prof. M. L. Mosher of the University of Illinois and Dr. M. L. Wilson of the Department of Agriculture.

All were students of Prof. Holden at Iowa State College and all of them, on graduation, were appointed to positions in the Agricultural Extension Department when it was organized in 1906.

• • •

PROF. BLISS was head of the Agricultural Extension department at Iowa State for 45 years.

Prof. Mosher who retired last year after 45 years in extension work, was called by President Diaz of Mexico to teach the Mexican people to raise corn. He was professor of farm management at the University of Illinois.

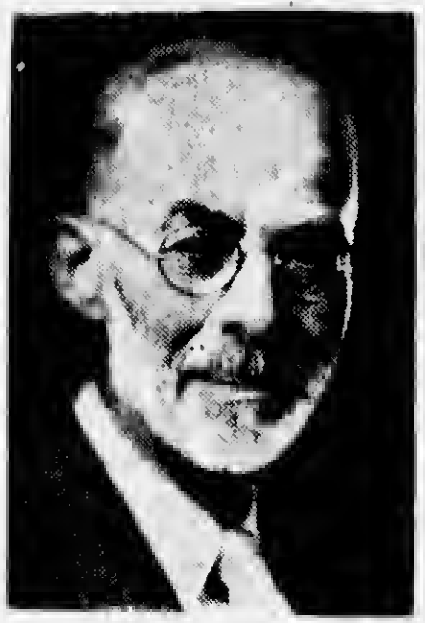
Prof. Wilson, with the department of Agriculture, is director of extension work in the department which includes county agents, home demonstration, 4-H, etc.

Their feelings about him, that they consider him a great teacher and what they owe him is reflected in letters written to him and articles written about him.

• • •

DR. WILSON, in a letter sums up their regard for him: You have very rare qualities of inspiration and the capacity to enthuse and stimulate the imagination of those who work with you. I have often said . . . that the most important thing I got at Ames was an intangible something from P. G. Holden.

Your programs and your methods of dealing with situations were always most democratic. When the history of agricultural education is written in this country, it will pay great tribute to you.



Professor Holden

M. L. Mosher

YOU PIONEERED more than anyone I know with the idea of really taking to farmers the scientific knowledge of agricultural research and the successful experience of operating farms in a manner which was acceptable and of practical value to the farmer.

The difference, however, between you and many others who were working in the field in the first quarter of the century was that you saw a humanitarian goal in better farm life and a more satisfactory socitey than did many others.

Your teachings and your activities were based upon a practical, democratic agricultural idealism, but you always maintained a proper balance between the practical and the ideal.

Prof. Bliss, in a radio talk, had much the same thing to say in the following: He is now in his eighties . . . but he is still the same great dynamic inspirational teacher. He can't help but be dynamic and he is always the teacher. He was made that way.

• • •

PROF. HOLDEN, a native of Michigan, graduated from Michigan Agricultural College in 1889, and held outstanding positions with the Michigan College, as well as the Universities of Illinois and Iowa, before going with the International Harvester Co. in 1012. He retired from that position in 1932 and now lives here with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Besemer.

State Official To Crown Queen

Fred M. Alger Jr., Michigan's secretary of state, has accepted an invitation to officiate at the coronation of Charlevoix's Venetian Queen, Joan Ward, July 28, S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Board of Commerce, announced this week.

The coronation ceremony will be held at the Queen's ball at the Beach Hotel Saturday evening preceding the annual Venetian Night boat parade to be staged on Round Lake Sunday evening.

• • •

ANN GILL, 1950 Venetian Queen, will be present to relinquish her crown to her successor Queen Joan.

Mr. Coleman will serve as master of ceremonies at the coronation.

Music for the ball will be played by the Four Hits and a Miss. Several specialty numbers will be presented.

The Queen's ball is being sponsored by the Charlevoix Lions Club as a part of the Venetian week-end activities.

Dental Program Open Today At School Here

A dental program sponsored by the Children's Fund of Michigan in cooperation with the District Health Department opened at the Charlevoix high school building Monday.

Dr. C. O. Whitten is in charge of the program with Miss Cora Dunn, dental hygienist, conducting the fluridization program.

The program will run until Aug. 10 with about 200 children receiving care and fluorine treatments. Dr. Whitten services approximately 13 patients each day and Miss Dunn treats 20 patients.

Appointments for the next four weeks have been made by Mrs. Margaret Davenport, school and community nurse, who organized the program.

J. Williams	1	5

Hi-Lites

In the Senior League Atwood settled the first round championship by coming from behind and trouncing the Cleaners 16 to 11. Leading 11 to 6 going into the last inning the Cleaners defense fell apart and Atwood, along with some long distrance hitting, scored 10 times . . . J. R. Williams team squeezed out their first win of the season by edging Russells Grocery 6 to 7.

In the Junior League, Charlevoix Oil Co. team took over first place by winning two games last week. They beat Kiwanis 14-8 and the Lions 12-3. Kiwanis Club team dropped to 2nd place when they were beaten twice. In addition to the Oil boys beating them. Atwood trounced them 12 to 4.

Atwood, Ellsworth and the Lions teams held the same positions as last week The rained out games of July 3 between Ellsworth and Charlevoix Oil has been rescheduled for Monday July 23.

In the Major league, Silver Birches hung on to first place although they had two close calls last week. Freedmans nearly turned the trick but were finally out-manoeuvred 9 to 7.

Ellsworth Hdw. battled Silver Birches on even terms for the full regulation 7 innings which found the teams deadlocked at 4 runs each. This was the best played game of the season for both teams. Ellsworth scored 4 runs on 4 hits while committing 2 errors and Silver Birches scored 5 runs on 6 hits and made 1 error. The winning run came in the last half of the eighth inning. H. Potter hit a home run over the left field fence in the 4th with 2 men on base.

Parsels came up with 3 runs in the last inning in their game with Ellsworth but fell one run short as they lost 13 to 14.

Sees were beaten twice in close games. They bowed to Mailhots 11 to 7 and then the up and coming Cadillac-Olds team nipped them 10 to 9. Cadillac-Olds moved out of the cellar for the first time by virtue of their 2 wins and may still have a hand in the final standings in the first round.

The U.S.C.G continued their winning ways by outscoring Mailhots 15 to 14 They have now moved up to 3rd place with a 6 won and 4 lost record.

In the extra base hit department, four hitters are tied with two home runs each They are; H. Potter, Silver Birches. Mills, U.S.C.G B. Klooster and Rubinga both from Ellsworth Hdw. I. Manville, Freedmans, leads in triples with 5, followed by B. Wabinunkee with 4. J. Mailhot has hit the most doubles with 5 two-baggers.

Charlevoix Known as Haven From Hayfever

Hay fever sufferers can find haven in Charlevoix and other communities in this part of northern Michigan.

Last year Charlevoix was one of two communities in northern Michigan which enjoyed a zero pollen count on several occasions. This section around Charlevoix has been comparatively free of pollen for the last 10 years, the Michigan Department of Health reported.

Ragweed in southern Michigan usually begins to pollinate about mid-July but the great northern trek of victims of the allergy does not start until the pollen concentration becomes heavy, about mid-August.

While the state-wide ragweed pollen survey begun in 1940 was discontinued in 1050, the Department has compiled a "hay fever map" from facts recorded in the final five years of the survey. The ten years experience has shown that there is little or no change in the relative distribution of ragweed pollen in the various areas of the state from year to year.

Copies of "Ragweed in Michigan," a reprint from Michigan Public Health, officials magazine of the Department, can be obtained without cost by sending a post card to the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Michigan.

Chuck Kocsis Is Top Amateur For Sixth Time

Chuck Kocsis of Detroit captured his sixth Michigan Amateur Golf title Sunday when he defeated Ted Kuzma of Jackson four and three in the amateur title half at the Belvedere course Thursday through Sunday.

Kocsis went into the final after refeating Harold Brink one up in the semi-final round Sunday morning.

Ben Smith of Detroit, defending champion, was defeated by Kuzma two and one in the morning round.

Kocsis' victory climaxed the four-day event in which 207 amateur golfers from the entire state teed off in the qualifying rounds Thursday. All contenders with scores of 77 or better numbering 63 qualified with the defending title-holder, Ben Smith, for the matched play.

Regional Softball Play Starts Aug. 24

Plans for the annual state softball tournament were completed at a meeting of the Michigan Softball Association here over the week-end, John Knight, chairman of the regional board and district commissioner announced.

Flint was selected as the site of the finals in the Michigan Softball tournament during the Labor Day week-end.

The northern Michigan regional tournament will be held here Aug. 21-25-26 with six teams participating. The upper peninsula teams will stage their own regional tournament about the same date after they were granted permission by the state association because of the distance involved in traveling to the lower peninsula for the matches.

• • •

THE SIX TEAMS to play here will be the winners and runner-up in district tournaments at Cadillac, Cheboygan and Alpena. District winners will enter Class B and runners-up in Class C.

At least 19 teams are expected to enter the district tournament at Cheboygan Aug. 11 through Aug. 19.

Missionary Will Speak At Church of God

Rev. Herman Smith, missionary in Africa and the Barbados for many years, will be the guest speaker at the Community Church of God Sunday at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Smith will speak at evening services at 8 p.m. Sunday, Pastor W. D Wood announced.

If you want to see Charlevoix and its scenic beauties. Try it on a bicycle. You can rent them at Brown Motors. Reasonable too.

Entertainment Set for Gala Venetian Night

An outstanding entertainment program has been selected for Venetian Night July 20, S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Board of Commerce, reported Wednesday.

Confirmation was received that 21 youthful entertainers will present a "Spotlight on Youth" program prior to the boat parade. They will perform after the program at the Beach Hotel.

The entertainers are on tour of Michigan and come to Charlevoix from the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. The ages of the entertainers range from four to fourteen. They specialize in singing, dancing and comic skits patterned along oldtime vaudeville acts.

• • •

THEY WILL top a variety program which will also include selections by Zach Whyte at the piano, a concert by the Charlevoix city band, sea chanties by the Camp Charlevoix boys chorus and other specialties to be announced later.

Queen Joan Ward and the members of her court, who will view the parade from aboard the royal float, will be introduced prior to board the cruiser, May-Jo.

Members of the Charlevoix Marine club are busy completing preparations for the Venetian Boat parade which will climax the week-end celebration.

Approximately 30 gaily decorated boats will join in the parade which will originate in Lake Charlevoix and make its dramatic entrance via the channel to the stage, Round Lake. Spectators will view the spectacle with its overhead of fireworks from the terraces about the lake which form a natural amphitheatre.

Three judges selected from among visiting yachtsmen, aboard the judge's boat at the Clinton st. dock will select the winners of five major prizes.

Lyle Miles, Commodore of the Marine club, has said more lights and lanterns will be available this year than ever before. This fact alone should make for a bigger and better parade.

Here's One That Didn't Get Away

Friends of Tim Ryan of Calumet City, Ill., will be hearing about this fish for some time to come.

It was quite a struggle, too, before the 20-inch bass called it quits Fishing with a cane pole and using a night crawler as bait, Tim outfought the bass for 30 minutes before landing it.

Church of God Camp

One hundred children are attending the Church of God youth camp, sponsored by the Board of Christian Education of the church. Miss Loretta Foger is leader. Students from Anderson college serve as leaders and instructors.

State Officials Plan To Attend Banquet At Belvedere Hotel

A banquet at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Belvedere hotel will climax the one-day meeting of the Michigan Bureau for Economic Development in conjunction with the Northwestern Michigan committee.

Some 150 persons from Northern Michigan will attend, Mayor Knight disclosed. An invitation has been extended to Governor Williams to address the banquet. It was not definitely known at a late hour Wednesday night whether he would attend.

Members of the Michigan Bureau of Economic Development, headed by Dan Gerber, Fremont industrialist, will take part in the day-long program starting at 9:30 a.m. at the Belvedere hotel.

Sen. Frank Andrews of Hillman and State Rep. Louis Anderson of Indian River, will attend the banquet as will Don Weeks, executive secretary of the state bureau, and working members of his staff

• • •

PLANS FOR this meeting have been made by Mayor Knight and S. E. Coleman, who attended a recent meeting at Elk Rapids.

A large delegation from Traverse City, Petoskey, Cheboygan, Ellsworth, Elk Rapids, Charlevoix, Cadillac and other points in this section of the state is expected.

Also attending the banquet will be the city council, members of the Board of Commerce, Charlevoix Development Corp., and merchants.

Ward Stubbs, chairman of the Northwest Industrial Development committee, will preside over the banquet. He will introduce Mr Coleman, who will turn the meeting over to the toastmaster, James T. Milliken of Traverse City, president of the Acme Line Manufacturing Co.

The members and staff of the Michigan Bureau of Economic Development will be introduced.

• • •

MR. GERBER and other members of the state bureau will speak briefly.

The morning session will get underway at 9:30 a.m. with the bureau's advisory committee discussing a state promotion fund Walker Cisler will be chairman.

Luncheon will be at noon with the executive committee of the Northwest Michigan Industrial Development.

Principal points of the luncheon discussion will be the regional program of work and the determination of major problems in the industrial development of this section of the state.

Informal meetings will be held during the afternoon.

Council Airs City Manager Issue Again

The much-discussed issue of Charlevoix's need for a city manager was heard again at the city council meeting Monday night.

The discussion was touched off by Alderman Ralph Hamilton who said the city has too much of an investment to avoid centering the responsibility of city operations. Mayor Knight explained that Don Swinton, city comptroller and the department heads are responsible.

"The city is riding for a fall", Hamilton declared, "if we don't get someone to take overall responsibility for operating a city whose assessed valuation is more than four million dollars."

Citing the need for technical assistance which he said a graduate engineer can give, Hamilton asked other members of the council how they felt on the need for a city manager or at least an electrical engineer for the light plant.

• • •

MAYOR KNIGHT appointed Hamilton chairman of a committee to explore the steps necessary to change the city from its present fourth class status to a home rule city employing a city manager

The mayor said "we have to find out what we want before we can take steps to obtain it." Alderman Carl Kohler agreed with Hamilton by saying "we do have a lot at stake and we should do something."

Knight emphasized that the voters should decide whether a city manager is wanted. Hamilton and his committee will look into the matter and report back to the council at some future meeting.

Ed Swanson was introduced to the council as assuming some of the duties held by Hal Hill who resigned recently. The purchasing phase of the utility department will be handled by Swinton.

• • •

MAYOR KNIGHT reported on plans for the old car caravan which will bring 50 to 60 cars and 100 people to Charlevoix August 6. The group will be feted by Charlevoix auto dealers at a luncheon at the Beach hotel.

A parade will be formed through the business district so that residents and visitors may look at the old cars including a Stanley Steamer.

Earl Crandall and Ted Ager were temporary appointments as patrolmen. Crandall will work until James Gaskin recovers from his illness It is not known when Gaskin will return to his police duties.

Dr. Litzenburger To Be Feted at Indian Event

Dr. A. F Litzenburger, director of District Health Unit No. 3 and Miss Katherine Warner, R.N., of Petoskey, Emmet county Public nurse, will be among those honored at the Ottowa Indian Naming ceremony at Harbor Springs this week-end.

They are being honored for the work done in the Emmet county area, particularly at Holy Childhood school at Harbor Springs.

Knight Owls Raise $140 at Benefit Tilt

The Knight Owl benefit for Perry Smith last Sunday raised $140, Mayor John Knight, manager of the Knight Owls, reported

The Owls edged Cheboygan St Thomas 7-6 with Al Dorow, Michigan State gridder, pitching four-hit ball. Erratic fielding kept Cheboygan in the game John Swanson led the winners with two hits.

The Traverse City Cone Drive Gear team will play off a postponed game with the Owls at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, July 22 at Kipke field The visitors are leading the Traverse City league with a 9-2 record.

Many Factors Involved When Industry Moves

Because efforts on the part of the mayor and others in Charlevoix have been intensified in order to attract industry, it is essential that the community as a whole realizes what is necessary to attract an industry.

Industry looks for many things before it moves.

Industry comes to Michigan and stays, declines to come, or moves away, for definite and determinable reasons.

These reasons are set down in a careful study just issued by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan and a task force of the Michigan Economic Development Commission for which the survey was made.

Facts and conclusions were compiled from personal interviews with a representative sample of Michigan manufacturers. Of 200 industrialists, interviewed last year, twelve said they have been considering moving all or part of their plant to another state. A dozen more were considering expansion of their plants outside Michigan.

The survey concludes that this indicated no serious threat and says that the loss, if it should occur, would be more than compensated by construction of new plants and the movement of industry into Michigan. However, many industrialists who do not consider moving still have many complaints and, says the report, "One major cause for not planning to move a plant is a general state of inertia rather than the advantages of plant location in Michigan over alternative locations."

Advantages of a Michigan location most frequently mentioned by manufacturers are:

1. Nearness to markets; particularly to automotive plants.
2. The availability of labor personnel with highly specialized skills.
3. The presence of a labor force familiar with production techniques.
4. Nearness to materials; especially semi-fabricated parts.
5. A liking for the state as a "nice place to live."

Disadvantages most often mentioned include:

1. High labor costs—relative to output per man hour.
2. Difficulties with organized labor.
3. High local taxes, traffic congestion, lack of space for expansion.

Considerably more dissatisfaction was found in Detroit than in outstate areas. Many manufacturers saw a need for production of more steel in Michigan.

Little Ellen and Erin Arvilla celebrated their first birthday anniversaries last Friday, July 13. Since they were born Ellen has always been a tiny bit bigger than her little sister . . . that is, until last week when Erin reached 21 pounds 15 ounces and for the first time weighed the same as Ellen . . . And for their birthdays they received gifts and gifts . . . But then, who could help remembering such dolls on their all-important day . . .

• • •

GOLFERS . . . 206 in all, participated in the Amateur golf tournament here last week . . . one of the largest registrations in some time . . . But it must be disheartening for that field was cut to 63 the first day . . . What competition . . . and what courage to enter such a tournament . . . Guess we're just softhearted and want everyone to win . . .

We know now what they mean by home accidents . . . here's one for the books. Almar Arvilla fell out of a hammock Saturday night and fractured his nose . . . and of course, gave him a couple shiners . . .

• • •

WOULD THE person who spoke to the weatherman about the good weather for the golf tournament, please mention that we'd like the same sort of week-end for Venetian Night . . . it would help a great deal if it could be arranged . . .

In the July 8 issue of the New York Times, Arthur Daley in his column, wrote of a letter received from Ty Cobb . . . We quote "As a charter member of baseball's Hall of Fame he (Cobb) has become increasingly aware of the fact that at least one man who positively belongs has not yet made it. The man is his old teammate, Harry Heilmann" . . .

The next day, Heilmann, whom most of us knew best as the announcer for the Tiger games died . . . Wasn't it a shame that a man who in his playing days had made such a name for himself on the diamond and who later gave so much to baseball through radio had to leave this world without being accorded the honor he so justly deserved . . . It would have been small payment for all he had given of himself . . .

• • •

THE INFORMATION the Courier carried last week about the history of the Belvedere Golf course was given to us by Frank Supernaw . . . We wonder how many of you knew that Mr. Supernaw has been superintendent and greenskeeper of the course since it was completed 25 years ago . . . and that a portion of the course was built on his former farm . . . On his large staff of workers is one man who has been with him through the years . . . Tom Kovar . . . To say they have their hearts in their work would be putting it mildly . . .

There have been numerous instances in the last two weeks in which residents or visitors have cut their lawns and placed the cuttings at the curb.

* * *

Rains have washed the cuttings into the catch basins and plugged them badly in several cases. ....

* * *

* * *

The placing of the lawn cuttings in the street has resulted in much unnecessary work for the city crews which are needed for essential duties.

* * *

The co-operation of all homeowners and summer residents is urgently sought by the city in eliminating this nuisance.

The city crews and others are doing their utmost to keep Charlevoix the beautiful city it is widely known for.

☑ Plenty of power for your job. Power has been increased up to 20% in eight great engines—94 to 154 hp. You get top economy, too—thanks to high compression ratio, 4-ring pistons with chrome-plated top ring, and many other extra values.

☑ Maximum safety—You get the finest truck brakes in the industry! On many models you get new, molded, tapered, Cyclebond brake lining for smoother, quieter, safer braking. And you'll ride in a welded all-steel cab with an extra-big windshield.

☑ Easy handling—You can turn, park, back up and maneuver with the greatest of ease . . . because of cross-steering, short wheelbase and wide front tread. Other aids to easy handling are the comfortable new steering wheel position and extra cab visibility.

☑ Bigger payloads—Balanced weight distribution enables you to haul bigger payloads on a Dodge "Job-Rated" truck without danger of overloading. Because the engine has been moved forward and front axle back, the right proportion of the load is carried on each axle.

☑ Extra comfort—Famous "Pilot-House" cab gives you safe, all-around vision with extra-big windshield and rear quarter windows. Roomy, "chair-height" seat is widest of any popular truck. New "Oriflow" Shock Absorbers on ½-, ¾-, and 1-ton models give smoother ride.

☑ gyrol Fluid Drive—Only Dodge offers gyrol Fluid Drive. Available on ½-, ¾-, and 1-ton models. You start with amazing smoothness. Gearshifting is minimized. Wear is reduced on vital parts. And Fluid Drive protects your load by minimizing damaging jolts.

How Dodge trucks are "Job-Rated" to fit your job

A Dodge "Job-Rated" truck is engineered at the factory to provide the best in low-cost transportation. Every unit from engine to rear axle is "Job-Rated" —factory-engineered to haul a specific load.

Every load-CARRYING unit—frame, axles, springs, wheels, and tires—is engineered to provide extra strength and capacity necessary to support the load.

Every load-MOVING unit—engine, clutch, transmission, propeller shaft, rear axle, and others—is engineered to move the load under most severe operating conditions. A range of over 350 G.V.W. chassis models enables you to select a truck that meets your conditions.

Mrs. Stelter Relates High Points Of Her Scenic Trip to Alaska

That there are still people in this world with the pioneer spirit is proven in a letter from Mrs. A. J. Stelter in which she relates the story of such a man whom she met recently while on the Alaskan cruise of the National Editorial Association.

Following is her letter in part in which she relates her story: Our group of 180 members left the steamer at Seward and proceeded inland via the Alaska Railway to Mt McKinley Park where Mt. McKinley rises to 20,300 ft. of majestic beauty.

Our second trek out from the Park was to Anchorage.

This city has a population of about 30,000 and is the headquarters for the government-owned Alaska railway as well as the air center of the territory.

Anchorage has two fine daily newspapers, theatres which would be outstanding in any city, an adequate transit system, good banks and stores, unusually fine restaurants and cocktail lounges . . . in short, a modern city in every respect.

While small industries are beginning to appear on the Anchorage scene, the city's principal source of support, aside from the railway and airline payrolls, come from the government, municipal and private projects. A recent survey made by the Anchorage Chamber of Commerce reveals a total of $44,566,071 of such projects either started or shortly to be started.

Anchorage is a live, progressive city with all the warmth and hospitality of the northern frontier and it has much to offer to those who have the pioneering spirit which laughs off inconveniences and is capable of envisioning a great tomorrow.

Our group was met by the Chamber of Commerce and hardly had I left the train when I was spotted (by my Michigan badge) by Dr. Lee McKinley, a former dentist from Grosse Pointe, who has become known as Alaska's flying dentist.

* * *

AFTER DINNER two other guests and I were given the privilege of a sight-seeing plane ride with Dr. McKinley.

While waiting for the train after the plane trip, Dr. McKinley asked me if I wouldn't like to fly back to our headquarters at McKinley Park. I only needed the one invitation and after getting in touch with his charming wife the three of us took off for their home 50 miles away.

Mrs. McKinley didn't make the trip to the park with us since she needed the time at home for she was flying to Virginia 48 hours later on business for their new dental and Medical Supply Co.

At their home I met their seven children. They have a truely Christian home, where group cooperation is taught, with self reliance also stressed.

* * *

SUCH A THRILL as I had flying over the terrain of Alaska . . . swooping down a couple times over the train which had caught up with us after our stops . . . and then flying on to our destination several hours ahead of the others. The doctor remained at the hotel for the night and took off for his office in Anchorage in the morning.

I would like to give you an idea of the scope with which some of the Alaskan inhabitants work. Dr. McKinley is a good example.

From his farm in the lush Matanuska Valley to the news stands of Boston, he has become known as Alaska's flying dentist.

* * *

FOR A LONG time he has topped off a country style breakfast with the latest radio weather reports, cocked a weather eye at the sky, and flown his light plane along rugged Chugach Mountain range to his office 50 miles away.

In 1946 this pioneer left a practice in Detroit, after 11 successful years. Today he flies to his practice, manages a model farm, makes several trips annually to lonely outposts and is the attentive idol of his seven children.

When he decided, in 1946, that his future was in Alaska, he flew to Ketchikan in August, where he passed his state board examination for Alaska.

After four trips over the Alaska highway he established his office in the Palace Apartments at Anchorage. He also purchased a 160 acre farm in the Mantanuska Valley, eight miles from Palmer and 50 miles from Anchorage.

IN FEBRUARY 1947 his offices were damaged by fire. He dismissed his patients and went to assist in the rescue work as the fire spread.

Of the $20,000 worth of dental equipment in his office, only $2,800 worth was insured. Less than half was salvaged.

The doctor promptly leased larger quarters in the new Loussac-Sogn building. To the farm house 50 miles away he added a 30x40 ft. living room with three additional bedrooms above.

In June 1948 Mrs. McKinley arrived with the seven children. With the family at the farm, Dr. McKinley started commuting daily in his Aeronca.

SEVERAL times weather has forced Dr. McKinley to return to his home strip which has been cleared with a rented bulldozer. Then he uses one of the cars to drive to his office. At Palmer he arises early enough to check on the weather and drives if necessary.

He has a large practice, enough to keep himself and his staff of an assistant, a technician and two nurses busy. Even so he finds time for many outside civic activities such as being president of the Chamber of Commerce, etc and working diligently toward statehood for Alaska.

On the entire itenerary, there was much discussion pro and con regarding the advisability of statehood for the northern territory, and the doctor is definitely working toward that actuality though not prematurely so.

Alaska is an outpost of ours to be guarded well . . . and having seen several army and air posts there, we knew something was being done on preparation.

NO. 1 IN A SERIES

Zephyr
GASOLINE

"An Ounce of Enterprise is Worth a Pound of Security"

Excuse our liberties with an old saying, but in a world where more and more nations and people are selling their freedoms down the river for a pot-of-gold promise of security, we feel that an ounce of enterprise, risk, venture, or whatever you call that willingness to chance today for a better tomorrow, is worth a pound of security. We wonder where we would be today if Chris Columbus had traded his ambitions, curiosities, and courage for a siesta in the shade, or if the Pilgrims had given up their religious principles for physical security in England. We wonder, too, where we would be, if today's store owners, shopkeepers, contractors, industrialists, and business people had preferred not to risk their time and money on a chance for success. We don't know the answers, but we do know that when individuals no longer depend upon themselves, but turn instead to "big" political ideas of mass security, or rely on "bigness" in any form to take care of them, they have lost that spark of individual enterprise and courage on which this country was founded.

So today, while our sons are fighting freedom's battles on foreign shores, and "security" is being substituted for "initiative" and "enterprise" at home, we, in this series of advertisements, are going to attempt to reassert the importance of the individual in a world of "bigness". And we are going to back up our talk with the awards described below.

You can win a:

$2,000.00 Scholarship to the College of Your Choice . . . . .

You can win:

$2,000.00 Toward the Starting of Your Business . . . .

Plus a Total of $1,300.00 in U. S. Defense Bonds . . . .

In an industry of "giants", we are very "small potatoes", but because our products are as good as the biggests', and because our business is built on the enterprise and initiative of independent businessmen . . . our jobbers and dealers, we are successful. As long as the individuals in our company and in our jobber-dealer organization strive for self-betterment and individual success, we will continue to succeed.

To foster this idea of self-betterment we will award one $2,000.00 scholarship to the college or university of the winner's choice. Anyone between the ages of 16 to 28 inclusive (with the exception of the employees and their families of this company, its jobbers, dealers and advertising agency) can compete.

Because we feel that "small business" and the people who make it up are most representative of the American ideal of "free enterprise", and because we admire the ambition, initiative and courage of those who want to go into business for themselves, we will award $2,000.00 toward the starting of some small business . . . your business. Anyone 21 or over (excepting the employees and their families of this company, its jobbers, dealers and advertising agency) is eligible to compete.

Twenty-four runner-up awards of United States Defense Bonds will be made. Award competition will be handled by the R. L. Polk Company, Chicago, with prominent Wisconsin and Michigan educators and businessmen as final judges. This award program will be carried out only in the areas in Wisconsin and Michigan where Zephyr gasoline is sold . . . your chances are good. Get complete information and entry forms at your Zephyr dealer listed below . . . absolutely no obligation. Get it today.

No vacation to northern Michigan would be complete without a trip to Beaver Island which lies 35 miles northwest of Charlevoix in Lake Michigan.

Known as the only kingdom within the United States, the island, the largest in the Beaver group, is abundant in history, natural beauty and hospitality sprinkled with a bit of old Ireland.

It is the site of the former Kingdom of James Strang who proclaimed himself king of a Mormon colony he had brought to the island settlement when he severed relations with the original group headed by Brigham Young. Strang was assassinated by some of his followers in 1856.

Still to be found are such historic spots as one of the first trading posts in the north which was built about 1830; the building where the first newspaper north of Grand Rapids, the Northern Islander, was printed by Strang; the whipping post where punishment was meted out by Strang's underlings; the lighthouse at Beaver Head on the south end of the island and at St. James Harbor, nearly a hundred years old and among the oldest on the Great Lakes. It was the construction of the latter which brought the Irish to Beaver Island.

Added to these are the natural beauty spots which can be seen on a motor trip about the island plus a special brand of Irish hospitality which gives the place its name of America's Emerald Isle.

Many desirable facilities are available including isolated cabins on beautiful sandy beaches, rooms or hotel accomodations.

Tho most recent addition is the Beaver Lodge which will open later this month and which promises to give deluxe accomodations to visitors.

Started a year ago, the building is nearing completion and will offer meals in its own dining room as well as rooms.

For those who love the water, transportation is available aboard the motorship, North Shore, of the Beaver Island Transit Co. which leaves Charlevoix daily. Cars can be taken aboard the boat for those who plan to stay and want their own transportation.

And for those who are more hurried or are bothered with 'mal-de-mer' there is the McPhillips Flying Service at the Municipal Airport here where arrangements can be made to fly to and from the island at your own convenience.

Clayton Healey Is Committeeman For Farm Group

Clayton Healey, of Eveline Township, has been appointed committeeman for the Farmers Home administration in Charlevoix County, according to J. C. Young, county supervisor.

The Farmers Home administration has a county committee of three farmers, who must approve the eligibility of all applicants before any loan is made. The committee meets on an average of once each month. They must also approve loans made on farms and set the amount of such loans.

Mr. Healey has long been prominent in Charlevoix County and neighboring affairs. He operates one of the better known dairy places in the county, combining that with an increasing fruit business. He succeeds Mr. Harry Behling of Wilson Township. Mr. Behling has been a committeeman for three years, a regular term, and under the law is not eligible to succeed himself.

The other members of the committee are Melvin Somerville, Jr., of Evangeline Township and Jasper Warner of Norwood.

Bob Maddox, agricultural engineer from Michigan State college and Ed Rebman, county farm agent, discuss with Kenneth VanHoesen of near Horton Bay, plans for a barn the latter would like to build. Although VanHoesen is deeply interested in pen type barns, the situation on his farm is not favorable for this type of construction. He plans to have a small dairy herd along with a cherry orchard and general farming.

Plan Dairy Barn Construction To Avoid Costly Errors

Farmers who plan their dairy barns before they begin their construction earn themselves good money according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Without proper planning, mistakes will be made, costs of construction will not be kept to a minimum and the building will not be such that the dairy cow can use it to the fullest possibility.

Generally, the first item to be discussed in constructing a barn is the cost. How much should you spend for a building to produce milk. Usually you can figure that animals will pay 6 percent to 10 percent of their annual income for housing.

Also you should figure that building will cost roughly 8 percent per year for their annual cost. Therefore if we take the annual income from dairy cattle, capitalize it at 8 percent, we should get a good investment in housing per animal.

For instance, if a cow produces 6000 pounds of milk per year and if we say the milk is $3.00 per hundred weight, this would be $180 income per cow. Then if we say 10 percent is a safe rent it would make $18.00 per cow that we could charge off as building costs.

Then if we divide the $18.00 by 8 percent it will give us an investment of $225 per cow. For a 10 cow herd this would be $2250.

• • •

THERE ARE several ways that farmers can keep the cost of their building down. One is use as much home grown material as possible. Many farmers have woodlots out of which they can cut elm for laminated rafters and other timber for some of the other material. Doing as much construction work as possible for yourself will also reduce the cost. Building the dairy barn for the cows themselves and not too much for the operators comfort will also hold the cost down.

The next step generally is what type of barn should a farmer construct. Shall it be the pen type barn or shall it be the stanchion type barn. Both of these types of barns serve their purpose very well. Usually, however, the pen type barn can be constructed with less cost than a stanchion type barn. Many farmers prefer a stanchion type barn or else they are in a situation where a pen type barn will not work.

Both the stanchion type barn and the pen type barn have advantages and disadvantages. Some of the advantages of the stanchion type barn are as follows: 1. Provides a warmer working place for the person doing chores, 2. Conserves bedding and makes less manure to handle, 3. Cows show off better, 4. It is easier to dehorn cows and 5. Stanchion barn work is easier to teach hired help.

THE disadvantages of stanchion barns are as follows: 1. Cost of construction is higher, 2. Lower labor efficiency, 3. Animal vitality and health appear poor, 4. Cows are believed to suffer more leg and udder injury, 5. more leaching and loss of liquid manure when stored in a pile and 6. Very inflexible, must be used for dairy cows.

Some of the advantages of the pen type barn are as follows: 1. Lower construction cost, 2. Higher labor efficiency, 3. more comfort for the animal promotes better health and vitality, 4. Less leg and udder injury experienced, 5. More and better quality of manure is available to help maintain soil fertility and 6. Building is very flexible and may be used for other livestock enterprises without remodeling. The disadvantages of pen type barns appear as follows: 1. The temperature of the work place may be too cold for the comfort of the operator, 2. More bedding is required, 3. Boss cows must be disposed of, 4. A stanchion must be provided in a maternity pen and 5. The routine of milking is harder to teach to hired help.

IT HAPPENED ON ....

BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Henley

Beaver Islanders will welcome the Chicago yachtmen Thursday when they will tie up at the island docks after the Chicago-Mackinac race. "King" Bill Whalen and his gang will take over the island during the Yachtmen's Jamboree.

John Roen came to the island in his beautiful yacht to visit among his many friends. Roen at one time was a partner of Gus Mielke here on Beaver Island.

* * *

* * *

THE DATE set for delivering the horses has been set for July 29. A large crowd of visitors is expected to come to the island especially to make the excursion to High Island with the horses.

Owen McCauley and daughter, Clementine, have been the guests of Mel and Frank Gallagher.

After months of preparation, hard work, anxiety and the sudden death of Jack Johnston this spring, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Davison are happy to announce the opening of Beaver Lodge. Their first guests arrived last week and this week, the Lodge is filled to capacity.

MRS. Charles Welke and her two youngsters from Pontiac are visiting Mrs. Welke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Schmidt.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lockton and children are visiting Mrs. Lockton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cull.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter O. Gallagher, Charlevoix, are visiting on the island.

Mrs. Karl Erber and family left on Tuesday's boat to return to their home in Charlevoix after vacationing in their log cabin on Sand Bay.

Mrs. Henry Allen accompanied her husband on a business trip to Garden, Michigan last week.

* * *

THE ALTAR Society of Holy Cross Church sponsored a successful party at the Parish Hall last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cuddington spent a short vacation on the island as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDonough.

Mrs. Lawrence Malloy, Jr., arrived Saturday from Chicago to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald and children, Dennis, Karen, Kathy and Mike of Ann Arbor arrived Saturday to spend two weeks in Allen's log house.

Mrs. Josephine McCourt has as her guest May Lino of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen entertained the visitors from Ann Arbor Saturday with a pot luck dinner at their home. Tables were arranged on the spacious lawn under bright colored beach umbrellas. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Libbs and daughter, Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fitzgerald and family and the Hanley family.

* * *

JOY McDonough and Lillian Connaghan have returned to Grand Rapids after spending two weeks with their parents.

Janet King Feted At Bridal Showers

Janet King, whose marriage to Don Hardy will be an event of Saturday, July 21, at the Church of God, was guest of honor at two bridal showers given recently.

On Saturday evening Colleen Reed and Mary Alice Lagerman invited Ann Gill of Grand Rapids, Joan Hess, Shirlee Clement, Sara Coleman, Patsy Rose and Mrs. Charles Fairbanks to a shower at the Reed home.

A social evening and refreshments served at a table decorated with summer flowers were enjoyed by the group before the bride-elect was presented with many lovely gifts.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Robert King invited 17 guests to her Ironton home in honor of the bride-elect.

Invited guests were Mrs. Sam King, Mrs. Richard Hull, Sally King, Mrs. Claude Davy, Mrs. Tom Nielsen, Mrs. Sheridan Root, Mrs. R. J. Nowland Sr., Mrs. R. J. Nowland Jr., Mrs. John Norton, Mrs. Clarence Rabach, B. J. Cunningham, Beverly Looze, Mrs. Ralph Price, Mrs. Ross Alexander, Mrs. Frank Coatta, Mrs. Keith Wagner and Mrs. Harry Glossenger.

Card of Thanks

To Rev Wood, members of his congregation, Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher and Beverly Plum, the doctors and nurses, and all the other friends and neighbors, we the family of Mrs. Emma Hair, sincerely thank you for your expressions of sympathy, but most of all we appreciate the many kindnesses during the months of sorrow and illness.

Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit will speak at the Kiwanis Club meeting at the Beach Hotel at 6:30, Monday, Joly 30.

His topic will be: "City Government And Its Problems", with special emphasis on the solution of financial difficulties of Municipalities.

While in Charlevoix, Mayor and Mrs. Albert E. Cobo will be house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weinbaum, summer residents.

Mayor Cobo has been connected with the city government of Detroit for the past 21 years, and was city treasurer for 17 years prior to his election as mayor.

He has an outstanding record, both as treasurer and as mayor. During his term of office as treasurer he was called upon to act as financial advisor to several Mayors serving the city of Detroit.

He was the first official to put the city of Detroit on a pay-as-you-go basis during the depression, where expenses were met by the income.

During this trying period he inaugurated the "7 year plan," which allowed home owners to pay their taxes within a 7 year period, thereby allowing many to save their homes, which might have otherwise been lost by tax sale.

Area Industry Group Elects Officers Here

More than 150 businessmen of 10 counties, meeting with the state Economic Development commission at the Belvedere Friday evening, transformed the area industrial promotion committee that has been hard at work for nine months into a permanent organization to be known as the Northwest Michigan Industrial Development Council.

The by-laws adopted at Charlevoix specify the Council's annual meeting will be held in October and provide that until next October the officers and executive committee of the area committee it replaces will serve as the officers and board of directors of the Council.

* * *

WARD STUBBS, Frankfort banker, and Cressy Campbell, Buckley hardware merchant, who have headed the area committee as chairman and vice chairman since it was organized last October, will for the present be president and vice president of the council. The committee had only the two officers. Miss Helen Bradley, Petoskey Chamber of Commerce secretary, was elected secretary and Leo Spencer, Elk Rapids banker, treasurer.

The council will seek new industries for its area and will help communities of the 10 counties to expand the industries they have.

A detailed program of work for the Council was adopted by the committee. It calls first for industrial surveys of all towns in the area to establish their advantages as locations for industry, and for a vigorous program to balance the region's big summer tourist business with year-'round payrolls.

The industrial survey phase of the program will get underway fast. Charles Slayman, general industrial commissioner of the C. and O. Railway, attending the meeting as industrial committee chairman of the Economic Development Commission, volunteered to bring an expert immediately from Cleveland to direct the surveys in the 15 northwestern towns the C. and O. serves.

* * *

THOMAS FISHER, of Kalkaska one of the region's newest manufacturers, said the advantages of outlying areas of the state for small manufacturers outweigh those of the industrial areas.

Chairman of the meeting was James T. Milliken, Traverse City merchant.

SPEAKERS included Dan Gerber, Fremont baby food manufacturer, who is chairman of the Economic Development Commission, and Walker Cisler, executive vice president of Detroit Edison Co. Mr. Cisler heads a Commission committee in charge of the recent University of Michigan opinion survey designed to show what Michigan manufacturers think of their state.

Former Resident Dies in Petoskey

Mrs. Sylvia Stinson, 49, former resident who had lived in Petoskey for the past ten years, died Thursday at Lockwood General Hospital in Petoskey after a long illness.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home Sunday with the Rev. L. L. Lewis officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Born in Hayes township March 9, 1902, the former Sylvia Baker was married to Edward Stinson March 12, 1920. She was a practical nurse and had been employed here and in Petoskey. She was a member of the Baptist church.

Surviving are seven children, T/Sgt. Edward stationed at an airbase in Florida, Cpl. Richard of Fort Custer, Pfc. Jack of Camp McCoy, Wis., Mrs. Delbert Clark of Harbor Springs Mrs. Larry Woodward, Eugene and Walter of Grand Rapids; six grandchildren; her mother, Mrs. William Wagley of this city; four sisters, Mrs. Hugh Hathaway of Alanson Mrs. Walter Mummert of Brutus, Mrs. Henry Erber of Boyne City and Mrs. Douglas Coblentz of Ironton; five brothers, William of Adrian, Warren of Midland, Harry of Longview, Wash., Claude of Kegomic and Sims of Charlevoix.

Fun-Packed Entertainment Program Aimed to Thrill Thousands of Visitors

Two-Hour Show To Precede Boat Parade

A two-hour variety show will be presented in East Park at 7 p.m. Sunday evening for visitors who are here for the annual Venetian Night Boat parade which will follow when darkness falls.

Highlighting the program will be "Spotlight on Yooth" a troop of yoongsters four through fourteen, from Station WBCM in Bay City. The yoothful performers will present song and dance routines including toe, ballet and acrobatic dancing. The entertainers will present their program Saturday, Sunday and Monday at the Beach Hotel.

The Charlevoix Marine band directed by C. A Odmark, will open the program and will be followed by the Camp Charlevoix Boys chorus singing sea chanties. Zach Whyte, piano artist, will also present several selections in his own inimitable style.

DURING THE EVENING Venetian Queen Joan Ward and members of her court will be introduced before they board the royal barge, the cruiser, May-Jo, to view the Venetian Boat parade.

S. E. Coleman, secretary of the board of commerce, has arranged the program which preceeds the colorful boat parade on Round Lake.

City to Be Host to State Mail Carriers

Charlevoix will be host to another convention in 1952.

The Michigan Association of Rural Mail Carriers, numbering some 350 members and guests, will hold their convention at the Beach Hotel in July.

The decision to hold their annual convention in Charlevoix resulted after S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Board of Commerce, appeared before the delegates at their convention in Grand Rapids.

This announcement came two weeks after that of the Michigan Press association which will hold its 1952 convention at the Beach hotel the last week-end in June.

Efforts are being made to line up a dozen conventions for this city next year. Several groups will announce their decisions within the next few weeks.

Mayor Knight, Mr. Coleman and E. L. Kramer of the Beach hotel are striving to interest many organizations in holding their conventions here. They are urging other residents here to do their utmost in interesting groups to meet in Charlevoix.

This city has much more to offer convention delegates than many other cities much larger in size.

Carey Boys to Operate Day Camp in August

Bill and Bob Carey will operate their Carey day camp starting August 1.

They will return from Fort Sill Okla., where they have spent six weeks in advanced R.O.T.C. camp as part of their training before being commissioned in the U. S. Army next June.

The Kiddie Carey-All will start to make its rounds Wednesday, Aug. 1 and will operate during August.

Attend the Congregational Women's Bazaar all day Thursday on church lawn. Ice cream social in the afternoon. Bake goods, aprons and etc.

Fred Alger To Crowm Queen At Venetian Ball

Ticket sales for the Queen's ball at the Beach Hotel Saturday evening are going well, Jack Mailhot, chairman of the ticket committee for the Lions Club, sponsors of the ball, announced today.

Dancing for the ball to be held in the Beach Hotel dining room overlooking Lake Michigan will begin at 9 p.m. to the music of Four Ships and a Miss. Special entertainment is being planned.

Fred M. Alger Jr., secretary of state, will officiate at the coronation ceremony during which Joan Ward, Charlevoix's 1951 Venetian queen will receive her crown. The event will also be Queen Joan's birthday anniversary.

Queens from East Jordan, Boyne City and Petoskey have been extended an invitation to atend the ball as guests of the Lions Club, sponsors of the ball.

S. E. Coleman, secretary of the board of commerce and a member of the Lions club, wil be master of ceremonies.

Rites Saturday For Otto Smith

Funeral services for Otto Smith, 64, former groceryman were held at the See Funeral Home Saturday with the Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

He died Wednesday at the Grandvue Hospital, East Jordan, after a long illness.

Born at Galien June 23, 1887, he was married to the former Blanche Melhorn at Jackson Sept. 14, 1912. They lived in southern Michigan until coming to Charlevoix in 1919. They operated a neighborhood grocery store on south Bridge st. from 1922 until 1934. Later he was employed at the Packard plant in Detroit where he was injured in an industrial accident. He returned here to make his home after being retired.

He is survived by three children, Frank and Mrs Bruce Donaldson of Charlevoix and Mrs. Harold Grattan of Pontiac; nine grandchildren; four brothers, Lester and Carl of Jackson, Earl of Detroit and Chester of Charlevoix; five sisters, Mrs. Shirley Peary, Mrs. Carl Holland and Mrs. Harrison Barnhart of Jackson, Mrs. Mable Mahoney of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. Lewis Brant of Charlevoix.

30 Boats Will Compete for Annual Prizes

Activities of the Charlevoix Marine club are being stepped up in preparation for the annual Venetian Night Boat parade Sunday evening on Round Lake.

At the last meeting Tuesday night, all members present busied themselves with the making of lights, the distribution of Japanese lanterns and other last minute details.

Franklin Ochs, secretary of the club, said arrangements were being made to have Samuel Freedman's cruiser, the Mary F., and Alvin Goldman's, Boss, tow the strings of decorated boats in the parade.

* * *

BECAUSE MOST contestants wish to keep the theme of their decorations for Venetian Night a secret until the time of the parade, approximately 30 boat owners are working behind closed doors to prepare their entries for the parade.

Venetian Queen Joan Ward and her court will view the parade from the cruiser, May-Jo, on which a lighted throne will be placed. Preceding the parade the royal float will cruise around the shores of Round Lake.

RAY O'BRIEN and Tony Novotny will be in charge of the fireworks display which will be sent up from Little Island.

Plan Excursion To High Island Sunday, July 29

Horses! Horses! Horses!

Beaver Islanders are turning their attention to western outfits, saddles and horses for Sunday, July 29th when the North Shore will make an excursion to High Island to deliver the dozen mares and one stallion.

This will be the initial load of horses for the High Island Wild Horse Ranch which is being promoted by Ed Borke and Archie LaFreniere of Beaver Island and Jess Underwood of Gladwin, Michigan.

Burke operates a taxi on the island, LaFreniere is the owner of the Shamrock Tavern and Underwood is a cattle and horse dealer who operates a ranch in Gladwin.

Preceeding the excursion, a parade has been planned, a real parade reminiscent of the old west will be staged down the main street.

Larry Davison dressed as a cowboy and riding his high steppin' pony will lead the parade. Archie, Ed and Jess will be sporting fancy western shirts and will follow Davison on horse back. For a real touch of humor, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kinney will hitch up old Dobbin to a buggy and joggle along in rib tickling outfits.

The North Shore will return to the Island about an hour earlier on Sunday to make the run to High Island. A large number of passengers are expected to make the trip to view the horses jump from the boat off shore High Island and swim ashore.

Coming Events

July 26 — Annual Congregational church Bazaar on the church lawn.

July 28 — Venetian Queen's Ball at Beach Hotel.

July 29 — Venetian Night.

August 1 — Women's Guild of the Episcopal church will meet at the cottage of Mrs. Hess at Oyster Bay. Promptly at 1:30 p.m.

It's Time to Cut Federal Spending

In 1948 the Republican 80th Congress reduced the national debt, balanced the budget and trimmed taxes. Today, after four years of the Truman Administration, the nation is deep in debt, the unreclaimable cost of war is mounting, and inflation continues to soar.

But the President wants to spend $71.6 billion in fiscal 1952 — the largest peacetime budget in the nation's history — and he defies Congress to find excessive and nonessential items.

Republican Representative Thomas A. Jenkins of Ohio in a series of speeches in Congress pointed out that:

In 1948 the State Department spent $154 million; in fiscal 1952 they want to spend $302 million. In 1948 the Labor Department spent $86 million; in 1952 they want to spend $221 million. In 1948 the Federal Security Agency spent $937 million, in 1952 they want to spend $2.2 billion. In 1948 the Interior Department spent $350 million; in 1952 they want to spend $610 million. In 1948 the Housing and Home Financing Agency spent $13 million; in 1952 they want to spend $39 million. In 1948 the Agricultural Department spent $985 million; in 1952 they want to spend $1.4 billion.

The Administration has spent $28 billion since July 1, 1945, in foreign aid programs whose relation to defense is questionable, and wants to spend $7 billion in fiscal 1952. It also wants to spend $9.6 billion and to lend another $2 billion for non-defense domestic purposes.

Representative Jenkins and other Republicans believe the spending, lending, giving-away and taxing program of the Truman Administration should be drastically curtailed in this emergency.

Housewives Besieged with Solicitors

Every summer local residents are besieged with transient magazine solicitors

Many of these salespeople are legitimately working for magazine firms. However, some few are not. This makes it difficult for many housewives and others to distinguish between the legitimate and non-legitimate.

The Board of Commerce calls attention to the fact that subscriptions to all magazines are available from several merchants. Persons needing subscriptions are urged to patronize one of these stores.

The owners of these stores pay local taxes and support the community so it seems only fair that they should be patronized. Buying from a local merchant also means that the delivery of the magazine is assured whereas some residents report that they order and pay for magazines but do not obtain delivery.

This can be avoided by trading with local merchants who will gladly take your subscription to your favorite magazine.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fren Martin

Don't know how they do it but we've heard of more good catches of fish recently . . . Lots of bass, some perch and in the smaller lakes big pike . . . And have you seen those weird lights on the lawns at night . . . Don't be alarmed if you're seeing them for the first time . . . They're head lights on kids looking for night crawlers with which above mentioned fishermen catch those fish.

• • •

THIS WILL BE Charlevoix's big week-end . . . Venetian Night parade, the ball and all the other fun that goes with it . . . Do you realize it's the one big show in the north that's for free . . . All you have to do is come to town and watch it . . . No tickets, no reserved seats . . . just a beautiful spectacle . . . well worth the while of any visitor . . . And for free . . . What other town can make that boast? . . .

And speaking of Venetian Night . . . Keep your fingers crossed that the weather will remain good . . . 'Cause if there's one thing that's tough it's sweating out the weather . . .

• • •

CHARLEVOIX struck it lucky last week when the big storm by-passed us and hit Petoskey . . . A lot of damage was done by hail, lightening and water . . . Not a pleasant thought . . .

Do you 'collect' license plates? . . . Not literally, just see how many different ones you can see during a season . . . In case you do, we saw one the other day from British Columbia . . And of course there are scads of others from just about every state . . .

Did you visit Harbor Springs last week-end for the Ottowa Indian Naming ceremony? . . . I'm told by Mrs. Ronald Abfalter and others who attended that it was well worth the trip to see . . As you know, Dr. A. F. Litzenburger was among the ten persons honored . . . It certainly speaks well for him and for the work done by the District Health unit . . . Added to that the dances, costumes and entire program were lovely to see . . . If you've never seen it, don't miss it another year . . .

• • •

The only sea-going member of the Courier staff, Fred Ditmer, had quite an experience the other day . . . As he stepped from his boat to the dock, on the south side of Round Lake he found himself stepping into thin air as the boat slid out from the dock . . . Fred went down but came up glasses, lighted cigar and all . . .

• • •

Many people who live in town or elsewhere have small farms or garden spots in the country . . On these farms they raise fruit or garden produce for their use . . . Often times there's no one living near the spot . . and a result, there are those who feel it is their right to take what they'd like from the trees or gardens . . The fact that no one lives on the land does not give you or anyone a right to take the things raised there . . . So next time you decide to 'snitch' some thing, whether it's fruit, vegetables or flowers, think twice about it . . . It's not yours, you know, and you have no right to it . . .

Attend the Congregational Women's Bazaar all day Thursday on church lawn. Ice cream social in the afternoon. Bake goods, aprons and etc.

If you want to see Charlevoix and its scenic beauties. Try it on a bicycle. You can rent them at Brown Motors. Reasonable too.

Girl Scout News

Four girls from local Girl Scout Troop 4 were on the welcoming committee when International Troop 13 of Ann Arbor came through Charlevoix on their Caravan Trip around Lake Michigan Sunday, July 22, Faye Meggison, Phyllis Williams, Sandra Gregory and Donna Ikens were invited to join the girls in sleeping out near the Charlevoix Rod and Gun Club house.

Eleven girls and their leaders, Mrs. Staubach, Mrs. Ellis, and Mr. and Mrs. Lenz and small son, Peter, left Ann Arbor in three cars July 17 and drove to Ludington where they crossed the car-ferry to Manitowac. They drove to Kohler, Wis. They were taken on a conducted tour.

When the girls arrived in Charlevoix, they had a treat in store for them, a delicious home-cooked dinner at the home of Mrs. Harvey Campbell whose granddaughter, Ann Jones, is a member of the troop. After dinner came an unexpected surprise. Don Campbell invited them for a sight-seeing tour aboard his cruiser. Through the courtesy of the Charlevoix Rod and Gun Club, the girls were permitted to make camp for the night.

Leaving Charlevoix, the girls planned to stop in Traverse City, then on to Northport to pick cherries. Other points of interest before the group returns to Ann Arbor Thursday include stops at Glen Lake, Sleeping Bear Dune, the Fish Hatchery at Beulah and Interlochen National Music Camp.

The girls earned the money for their trip by collecting, tying and loading 25 tons of scrap paper, selling Christmas trees, coat hangers and greeting cards. It was a pleasure to meet such a fine group of girls and enthusiastic leaders.

One County Man Slated for Induction

The Charlevoix county draft board has announced the name of the one man who will be sent to Detroit for induction into the armed forces in August.

He is Francis P. Jerema of Boyne Falls, who will report at the court house here at 8 a.m. Monday, Aug. 6, for transportation to the Detroit induction center.

The draft board has not been notified of its quota for physical examinations next month.

Janet King, Donald Hardy Exchange Vows

Baskets of summer flowers decorated the altar of the Church of God for the wedding of Janet Ruth King and Donald Fred Hardy Saturday evening.

The Rev. W. D. Wood read the service in the presence of their immediate families.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam King and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hull.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an aqua gown, white accessories and a headdress of white mums. Her corsage was of white carnations and mums.

Ronald J. Cunningham was best man.

Mrs. King selected a grey dress, beige accessories and a corsage of red roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hull, mother of the bridegroom, wore a royal blue dress, white accessories and a red rose corsage.

Immediately following the service a reception for 40 guests was held at Fellowship hall. A tiered wedding cake centered the reception table which was decorated with bouquets of summer flowers. Bouquets of the same flowers were used about the room.

After a wedding trip to southern Michigan the couple has returned here to make their home.

Joan Crump Honored At Bridal Shower

Joan Crump whose marriage to Jack Grubaugh was an event of Tuesday, was honored at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Joseph Williams Friday evening.

Thirty-five guests were invited for a social evening, games and refreshments. Bouquets of garden flowers decorated the house.

The bride-elect received many lovely gifts.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

What's So Funny?

Just finished reading a magazine article that "proves" you and I don't know what's funny.

A bunch of psychologists came to this sad conclusion after telling jokes to college students. Very often they would give out with what they considered a side-splitter and not get even a chuckle in response. Other times the students would laugh their heads off at stories that weren't considered really funny.

Maybe I'm wrong, but what makes a psychologist such a better judge of humor than the rest of us? If a man gets a kick out of a joke that proves it was funny to him doesn't it?

From where I sit, when psychologists try to set up a standard for a sense of humor they're getting too serious for me. Stands to reason that different people laugh at different things, just as they have different tastes for most everything. I'm partial to a glass of beer with meals myself—but I promise not to make any "wisecracks" if you prefer tea.

What's Doing at Camp Charlevoix

The third week of camping here at Camp Charlevoix was one filled with much enthusiasm, as this week marked the beginning of the seasonal trips by canoe, sailboat and horse to the many parks and camping areas in northern Michigan.

As example of this enthusiasm was seen in the recent three-day trip over land and water taken by Cabin 17 to beautiful and historic Beaver Island 30 miles west of Charlevoix in Lake Michigan. Cabinmates Tony Love, Larry Reisinger, Jim Keachie, Bill Zebedee, Walt Simmons, Sandy Wiener, and Jim Rockwell will long remember their eventful three days on the Island, particularly their victorious softball game, a visit to the buildings of the only American king who ever lived, and the memorable boat-trip back to Charlevoix.

An overnight horse trip to nearby Mt. McSauba proved most interesting for Cabin 16 which included the following horsemen: Dick Degener, John Logie, Tom Watkins, Tom Kearney, John Hord, Joel Black, Lev Flournoy and counselor-cowboy Webb Wilson and Buff Gels.

Another overnight excursion was made by the members of Cabin 14 canoeing down the East Jordan River and included sailors: Gregory Gebhart, Kip Taylor, David Black, Tom Gravengood, David Love, Spike Landell and Jerry Maish.

With camping season fast approaching the half-way mark we find it pertinent here to remind the parents of the camp rule that no candy, gum or food is to be sent to the boys. All are urged to cooperate with the camp in maintaining this rule.

The "Annual Camp Carnival" was doubtedlessly the biggest event of the third week, when many ingenious concessions were set-up by the cabin groups. The booth in the Junior section which received the largest patronage of campers, parents and friends was the "Sponge Toss" by Cabin 5, and operated under the proprietorship of Steve Robinson, Bobby Mehring, Erich Schneider, David Matthews, George Piper, Phillip Baldenhofer, and Micky Rovin. The two cabins receiving the greatest total of Carnival tickets for the big Sunday afternoon were Cabin 9 and 16 with their unique "Snake Races" and Balloon Bust".

In a recent rematch with Camp Hayowenta, the Camp Charlevoix Archery team composed of Tim Barnes, Bobby O'Brien, Bob Nester, and Tom Watkins were the victors in a beautifully played meet, and are looking forward to future contests in intercamp competition.

Al Dorow spoke on "Sportsmanship" at the weekly outdoor chapel service. A recent addition to the beauty of the Chapel is the master portable organ. Ken Nyquist, chapel leader, thrilled the congregation of parents and campers when he sang "The Lord's Prayer."

With prospects for continuing fine weather, all the campers are looking forward to their many trips to such places as Young State Park on Lake Charlevoix, Eastport on Lake Michigan, and beautiful Wilderness State Park near Mackinaw City. With a competent background in campcraft and nature, the youngsters are anxious to become real campers in the weeks ahead.

Highlights of the second week of camp for the youngsters were intra and inter-camp competition, plus the week's climax with the annual Tribe of Charlevoix Initiation ceremony which proved to be a unique and memorable experience, particularly for the new "braves". Excellent camping weather made all of these events a huge success.

Last Monday afternoon the first meeting of the Campers Council was held with following campers assuming roles of officers of the cabin representative group:

Chairman, Sandy Weiner; Vice-chairman, Dick Degener; secretary, John McBride; and treasurer, Scott Cappel. Other positions which were filled by the vote of the campers were Frank Rossevelt, editor of the weekly camp newspaper, assisted by associate editor, Peter Barret, and reporters Rob Waterman, Todd Cobey, Clem Gill, Peter Williams, Tom Gravengood and Dick Degener.

Green and Grey competition reached an exciting pitch this past week with an All-Camp game of "Capture the Flag", which was won by the Grey team, and were led into battle by captains Hugh Drum, John Watson, and Larry Reisinger. Sunday afternoon saw first Green and Grey "Waterfront Afternoon" and was thoroughly enjoyed by both the participants and the visiting parents.

In the Senior section the Free style swimming event was won by Dick Degener with Sandy Wiener a close second. Young Degener also took first honors in the backstroke with second place captured by Larry Reisinger. The free-style relay race was won by the Grey quartet of Degener, Reisinger, Tim Barnes, and Lucien Layne.

A new event this year called the "Canoe Whistle Race", was won by the talented team of Terry Black and Frank Roosevelt. Tom Watkins and Dick Degener took first honors in the annual rowboat race, Larry Reisinger again showing his sailing ability in capturing first place in the Sailboat race which climaxed the afternoon's activities.

Winners in the Intermediate Section for the Waterfront Afternoon were Bob Gordon in the free style event; backstroke, A. Gardner; Freestyle relay team of Gordon, Gardner, Ron MacDonald and Chris Roosevelt. The interesting canoe tilt contest was finally decided in favor of Dwight Smith and Chuck Eisendrath.

Ames Gardner and Ron MacDonald helped their Grey team to finish in a tie with the Greens by winning first place in the finale, a rapid canoe race. With the Junior Section's Green team victory, the score at the end of the second week stood at a tie of 6½ to 6½, which has all appearances of close competitinn for the remainder of the summer.

The following campers went to Camp Hayowenta on Torch Lake last Friday to meet their softball teams in the first inter-camp competition of the season: Ricki Lenz, Dick Degener, Dave Love, John McBride, Bob Waddell, Doug Nichols, Kip Taylor, Bobby Wood, and Tommy Cravengood composed the Intermediate team, with Sandy Wiener, Jim Rockwell, Jim Keachie, Tom Taylor, Bob Inch, Tom James, Tony Love, Ames Gardner and Larry Reisinger the members of the senior team.

Saturday night's Initiation Council Fire was helped in its grand success by Indian Dancers Lucien Layne, Jerry Maish, Bob Nester and Ed Vardon.

Here's an Aid To Help Solve Eating Problem

To aid visitors and guests of Charlevoix, the Courier last year for the first time published a vacation guide, designed to assist visitors to select places to dine, dance and obtain entertainment.

Among the favorite spots are the following:

Cal's Tavern, two miles north of East Jordan on the Boyne City road. Under new management of Jimmie and Ruth Rodda, they specialize in steaks, chops and Italian spaghetti in one of the most attractive dining rooms in the north. A bar adjoins the dining room. Cal's boasts only the finest of foods.

Specializing in Sunday dinners, the Temple Grill at East Jordan. The Grill features chicken and turkey dinners complete with dessert. The Grill is open daily and evenings for short orders plate lunches and fountain service.

For those persons driving in the Traverse City sector, the Park Place hotel is recommended. A hot buffet lunchenn on Sunday night is really a treat. You may be served in the air conditioned dining room or outdoor terrace.

The Rainbow Gardens on M-75 southeast of Boyne City is another favorite stopping place for dinners and cocktails. They feature chicken dinners frankenmuth style and guests may choose their salad from the salad bar. Ed and Betty Higby are the new owners

In Boyne City it's the Dilworth hotel, well-known for fine food. Recommended by Duncan Hines, it has catered to the traveling public for many years. Their chicken, fish and steak are among their specialties.

Dinner by candlelight is one of the distinctive features at the Indian River Inn at Indian River. It long has been famous for its food, refined atmosphere and discriminating service. Famous for steaks, fowl and sea food.

At Eastport, travelers will find the Blossom Inn on US 31 which has gained a reputation for delicious steaks, chicken and barbecue ribs served from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Mrs. Frank Dobbs Honored on Birthday

Mrs. Frank Dobbs of Norwood was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when nine of her neighbors dropped in with baskets of goodies to help her celebrate her birthday.

The meal was topped off with home made ice cream and birthday cake. Her friends wished her many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Dobbs was presented with a gift from the group.

You Couldn't Make a Smarter Buy!

BEFORE you make any deal on a new car, remember this:

One of the most important things you buy when you buy a new car is its name!

It means a car so thoroughly good it will give you years of carefree pleasure.

It means performance so fine you will look forward to every minute behind the wheel.

It means a car so beautiful it stands apart from everything else on the road.

The name Pontiac on your car means you are buying from a dealer who takes pride in the car he sells, the service he provides and his place in the community.

Come on in and talk deal—see how easy it is to own a Pontiac.

Venetian Night and Queen's Ball Head Week's Attractions

Charlevoix's summer visitors this week-end will have an opportunity to see the city's major summer attraction, the Venetian Boat parade on Sunday evening.

Reminescent of Venice and its gondolas on the canals, Charlevoix's Venetian Boat parade is staged on Round Lake with the gaily lighted boats making a damatic entrance from Lake Charlevoix.

While the boats parade about the Round Lake, the reflections of the lighted boats in the water combined with the display of fireworks creates an unforgettable picture.

Except for the years of World War II, the Venetian Boat parade has been held every year since 1934 by the Charlevoix Marine Club.

It has grown from a few boats and handful of fireworks to the city's outstanding summer attraction.

Class A Champs Play Here Saturday

State Champs Play Owls Here Saturday

The Charlevoix Knight Owls face the Saginaw Drewrys Ale team, last year's Class A state champs, in the biggest game of the local season at 8:30 p.m. July 28 at southside field.

Saginaw, boasting a 29-4 record for the season, carries two pitchers, both of whom have pitched a no hitter.

Against this aggregation, the Owls will pit Potter and Al Dorow as pitchers along with Bob and Bill Carey for infield and catching duties.

Last Sunday the Owls slaughtered Traverse City Core Drive 19-2 with Dorow pitching three hit ball and chipping in with four hits himself. Norm Ketchman had three hits and Chick Gallagher had a triple in the 12-hit attack.

Silver Birches cinched a place in the play-offs by winning the first round of play in the major league. In a well played game last Tuesday night Silver Birches evened their series with Cadillac-Olds, winning 5 to 1. On Thursday they outszored Parsels 14-11. In this game Bob Potter hit a home run which cleared the left field fence. Other home run hitters for the week included Wilbur from Sees; Fairbanks, Parsels; Barber and R. Cunningham for Cadillac-Olds.

The seconn round of play will start Tuesday, July 31 with Silver Birches meeting Ellsworth Hardware at 7 p. m. and U. S. C. G. playing Cadillac-Olds at 8:30 p. m. Schedules will be available for all teams in the three leagues this week-end.

Restaurants Listed for Summer Guests

One of the things that visitors to Charlevoix most frequently ask is: Where can we get some good food?

Charlevoix and the surrounding area has many restaurants and hotels catering to particular tastes.

At the south side of Charlevoix the Windsock features home cooked food from noon until 3 a.m. Dining room and curb service are offered. You may get a steak or a bite at any hour at the Windsock.

The Coffee Cup on South US 31 offers 24 hour service. It has a wide variety of dinners, luncheons and sandwiches. The Cnffee Cup also specializes in Velvets and Thunderclouds in the ice cream line.

For that famous fish dinner, try the Nautical on Belvedere avenue. The Nautical specializes in trout and whitefish at their best. They are conked to your pleasure the same day they are caught.

George's Sidewalk cafe is another popular spot in Charlevoix. Located at Belvedere and Bridge street, its knsher hot dogs and corned beef are well-known to tourists and resorters.

For a breakfast, light lunch or snack, the Harbor View near the Bridge is an inviting place. It specializes in freezer ice cream of many flavors, "Basketburgers" and Barber-Ques.

Irvin's Tea Room at the back of Harbor View specializes in homemade pastries, chicken and seafood dinners. Frankenmuth style dinners are served in the private dining room by reservation.

Heering's Shady Corner is another fine place for dinners by reservation. They feature homemade rolls and pastries. They serve breakfast until 11 a.m. Heering's is located at Michigan and Dixon.

Houston's at 313 Michigan avenue has been a favorite for fine food for many years. They serve meals by appointment.

For that Italian dinner, Ricco's at Susan Lake on the Boyne City road is the favorite of many visitors. They feature the real Italial spaghetti, ravioli and pizza. They are open daily and Sunday.

For delicious steak, chicken or chops, the Argonne on the Boyne City road is recommended. Dinners are served from 5 to 9 p.m. nightly. They serve liquor and offer nightly entertainment.

The Beach hotel offers an attractive menu of fine food, expertly prepared by an outstanding chef. At the Beach the traveler may dine, dance and enjoy cocktails.

Square Dance Team Wins 4-H County Honors

Charlevoix county cooperating with the National 4-H Home Talent program held its first show at the East Jordan high school gym, Tuesday evening, July 17. Approximately 20 persons attended the show.

Performers were 4-H club members who were competing for the honor of representing their county at the district contest July 26. Six acts were given by the members. First place was awarded to the square dance team trained by Harry Pearsall of South Arm community. Martha Lord called the dance.

Dancers were Deanna and Mary Ann Lehrbass, Jack and Margaret Zoulek, Margaret Lord, Joe Smith, Lavern Hart and Dick Bailey. The group danced with remarkable precision. The alternate award went to a trio from East Jordan composed of Nan Drapeau and Martha and Margaret Lord. All 6 acts given at the show placed in the blue ribbon group.

Judges found competition very close.

Others in the blue ribbon group were Nancy Erler, Boyne City who played a piano solo. Linda Baker, Boyne City gave a vocal solo, Ann Spencer, Boyne City a vocal solo, and Ivan Parsons, Charlevoix numbers on the harmonica. Judges for the event were were John Hodges, East Jordan, Mrs. Lottie Clyde, Bellaire and Bruce Blanchard, Petoskey.

In addition to the talent numbers by the 4-H members a film entitled "Share the Fun" showing the top 4-H talent of the nation as photographed at the U. S. Rubber Company Share the Fun Breakfast was shown by Ed Rebman, county agent. K. C. Festerling, district 4-H club agent was master of ceremonies.

Forty-two talent shows have been held throughout the state. District elimination will determine which performers will give their numbers at the State 4-H Club Show in East Lansing. Here state winners will be selected, these winners will have the privilege of attending the Share the Fun Breakfast at the National 4-H Club Congress next December.

The committee in charge of the county show was Mrs. Henry Erber of Boyne City, Mrs. R. V. Laskum, East Jordan, Mrs. Floyd McCracken of Charlevoix and K. C. Festerling, district 4-H club agent, Boyne City.

Nitrogen Boosts Row Crop Yield

Tests at Michigan State College showed yield increases of as much as 34.8 bushels of corn, 12 bushels of soybeans, 10.4 bushels of navy beans, a ton of sugar beets, and 5.5 tons of tomatoes resulting from side dressings of ammonium sulfate.

During some years, nitrogen side dressings increase crop yields considerably, Robertson reports, but in other years, increases are small. The most accurate method of predicting side dressing results is by using a plant tissue testing kit. Plant tissue testing is not difficult and county agricultural agent can give information on the methods used.

• • •

SIDE DRESSING should be made by the time the crop normally runs out of available nitrogen. Tissue testing will help to determine this time. The job should be done before crops would be damaged by side dressing equipment. Dressing shold be made previous to the crop's period of most rapid growth.

A little experimentation will show how much nitrogen should be applied. Both ammonium nitrate and ammonium sulfate are very soluble in water. They may be placed on the surface of the soil, three or four inches from the row and the first rain will wash the fertilizer into the root zone.

• • •

IF YOU WISH to experiment without buying side dressing equipment, buy a bag or two of soluble nitrogen fertilizer and apply at by hand. Then at harvest you can find whether it will benefit your farm. For corn spaced in 42 inch rows, 3.2 pounds of ammonium sulfate spread along 200 feet of row is equal to 200 pounds per acre. For beans and beets in 28 inch rows, 2.2 pounds side dressed along 200 feet of row is equal to 200 pounds per acre.

Want to have some fun? Attend the games parties at East Park in Charlevoix Tuesday and Thursnights. Hospital Benefit. You won't want to miss any games.

ORCHARD NOTES

By Claude Fairman

Here's something of interest to growers in the Manistee-Grand Traverse area which has witnessed leaf drop on sour cherries.

A man from Columbus, O., tells me that nearly all of the leaves on apples and pears are dropping off in the state of Ohio. He said that Ohio State tested the soil and tried other experiments but no definite conclusions were made.

I asked him whether Ohio has experienced a wet season. He said Ohio had had a wet season He asked if the trees would die. I replied that nature had a way of taking care of the trees by holding a few of their leaves. The apples should be knocked off. It afterwards occurred to me that part of the difficulty came from the chestnut trees some distance away or from some other source several hundred miles away.

Remember the dust storms of a few years back. The clouds dropped mud over us here. In this same manner our trouble and their's could come via clouds causing this peculiar blight. It has happened before. Otherwise, fruit growing is not such a trial.

It's easy to spray for all insects and all regular fungus diseases. It is easy to protect trees from deep snowdrifts, rodents, etc., except in some locations where the deer damage is bad.

It is exepected that weather conditions some years may effect certain crops. However, this can happen to any crop.

It is my objective in writing this column to fill in some of the little things in A—B—C form, counting some of the in-betweens not often thought of and to promote and increase the fruit industry in our very favorable location.

New Bulletin Tells Of Barn Hay Drying

Great interest by farmers in barn hay driers has developed in recent years. To present the latest information on this new hay-curing method, the Micnigan Agricultural Experiment Station has issued a new bulletin, "Barn Hay Driers in Michigan."

Authored by agricultural engineers and a farm crops research scientist, the bulletin points out some of the advantages and benefits of the barn hay driers. Principles of operation are discussed in order that driers may be used to the best advantage.

A portion of the bulletin is planned to aid farmers in selecting a mow hay drier fitted to their needs. Pointers on successful operation are also discussed.

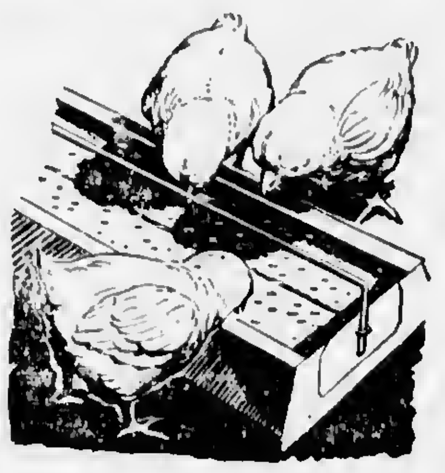
A copy of the publication, Circular Bulletin 219, "Barn Hay Driers in Michigan," may be obtained from county agricultural agents' offices or by writing to the Bulletin Office, Department of Information Services, Michigan State college, East Lansing.

You can look back to 1950 but we prefer to look forward to 1952.

If you want to see Charlevoix and its scenic beauties. Try it on a bicycle. You can rent them at Brown Motors. Reasonable too.

Feeding with antibiotics speeds growth of baby chicks

Aureomycin, a recent antibiotic development, promotes rapid growth in baby chicks, say poultry researchers at Michigan State College Agricultural Experiment Station. Believing that this drug acts on bacteria in the intestine of the baby chick, they fed Aureomycin to one group of chicks, then inoculated another group. They found that while Aureomycin injections had no beneficial effect on growth, including the drug in normal feeding practices substantially improved growth. More recent experiments have added Penicillin, Terramycin and Bacitracin to the list of antibiotics stimulating growth. For further information on the possibilities of antibiotic feedings for your poultry, call, write or visit your County Agricultural Agent.



Operators' atlas places calls promptly

In each of Michigan Bell's 75 toll centers, long distance operators use a complete world communication atlas to speed calls along the highways of speech. The atlas lists 71,000 localities within the U. S. proper (2,214 of them here in Michigan); 16,000 in Canada, Cuba and Mexico; 17,000 vessels; and 330 airplanes. It includes 10,000 cars and trucks equipped with telephones; and 85 overseas countries and territories to which telephone service is available. The atlas is revised from day to day, keeping all these points at your operator's finger tips. It's another example of telephone efficiency working for you.

HERE'S AN Idea WORTH TALKING OVER

... can farming be made more profitable?

We're not promising the moon, but we'd like to see if we can help you make more money, or save work. We do know that on a good many farms we've been able to make recommendations that worked out profitably.

At least, it's an idea worth talking over. We are making farm visits all the time and hope to reach you soon. However, we invite you not to wait but drop in anytime. You'll find that we are really interested in discussing your problems and helping all we can.

We do know that the future of the farmer depends greatly on the efficiency of all farm operations. We know something about this subject. That's why we think it will pay you, as well as us, to "get better acquainted."

Beware of Moisture In Wheat

It is not our policy to cry wolf all the time, but the last few days in southern Michigan wheat has not been drying out as expected.

Toledo reports that of the wheat arriving there 60 percent of it is rated tough. Wheat above 14 percent moisture means trouble for the farmer, elevator man, miller or exporter.

Farmers are warned that there have been times in the past when wheat over 14 percent moisture had no market as buyers refused to buy. It must be remembered that we are in the buyers market and if wheat comes in over the moisture limit, higher discounts or no market at all is extremely likely.

Hurts Loan Value

Another factor is the farmer connot get a government loan on his wheat if it is above 14 percent moisture. Be sure you have a moisture conversion chart along side of your tester.

We want to be of all the service we can so please call on us whenever you have wheat to offer.

Outlook for Banner Crops In County Reported Excellent

Crop yields in Charlevoix county should be higher than ever this year according to Ed Rebman, Abundance of rain and cool weather has made hay and pasture one of the best crops ever raised Small grain and corn also look very good. Size and quality of fruit should be good On the other hand cood, wet weather is ideal for fungus diseases such as apple scab, cherry leaf spot, potato blight and others.

Cherry harvest will start, this week. Growers at a recent meeting in East Jardan, indicated that they should have about a 70 percent crop compared to 1950. While the tonnage is down, growers are expecting better size on their cherries.

The 17 growers who met at East Jordan indicated that their 1950 production was 1,080 tons and for this year the tonnage will be about 740 tons This is somewhat lower percentage as indicated in the Grand Traverse and Leelanau areas.

The apple crop is spotted Floyd Griffin, north of Boyne City, reports a good crop. A. L. Darbee of Eveline Orchards of East Jordan also reports a good crop. Both of these orchards have been spray thinned but must also be hand thinned.

Mr Darbee stated that his trees look the best this year that they have ever looked and the method of cultivation did not seem too important Growers of raspberries are expecting good crop yields, while the strawberry growers have just finished harvesting a bumper crop.

Hay and pasture in the county is extremely good. Yield is running as high as three tons per acre. Leslie Sheridan of East Jordan says he has been haying for about three weeks and that his yield will go 2½ tons or better. Some farmers are reporting losses of hay due to extremely wet weathers. Others farmers for the first time are using grass silage.

Peter Winnick and Bob Straw north of Charlevoix have put up grass silage for the first time or are considering doing so. Harold Thomas between East Jardan and Charlevoix has alredy put up some silage of very excellent quality. Pasture is very gaod. June grass is still holding out. Sudan grass this year, however, is not growing too well due to the extremely wet climate.

Corn and small grains are looking good. The oats and barley at Leslie Sheridan's are three feet high at the present time. Much corn was knee high by the 4th of July but many farmers have been substituting corn for one of the other small grains.

The acreage of potatoes in the county has been reduced considerably. Many growers have cut their acreage down or else gone out of raising potatoes entirely. Most of the potatoes are up now or are just coming up. In most cases stands are good and growers are expecting good yields. They should be prepared, however, to control blight when it appears.

Over-All Study Of Tax Program Planned in State

Representatives of agriculture, labor, industry, education, local governments and other groups interested in the State's financial problems are being asked to participate in a special legislative study of an over-all tax program for Michigan.

First meeting of the legislative committee was held here July 23, when invitations went out to the various organizations. The legislators also will obtain the services of tax experts, said Senator George N. Higgins, Ferndale Republican, and Rep. Louis Anderson, Northport Republican, chairmen, respectively, of the Senate and House taxation committees.

After four years of deficit State financing, the Legislature is looking to the tax study committee for a solution to money problems. Its recommendations will go before the 1952 legislative session.

In the session just ended, the Legislature increased the tax on corporations to $25,000,000 yearly and eliminated all ceilings on the amount that any one corporation would pay. Leaders admitted that may not be enough and that the entire tax picture-local as well as Sstate-needed a thorough review.

Live-Over Winter Cover Crops Soil Protection

Saving of soil from wind and water, and a deposit of up to $10 to $15 worth of nitrogen per acre will help the soil bank account of farmers, who plant sweet clover and rye as live-over-winter cover crops when they cultivate their corn for the last time.

That is the observation of Paul J. Rood, extension soil scientist at Michigan State College. Rood has studied the effects of leaving land bare and unprotected after harvesting the corn crop and says that "soil losses can be greatly reduced, almost eliminated and plant humus added by planting a cover crop to protect the topsoil through the winter."

He recommends 10 pounds each of rye and sweet clover broadcast just ahead of the cultivating equipment. The sweet clover is a legume, and properly innoculated, can draw nitrogen free from the air before next spring's planting season. Rye grass may be substituted for the rye.

WHEAT PLANTED for next season's harvest gives effective protection for land planted in soybeans and navy beans this year, he says. Even though sugar beet harvest is late in the season this land needs a live-over-winter cover crop for protection.

Rood points out that areas where the acreage of clean cultivated crops is large in comparison to the acreage of hay especially need cover crop protection.

Planting in corn at time of last cultivation is important, he says, as waiting until after corn is harvested is too late for best results.

Nine 4-H Members Attend Camp

Nine Charlevoix county 4-H members are in attendance this week at the 20th annual 4-H encampment at Gaylord.

The members have a full program which, in addition to plenty of recreation. includes special demonstrations such as an archery demonstration by Frank Scott of the Bear Archery Company, freezing demonstrations by the International Harvester Company, pistol shooting demonstration by Sgt. Lester Coykandall of the Michigan State Police. Thursday night, July 26 is parents night; the public is invited to attend a full evening program.

There will be the district dress revue with Charlevoix county delegate Mary Lou Price attending, following this will be the perfarmance of the top talent numbers of the district-and then the traditional candle lighting service after dark. Refreshments follow the candle lighting service. The square dance team of South Arm under the direction of Harry Pearsall will try for district honors Thursday morning as will the trio composed of three East Jordan girls.

A demonstration team composed of Rose Marie Lehrbras and Margaret Zoulek will attend for one day to give their clothing demonstration entitled, "Six Seam Finishes for Cotton Dresses". Those in attendance for the entire week are Marie Nielsen, East Jordan, Martha Lord East Jordan, Emily Gibbard, East Jordan, Margaret Lord, East Jordan, Jack Zoulek, East Jordan, Joe Smith, East Jordan, Eldeva Craft, East Jordan, Edward Shank, East Jordan and Ruth Hart, East Jordan.

Attend Maple Grove Grange Picnic

Mrs Gladys L'Huillier was chairman of games and the prizes were donated by L'Huillers grocery of Burgess. Minnie Burke won the $2 worth of groceries, Sharleen Allison, the kicking contest, Clarence Peters, the 30 yard dash and Ann Smith, the husband calling contest

Take Care of Grain to Avoid Loss from Damage

Charlevoix county farmers will start harvesting grain within the next week or two.

A few precautions taken now will prevent damage to stored grain according to Ed Relman, county agricultural agent. Damage may be caused by storing it with more than 14 percent moisture, storing in bins where insects are present and also where rats and mice are present.

Farmers should, therefore, screen out the rats and mice, clean the bins, treat with DDT for insects and make sure the grain does not contain over 14 percent moisture.

Cleaning and treating. Thoroughly "houseclean" the granary. Put all ald grain not sold ar county agricultural agent. The newly harvested grain on old grain. Use 1 pound of 50 percent wettable DDT in 5 gallons of water and put on with a broom, or 4 ounces in 3 gallons of water put on with a knapsack sprayer. Leave the granary undisturbed for two weeks and again thoroughly sweep the walls and floor to remove dead insects and all traces of DDT.

14 percent Moisture. "Think before combining". Just because the dew has dried off is no reason the grain is dry. The kernels have had all night to absorb moisture. It may take a couple of extra hours. The test: Your grain elevator may be able to make a test for you.

Thresh by hand or operate the combine for a short distance to get a sample. Seal ½ pint in an air tight container for delivery to the elevator for testing. Test at home: The dry salt test. Take a dry waxed cardboard container such as is used for ice cream; half pint or smaller. Thresh out a small amount of grain. Add ½ teaspoon of dry table salt. Shake for a couple of minutes.

Empty carefully on a dry surface. If the salt particles separate out then the grain is at or near the right moisture content. If the kernels clump together there is still too much moisture in grain for safe storage.

THE FIRST 10 GALLONS WILL CONVINCE YOU

MORE MILES PER DOLLAR

Automotive Engineers know that the weight of a gallon of gasoline determines energy content . . . mileage. Official surveys show that the weight per gallon of high-test Blue Sunoco matches the average of all leading premium-priced gasolines. In short, high-test Blue Sunoco gives you equal energy, equal mileage at lower cost . . . gives you more miles per dollar.

2¢ SAVING PER GALLON

High-test Blue Sunoco sells at regular gas price, which is usually 2 cents a gallon below premium-priced gasolines. In spite of its low price, in many ways Blue Sunoco gives you more value because of its outstanding balance of such qualities as anti-rust, quick-starting, anti-stalling, clean burning, long mileage and high-test action.

HERE'S WHAT BLUE SUNOCO USERS SAY:

CADILLAC..."I get the high-test action I like from my car with Blue Sunoco. And for miles per gallon, it's tops, too."—W. Miles Carey, Jr., New York, N. Y.

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Beaver Island was about the liveliest spot in northern Michigan over the week-end. What with the yachtmen coming in and visitors arriving, excitment mounted to a high pitch.

The attraction of the yachtmen's jamboree after the Chicago-Mackinac races is growing. More and more visitors plan their vacation to coincide with the arrival of the boys on the blow boats.

• • •

Tourist business is definitely on the upgrade on the island. All the cabins are occupied and the hotels are filled. The number of inquiries being directed to the Beaver Island Association of Commerce has more than doubled this year.

• • •

MR. AND MRS. Dale Thomas of Sandusky, Ohio are building a cabin on the North Beach, it's back beach to the most of us, but from now on, folks, it going to be North Beach.

Mrs. James H. Gallagher have as their guests, Mrs. Giles McCann and Mrs. Jack Coppens, their daughters and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gallagher. There's quite a crowd of fine looking grandchildren visiting, too.

About two years ago, the Rambler was brought to the island to settle in the sandy bottom of Lake Michigan near the mill. With the boat listing and part under water, the old tug became the subject of many an artist's brush. Last week, the Rambler's former owner, Captain Russell Brown, came to the island to raise the boat and tow it to the Soo for repairs. It was towed by the Tramp, a tug from out of Charlevoix.

We are happy Mrs. Ellie Bonner could make it to the island this summer. Mrs. Bonner, her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Gorman drove up from Detroit and came across on the boat Wednesday. Accompaning Mrs. Bonner and the Gormans to the island was Mrs. Myrtle Ditlefsen of Cleveland.

• • •

MR. AND MRS. Fred Karthase and little daughter, Celeste, from Montague were the guests of Mrs. Nora Gallagher last week. Fred was formally stationed on the island in charge of the REA light plant.

We are always glad to see our boys in the service home for a visit. Last week, Pvt. Roger Ricksgers was home and he makes a fine looking member of Uncle Sam's boys. During his visit, Roger had as his guest, Mary Ann Bonczkowski of Grand Rapids.

Lawrence Malloy, jr., arrived from Chicago Saturday to join his wife and to visit his parents.

Ann Marie Hanley was a patient in the Charlevoix Hospital from Monday to Sunday. She was in for surgery.

It's haying time on the island and the farmers are making hay while the sun shines. With so much rain, it has been hard to start the job, but ole Sol has really come out in the last two days making it ideal to cut and load.

• • •

MR. AND MRS. Edward Sexton, Indianapolis, are spending their honeymoon on the island. They are occupying one of Allen's cabins.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Graf and children, Jean and Billy, arrived Saturday from Ann Arbor. They have one of Allen's cabins.

Gene Burke and Don Burke are having a week's leave from their boats. They are visiting the home folks.

Among the first guests at Beaver Lodge were W. J. Becker, Traverse City; Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Smith, Detroit; Lou Stern, Detroit, Mrs. Agnes M. Smith, Chicago; Harry Priebe and daughter, South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson, South Bend, arrived Sunday afternoon to spend the remainder of the summer at their cottage at Sand Bay.

Judge and Mrs. E. R. Boyles had as their guests for a few days, Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Willets and twin daughters of Charlotte.

Extend Enlistment Rules for Inductees

Men who have received their pre-induction notice but not their notice to report for induction can still enlist in the Navy, Donald K. Kaup, MMC, USN, Recruiter in charge of the local Navy Recruiting Station in Traverse City, announced today. This was in effect until July 15, but now has been extended until August 1, 1951.

It is emphasized that a man applying under this letter must be completely processed and enlisted prior to the August 1 deadline. Any man who has received this notice and wants to select the service of his choice should contact the Navy Recruiting Station located in the Basement of the Post Office Building. The telephone is 2877.

Chief Kaup again wants to remind young men between the ages of 17 and 31 of the opportunities available in the Navy. Trade training in the 62 rates of the Navy which cover over 4,000 civilian jobs is available to every young man who enlists now in our expanding Navy.

Fruit Growing or Drum Playing, Fairman Turns in a Good Job

By Vic Spaniolo

For a great many years Claude Fairman has had a difficult time in deciding whether fruit growing or playing the drums afforded him the most pleasure.

The 66-year-old Antrim-Charlevoix fruit grower has become one of the most successful orchardists in this area. But he was also quite a success at playing the drums. He can still do an outstanding job on the snare or bass drum.

At present he is occupied in directing about 50 pickers in his cherry orchards. He has one of his largest crops of Montmorencies, Schmidt's, Windsor, Royal Anne and some 20 other varieties.

• • •

FROM A SMALL farm with a handful of poor varieties in 1923, he has planted cherries, apples, prunes and peaches until he has slightly over 100 acres of fruit. His orchards are some eight to 10 years from being at their peak.

His liking for fruit-growing stems almost from the time he was born on Old Mission. When he was 18 years old, Fairman went with the Silver Bros. circus. It was about that time he became exposed to drum playing.

He did not want to learn it the easy way. He quit the circus and began taking lessons on the drum in Chicago. Financing his musical education he worked at the large fruit commission concerns on South Water street, the fruit shipping center of the middle west.

• • •

HE TOOK DRUM lessons for five years before joining the musician's union in 1913. At that he started playing in theater orchestras including the famed Palace, Hippodrome, Logan Square and the Grand Old Opera House.

During his 10 years in orchestras in Chicago, he drummed for many of the oldtimers on the vaudeville circuit.

It was in late 1923 that Fairman left a successful orchestra job to buy this farm in Antrim county to aid his brother, Bill, who was disabled in World War I. He left his job with the belief that he could help his brother. For a while Claude worked on the farm in the spring and summer and then worked the entertainment circuit in the winter.

But in 1930 he decided to concentrate on growing fruit. His struggles were many. He had little money with which to buy healthy trees. The country was experiencing its worst depression in history. The prices had slumped so badly that cherries were selling for a penny a pound.

• • •

IN THOSE DAYS Claude recalled: "We paid half cent to the pickers per quart and kept the other half. Despite this we were able to keep going."

This is in sharp contrast to the price paid 17 years later when in 1947 cherries brought 15 cents a pound at the canning plants. This year's price is about eight or nine cents a pound for the sours but Fairman's production is greater so his overall gross is nearly as great as it was four years ago.

This is a big year for sweet cherries. Fairman estimates his cherry crop will gross some $10,000 to $11,000. Prospects for a good crop of peaches, Red Havens, Hale Havens and early Elbertas are very good at this stage of growing, Fairman said.

• • •

FAIRMAN HAS been spending much time in recent years to increasing his apple orchard. He has planted some 5,000 young trees of the popular Spy, Delicious and McIntosh varieties. He figures that in 10 years he will have more than 50,000 bushels of choice apples.

This is a far cry from his humble start less than 30 years ago.

A booster of this section of Michigan, Claude maintains that cherries and apples will bring a greater return to the growers than any other crop. The climate and soil are just right for tree fruits.

Top Entertainer To Be at Beach Hotel Saturday

He is Stan Kramer who comes direct from the Chez Paree and a long list of engagements including 10 weeks at the Billmore Bowl in Los Angeles.

He comes here between engagements. Kraner was here two years ago and proved to be a hit with a large crowd who saw him and his associates perform.

Lauded as a star in the entertainment world, he plays engagements in many of the nation's best hotels and nightclubs.

He will give two performances. He is a younger brother of E. L. Kramer, owner of the hotel.

Fred Alger Lauds City At Annual Ball

More than 100 couples witnessed the coronation of Joan Ward as 1951 Venetian Queen by Fred M. Alger Jr. at the Queen's ball at the Beach Hotel Saturday evening.

The occasion was also Queen Joan's twenty-second birthday anniversary.

• • •

"The Russians would never understand this coronation tonight because they cannot understand our way of life, he continued. In conclusion he urged everyone to continue to preserve our way of life.

S. E. Coleman served as master of ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kramer, manager-owners of the Beach Hotel, contributed the hotel facilities and staff for the ball.

While here Mr Alger and party were the guests of the Beach Hotel.

Jack Mailhot, Kenneth Cellner and Mr. Coleman were in charge of the Ball for the Lions club and were assisted by Mrs. Jean Gallagher who arranged the activities of the Queen and her court.

Pioneer Cars To Visit City Next Monday

The pioneer days of the automobile will be revived here Monday, August 6 when the caravan of 50 old cars, dating back to a 1902 Oldsmobile, visit Charlevoix.

The caravan, traveling here from Flint, will arrive in the city about 10 p. m. with escort from Gaylord. The cars, their drivers and guests, numbering some 75, will be guests at a luncheon at the Beach Hotel.

Hosts for the luncheon will be Charlevoix automobile dealers. Businessmen and others interested are urged to attend the luncheon. Tickets can be purchased at the door.

• • •

THE STOP here will be one of several on the northern Michigan tour annually made by the owners of the old cars.

The old cars will be escorted from the city limits to the parking lot on the south side of Bridge at Dixon avenue, by the police department.

The cars will be roped off but they can be observed during their four-hour stay here. From Charlevoix, the caravan moves to Traverse City for an overnight stop.

It is expected that the caravan will make an overnight stop in Charlevoix next year.

MANY OF the cars to visit Charlevoix are much too old for the younger generation but they will recall the days of the old to the middle aged residents.

Co-operation Needed for All Projects---Cobo

So declared Detroit's mayor, Albert E. Cobo, a Charlevoix guest of Harry Wainbaum, summer resident, who spoke to the Kiwanis club Monday night at the Beach hotel.

Mayor Cobo related the experiences of a metropolitan city in getting big business to cooperate with labor and small business in the effort to make Detroit a truly greater city than it is now.

"Whether it's a new hospital, civic building or other project", he said, "everyone has to pitch in to help. If you don't have the wholehearted assistance of a great many, the project is doomed to failure."

Club President Gordon L. Freedman expressed the club's appreciation in having the privilege of hearing Mr. Cobo. Charles Levinson was program chairman and introduced the Detroit mayor. Mayor Knight welcomed Mr. Cobo and other guests to the community.

In closing, Mr Cobo said it is important to keep community service at a high level while keeping taxes as low as humanly possible. A visitor in Charlevoix several times in the last few years, he is the house guest of the Weinbaums on Mercer boulevard.

Through the courtesy of the E. L. Kramers of the Beach hotel, the Kiwanis club was entertained by two acts from the "Spotlight on Youth" program.

Circus to Visit Charlevoix Aug. 9

The circus is coming to town.

The Charlevoix Kiwanis club is sponsoring the Kelly and Morris circus Thursday, August 9 at the Legion grounds. Two performances are planned, 2:30 p.m. and 8 p.m.

It will be a chance for the kiddies to see trained elephants, horses, tight wire walkers, acrobats and clowns.

Tickets can be purchased from Kiwanis club members.

Attends Meeting

Mrs. C. Clarke Hergeon, Charlevoix county superintendent of schools, left Tuesday for Ypsilanti to attend the annual summer conference of County School Administrators.

State Official Crowns Venetian Queen

Bisbee's Boat Wins Honors In Boat Parade

The parks at the west side of Round Lake and the terraces about the lake which form a natural amphitheatre furnished seating facilities for the record crowd which saw 31 boats, decorated with lights in a variety of themes, parade beneath a continuous fireworks display.

Winners in the event, sponsored by the Charlevoix Marine Club were Mrs. L. S. Bisbee's boat, Gale B., depicting a birthday cake which won first prize; second place winner was the Richard M. Moss boat carrying the theme of the Old Woman in the Shoe; third place was the outstanding entry made aboard the Rogue by Robert Bridge, E. D Hawley and Dr. G. R. Saltonstall, Paul Bunyan and His Blue Ox, Babe. Fourth place went to Bernie Ward's tug decorated with Swans and fifth to Don Campbell's boat decorated with a dumble merry go-round.

• • •

JUDGES WERE L. J. Thompson of Grand Rapids of the cruiser, Patty Ann II, C. A. Neddler of South Bend Ind., of the Naiad and Mr. Thoma England of Lansing.

Preceding the parade a variety program featuring "Spotlight on Youth", a children's song and dance revue, the Charlevoix Marine Band, the Camp Charlevoix Boys Choir and Zach Whyte with William H. Hampton as toaster of ceremonies was presented in East Park.

Kiwanis Asks Aid For Underprivileged

Help! Help! Help!

The Kiwanis club needs help for the underprivileged children of this area. Residents or visitors having something of value which is no longer needed are asked to call 51-J and arrangements will be made to pick it up.

Old clothes, furniture, books, toys or anything that has some value. All of the items are needed for the annual White Elephant sale staged each year.

It's a good chance to help the underprivileged. So be sure to call 51-J for any castoffs which someone might want.

H. A. Craig has had as his guests for several days his daughter, Mrs. George Wigglesworth and daughter, Linda of Lansing, her mother-in-law, Mrs. G. L. Wigglesworth of Naugatuck, Conn., and her brother-in-law, Don Wigglesworth of Washington D. C. who plan to return to their respective homes this week.

Plenty of Parking Space, too

It seems that while assisting visitors to park at the Charlevoix Oil Company, a motorist drove up and asked for help in obtaining a parking place. "Gus" told the driver that he would certainly take care of him immediately and directed him to a parking spot to the side of the building.

The visitor thanked "Gus" adding, "Anytime you're in my neighborhood in Detroit I will take care of you." The speaker was A. Blake Gillies, warden of the Detroit House of Correction.

Be Sure To Attend

The annual meeting of the Charlevoix Hospital association will be held at 8 p.m. Aug. 8 at the city hall. Every civic-minded person interested in the hospital here should attend. Three positions on the board will be filled. The public is urged to attend. This is your hospital, take part in the annual meeting.

Battle Creek Man Buys Funeral Home Here

Mrs. Glenn See announces the sale of the See Funeral Home to Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Pontius of Battle Creek.

The new owners assumed possession Aug. 1

Both Mr. and Mrs. Pontius are natives of Battle Creek.

Mr. Pontius received his degree in mortuary science from Wayne University in 1940. For the next four years he served with the 87th Infantry division in Europe. He was assistant manager of a branch of the Security National bank of Battle Creek for the next five years. He served his apprenticeship with Hebble's Funeral Home in Battle Creek.

The couple plans to continue to operate the See Funeral Home as in the past and offer the same service for which the business was known.

The late Glenn See operated the business here since 1930 and founded the present funeral home 14 years ago.

Three generations of the See family operated the business here. The name of See Funeral Home will be maintained by the new owners.

Horses Swim Ashore

A crowd of approximately 175 witnessed the excitement of seeing the eleven mares and one stallion dumped off the North Shore Sunday afternoon off shore High Island. The day was perfect for the trip, the lake smooth and not one horse suffered an injury for all the shoving and the big splash in the water.

The horses delivered to High Island for the beginning of the High Island Horse Ranch were accumulated during the past two months by Jess Underwod, Ed Burke and Archie LaFrieniere, partners in the horse project.

• • •

COVERING THIS eventful occasion were Life Magazine photographer Ralph Crane and Life reporter, Eileen Lanonette, from the Chicago bureau. The write-up in the Courier several weeks ago was brought to the attention of Life by Al Widdefield, a former resident of Charlevoix, and the editors decided this was a story for their weekly picture book.

To add color to the occasion and to maqe the day a long to be remembered one, a parade was staged prior to the loading of the horses onto the North Shore. Beginning at Burke's corral, the parade proceeded down the main drag with Burke, LaFreniere and Underwood on horse back in the lead. They were followed by island lads and lassies on horse back, a hay wagon loaded with home talent musicians and singers and an old buggy with Mrs. Gene Kinney dressed as a sun bonnet gal and Lawrence McDonough disguised under a beard, scray straw hat and sporting blue jeans driving ole Dobbin. On the rear of the buggy sat Mrs. Joe Dillingham in jeans and plaid shirt indulging in a huge slice of watermelon.

After the North Shore docked at Beaver Island about 5 p.m. the twelve horses were loaded. As many passengers as was safe for the trip got aboard while a large number were turned away. Mr. and Mrs. John McDonough accompanied the North Shore with their yacht "Sea Legs" filled with guests. Joe Sendenburg with his fish tug, Mrs. Jack Johnston and son, Arthur, in their Canadian canoe and Bruce McDonough in his speed boat, was also part of the regetta with passengers.

• • •

The climax came when the fellows took the horses one by one and shoved them into the lake. After the plunge, the horses soon came to the surface and began the swim to the shore. A couple of the horses began swimming in the wrong direction and were headed off by the smaller craft. All twelve horses made safe landings and as the boats headed back to the Beavers, the horses were contendedly grazing on the hillside. In the background could be seen the old weather beaten houses deserted by the Israelites sixteen years ago. Nowhere to be seen were the two wild horses that have roamed High Island for the past thirteen years.

Building May Start Soon After Labor Day

The Veterans of Foreign Wars received the green light on their plans to build a VFW home.

VFW representatives were assured by the city council Monday night that the city would give a plot of ground with 200-foot frontage on US-31 adjoining Paul-Reed plant. The council voted unanimously on Alderman Harry Zeitlar's motion to deed the property site to the Charlevoix VFW.

The council was told that building plans call for construction to start soon after Labor Day. The VFW home will contain 2,000 square feet, Sam King told the council.

• • •

THERE IS a good possibilty that the four-lane pavement on Petoskey avenue, starting at Meech street, eastward, will be started next year, Mayor Knight informed the council. He said that Highway Commissioner Charles Zeigler confirmed this at a recent meeting in Charlevoix.

City Comptroller Don Swinton will write the state highway department for confirmation of this so that sewer construction can be speeded up this year.

• • •

THE COUNCIL heard a suggestion from Probate Judge Floyd Supp that the city discuss the possibility of purchasing the northside school building for the use of the bureau of social aid offices. The committee of William Heering, Charles Bellinger and Harry Zeitler will discuss this matter with school board and report back to the council.

No action was taken on the suggestion that the council go on record as urging the state highway department to improve the scenic turnout opposite the Paul-Reed plant on US-31. Judge Supp suggested that the turnout could be made into a beautiful park.

The police department was commended by Zeitler for its job on Venetian night. Judge Supp expressed his appreciation to the city for its improvement on Division avenue.

A request for a change in the Paul-Reed quit claim deed was referred to the committee on industrial development. Mr. Paul objected to the term light manufacturing in the deed and asked that it be stricken.

Erber Takes Over Tri-County Area From Sinclair

The purchase of Sinclair Refining company bulk plants, equipment and pumps in Emmet, Charlevoix and Otsego counties was announced by Karl J. Erber.

The company, known as the Erber Oil Co., will operate in all three counties with the headquarters being in Charlevoix. Mr. Erber revealed that he has taken over the leases on some 30 gas stations in the territory.

Before the change, Sinclair owned all assets and the agents of which Erber was one, operated on a commission basis. Erber was the agent in Charlevoix county for two and one-half years.

Employees formerly working for Sinclair will continue to work for the new company. Speaking of the new operation, Erber said that the same satisfactory service will be maintained.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Colin McKenzie Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Drew of Traverse City.

Donald Seymour, former Charlevoix resident, visited here over the weekend for the first time in 14 years. He visited Mr and Mrs. Raymond Seymour.

Coming Events

August 1—Women's Guild of the Episcopal church will meet at the cottage of Mrs. Hess at Oyster Bay. Promptly at 1:30 p.m.

Aug. 8—Annual Hospital meeting at 8 p.m. at the city hall. Everyone should attend if he is interested in the hospital.

U. S. Liberty and the Hot Dog

Liberty was not born in America. It came to America as an immigrant looking for larger living space but with a long and splendid history behind it. It came from England and France, from Palestine and Greece. It came sometimes as the younger brother of well-established liberties in older lands, sometimes as a refugee from fresh tyrannies aimed at its very existence.

The other day 32 Greek displaced persons arriving in New York asked that they might be landed not at the scheduled pier but at the foot of the Statue of Liberty, where they knelt in gratitude and thus symbolically greeted their new life in a new land. It was a gesture worthy of those older Greeks for whom Marathon and Thermopylae, Olympus and Mars Hill symbolized the rights and hopes of free men—or worthy of a romantic Byron offering himself on the altar of modern Greek liberty.

Then, of course, they all had hot dogs—with mustard. For America, being America, cannot long encourage a posture of solemnity even about its most prized ideals. A nation which offered hot dogs along with a rousing welcome to the British King and Queen some years ago could hardly do less for every one of those individual kings and queens who are "we the people." Conventional decorum may be offered, but the fact remains that both the Statue of Liberty and the democratic hot dog are symbols of American.

The new arrivals may soon be selling the one, but we don't think they'll sell out the other.

VENETIAN NIGHT and its accompanying festivities are over for another year . . . And we're sure that everyone who was associated with the events in anyway is relieved . . . It went off without a hitch . . . Everyone we talked with voted it the best they'd seen . . . the fireworks were super . . . Queen Joan and her court were lovely . . . And the weather . . . superb . . . and the crowd even more so . . . An orchid . . . or shall we be generous and vote just scads of them . . . to the Marine Club . . . who sponsored the parade and the program to the boat owners for their splendid cooperation . . . Lions Club which sponsored the Queen's ball . . . to the Board of Commerce and its able secretary Irish Coleman . . . who took care of the myriad of little details . . and to all those little people who aren't associated with any organization who always work so hard . . . just to help out . . .

SUNDAY was a red letter day for a little girl we've mentioned several times in this column and we thought you might like to know why . . . Nearly a year age Barbara Bodley of Hayes township suffered an attack of polio while visiting in southern Michigan . . . She was taken to the University Hospital where, for many weeks, she was in an iron lung . . . Later she was brought to Munson Hospital in Traverse City so she'd be closer to home . . . And Sunday Barbara reached that first mile-stone in that long road to recovery . . She came home . . . Sunday night we met her father on the street and he told us about it . . . He and Mrs. Bodley had just brought Barbara to East Park to see the Venetian Boat parade . . . And we're sure that if Barbara, for one minute, thought the celebration was in her honor, no one will object . . .

SHORTLY after Harry Heilmann's death, we mentioned, after reading an article in the New York Times, that it was a shame that he hadn't been accorded the honor of being elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame . . . Two people, Harry Gebeau and Mrs. Franklin Olmstead of Tucson, Ariz., called us on it . . . Seems he was notified by Ty Cobb only a short time before his death that he had been elected to baseball's highest honor . . . Quoting H. G. Salsinger's column in the Detroit News Heilmann said when told of it . . . "I hope it won't be a posthumous honor but I'm afraid it will be" . . . It was and it's too bad . . .

When most of us go down the street we obey traffic rules and if we want to cross the street, wait for traffic or enlist the aid of a policeman . . . But there are exceptions to this . . . most recently found in a porcupine which was making its annual trip into town (remembered earlier this spring we mentioned him) . . . All traffic over Memorial bridge halted while the visitor padded his way across the street and disappeared along Pine River . . . Probably the next thing we can expect from among the wildlife will be a deer.

BABY TALK

Mr and Mrs. Don Poole of Ames, Iowa, announce the birth of a daughter, Deborah Denise, at Mary Greeley hospital in Ames July 28. Mrs. Poole is the former Eveline Sipple, daughter of Mrs Marguerite Sipple of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bergmann announce the adoption of a daughter, Billie Louise.

What's Doing at Camp Charlevoix

It's been another busy week for the campers with activities and Green and Grey competition highlighting the days. A return soccer game between the Green and Grey teams saw enthusiastic rivalry at its best, but once again the Green teams were victorious in all sections.

• • •

WITH THE excellent summer weather continuing, reminiscent of two years ago, another Water front Afternoon was held last Sunday with the following campers receiving highest honors in the junior section: 25 yd. race was won by Arthur Blaul and Bob Ollison, and Ira Bank and Bob Ollison taking first place in a most unique "Chicken Race".

The canoe whistle race was won by Chris Roosevelt and Bob Gordon. Dick Degener, Larry Reisinger, Dave Love, Jim Keachie, Tom Watkins, Lucien Layne, and the relay team of Layne, Reisinger, Degener, and Frank Roosevelt took first to give the Grey teams a 2 to 1 score for the afternoon.

AFTER AN eventful three days at Wilderness State Park near Mackinaw City, Cabin 6, 8 and 11 returned to Camp. The following boys took part in this camping experience. John Beeman, Clem Gill, John Jacobs, Jim Klute, Phil Niffenegger, Chris Roosevelt, Jon Schmidt, George Black, Scott Cappel, Peter Dodenhoff, Bill Gamble, Doug Jarsen; David Keller, Robbie Swigart, Luther Carpenter, Jerry Eberts, John Fink, Jerry Martin, Bob Pimsner, Daniel Robinson, and Peter Williams.

• • •

VENETIAN NIGHT undoubtedly was the biggest event of the season thus far for the campers. This year every camper joined in the annual Charlevoix celebration, with the Camper chorus of 35 boys and 7 counselors led in sea chanties by Ken Nyquist with Owner-Director Ken Smith accompaning the group at the piano. Cabin 11 decorated the new "E-boat" and entered it in the boat parade, in the guise of a "Pirate Ship".

As a reminder to all parents the Camp Rodeo and Final Council Fire will be held at the Camp on Friday, August 24. Plans are already well underway for these two final events of the season, and the Rodeo has all appearances of being one of the finest ever presented at the camp.

Parents are requested to visit camp only on Saturday and Sunday, as week-day visitations are interfering with the boys' activities and the camp program.

Entertain Detroiters At C. W. Sucher Home

The party was arranged by Eddie and Bill Sucher at their new home here. Brunch preceded a garden party in the afternoon. Several hands of canasta followed.

The group enjoyed a swimming party and barbeque with a recess for a stroll through the gardens. A call from Hawaii added to the excitement when the former Carole Sucher and her husband, Mel Durbrinsky, called to say they would be coming home July 29 from their wedding trip.

The Suchers were to drive to Detroit this week to bring the couple to Charlevoix for the remainder of the summer.

Guests included the Al Lavans, Dan Lavans, Bernard Siegels, Dan Siegels, Al Schneidermans, Harold Kukas, Harry Beckers, Philip Dubrinskys and Miss Colleen Joffa, fiancee of Richard Sucher.

Injured in Crash

Mrs. Gilbert Ferris received word of the death of Mrs. Iva (Lewis) Macfalane of San Diego, Calif. Death was due to an auto accident which occured in Montgomery, Ala., where she had gone to visit her daughter. The daughter and husband and one year old baby all were very badly hurt.

It's always easy to find an excuse for delaying hard work.

Chicago Yachtmen Have Gala Time At Beaver Island After Race

Beaver Island—The 'Blow boys' from the Chicago Yacht club blew in Friday after participating in the race from Mackinac Island. "Blow Bay", "King" and candidate for mayor, Bill Whalen, arrived on the sailing yacht "Bagheera" and was greeted by a dozen blasts from the North Shore.

Immediately after arriving, Whalen began his campaign for mayor of Beaver Island, even though "King" he still wants to be mayor. Trying to bore from within and to get all the kiddies on his side, Whalen bought ice cream cones by the dozens. Licking their cones and rushing home to tell Mom and Dad the good news about free treats from the generous Mr Whalen, the kids put in a big plug for their benefactor.

John McDonough, Whalen's opponent for Mayor, slipped into the harbor unexpectedly on his powered yacht, Sea Legs, to give Whalen a run for his money. With such a name as McDonough, John felt very competent since he claims kissing kin to all the McDonoughs on the island. As a vote bait, McDonough promised free refreshments on every corner if elected.

FRIDAY evening, the annual Yachtmen's Follies was presented in the Shamrock Tavern. "King" Whalen was introduced by Archie LaFreniere, proprietor of the Tavern, who set the stage for hizzhonor with spot lights and loud speaker. The "King" dressed in a sporty black and white jacket, green satin cap and carrying the nearest thing he could get to a shillelagh stepped before the "mike" to preside over the evening's entertainment.

Playing to a packed house, Whalen started off the program

Donna Bennett Speaks Vows At Fort Custer

Donna Jean Bennett, daughter of Mrs. A. T. Bennett, became the bride of Cpl. John T. Thompson of Fort Custer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Thompson of Chicago at a ceremony solemnized in the Hospital Chapel at Fort Custer Saturday.

The Rev. Fr. Connaut read the double ring service at the nuptial Mass in the presence of their immediate families and a few friends. The altar was decorated with bouquets of pink and white gladioli.

Wears White Gown

The bride selected a white gown designed with a lace bodice which had a nylon net yoke, lace peter pan collar and long sleeves. The full skirt was nylon net over satin. A Juliet cap trimmed with lace and rhinestones held her elbow length veil. She carried a nosegay of white roses and carnations and ivy.

Mary Agnes Gallagher, as her only attendent, wore a green ballerina length gown styled with a fitted bodice topped with a shawl collar and a full skirt of net over taffeta. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations which matched her head dress.

Donald Thompson of Chicago, assisted his brother as best man.

Mrs. Bennett chose a dress designed with a navy print bodice, navy shirt and bolero and white accessories. Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy ensemble with white accessories. Both had corsages of orchid lilies.

Hold Reception

A wedding reception was held at the home of Sgt. Hollis Gibson Saturday afternoon. The refreshment table was centered with a tiered wedding cake and decorated with summer flowers.

The couple went to Gull Lake for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a red print dress with navy redingote and white accessories.

They will live in Battle Creek where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army.

Among those who attended from here were Mrs. A. T. Bennett, William Bennett, Alvin Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Nickerson, Mrs. Lester A. Gallagher, Mary Agnes Gallagher and Sally King.

Barnard, Central Lake W.S.C.S Enjoy Visit

An enjoyable time was had by all when the Central Lake ladies visited our W. S. C. S. Thursday.

The Central Lake group was represented by Mrs. George Stevens, Miss Kate Wilson, Mrs. Jacqueline Carpenter, Mrs. Altha Drogt, Mrs. Howard Moore and a visitor, Mrs. Effie Lee of Spokane, Washington.

The program consisted of devotions, music and impersonations of some of our missionaries in home and foreign fields, after which the birthday candles were lighted, symbols of work accomplished and last, but not least, a bountiful potluck lunch.

Yachtmen Have Gala Time at Beaver Isle

with "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here". Don Herbert from the yacht "Princess", Bud King from the "Solace" and Butch "Fig. I" Daggett from the Bagheera, all members of the Jackson Park Yacht club, teamed with Whalen to put over his songs "Back to Donegal", "Macnara's Band" and "Goodbye My Beaver Island Baby".

• • •

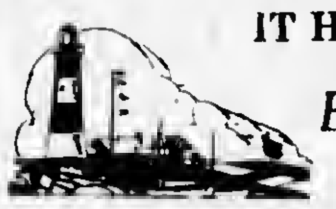
The Kinney sisters, Pat and Marilyn, harmonized on "Moonlight Bay" and "Whispering Hope". Mrs. Teddy Wojan sang "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" and "Irish Lullaby". Mrs. Eugene Kinney playing her harmonica, Walter McCauley with his guitar and Marilyn Kinney with piano accordian, played several numbers.

• • •

THE ENTERTAINMENT was interrupted to introduce Mary Turner, one of our summer visitors, who presented Archie with the loud speaker for the Shamrock and who during the winter months designed and made beautiful red satin robes for "King and Queen" Whalen. The robes and sparkling crowns were presented to the Whalens by Miss Turner.

And the race for mayor of Beaver Island goes on for another year. As the ballots were being counted, a spark was dropped (accidently on purpose) into the ballot box and the flames licked up the count. Undaunted, the two candidates pledged to carry on the fight until they meet again on America's Emerald Isle.



IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Beaver Islanders went all out to give Life Magazine a real story in pictures for their feature on the "dream scheme" that became a reality Sunday afternoon. Photographer Ralph Crane, with four cameras hung around his neck, must have taken hundreds of pictures. On his return to the Beavers after the final shots were taken of the horses swimming to shore, he repeated time and again, it was wonderful.

Bruce McDonough used his speed boat to take Life's photographer back and forth to advantage points as the horses were dumped overboard. On the lower deck of the North Shore, Eileen Lamonette, with a camera mounted on a tripod, snapped pictures of the inside view. They should be terrific.

• • •

BOTH CRANE and Miss Lamonette were enthusiastic in their praise of Beaver Island. The history of the Island fascinated both. Crane is a native of Switzerland and Mrs L..monette is a Connecticut yankee.

Before getting off the subject of horses, your reporter would like to say "thanks" to John Maloney of Chicago who received the copy of the Courier featuring the story of the horse project and showed it to his boss, Al Widdefield, who in turn interested Life's editors. John Maloney's father is a native of Beaver Island. John and his family are vacationing on the island at the present time.

• • •

NEWS OF interest is the purchase of the beach frontage on which the old Floyd net shed stands by a prominent Chicago yachtman. The property was sold by James W. Gallagher. The yachtman, who prefers to keep his identity out of print, will build a couple of yacht slips for his future use. Beaver Island is his second home and he expects to tie up at the island frequently.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Griffin of Hamilton, Ohio heard so much about Beaver Island that they decided to head their yacht "Zefiro II" in our direction. They are anchored at the dock for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Briarton, Chicago, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Ricksgers.

Mrs. Charles Archer and children of Elmhurst, Ill. are visiting Mrs. Archer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Donnell. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O'Donnell, Chicago, are also guests at the O'Donnell home.

• • •

MR. AND MRS. Dick DeBold, Springfield, Ohio are vacationing on the island. They are accupying one of Allen's cabins. The DeBolds never miss spending a few days on the island every summer.

Mrs. Jack Johnston and son, Arthur, arrived Wednesday to spend four days at Beaver Lodge. This trip, Mrs. Johnston brought back a lovely portrait of Jack to hang above the mantle in the logby of the Lodge. It's a smiling likeness of Jack, the way we all remember him.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eckler and family of Grand Rapids are visiting Mrs. Eckler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin. Roseanne Karker, Grand Rapids, accompanied the Eckler's to the island and is a guest at the Martin's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter "Doney" Gallagher and daughter are visiting Peter's parents.

• • •

ROBERT KOONCE, Detroit, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dick DeBold over the week-end.

Dr Eugene Bales has returned to Indianapolis. His wife and family will remain a few weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mularski, Detroit, arrived Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kinney.

Norman Kraft, who edits a good size community paper down in Detroit always gives the island a plug at every opportunity. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Maas, one of Kraft's neighbors, were vacationing up in these parts recently and made the remark that we had a real advertising agent in friend Kraft. To Norman — who, by the way, takes the Courier — we say "thanks".

Mr. and Mrs. "Corney" Cornelius of Chicago came to the island to spend a unique vacation. They came in "The Corn Crib" which is a late model coupe equipped with everything imaginable for camping. The arrangement of the equipment was something to see. Their sleeping quarters were in the rear of the car with protection against mosquitoes and foul weather. Mr. and Mrs. "Corney" are camping enthusiastics and love the life. They camped at Fox, Barney, Genesareth and at Gull Harbor.

Protection for you alone is not enough . . .

Chances are one in four that you will be faced with hospital and medical bills this year for yourself or a member of your family. And the chances are even greater that, if you are among the one in four, the bill will be for a member of your family. Blue Cross Blue Shield records show that family dependents use two to four times as much medical treatment requiring hospital care as the employed subscriber himself.

That's why the hospitals and doctors who run Blue Cross and Blue Shield have provided a program of Full Family protection that offers the subscriber the opportunity to enroll his wife and children for exactly the same comprehensive benefits as he himself receives.

In addition, Blue Cross and Blue Shield provide many other family protection features. For example, under the Full Family Contract, the newborn child is covered from birth. In addition, all eligible children under 19 years of age, no matter how many in the family, may be enrolled and receive the same full benefits without additional cost to the subscriber.

Yes, the family is important to Blue Cross-Blue Shield and Blue Cross-Blue Shield are important to your family. Protection for you alone is not enough.

These comprehensive benefits give you and your family protection that's priceless

Blue Cross Comprehensive Group Hospital Plan provides up to 120 days care in ward or semi-private room, according to the service for which you enroll, in any of the 191 participating hospitals in Michigan. There's no limit on the certificate benefits covered — no matter how high the total bill!

Blue Shield Medical-Surgical Plan pays generous amounts for specific surgical procedures — gives you the peace of mind that comes with knowing substantial payments will be made towards your doctor's visits to the hospital in non-surgical cases.

And remember — a Blue Cross-Blue Shield membership card admits you to a participating hospital without red tape or embarrassing questions. Afterward there are no claims to file, because Blue Cross and Blue Shield pay hospitals and doctors directly.

Talk to your employer about making Blue Cross-Blue Shield available where you work, through the Group Enrollment Plan, without physical examination or health statement.

NEW "Latch-On" PLOW

FOR CASE "VAC" TRACTOR

AND NEW "EAGLE HITCH"

CASE

● It takes only a minute to hitch this new Case latch-on mounted plow to the amazing new Case "Eagle Hitch," the simplest 3-point hook-up you ever saw. "Eagle Hitch" and new, practically fool-proof hydraulic control that works independent of power take-off, clutch, and gears, are regular equipment on the low-cost Case "VAC" 2-plow tractor. There are latch-on implements for many farm jobs. Plows float free, work at even depth in spite of hard and soft spots and rough ground.

If you like to drive and are wondering how to spend an afternoon, here's a suggestion: a trip around Lake Charlevoix with many interesting stops enroute.

Six miles out of Charlevoix on M-66 you'll find the village of Ironton with its renowned ferry across the south arm of Lake Charlevoix.

The ferry operates on a cable across the 550 ft. of the arm and affords an unobstructed view of the surrounding slopes with their many lovely homes and scenic shoreline. There's a nominal charge for your car and it's for free if you just go across for the ride without your car.

At the end of the arm is East Jordan where you'll find Sportsmen's Park with its beautiful swans and other wildlife, the Jordan river where you can enjoy a canoe trip or fishing expedition. A short distance from the town is Deadman's hill which furnishes a wonderful view of the surrounding woods and lakes.

From East Jordan you journey north and east to Boyne City with the road following the shoreline most of the way.

Out of Boyne City, to the east, is the Boyne Mountain lodge where one may ride the ski lift to the top of the mountain for an unforgetable view of Lake Charlevoix and the surrounding hills. Also one may visit the lodge itself at the foot of the mountain.

As you leave Boyne City for the return trip along the north shore of the lake you pass Young State Park

As you near Charlevoix to the north there's Greensky hill, named for an early Indian chief and the site of the oldest Indian church in the area.

Nearby are the Council trees, which, according to legend, were planted as saplings by Indian chiefs of the territory who pledged peace among their tribes as long as the trees remained.

Charlevoix County Farm News

Here Are Some Potato Spraying Suggestions

Spraying plants with DDT improves potato quality and increases production, Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent, reminded potato raisers this week.

Tests at Michigan State College have shown that DDT spraying increased production from 60 to 100 bushels per acre. Now is the time to get spraying operations underway if they haven't begun already.

Flea beetles and potato hoppers can be controlled by DDT. The hopper often causes severe damage after hay is cut when it leaves the hay field and invades the potato fields, Ed Rebman said.

Spraying with DDT is most effective when mixed with Bordeaux mixture or a fixed copper solution. Either of the latter two will control blight. In mixing sprays, the DDT should be added last. The solution should be sprayed as heavily as 125 gallons to the acre.

The county agricultural agent pointed out that first spraying should be done when plants are 4 to 5 inches high. If they have gone beyond this size and haven't been sprayed it's important to start immediately.

Frequent spraying is important for best results, too — about every 7 to 10 days is recommended. Some potato growers stop spraying too soon. Even if plants are large it will pay to continue spraying.

Special spraying directions for this area recommended by agent Rebman are to protect the plants from late blight. Late blight has been discovered in the county. Keep those sprays on from now until harvest. Clean up those throw out piles of potatoes.

Farm Outlook In Brief

Egg prices will show a substantial seasonal increase during the next several months, especially on good quality eggs. Prices in August will be 5 to 10 cents a dozen above July levels.

Broiler and fryer prices have shown a tendency to drop several cents a pound during late September and October. If production plans can be adapted, growers might well arrange to have their birds reach market age perhaps in November rather than October.

The combined spring and fall pig crop is estimated at 106 million head — 5% above 1950 and 16 above the 1940-49 average—the second largest on record. Demand for pork is expected to remain strong—prices good. Probably will be more early marketings with less than seasonal price rise in July and August.

Crop prospects in general have improved. Corn plantings will be near the acreage goal of 90 million. With good weather this could produce a record crop. Some oats land has been shifted to soybeans. Harvest could be near last year's record crop. Even wheat, which earlier had pessimistic reports, could be a hundred million over the billion bushel mark.

More peaches, too—65.5 millions bushels forecast, compared with 53.5 millions last year and about 75 millions in 1949.

Cherries are expected to total 224 thousand tons for the U.S. This year's crop estimate includes 155 thousand tons of sour cherries and over 68 thousand tons of sweets.

Special Care of Milk Needed on Hot Days

Warm temperatures at this time of year bring about rapid spoilage of milk and cream if proper care is not taken in their production and storage, according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. To avoid financial losses due to milk or cream being rejected, the first concern is to avoid bacteria getting into the milk. This is done by keeping utensils such as pails, separators, milking machines, etc., clean. As soon as the milk is separated, the cream should be cooled to below 60 F., and preferably below 50 F. and maintained at this temperature until marketed. If milk is marketed then the milk should be cooled immediately after milking, to the lower temperatures where bacteria growth is slowed down and spoilage prevented.

Another precaution for cream producers during warm weather is to market the cream at least three times a week.

"Make Hay While Freedom Shines"

You don't have to be a political weatherman to see that most of the world is being saturated with the dirty drizzle of welfare statism. More and more people are forgetting their own individual ambitions, aspirations and potentialities to latch unto that wonderful idea of mass security. In those countries, however, where this socialistic smog has already settled, we bet there are those who wish they had made hay while freedom shone . . . who wish they had used their freedom to foster the ideals of freedom.

Because we sincerely believe this, we are dedicating this series to the proposition that individual enterprise and initiative are the firmest factors in the foundation of our country, and that as soon as people cease to think in terms of individual responsibility and self-betterment, they will give up anything to the promise of physical security. So for ourselves and the independent businessmen, our dealers and jobbers, on whom our business is built, we offer over five thousand dollars in awards to foster individual betterment and enterprise, and to say, "Let's Make Hay While Freedom Shines."

Farmers' Union Co-Op

Beware of Moisture In Wheat

It is not our policy to cry wolf all the time, but the last few days in southern Michigan wheat has not been drying out as expected.

Toledo reports that of the wheat arriving there 60 percent of it is rated tough. Wheat above 14 percent moisture means trouble for the farmer, elevator man, miller or exporter.

Farmers are warned that there have been times in the past when wheat over 14 percent moisture had no market as buyers refused to buy. It must be remembered that we are in the buyers market and if wheat comes in over the moisture limit, higher discounts or no market at all is extremely likely.

Hurts Loan Value

Another factor is the farmer cannot get a government loan on his wheat if it is above 14 percent moisture. Be sure you have a moisture conversion chart along side of your tester.

We want to be of all the service we can so please call on us whenever you have wheat to offer.

Bill Gibson Retires As Bridge Operator

William Gibson, bridge operator on the Michigan state highway bridge here for more then 17 years, has retired from the position.

He is succeeded by Elmer Gibson who assumed his duties last week.

Gibson is the second new operator to join the staff this summer. Earlier Danford Gallagher became an operator.

Mr. Gibson sr., who was a fisherman at Beaver Island before coming to Charlevoix, plans to do a little more fishing now that he has retired.

Crump-Grubaugh Wedding Vows Exchanged in Double Ring Ceremony

In a candlelight service solemnized at the First Methodist church July 24, Joane Crump became the bride of Jack Grubaugh USAF.

The Rev. G. E. Whitten read the double ring service before an altar decorated with baskets of garden flowers and lighted tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Crump and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grubaugh.

Preceding the ceremony Charles Church of Clare, uncle of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. A. C. Belding who also played traditional wedding music and the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a ballerina length gown of yellow sheer and a short veil which fell from a Juliet cap for her wedding. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow tea roses.

Attendants were her twin sisters, Janet and Susan Crump, who wore pink sheer ballerina gowns with black velvet sashes and carried colonial bouquets of white carnations and pink cornflowers.

Robert Tripp, USN, assisted the bridegroom as best man and Gerald Gibbons and George Haggard were ushers.

Mrs. Crump chose a pink shadow sheer and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Grubaugh, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy suit and navy and white accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations and red roses.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. The refreshment table was centered with a tiered wedding cake and decorated with lighted tapers and summer flowers.

The couple left on a wedding trip to the upper peninsula. For traveling the bride wore a navy suit, white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Private first class Grubaugh will report at an airbase in California for assignment overseas at the end of a 30-day furlough. The bride will remain here.

Both are graduates of the Charlevoix high school. The bridegroom enlisted in the U. S. Airforce in January. The bride is employed at Freedman Artcraft.

Among those from away who attended the wedding were Mrs. Pearl Pierce of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Church of Clare.

- Mr. and Mrs. J. Norton of Grand Rapids spent the weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gannon.
- Mrs. Thomas Sutherland and two children are expected here this week from Detroit to spend a week with her mother, Mrs. Lester A. Gallagher. She returned with Mrs. Gallagher who had been in southern Michigan for a visit.
- Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mann are expected to arrive August 11 from Toledo for a ten-day visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newman.
- Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Odmark and family plan to leave Thursday for a week-end visit with relatives in Detroit.

Two Men Honored On Their Birthdays

Grant Ferguson, sr., and Jake Mindel, both of Hayes townships whose birthday anniversaries were Saturday and Monday, were honored guests at a family picnic at the Ferguson home Sunday.

The group gathered for a picnic dinner and later attended the Venetian Night parade in Charlevoix.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mindel, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson and son, Grant jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Berkle, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ferguson and family of Petoskey, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Ferguson and family of Resort Pike and Clifford Short.

Barnard Road Improvement Project Is Completed

Completion of the $40,000 improvement of the Barnard road was reported by the Charlevoix County Road Commission.

County crews finished the blacktopping last weekend, Trim Reynolds, county highway engineer said. The 2.8 miles of the road which was graveled and graded last summer and fall is in A-1 condition. It cost about $13,385 to put the three layers of seal and a prime on the stretch, Reynolds said.

The cost of the improvement on the Barnard road underscores the handicap of the county road commission in repairing more roads in its jurisdiction. Costs have increased 120 percent in the last 10 years.

The total county road budget this year is slightly more than $140,000. It is readily seen how big a chunk the Barnard road project took.

• • •

THE RECENT additional gas tax levy has not been received by the county yet. It is expected to amount to 30 percent more funds than the county is receiving at present.

In dollars it means that the county will receive $70,000 more to improve roads each year. To Charlevoix it will mean $12,970 East Jordan, $12,694 and Boyne City $17,160 for improvement of streets.

Reynolds cautioned residents and motorists not to expect miracles in road improvement in the next year or so. It will require a long period of time to restore the roads to their former condition. In the meantime, every effort will be made to speed repair and improvement of the roads, he said.

Mrs. Carlson Passes After Long Illness

Mrs. Helene Carlson, 60, wife of Albert Carlson, Evelino township farmer, died Monday at the Charlevoix Hospital after a long illness.

Funeral services will be held at the See Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Thursday with the Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial will be in Brookside cemetery.

Born in Norway July 7, 1091, the former Helene Emily Isaksen was a graduate nurse of Ullewald Hospital in Oslo, Norway and practiced her profession after coming to this country 35 years ago. She lived here and later was married to Egedius Larsen Feb. 1918. He died in May 1923.

She is survived by her husband, Albert Carlson whom she married in Jan 1931, two daughters, Mar[illegible] who is attending school at Elkhart, Ind., and Mary Helen at [illegible] daughter, Mrs. Caroline Gowman of St. Clair Shores, [illegible] stepson, Arthur [illegible] St. Louis, [illegible] grand[illegible] two brothers, Henry Isaksen of Charlevoix and Haaken Isaksen of Norway, three sisters, Mrs. S[illegible] of Sturgeon Bay, W[illegible] Ingrat Karsten [illegible] and M[illegible] Stolsang of Norway.

State Sheriffs To Convene Here in '52

The latest state organization to announce its 1952 convention in Charlevoix is the Michigan Sheriffs association.

S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Board of Commerce, who appeared before the sheriffs in convention at the Soo, said the convention will be held July 28-30 at the Beach hotel.

Charles Miller of St. Joseph, executive secretary of the organization, notified Mr. Coleman and E. L. Kramer, owner of the Beach hotel, of the organization's convention plans.

Charlevoix competed with six other cities which attempted to obtain the sheriffs for 1952.

• • •

WITH A number of state organizations slated to hold 1052 conventions here, it apears that Charlevoix will be host to more conventions next year than ever before.

Among the larger groups to select this city as their convention headquarters are the Michigan Press association, numbering 350 to 400 members, and the Michigan Rural Mail Carriers.

Coleman predicts that some 10 to 15 groups will hold conventions in Charlevoix next year.

Mr. Besemer, 52 Ag Instructor Dies Suddenly

The community this week mourned the passing of Ellsworth I. Besemer, well-known agriculture teacher, who died unexpectedly Thursday.

Funeral services for Mr. Besemer, 52, Veterans Farm Institute instructor Thursday, were held at See Funeral Home Saturday with the Rev. Jackson E. Turner officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Mr. Besemer died at Mt. Pleasant hospital where he had been taken late Wednesday after he had been stricken while enroute home from a business trip to Lansing.

Born at Litchfield July 1, 1899, he graduated from Litchfield high school and served in World War I. He graduated from Michigan State College in 1922 and taught at Bear Lake and Buckley for the next four years before receiving his master's degree in science from Michigan State in 1927.

He taught at Belleville until 1936 when he became county agricultural agent in Wayne County, a position he held until coming here as an instructor in the Veterans' Farm institute in May, 1948.

He was a member of the Congregational church and the Kiwanis club.

He is survived by his wife, the former Helen Holden whom he married June 8, 1923; three daughters, Mrs. Clayton A. Smith of Charlevoix, Mrs. Richard T. Reid of Detroit and Mrs. Horton C. Southworth of Bellevue and one son, Ellsworth A. at home.

Walloon Lake Man to Head County Schools

He succeeds Howard Porter of East Jordan.

William Parsons of Norwood township was named vice president. Mrs. G. Clarke Bergeon, county superintendent of schools, is secretary by virtue of her office.

The budget meeting will be held in September and a report made on the anticipated educational program to be extended to the schools of the area by the University of Michigan through radio facilities.

The Women's Guild of the Episcopal church annual bake sale and basaar to be held Friday, August 10 at the bingo stand in the East Park.

Warden Gillies Speaks at Ladies Night Program

A large Ladies Night attendance heard A. Blake Gillies, superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction speak Monday night at the Beach hotel to Kiwanis members and guests.

Mr. Gillies, who has been warden at the penal institution for 12 years, related some of his experiences. He pointed out that modern penal practices enable the men and women convicts to return to their rightful position in society.

Brutality has no place in prison work, he said, adding that kindnes and understanding of the inmates, problems are necessary if their return to the outside world is to be hastened.

Club president Gordon Freedman, who became a father of a son last Friday, was presented a ball bat and baseball. Charles Levinson, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Ellsworth Set For Barbeque

Ellsworth—Plans for the annual Ellsworth bar-b-qoe Thursday, Aug. 16 have been nearly completed.

A softball game between Atwood and Ellsworth is set for 10:30 a.m. and another game is slated for 6 p.m.

Radio Station WJR farm reporter, Marshall Wells, will be the principal speaker in the afternoon. A wide variety of sports for the children has been arranged.

The large crowd expected to attend the day's activities is likely to eat some 4,000 buns and 1,000 pounds of beef.

Long Illness Proves Fatal to Mrs. Bergman

Mrs. Sybil Bergmann, 65, wife of Frederick Bergmann and mother of eight sons, died Saturday at her home following a long illness.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home Monday with the Rev. L. L. Lewis officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Born in Charlevoix April 5, 1886, the former Sybil Cook was married to Mr. Bergmann July 23, 1911. They had spent their entire married life in this community. She was a member of the Rebekah lodge in which she had served in all major offices and the Pilgrim circle of the Congregational church.

Besides her husband she is survived by eight sons, George, Frederick, William, Richard, Robert, Eugene, Charles, and Alfred, all of Charlevoix and 14 grandchildren.

Atwood Couple To Mark 50th Anniversary

Ellsworth—Mr. and Mrs. Isa Alward will observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary Tuesday at their farm home, one mile south of Atwood, on US-31.

They were married Aug. 14, 1901 at Charlevoix and have lived in this vicinity since then.

Mr. Alward, 76, was born Aug. 7, 1875, in Indiana and came to Antrim county at the age of 17. He is the son of Jerry and Melvina Roseberry Alward. He is a former member of the school board in the Wright district.

Mrs. Alward, 66, the former Lena Smith, was born Jan. 31, 1885, at Atwood, the daughter of Charles and Nancy Strong Smith. The couple has two daughter, Mrs. Lewis Jablinsky of Charlevolz and Mrs. Bertha Jensen of Flint; four sons, Maynard, Nelson and Charles of Ellsworth and Marshall of Anchorage, Alaska.

Mr. Alward has two brothers, Sam of Ellsworth and William of Norwood and two sisters, Mrs. Albert Parsons of Ellsworth and Mrs. Clarence Boonstra of Grand Rapids. Mrs. Alward has three brothers, William Smith of Boyne City, Melvin of Ellsworth and Oscar of Rochester.

Song Jamboree Reservations Hit 200 Mark

With the annual SPEB Jamboree nearly a month away, reservations have hit the 200 mark, Jerry F. Scudder, secretary of the local chapter and reservation chairman, reported Wednesday. Reservations have been received from Chicago, Pittsburgh, Evansville, Ind. and other out state cites.

Advance reservations are pouring in faster than at anytime since the event was started eight years ago. Headquarters for the four-day Jamboree will be the Beach Hotel.

Indications point to the best public program, Saturday night, Sept. 1 at the high school gymnasium, ever staged by the local chapter.

The present International Champions, The Schmidt Brothers from Manitowoc, Wis., will headline the show. Supporting the Champions will be former International Champions, the Mid-States Four, who have made the Charlevoix outing a "must" affair for several years.

• • •

IN ADDITION, it appears that perhaps two other former international champions will be here. The Michigan champions, the Tune Benders of Dowagiac, Town Criers of Kalamazoo, Garden-Aires of Detroit and several other outstanding quartets will be here for the song festivities.

General chairman for the affair is Jack Dollenmaier, Michigan district president, assisted by Dallas Henry, local chapter president, Jerry Scudder, Casino Party costumes; Bob Miles and Art Heilig, stage; Barney Englehardt, decorations; Charles A. Hamlin and Henry Ingals, Chapter staff; and Mrs. Gilbert Saltonstall, ladies party.

Tickets for the Saturday night show are on sale at Henry's barbershop, the Courier and from chapter members.

Owls Face Strong Sodus Team Sunday

Charlevoix Knight Owls faces the strong Class A Sodus team here Sunday, Aug 12 at 8:30 in what promises to be a bang-up game.

Sodus with a record of 27 wins and four losses in Class A and AA competition is sponsored by Joseph Bachunas, owner of several resorts.

Don Shafer, the Sodus ace pitcher has a no hitter and a one hitter to his credit this year. The Sodus catcher, Gene Parritt, had a tryout with the Chicago Cubs and another player Jack Mucia, was with the St. Louis Browns in spring training.

The Owls whipped Big Rapids last Sunday 3-2. Big Rapids tied it up in the seventh but Chick Gallagher proved to be the hero by stealing home for the deciding marker when the losers left home plate unprotected.

Throng Enjoys Seeing Cars Of Old Days

The "good old days" were recalled quite vividly to hundreds of spectators who inspected the caravan of pioneer automobiles here Monday.

Some 50 cars, many whose vintage went back to the early years of the century, attracted widespread attention on the corner of Dixon and Bridge. The cars stopped here for four hours enroute to Traverse City.

Oldest car to stop here was a 1902 Olds Runabout owned by Charles E. Hulse of Flint. Another oldtimer was a 1903 Cadillac Tonneau of E. P. Walton, also of Flint. Several foreign cars including the French Renault, Italian Fiat and the English Jaguar were given close inspection.

Several of the drivers, dressed in the characteristic duster and goggles, attracted much attention as the young and old sought a close up of the cars which proved to be the forerunners of the modern autos of today.

A large group gathered around a 1922 Stanley Steamer, owned by Philip Arnold of Flint, and looked amazed as it worked up steam before driving away.

The group in the cavalcade was feted at the Beach Hotel by the Charlevoix automobile dealers. The buffet luncheon, designed by Chef Larry Gannon, carried out the theme of the oldtime cars.

Knight Owls Start Tourney

The Charlevoix Knight Owls start district tournament play at Cheboygan Saturday, Aug. 11 at 8:30 p.m. when they oppose the Petoskey Baptist church team.

If the Owls win they face Cheboygan National Guard team Tuesday at 10 p.m. Finals will be played Sunday, Aug. 19 with the winning entering the regionals in Class B at Charlevoix Aug. 24-26 and the runner up going to Class C.

There are 22 teams entered and Charlevoix is in the lower bracket, by far the toughest. The Owls must win five games to take the tournament.

Group Welomes Detroit's Mayor

Softball Results

In the first game of the second round, Ellsworth Hdw. team got off to a flying start as they beat their old rivals Silver Birches 10-3. In the first round of league play Ellsworth bowed to the Silver B. boys twice, both extra inning ball games. Wassner pitched steady ball keeping Silver Birches' five hits well scattered. Ellsworth touched B. Potter for 8 hits.

The Coast Guard boys came from behind to nose out Cadillac-Olds 16 to 13. They were behind 10 to 1 going into the fourth when they came to life scoring 7 runs. They scored 5 more in the fifth and finished their scoring with 3 more in the sixth. Painter hit an inside-the-park home run for Coast Guard. Ketchman hit a triple for Cadillac-Olds in the fifth with the bases loaded.

Mailhots and Sees played an exceptionally fine ball game on Wednesday. Both teams have been greatly strengthened for the second round and undoubtedly will be real contenders for the league championship. Al Dorow counselor at Camp Charlevoix, pitched Sees to a victory over

By Fran Martin

Do you like puppets? . . . If you do you missed a real show Saturday night when the R. L. Kramers of the Beach Hotel put on a show for the youngsters in town . . . More than a hundred kids of all ages and some parents saw the fascinating characters being put through their paces by young Stan Kramer, nephew of hotel people . . . We don't know who enjoyed it most and it was a real treat to see trem . . .

FOR OUR money there's nothing like sweet cherries . . . those big black ones . . . who knows the name . . . we just know they're good . . . A big thank you to John Rosequist for those sent to the office by him last week . . . and the ones the boss brought from Fairman's nrchards . . . and white ones brought to us by Mrs. J. M. Robson and Lillis Flanders . . . What a cherry crop there must have been this year . . . we're glad the season's been good for something . . .

Remember John Roen who once made his home here? . . . As you no doubt know he has a shipyard at Sturgeon Bay, Wis., . . . He also has a new yacht, the Sonja . . . that's out of this world, if you'll excuse the expression . . He's been in a couple times in the last ten days with it . . . It's a joy to see . . .

IF YOU EVER have an opportunity to hear Mrs. Mass, a concert pianist of Detroit, don't miss it . . . We had an invitation recently to hear her and she's wonderful . . . added to that she's lovely and charming . . . all of which makes her doubly nice to listen to . . . All those who heard her were grateful to our nosts for the invitation . . .

Easter and August have nothing in common . . . except this August Albert Novotny, Sr. has an Easter lily in bloom . . . one that he planted more then a year ago and thought would never bloom when it went so long . . . We understand Mrs. Charles Bleha also has one about to bloom.

NEXT WEDNESDAY will mark the sixth anniversary of V-J Day . . . six long, and yet not-so-long years . . . since World War II ended . . . since the day we were almost hysterical because the war had ended so unexpectedly . . . a little more then six years since those atom bombs were first dropped on the two Japanese cities, Hiroshima and Naugasaki . . . whose names have become synononous with the bombs . . . the bombs which six years ago no one had heard of and whose power of destruction no one could realize at the time . . . It was just a thing that had ended the war . . . In 1951 it's become a household word . . . and whether it will be a threat or a god-send to humanity still remains to be seen . . . But might we suggest that you pause on this sixth anniversary and give thought to the future . . . and a few prayers for peace in that future in which you're going to have to live . . .

OUR SYMPATHY to the Besemer and Bergmann families . . . To the Besemers for the untimely death of a man who had made a place for himself in this community despite the fact he had only lived here for three years . . He was an asset to the community and to the Veterans Institute . . to which he gave not only his time but his friendship and understanding . . And to the Bergmann family for the loss of a devoted wife and mother . . . and a wonderful and thoughtful friend and neighbor . . .

DID YOU KNOW that Charlevoix's Board of Commerce has practically opened up a branch office at Coral Gables, Fla. . . . In the person of Mrs. Clair Webster . . . A note from her the other day tells us this story . . . The Webster family was welcomed recently by the Newcomers club over station WGBS . . . the announcer Bob Marshall, formerly of Pinckney, said he was here once as a boy and remembers being seasick while on a boat ride on Lake Charlevoix . . , Mrs. W at once sent out an SOS to our local board of commerce for folders, etc., which he latter received

And last Tuesday morning, she writes, he read several of them and said he had maps of the city, where to fish, etc., and would be glad to relay the info to anyone for he had all the answers . . . He surely gave Charlevoix a lot of good free advertising! I thought is was mighty nice of him . . . To which we add, so do we, and a big thank you, Mr. Marshall and station WGBS . . . We hope you'll pay us a visit sometime . . .

Mrs. Webster added, Kept thinking of you all Sunday night and wondered how the weather was for the Venetian Parade . . . hope it was super . . . Might we add the weather was perfect and the parade super . . .

Barbara Besemer Speaks Vows in Quiet Ceremony

At a quiet home wedding Barbara Ellen Besemer was united in marriage to Richard Thomas Reid Friday afternoon.

Rev. Jackson E. Turner of the Congregational church read the double ring service in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Ellsworth Besemer, chose a gown of traditional white satin fashioned with a net bodice with lace inserts. Her two tiered veil fell from a juliet cap of white satin and was trimmed with lace matching that on the dress. She wore a wristlet of stephanotis and white carnations.

Mrs. Clayton A. Smith of Charlevoix and Mrs. Horton C. Southworth of Bellevue, served their sister as attendants. They were dressed in identical gowns of blue nylon net over taffeta. Blue net caps and juliet caps of blue completed their ensembles.

The newlyweds are honeymooning at Torch Lake and will make their home in Detroit.

BABY TALK

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Freedman announce the birth of a son, Gordon Lincoln, at Lockwood General Hospital in Petoskey Aug. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pethe are the parents of a son born at the Charlevoix Hospital Aug. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion McGhan of Traverse City are the parents of a son, Bruce William, born July 31. Both are former residents.

FAST, ACCURATE TELEPHONE SERVICE IS VITAL TO CIVIL DEFENSE

Warnings of approaching planes, coming from air raid spotters or military radar screens, are flashed over networks of Long Distance and local telephone lines to Filter Centers.

This great and growing telephone system was built to serve America in peace. But it is just as ready to serve in any emergency.

The value of this nationwide telephone network was never greater—never clearer—than it is today.

It must be kept strong. It is vital to a strong America.

To help speed your Long Distance call, please give the operator the out-of-town telephone number. • Telephone lines are busy with national defense.

Maxine Russell Bob McKerracher Exchange Vows

The Church of God was the scene of the wedding of Maxine Freda Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Russell, and Robert Churchill McKerracher of Boyne City, son of E. C. McKerracher of Galveston, Tex., and Mrs. Genevieve McKerracher of Boyne City, Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. W. D. Wood read the single ring service before an altar decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli and other garden flowers in the presence of their immediate families.

The bride selected a pink summer suit and white accessories for her wedding. Her corsage was of white stephanotis and her [illegible] of pink and white roses.

Barbara McKerracher of Boyne City, sister of the bridegroom, was her only attendant. She wore a blue and white check summer [illegible] red hat and navy [illegible]. Her corsage was of red [illegible] roses.

Kenneth [illegible], was best man.

Mrs. Russell wore a navy dress and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. McKerracher wore a navy [illegible] and white accessories. Both had corsages of sweetpeas.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 125 guests was held in Fellowship hall. A three-tiered wedding cake centered the refreshment table which was decorated with bouquets of pink and white gladioli.

The couple will reside in Boyne Falls.

Pletcher-Lyon Vows Spoken in Lawn Ceremony, Saturday

In a ceremony solemnized on the lawn at the home of her parents in Muskegon Saturday, Marion A. Pletcher became the bride of Ronald E. Lyon of Grand Rapids.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pletcher of Muskegon and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lyon of this city.

The Rev. Harold Springstead read the double ring service before a garden trellis flanked by bouquets of field flowers.

Wedding Music

Preceding the service Mrs. William Westcomb, at the piano, played "Liebestraum" and "Londonderry Air" and sang "O Promise Me". During the ceremony she sang "I Love You Truly".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white lace nylon organdy ballerina length gown styled and made by her sister, Phyllis Pletcher, head costumer at the University of Michigan. It was styled with a fitted bodice, Elizabethan collar and tight fitted sleeves which came to points over the wrists. She wore a small white hat and matching veil and carried a nosegay bouquet of white Shasta daisies and trailing ivy.

Attends Bride

Mary Ann Murphy of Charlevoix and Petoskey was her only attendant. She wore a ballerina length gown of frosty blue organdy over light blue taffeta styled with a peter pan collar and cap sleeves. She wore a small white hat and matching veil and carried a nosegay bouquet of white Shasta daisies.

Iver Lyons of Grand Rapids assisted his brother as best man.

Mrs. Pletcher chose a brown bemberg print and green accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Lyon, mother of the bridegroom, wore a teal blue crepe with black accessories. Both had corsages of white carnations.

A garden reception for 150 guests followed the ceremony. Mrs. Lyle Patton cut the five-tiered cake which was topped with miniature bluebirds.

For traveling on their wedding trip to the upper peninsula the bride wore a gray summer suit with burnt orange accessories. The couple will reside at 1123 Sheridan St. Grand Rapids.

The bride, who formerly taught here, is a graduate of Muskegon Junior College and Western College of Education. She will teach in Grand Rapids this fall.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and is employed in Grand Rapids.

Guests were present from Detroit, Grand Rapids, Berrien Springs and Charlevoix.

What's Doing at Camp Charlevoix

The fifth week of camping ended with enthusiasm running high for the continuance of trips. During this past week two horse trips two canoe trips, another adventure to Beaver Island, and camping trips to Wilderness and Young State Parks, marked the high points for the vast majority of the campers.

Cabin 10, with counselor Bob Price and campers Scott Beaman, Nick Cameron, Ames Gardner, Bob Gordon, Tom Hoerner, Bob Siewert, and George Thompson, spent three days "roughing it" in the wilds of Wilderness State Park. Cabin 12 left Wednesday for a two-day canoe trip down the Boardman River and returned on Friday with the following canoers: Peter Barrett, Bill Fox, Bob Nester, Doug Nichols, Bob Streadwick, Bob Waddell and Tom Keller.

• • •

THE ANNUAL competitive camp game of "Mugwump" begins this next Saturday and both Green and Grey teams are looking forward to adding considerably to their totals during the week's duration of the game.

The sixth week begins with most every cabin in camp going on some type of camping trip. It also marks the beginning of the longest canoe trip of the season for any group. Cabin 17 with counselor Al Dorow left for an extended six-day trip down the Tauquamenah River in the Upper Penisula and will return to camp this next Saturday.

Practice has already begun for the annual Camp Rodeo which will be held in the Camp Corral on August 24th, with Indian Dancing one of the main activities during the next two weeks in preparation for the big Final Council Fire of the season.

At Sunday morning chapel in the woods, Dean Smith gave an inspiring talk on "Getting The Most Out of Camp".

Sunday evening Vespers were held.

Ready for any road!

(1.) Road Test a Mercury for proof of performance!

Get ready for the ride that will make your next car a Mercury. For here's a performance-packed car that's feather-light on the controls, velvet-smooth in action.

Relax as heavy traffic tension melts away. Discover how easily Mercury's famous road-gripping fleetness takes the sharpest curve—the roughest road—in stride.

Yes, start adding up the extra performance values that are Mercury's. Check its budget-wise economy and get set for "the buy of your life!"

Standard equipment, accessories, and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

(2.) Budget Test a Mercury for proof of Value!

★ Does it have a down-to-earth first price? Mercury's price tag you can understand—a big dollar's worth for every dollar invested.

★ Will you be sure of good gasoline mileage? Mercury has proved its more-miles-per-gallon by winning officially sponsored economy tests.

★ Is it famous for long life? It is indeed! 92% of all Mercurys ever built for use in this country are still on the road, according to latest annual official registration figures.

★ Will upkeep stay low? You'll save money every year. Drop in for the facts about Mercury's stamina!

3-WAY CHOICE! For "the drive of your life!" Mercury makes available a triple choice in transmissions. Merc-O-Matic Drive, the new simpler, smoother, more efficient automatic transmission—or thrifty Touch-O-Matic Overdrive are optional at extra cost. There's also silent ease synchronized standard transmission.

"Simplest FORAGE HARVESTER"... Users Say

✓ LIGHT RUNNING. Makes good use of 2-plow tractor power on the power take-off, yet has the strength and capacity to cut big tonnage with bigger tractors. Also available with engine.

✓ ONE BASIC MACHINE. Built to work equally well in row crops or hay crops, with interchangeable units. Simple in design, staunchly built for years of dependable service with little upkeep.

✓ HANDLES ALL FORAGE CROPS. Corn, sorghum, soybeans—green, wilted, or cured hay—windrowed straw. Order it with row-crop or windrow pick-up unit, or both. Limited number of cutter-bar units available

✓ EASY TO USE. Over-running clutch lets you get knife wheel up to speed before starting travel. Control lever handy to tractor driver. Can be fitted for hydraulic control.

JEWISH FOLKS NOTICE—For Sale—Your people have wanted to get onto Torch Lake but only individual properties were available. Mrs. Ladd and I have the most beautiful ranch home on the lake and also have wooded lots to accomodate a colony. Please allow us the privilege of showing you. Our location is south Torch Lake on Crystal Beach. We are 35 miles south of Charlevoix so come on US 31 to Eastport then along East Shore of Torch Lake thru Alden Follow lake Shore road. Look for stone ranch home and signs. If you are out for a glamorous bargain come. We will sell our home or will combine with the vacant sites. The price will be very low. The setup is perfect and you will like the friendly neighborhood. Possession quickly-furnished or unfurnished. Sincerely, Frank H Ladd, Alden, Michigan 32c

Sportsman's Carnival Aug. 11-12

The fifth annual Sportsmen's Carnival to be presented by the Charlevoix Rod and Gun club this week-end promises to furnish activities and entertainment for everyone young and old.

A street dance, concessions and games will provide fun Saturday evening along with the wildlife exhibit featuring native Michigan animals set up by the Michigan Conservation Department.

Sunday morning the activities will move to the club grounds off US 31 two miles north of Charlevoix where prizes will be offered for skeet shooting and other similar events.

Outboard motor boat races following by water skiing on Round Lake will open the afternoon festivities at 3 p.m. Prizes will again be offered to the contestants. Spectators may view the races from East Park or other points about Round Lake.

A variety program in East Park will begin at 7:30 p.m. when the Master and Mistress of Magic, Fran Gee and Florence, will present their magic act from the band stand in the park.

Charlevoix County Farm Nesw

Oat Field on Joe Leu Farm Shows Evidence of Two Major Diseases

A series of oat variety plots were planted May 1 by Ed Rehman, county agricultural agent and Joe Leu on the latter's farm near the Peninsula grange. Five varieties were used in these plots and they included Clinton, Kent, Bonham, Eaton and 44720. This latter is a relatively new oat that as yet has not been named.

These five varieties were sown in the regular way that Mr. Leu plants all of his oats. The rate of seeding was 7 pecks of oats per acre with 300 pounds of a 3-12-12 fertilizer used. Mr. Leu also made a legume seeding using 4 pounds of alfalfa and 3 pounds of clover per acre.

Last week D. L. Clanahan, farm crops specialist from Michigan State College and county agent Rebman went out to take plots to check the varieties at that time. There was no evidence of lodging of any of the varieties, they were all about the same height with possibly the Clinton being slightly shorter but all of them should be ripe about the same time. There was also no evidence of rust on any of the five varieties.

* * *

TWO DISEASES, however, did show up on these plots. One was Septoria Blight which is a browning of the leaves and the leaf sheath on the oats. Underneath the leaf sheath there will be a dark oily condition of the stem and if the stem is cut into lengthwise the mould or fungus can be seen growing. There is no cure for this disease and cool wet weather such as has been present aids in the growth of the Septoria Blight. All five varieties showed relatively the same amount of this infection.

The other disease that was present on the five varieties was one known as Red Leaf. In this disease the leaf turns a red color and points upward like a spike rather than hanging downward like a green leaf should. Not too much is known about this red leaf condition. All varieties had about the same amount of red leaf.

* * *

HARVESTING these plots will take place as soon as the oats are ready to cut with the binder. Each one of these varieties is repeated three times making 15 plots and 8 samples out of each plot must be harvested. These sample areas will be 39 inches long and 5 drill holes wide. Yields obtained from this harvest will be reported later.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leu farm 220 acres. Their farm is completely laid out in a soil and water conservation program through the assistance of the Charlevoix Soil Conservation District and the Soil Conservation Service. They have a small herd of cows, keep a few hogs and their main crops this year are small grain, hay and pasture.

The Leus have three children. Verna is now working at the [illegible] company at East Jordan. Paul has recently graduated from the mining college at Houghton and is now in the Army and Joe Jr. who is still at home. The Leus are members of the Peninsula Grange and of the Star Farm Bureau group. The children have all been members of 4-H clubs and Joe Jr. has a Guernsey heifer that he will be exhibiting at the Charlevoix County fair in September.

Examining some oats of a new oat variety are Ed Rebman, county agent, D. L. Clanahan, farm crops specialist Joe Leu and Joe, Jr. on the Leu farm.

Many Exhibits Planned for County Fair

The program for the 1951 Charlevoix County Fair has planned, Ed. Rebman, County Agr'l Agent and secretary of the Fair, stated here today.

With better weather in prospect this year and with many more exhibits expected this fair will be the best one ever held.

The dates this year are September 4 through 8. Tuesday the 4th will be entry day. Wednesday will see a thrill show both in the afternoon and the evening. Thursday will carry the calf scramble and sale. Races will be held on Friday and Saturday. Horse pulling will take place Friday evening. Charles Figy, Director of State Department of Agr'l will attend this years fair.

County Soil District Obtains Big Plow

The Charlevoix Soil Conservation District last week obtained a big land-breaker marsh plow according to Ed Rebman, county agent and secretary of the district.

The plow was obtained with the assistance of the local banks in Charlevoix county through the efforts of Robert Campbell of East Jordan.

Many farmers in the area has wet swamp areas that need such a plow in order that they may be fitted to produce a good crop of pasture. Such farmers who are interested in using this plow should contact County Agent Rebman, Farm Planner Bill Grimm, or one of the following directors; Clayton Healey, East Jordan, Norval Korthase, Boyne City Harold Goebel, East Jordan, Carlton Smith, Charlevoix, or Robert Straw, Charlevoix.

Hilton Buys Purebred Milking Shorthorn

Orville and Marie Hilton of Charlevoix, have added to their herd by the purchase of Rainbow Medals King, from Floyd and Hattie Scott, East Jordan.

The new animal is a purebred Milking Shorthorn and the record of the transfer of ownership has been made by the American Milking Shorthorn Society at Springfield, Missouri.

Open Formula Seeds

Those well-known Open Formula feeds supply those extra needs. Pasture alone is not enough for dairy cows. Grass won't supply all the nutrients for peak production and good body health.

Farm Bureau feeds are designed to keep cows in top condition and in high production.

The herds which get Farm Bureau Balancer in home grown grains or Farm Bureau 18 percent Service Dairy Ration fed straight are the herds in top condition and production.

Kill Flies in the Barn

Protect your livestock from flys by spraying animals with Farm Bureau or Cooper's Fly Spray. Either is very effective and costs so little.

Seeding for late Rye

Seed now with Balbo Rye for late fall and early spring pasture. We have a good supply of Balbo Rye seed and Yorkwin wheat seed.

FORD TRUCK DEMAND GREATEST IN HISTORY

- You're wise to follow the big trend in truck buying—the swing to Fords—because so many people must have many good reasons for choosing Ford Trucks!

New truck registrations for 1950 versus 1949, as compiled by R. L. Polk & Co., show that Ford Truck sales increased 56%—a sales gain 6 times greater than all other makes combined! Some good reasons for Ford preference: Ford step-ahead engineering . . . Ford's TWO new cabs . . . Ford longer life . . . and Ford's lower running costs with the POWER PILOT! . . .

Availability of equipment, accessories and trim as illustrated is dependent upon material supply conditions.

Mailhots 6-4. Also playing for Sees is Buff Geis, the Cowboy counselor at Camp Charlevoix. Des Milligan, who played with Sees the past two years is on a 30 day leave from the armed forces and will be with his old team during this time.

For Mailhots, Bob and Bill Carey are now home and will provide the extra strength needed to make them contenders. Dorow struck out 11 men and allowed only 3 hits, while Bill Carey struck out 5 while allowing 9 hits. Deano Davenport led Sees' attack with 3 hits, including a double.

Silver Birches put the pressure on the U.S.C.G. by running up a 12 to 1 score in the early innings which the boys in white could not match.

Their usual late inning rally fell short as they were defeated 12 to 8. E. Potter gave up 8 runs on 5 hits while Pierce, pitching for the Coast Guard allowed 12 runs on 7 hits.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . .
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

It's homeward bound this week for most Beaver Islanders who reside off the island. They'll be coming back for the annual Home Coming and August Dinner, Sunday, Aug. 12th. Plans are being polished off for a delicious ham dinner beginning at noon and an enjoyable evening of dancing. An invitation to all is extended to come to the island for this occasion.

The parishioners of Holy Cross Parish want to say "many thanks" to Mrs. Jack Johnston. It was through the generosity of Mrs. Johnston that the church has tile flooring in the sanctuary. The tile is marbleized maroon in color with a cross made of cream colored tiling on either side of the altar. The tile was laid last week and the men who did the work turned out a fine job.

BANS OF MARRIAGE were announced Sunday for the first time between Rose Greene, daughter of Mrs. Mary Greene and Jack Connaghan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Connaghan.

Father Giles will be with Beaver Islanders for another three years. He was appointed to remain as pastor of Holy Cross Lady of Consolation Seminary, Parish at a recent election at Carey, O.

Rosalie Bennett is visiting Caroline Miller at her home in Clark Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Gallagher and children of Chicago are visiting Earle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gallagher.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Maxwell and children are visiting Mrs. Maxwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Connaghan.

Harry Zeitler, Charlevoix, was a visitor to the island last week.

Bass fishing has improved steadily as the season progresses. Some mighty fine bass were pulled out of Barney's Lake last week, but the secret of the good catches is early rising. They bite best soon after sun up. "Captain Perch" Sonderegger caught a fine string of bass in the harbor which he presented to his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heflin.

MR. AND MRS. M. B. Collins, daughter, Verna Lou and son, Bruce, Mason, Michigan, spent the week-end at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wyman and sons, David and John, Farmington, are vacationing at their island home Billy Pawlowski and Judy Diane of Traverse City are with the Wyman party. Mrs. Wyman was the former Anna Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nackerman have had as their guests Mrs. Nackerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Collin Campbell and two children, Nancy Lee and Richard, all of Pontiac.

Recent guests at Beaver Lodge Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bratt, Grandville; Mrs. Samuel Gibbons and three children, Harbor Springs; Mr. and Mrs. J. Greenwald, Jr., Dearborn, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Penn, Dearborn;

GEORGE Dygert, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Han's Pase and son, Dearborn and Mrs. Donald G. Hoyt, Detroit.

Recent guests of the King Strang — Mr. and Mrs. John C. Knapp, Bay City; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Nelson, Gary, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Roy, Pontiac.

A last bit of news—Father Fabian Keenan arrived on Monday's boat to spend his vacation on the spot closest to his heart, Beaver Island.

If you want to see Charlevoix and its scenic beauties. Try it on a bicycle. You can rent them at Brown Motors. Reasonable too.

Want to have some fun? Attend the games parties at East Park in Charlevoix Tuesday and Thursday nights. Hospital benefit. You won't want to miss any games.

Six Conventions Slated For City In '52

Crash Injuries Proves Fatal To Orson Cook, 2 Others Hurt

A two-car crash four miles north of Charlevoix on the Boyne City road has taken the life of one driver and the driver of the second car remains in a serious condition in the Charlevoix Hospital.

Orson Cook, 77, Hayes township farmer, died Sunday at the Charlevoix hospital from injuries received in the crash which happened at 5:30 p.m. Friday when the two cars collided at the intersection of the Boyne City road and the Quarterline road near the Jarry Haggerty farm. He received savere head injuries and lacarations and a fractured leg.

The driver of the second car, Laverne Jenkins, 22, of Flint, remains in a serious condition at the hospital with severe head injuries and head and facial lacerations.

• • •

A PASSENGER in the Jenkins car, Richard Wright, 17, of Kalamazoo, is in good condition at the hospital. He suffered less serious lacerations and bruises.

The sheriff's officers believe the Jenkins car was turning off the county road onto the quarterline road colliding with Cook's car which was about to ercss the county road from the quarter line road. There were no witnesses to the accident.

Mr. Cook was born in Ionia county May 9, 1874, and came to Hayes township as an infant. On April 3, 1911, he was married to Mrs. May Scott Webster. He had always lived in Hayes township.

Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Douglas W. Bird of Dundee and Mrs. O. I. Nordrum of Redbank, N. J.; a son, Vernon O. of North Quincey, Mass.; two step-daughters, Mrs. Clayton A. Trimble of Charlevoix and Mrs. Harold Stueck of Petoskey; ten grandchildren; three brothers, George of Charlevoix, Frank of Jackson and Harvey of East Jordan; three sisters, Mrs. Clara Bonner of Vanderbilt, Mrs. Henry Walker of Jackson and Gladys Probst of Detroit.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home Tuesday with the Rev. G. E. Whitlen officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

Among the relatives from away who came for the funeral were Vernon O. Cook of North Quincey, Mass.; Mr and Mrs. Harvey Cook and daughter of East Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonner of Vanderbilt; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stueck and daughter and Mrs. Harvey Cannell of Petoskey; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cook of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Scott of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bird of Dundee; Mr. and Mrs Lee Scott of Eastport; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook of Bay Shore and Mrs. Henry Erber of Boyne City.

Charles Warner, Father Of 13, Taken By Death

Charles L. Warner, 69, well-known Norwood township farmer, died suddenly at his home Friday morning. He had been in failing health for some time.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home Monday with the Rev. Robert H. Moore of East Jordan officiating. Burial was in the Barnard cemetery.

Born in North Milton township, Antrim county, June 12, 1882, Mr. Warner lived at Bellaire, Torch Lake and other Antrim county communities before coming to his present farm in 1905. He was a member of the Barnard Grange.

On Aug. 27, 1903, he was married to the former Emma E. Brown at Bellaire.

Besides his wife he is survived by ten sons, Burton, Harley, Homer, Jasper, Harrison, Clyde and Doyle of Charlevoix, Jiles of Grand Rapids, Dixon of Dearborn and Everett of Pontiac; three daughters, Mrs. Irene Nadeau of Dearborn, Mrs. Lueille Anderson of Lansing and Mrs. Leona Habel of Charlevoix; 24 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; seven brothers, Harry of Elk Rapids, George of Traverse City, Frank of Ludington, Ernest of Largo, Fla. Jack of Jackson, William and John of Williamsburg.

Hospital Bed Available Now From VFW Post

A new hospital bed is available to residents in Charlevoix and its surrounding area through the courtesy of the Charlevoix VFW post, Clarence Goldstick, post commander, announced Tuesday.

Persons needing a hospital bed for use in a private home may contact any VFW member or Mr. Goldstick and arrangements will be made to make it available.

A wheel chair for the use of the public will be made available by the post in the next few weeks, Goldstick said.

The money for this project was raised through the sale of magazine subscriptions which the post carried out in connection with approved solicitors.

Sport Carnival Enjoyed By Large Crowd

Charlevoix assumed a festive spirit over the week-end as the Charlevoix Rod and Gun Club presented its fifth annual Sportsmen's carnival.

A variety of entartainment including a street dance Saturday evening, a skeet shoot at the club grounds Sunday morning, outboard motorboat races during tha afternoon and water skiing, magic act, and a band concert Sunday avening were all enjoyed by largo crowds.

Three local residents were the lucky recipients of major prizes. Don O'Brien won the row boat; Earl Gardiner the outboard motor and Ira Brown the .22 Remington rifle.

• • •

WINNERS in the skeet shoot were: Flight one, Keith Nickerson of Petoskey, first, with 49 out of 50 for the best score posted; second, Jay Gilbert of Detroit; third, Robert Parrish of Mancelona..

Winners in the second flight were: first, Bonnie Nickerson; second, Kit Carson; third, Kit Carson jr., all of Charlevoix.

Farmers Union Plans County Picnic Aug. 26

Basket lunch will be served at noon. A good program is planned. Confirmation of a speaker will be announced next week. The public is invited.

The regular meeting of the county Farmers Union will be held at Ellsworth community hall Aug. 21 at 8 p.m. John Ball, chairman of the State Farmers Union political action committee, will speak.

The state convention will be held at Boyne City Nov. 1-3. Arrangements are underway and will be announced in the Courier next month.

VFW District Honors Newspaper Official

The district group went on record to honor Harvey Klein, editor of the Northeastern Advertiser of Hillman, with an Ernie Pyle plaque for outstanding journalism. The presentation will be made at Alpena Nov. 4

The plaque is tu be given in recognition for Klein's co-operation with the Atlanta VFW in its outstanding community service work. The Atlanta post won state honors and a possible national prize of $10,000 cash prize.

Indications Point To Gala SPEB Show

A well-known harmony singer will be the master of ceremonies for the annual Barbershop Jamboree Sept. 1, one of the highlights of the four-day songfest Labor Day weekend.

He is Robert Haeger of Chicago who proved to be such a big hit when he sang last year with the famed Barber-Q-Four. The quartet is not singing here this year but Mr. Haeger is expected to please with his humor and ready wit.

Reservations for the four-day event, headquartars of which will be tha Beach hotel, continue to pour in, Jerry F. Scudder, sacretary of the bost chapter, ravealed. Some 300 reservations have been received, thereby setting a new record for the event.

Reservations are coming from cities throughout the midwest and eastern part of the nation with many cities being represented for the first time here, Scudder said.

• • •

INTERNATIONAL SPEB officers are expected to attend festivities, Jerry Beeler of Evansville, Ind., immediate past president of the international, and several others from his city will attend.

The Schmitt Brothers of Manitowoc, Wis., present international champions, will headline the Saturday night show. Among the other quartets are tha famous crowd-pleasers, tha Mid-States Four, 1949 international champs, who recently raturned from Korea where they spent several weeks entertaining U. S. troops.

The Tune Benders, present state champions, of Dowagiac, Town Criers of Kalamazoo and the Garden Aires of Detroit will sing.

Death Claims Mrs. Fessenden

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary A. Fessenden, 93, widow of Albert C. Fessenden, were held at the See Funeral Home Saturday with the Rev. L. L. Lewis officiating. Burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

She died late Thursday at the Charlevoix Convalescent Home where she had been a patient for more then two years.

Born at Toronto, Ont., Jan. 22, 1858, the former Mary A. Cooper was married to Mr. Fessenden in 1890. They lived at Central Lake in Antrim county and later at Buon and Cadillac where he served as county treasurer. He preceded her in death in 1936. She came here from Cadillac about four years ago.

She is survived by three nieces, Miss Hilda M. Cooper and Mrs. Marva Poole of Charlevoix and Mrs. Reba Herman of Kalamazoo; four nephews, Theodore Cooper of Traverse City, Harry of Sault Ste Marie, Franklin of Ramsey, N. J. and Airel of Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Two Men Plead Guilty in Court

Murley Shanaquet, 23, of Charlevoix, pleaded guilty to unlawfully driving away an automobile belonging to Gerald Burke of Hayes township Saturday night without intent to steal.

Martin W. Beer, 25, of Boyne City, pleaded giulty to a charge of non-support.

Both cases were referred to the probation department for investigation. They will be sentenced at the regular term of circuit court here Monday.

On the docket are nine divorce cases and eight civil cases.

New Job

Angus G. Leitch, former city superintendent here and until recently at Tecumseh, has accepted a city manager's post at Farming-

Travel Editors Visit Area For Weekend

While here they were the guests of the Board of Commerce, Beach Hotel and the Courier. They flew to the Island Saturday morning with Joe McPhillips and were entertained at the newly-opened Beaver Lodge.

Archie LaFreniere, president of the Beaver Island Association of Commerce, and the Lodge conducted the editors on a tour of the island, visiting several of the historic spots.

The guests were taken on a fishing trip to Garden and Hog Islands Sunday morning.

Guests included Harry Rogan, travel manager of the Automobile Club of Michigan, Leonard Barnes, editor of Motor News, an AAA publication, and Charles Wagner, veteran travel and Sunday editor of the Detroit Times.

The visitors expressed their amazement at the natural beauties of Charlevoix and Beaver Island.

Owls Advance In District Tournament

The Charlevoix Knight Owls advanced to the quarterfinals of the district softball tourney Tuesday night when they defeated the Cheboygan National Guard 5-0.

With Al Dorow, Michigan State quarterback, in top form, the Owls easily disposed of the Guard team. Dorow allowed one hit while his teammates were getting five.

After the Owls got their first score in the third, Bruce Henley put the game on ice by knocking in two runs in the fifth. The winners scored twice more before the end of the game.

THE OWLS play the Petoskey Eagles at 9 p.m. Friday at Cheboygan. If they win, they will play Saturday night at 9 p.m. The finals will be at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Bob Potter pitched a no-hitter to beat the Baptist church of Petoskey to give the Owls their first game in the tournament last Saturday. The Owls won handily 12-1. Don Carey and Henley led the 16-hit attack with three hits each.

Minister Resigns Church Post Here

The Rev. Jackson E. Turner, pastor of the First Congregational church here since June, 1946, has resigned his pastorate effective Sept. 15, he announced to his congregation Sunday.

Rev. Turner said he had no plans for the immediate future and has agreed to remain for an additional month if the local church is unable to fill the vacancy at once.

A graduate of Albion College and the graduate school at Oberlin College, Rev. Turner was ordained in the local church in Nov. 1946. He is a native of Manistee,

Several More Groups Likely To Meet Here For Annual Meetings

Six conventions are definitely slated for Charlevoix next spring and summer at the Beach hotel, and there is a possibility of at least six more.

S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Board of Commerce, who has been making an intensified effort to obtain conventions here, reported on progress of convention plans at Monday night's council meeting.

He declined to list the probables because there are several other cities attempting to obtain the groups for their 1952 meetings. Mr. Coleman related that it requires the co-operation of many in the community to assist in selling state groups on meeting in Charlevoix. He appealed for the close support of the council and other groups in the city.

• • •

IN ADDITION to the conventions for next year, the Michigan Association of County Clerks have informed F. R. Bulow that the group will meet here in 1953, after deciding to meet at Blaney park next summer.

The council was told that the state conservation department will make a public fishing site at the end of Stover road if the city permits an extension of the road toward the lake. Authorization was given.

Probate Judge Floyd Supp offered a resolution which the city council decided to send to the Michigan State Highway department, urging the improvement of the scenic turnout on US-31 north of the city. It is hoped that this will be made into an outstanding roadside park.

• • •

THE CITY'S insurance issue was released again. Charles A. Hamlin asked about the fleet insurance which is up for renewal in the next 60 days. Mayor Knight said in his opinion this should be split up as in the other city policies. Hamlin said "perhaps this should be let on bids."

The council decided to ask Hal Forbrig, local contractor, to appear at the next meeting for a report on the progress on the obtaining steel for the Mason street dock.

Football Exams

Boys interested in playing football at Charlevoix high school this fall are urged to be at the high school at 2 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 23 for physical examinations.

Hospital Shows Profit For Year

For the first time in the history of Charlevoix hospital, the institution finished its year of operation in the black.

The hospital, which the last few years has been edging closer to the break even mark, this year showed an operating profit of $804.15. It was pointed out that very few public hospitals operate in the black.

This fact was reported at the annual meeting last Wednesday night at the city hall. Some 30 interested persons attended the public meeting.

Re-elected to the hospital hoard of directors were Mrs. E. K. Shanahan, Gordon L. Freedman and Fred Willis. John Porter of East Jordan was named to fill the vacancy of Hollis Drew who moved to Jackson.

• • •

PERSONS ATTENDING the meeting were unanimous in commending the hospital administration and the medical staff for the efficient operation. Miss Ann Baumgartner, hospital superintendent, and the medical staff members were signaled out for special praise.

The hospital report, submitted by the superintendent, revealed that there were 1130 patients during the year. Patients spent a total of 7,736 patient days at the institution. The past year has been the busiest year in its history.

The per diem cost of patients was $15.18, somewhat lower than the state average.

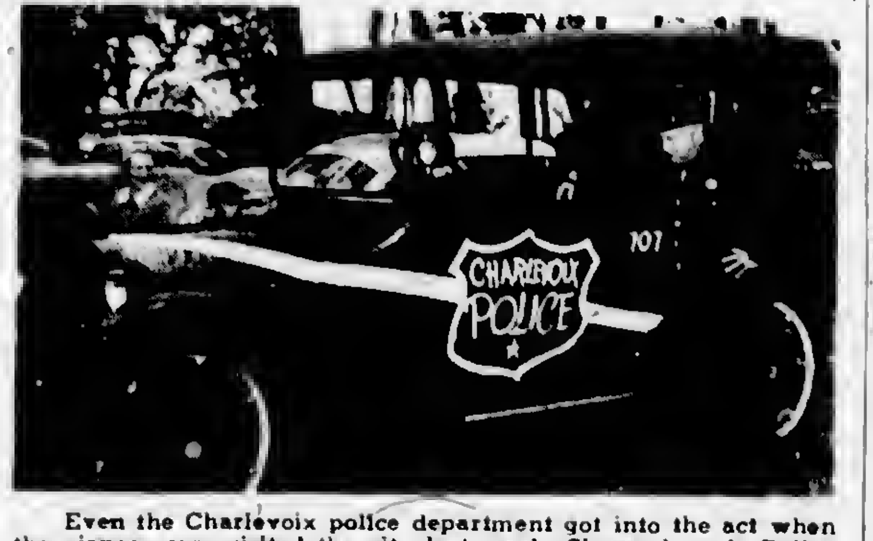
• • •

REPORTS ON the fund-raising phase for a new hospital showed that East Jordan residents in recent weeks pledged or gave $13,000. The canvass in East Jordan is not complete.

Herb Schofield, building fund secretary, revealed that less than 187 local persons have pledged gifts for the new hospital. The committee cited the need for greater participation.

Earl A. Young said that "everyone must ask himself how much I give for the hospital instead of how little."

No Speeders in Sight . . .



Even the Charlevoix police department got into the act when the pioneer cars visited the city last week. Shown here is Police Chief Clarence Heise, garbed in a police hat of old, standing beside Floyd Brown's 1916 Dodge which was used as the official police car of the day.

Knight Owls Close Season With Victory

The Charlevoix Knight Owls won their final game of the season, defeating Sodus 5-1 in nine innings with Al Dorow holding the visitors to six hits.

Charlevoix, paced by Bob Carey who rapped out two doubles, garnered seven hits.

The score was 0-0 going into the last half of the seventh inning when Dorow got a two-bagger and advanced on an error. Bill Carey scored him with a fly ball to center. Bob Carey knocked in Chick Gallagher moments later on a hard double. The Owls added three insurance runs in the eighth.

The Owls closed the season with a 9-3 record against all comers.

The team will have to find a new sponsor next year. John Knight issued the following statement: "I have backed the team for four years and the losses have reached the point where no one person should be asked to absorb them. I personally think the Board of Commerce should take over the team as a recreational attraction. I'll be glad to co-operate in any way."

Coming Events

Aug. 20 — American Legion Auxiliary will meet at Legion Hall at 8 p.m. Potluck lunch.

Aug. 21 — Garden Club will meet with Mrs. R. L. Lewis at Woodstock on Alice st. for potluck luncheon.

Aug. 23—Smorgasbord supper at the Church of God Fellowship Hall.

Don't Be Fooled by Reds, Potter Warns

Northern Michigan's Charles Potter, who represents the 11th district in Congress, has consistently exposed the weaknesses of the U. S. State department in formulating foreign policy.

Being a disabled veteran of World War II, Potter knows the sufferings of the GI in battle at first hand. As a result of this grim experience, he has done a great service to his district and nation in trying to bring order out of chaos in the State department.

He has repeated his warnings that the Soviet Union is out to disrupt and hamstring genuine peace efforts and they are wanting a cease fire in Korea because of the advantages to the Communist nations.

A short time ago Potter and five other members of Congress, all World War II veterans, issued a clean-cut statement which is of great interest to all Americans regardless whether they live in Michigan or California.

Part of the statement follows:

"Like all our fellow Americans, and especially the families of our boys fighting in Korea, we earnestly hope for a speedy end of the conflict and peace with justice and honor. To insure that the sacrifice of so many lives has not been in vain, to protect the security of our American troops and those of our allies, and to guard against further agression, we feel it to be our solemn duty to warn our armistice negotiators to keep in mind the following:

"They are dealing with unscrupulous agents of a regime branded as an aggressor. The Red negotiators will be speaking not in the interests of their own people but as stooges of Soviet Russia. They are puppets of the red-handed Bolsheviks who initiated, directed and supplied weapons for this agression against the peaceful people of South Korea.

"The armistice in Korea was suggested by Jacob Malik, the communist spokesman whose major activity has been to disrupt, hamper, hamstring, and delay all efforts in the United Nations to create a prosperous and peaceful world. It is fantastic to assume that this announced enemy of free peoples would want a cessation of hostilities in Korea in order to benefit democratic nations.

"Specifically, we congressional veterans of American wars urge that our representatives insist upon the following conditions for an armistice in Korea:

"1. No retreat from areas won by the sacrifice of those who have fought the aggressors, and no further recognition of the 38th parallel as a division in Korea.

"2. Immediate return of all prisoners of the United States and other allied nations, with strict accounting for all who have perished since being taken prisoners by the Reds.

"3. Unification of Korea, looking toward elections to establish a free and democratic regime.

"4. Unrestricted inspection by United Nations forces throughout all Korea, to insure there will be no build-up of Red power to threaten peace and security of the area again.

"We suggest to our representatives that they make clear to our allies in the United Nations that this organization itself is on trial in the handling of the Korean matter, and that they urge here and now a united front of free people against the terrifying increase in power of a regime determined to dominate and enslave the world."

Voice of Our Readers . . .

Dear Editor:

In re: Your editorial "Housewives Beseged with Solicitors" in which you state that housewives have been pestered by magazine salesmen, we should buy from local merchants who pay taxes, etc. Altho no names were mentioned in this recent editorial, we feel that it was directed especially to the recent magazine campaign which was sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and which was conducted by representatives of the Crowell-Collier Publishing Co.

Before sponsoring this campaign, our V. F. W. representatives took up the matter with the local Board of Commerce and received written authorization from them to permit the soliciting of magazine sales in our community. All of the commission from these sales, according to a plan from the publishing company, made possible the purchase of a hospital bed, with almost enough left to purchase a wheel chair, the balance of the funds for the chair to be paid from the V. F. W. treasury. This bed and chair will be made available, free of charge, to anyone in the Charlevoix community who may be in need of them.

Altho the members of our organization are no longer needed in the armed forces, still we believe in service to our community and felt this was just one way in which we could serve the patients of Charlevoix. While we also believe in the promoting of local business, we do not feel that any or all of the stores selling magazines would be willing or able to donate the commission from their magazine sales even for a short time to purchase any like equipment.

We sincerely wish to thank everyone who purchased magazines for the Crowell-Collier representatives and made possible the purchase of this hospital bed and wheel chair so often needed for home cases, and know they will receive all magazines promptly as this publishing company is an old and reliable concern. We are not trying to take issues on this question and do not uphold soliciting day in and day out by salespeople who are not legitimately connected with reliable concerns, but we do feel that the facts on this particular campaign should be made clear since it was conducted by courteous salesmen and in the interest of Charlevoix patients. The V. F. W. has heard no complaints that housewives were high-pressured into buying magazines they did not want. The bed and chair will be delivered to the local V. F. W. post in the near future and anyone needing it may contact the Post.

Sincerely yours,
Clarence Goldstick, Commander

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Marlin

Why mothers get gray . . . One mother we know, Mrs. Robert McClure told us this one after we mentioned her daughter, Dulcie's beautiful black eye . . . . Seems Dulcie came home with it the other day and when asked how she got it said she'd fallen off the horse she was riding . . . The anxious mother immediately asked what she'd done and her answer? . . . Gotten back on the horse, of course . . . What's a black eye when one can ride a horse . . . and hang the results . -

The Red Cross has organized a Greater Kansas City disaster relief fund, as you've no doubt heard . . . We know you all contributed generously to the drive last spring but who could forsee such a disaster as the one in the Kansas City area . . and your help is again needed . . . Take a look again at the pictures of the destruction wrought by the flood and dig down deep and contribute to the cause . . . just be a little grateful it wasn't your home, or business that was destroyed . . . Count your blessings by contribhting . . . Your donation will go directly to the fund set up for that purpose.

Our sympathy to the Mrs. Charles Warner and family . . . Rarely have we seen a family so devoted . . The thirteen children and their families were a crowd when they got together and they did that often . . . One thing that family will have, despite their loss, is a million happy memories . . .

Tell us . . . is this weather we've been having an aftermath of a late spring or is it an early fall . . . No matter what is it, it isn't good . . . makes one wonder if it's ever going to be warm again . . .

Got in on a jam session Sunday night . . . we'd heard of them but never realized they could be such fun . . . And we weren't alone in that idea . . . Musicians from three orchestras here for the summer plus a local orchestra plus local and visiting musicians numbering more than 20 participated . . . and we know the place will never be the same . . For our money, we were hearing music at its best . . . O yes, it was at the Argonne.

Camp Charlevoix Takes Top Honors At Boyne City

At the F. F. A Horse Show in Boyne City last weekend, the boys and cowboys from Camp Charlevoix took 39 ribbons including 11 blue ribbons, 14 red ribbons, and 14 white ribbons.

Among the boys who represented the camp were Tom Keller, Indianapolis, Indiana, who won seven first places and three third places; Tom Kearney, Flossmor, Illinois, who won two second places and one third; Chris Roosevelt, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, who took one third place as did David Keller, of Detroit Mich.

Other boys to ride were David Mathews, of Saginaw; Robbie Swigart, Cincinnati, Kip Taylor, Decatur, Ill., Jerry Maish of Cincinnati. The four cowboys, Buff Geis, Oklahoma; Tex Johnson, Texas; Frank Smith, Michigan; and Merle Jenkins, Michigan, took the rest of the honors.

The Camp Charlevoix horses that won ribbons were Champ, with seven firsts and three thirds, Rex with one first, five seconds, and three thirds; Squaw with two firsts (both in the one eighth mile run) three seconds; Suzie with one first, four seconds, and two thirds. Trixie and Queeny each took several third places.

These horses will be seen in action again at the Camp Rodeo on August 24th at 2:30 at the Annual Rodeo held at the camp The public is invited to this free riding show.

Mrs. Wood's Father Marks 92nd Birthday

340 Attend Homecoming Dinner on Island

By Mergeret Hanley

Beaver Island—Welcome home! "It's good to see you again!"—a warm hand shake, an affectionate hug, greetings galore on the dock as the boat tied up on the days previous to the Home Coming and August Dinner.

It's like one big happy family reunion from then on with rounds of visiting from house to house. It's a great time for Beaver Islanders.

The August dinner was every bit a success. The management of the dinner was under the direction of Mrs. George Ricksgers, president of the Altar society, and the job was capably executed. Everything went off like clock work. Between noon and three o'clock, an estimated crowd of 340 was fed. And the ham dinner was delicious with parsley potatoes, cole slaw, sliced tomatoes and cucumbers and home made pie.

Beaver Islanders prayed for a good day for the August dinner. The day dawned bright and beautiful, we could not have asked for a nicer day.

In the evening, a dance was held at the Parish Hall. Ralph Haan's orchestra from Pontiac furnished the music. Bill Spalding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding, called the square dance and Bill has what it takes when it comes to calling. He's tops. There was a wonderful crowd at the dance and everyone had a swell time. Thanks to all who worked to make this occasion the success it was.

What's Doing at
Camp Charlevoix

With the end of the 25th Anniversary year of camping at Camp Charlevoix in sight, the campers are enthusiastically preparing tor the annual Rodeo and final Council Fire, Friday, Aug. 24 for the parents and friends.

The sixth week ended with continuing good weather as the many cabins of boys returned from their trips throughout part of northern Michigan. The longest trip of the summer taken by the members of Cabin 17 returned Saturday from their six-day canoe excursion into the wilderness of the upper peninsula on the Tauquamenah river.

Campers taking the trip were: Jim Rockwell, Jim Keachie, Larry Reisinger, Walt Simmons, Sandy Wiener, Tony Love and Bill Zebedee. Cabin 16 enjoyed their trip down the Manistee river from Wednesday until early Sunday morning with canoers Joel Black, Dick Degener, Lev Flournoy, John Hord, Tom Kearney, John Logie and Tom Watkins.

• • •

Cabins 2 and 3 had much fun on their overnight trip to Young State Park on Lake Charlevoix with the following campers taking part in the trip: Chris Baldenaoter, Ira Bank, Devy Barnes, Todd Cobey, Ted Grace, Garr Youngren, Hugh Drum, Tom Freen, Mike Grossman, Chuck Hinsch, Steve Levis, Peter Moe, and Bob O'Brien.

• • •

THE SEVENTH week of camping sees preparation for the annual activities trips in sailing, canoeing, and on horseback, in which well over 45 campers will participate. In the meanwhile, the interesting game of "Mugwump" is well underway for the remainder of the camp.

On Saturday night, Cabin 9 gave a very interesting interpretation of "Casey At The Bat". The boys taking part in this were Chuck Schank, who was Casey, Chuck Eisendrath, Dwight Smith, Bob Heller, Bill Winkle, Bob Wood and Johnny Watson.

As the feature of the evening, a "Kangaroo Court" was held at which James Land was the judge, Don Dannacker was the prosecuting attorney, and Jim Ball was the defense attorney. The jury composed of campers and staff and some of the "criminals" were Al Dorow for being ill on the boat from Beaver Island, Eddie Vardon for not combing his hair, Danny Robinson for talking too fast, and among others, Lucian Layne for having Red Hair. The latter was found not guilty for lack of evidence. It was a great deal of fun and the boys all enjoyed the court.

Sunday morning at chapel, Doug Walker gave a fine talk.

A Little Patience.. and It's Yours !

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

In all the world of manufactured products, there is nothing more difficult to wait for—once you have decided to own it—than a Cadillac car.

If it is to be your first Cadillac, it is doubtless the fulfillment of a long-cherished dream—and it is hard to wait for one's heart's desire, once it is so close at hand.

And if it is to be a replacement for your old love—well, experience has taught you how consistently and completely the good things come from Cadillac—and your curiosity is a force to reckon with!

To make it worse, temptation is all about you. Down the street and around the corner are cars to be had almost as soon as your signature is on an order blank.

But be patient and be firm—for there is a reason why other cars may be had so readily—while there is some delay in delivery of a Cadillac.

It is because so many wonderful people, like yourself, want only Cadillac—and will accept no compromise.

If we already have your order—turn a deaf ear to those who would have you compromise your preference for the sake of earlier delivery.

And if you want a Cadillac, but have not yet placed your order, come in and do so. We will talk with you frankly about delivery, so you may know about what to anticipate.

Remember—there is only one car which is recognized wherever highways lead as the Standard of the World—and that car is Cadillac.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . .
BEAVER ISLAND

By Mrs. J. C. Hanley

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heflin's guests during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stebbins and Major and Mrs. John Johns of Lansing.

Mrs. Greg Smith and sons, Spike and Mike, of Boyne City spent the past week with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher. Saturday, Mr. Smith flew to the island to join his family.

Corporal Rodney Nackerman was fortunate. He was granted a fifteen days leave to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nackerman. He arrived in time for the August Dinner. The Nackermans also have as their guests, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Huston and three children.

• • •

MRS. ILA Adams and granddaughter, Susan, Lincoln Park, are vacationing on the island during the month of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall, Detroit, came to the island to visit Mrs. Hall's brothers, Frank, Willie and Ben O'Donnell. Mr. Hall says he has been coming to the island annually for the past 30 years, which is quite a record.

Pvt. Buddy Left was home for the August Dinner-and mighty glad to be back among the home folks. Buddy is stationed at Fort Knox.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles McCann and family are vacationing at their island cottage. The McCanns have recently moved to Traverse City.

Mrs. Marguerite Rumberg and son, Morris, Bay City, are visiting at the home place, the Mike McCann's home.

• • •

MRS. EDNA McCann and son, Verle, returned for the August Dinner and to spend awhile on the island.

Mrs. Marion Rice has fulfilled one of her desires, to come to the island for the homecoming. She was the guest of Mrs. Nora Gallagher.

Mr and Mrs. Bernard McCafferty and daughter, Chicago, arrived Saturday. They will divide their time between their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mooney and Mr and Mrs. Burt McDonough.

Sonnie McDonough was happy to have her daughters, Charlotte and Mary Ellen home for the August Dinner. Charlotte is employed in Washington, D. C. and Mary Ellen in Bay City.

• • •

JOY McDONOUGH and Lillian Connaghan were granted the weekend from their studies at Mercy Central School of Nursing, Grand Rapids, to return home for the big day.

We are sorry to report Gus Mielke is very ill. He was taken to the hospital recently and his condition is reported very serious. His daughter, Mrs. Rolland McCann arrived on the boat Saturday. Sunday, she received word to return to the mainland to be near her father. She flew Sunday morning.

Dave Wilson has solved his transportation problem between Detroit and the island. Dave has been driving up every week-end to be with his family. Now, he's flying up and piloting his own Stinson Station Wagon.

And speaking of Wilsons, Dave and the missus are a pair of the smoothest dancers in Michigan. They specialize in square dancing and can they ever swing that partner round 'n round.

• • •

MR. and MRS. Arthur Johnston and daughter from Ludington, were recent guests at the Beaver Lodge. Mrs. Jack Johnston was on the island over the weekend.

Rita Wilson, Grand Rapids, spent five days as the guest of Mary Catherine Hanley.

Mr. and Mrs. John McDonough came to the island in their yacht "Sea Legs" to spend two weeks. They have rented one of Allen's cabins for the duration.

Charlie "Harlem" Gallagher said he had twenty-two at his house over the weekend. Some of the guests at Harlem's Hotel were his brothers, Neil, Jim and Dominie from Newbery and his sister, Mrs. Mary Sterling.

Others who came for the home coming were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Burke, Lillian Greene, Mrs. Chrissie Gallagher, Bob Delany, Mrs. John Peternard and son, Bill and Marge Spalding and daughter, Karen, Mary Malloy, Mrs. Charles Teter.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown and their fine family of eight children spent last week visiting relatives and friends. They couldn't stay for the August Dinner as Francis had to punch the time clock Monday morning. Mary and Cass Greene came up from Chicago with the Browns to spend the week, also.

Father Fabian Keenan said good-bye to his Beaver Island friends Monday morning. Father will return to Louisville and from there he expects to travel west to Hobbs, New Mexico, where he will be stationed at St. Helena's Church.

And your B. I. reporter is saying good-bye. The Hanley family will spend the school months in Milan, Michigan where reporting will be laid aside in favor of readin' writin' and 'rithmetic. Sending out the news from the island has been a pleasant experience and it will be missed. Perhaps some day we'll meet again via the printed word God willing, we'll be back on the Beavers next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berthiaume, Windsor, Ont. are the guests of their son, Father Giles.

Father Victor Gallagher and Mr and Mrs. Leo Gallagher and children are visiting with the home folks, Mr. and Mrs. James H Gallagher.

New Phone Book Is Help In Case of Emergency

Something new has been added to the Charlevoix telephone directory—the one currently being distributed to subscribers* The Michigan Bell Telephone Company has come to grips with a problem which heretofore has baffled the experts—that of reducing the margin of human error in making emergency calls under pressure.

C. L. Johnson, manager here for the company, said the first page of the new directory— the one which customarily lists "emergency numbers"—has been revamped in such a fashion, that each and every subscriber can now literally become custodian of his or her own safety.

Spaces have been provided on the top of the page for each subscriber to fill in the telephone number of the fire department for this community. Customers also have been allotted space for their police department number.

Thus, the Cherlevoix subscriber would plece the number 27 on the line reading, "My Fire Department Number Is ." The line provided for the police number for Charlevoix would reed 28. The sheriff's number, 499, is lisled in en easily read spol.

The entire page one in the new directory has been revised. Johnson, said, with listings of Charlevoix's other emergency numbers clearly stated. The State Police number is Gaylord 400, while the FBI number may be reached by anyone desiring it by calling "Information." To report forest fires, customers would call Boyne City, 71, and to reach the Coast Guard they would use 148.

• • •

"IN THE past, mistakes have been made, with customers hurrying to complete calls for help by looking at the heading on the page for the service wanted, and then dialing the wrong number," Johnson said.

Charlevoix fire chief, Charles Marshall, and Police Chief Clarence Heise, both agreed at a recent meeting preceding the publication of the new directory that Michigan Bell has taken a step forward in protecting the residents by setting up the new format.

"If everygody does their part in listing their own fire number on the top of that page. there'll be fewer lives endangered, and less property lost," Marshall said, in an appeal to Charlevoix users to reduce the number of mistakes made in reporting the outbreak of fire.

In reciting the time lost by calling the wrong fire department, he pointed out that "precious minutes are eaten up by the flames before help can be rushed to the scene.

• • •

"I STRONGLY urge the people of Charlevoix to save themselves from further danger by filling out their fire department number in the space provided for it immediately upon receiving their new directory," he said.

Johnson emphasized Michigan Bell's desire to assist fire departments in combating "very real and human mistakes when disaster strikes and panicky calls for help must be made under considerable stress."

Consumers Complete First Major Link-Up

The first major link-up between Consumers Power Company's state-wide electric network and the electric system formerly operated by the Michigan Public Service Company was announced by B. D. Hilty, Division Manager of Consumers' Northwest Division, Traverse City.

Hilty said the completion of important transmission line and substation projects at Mio Dam on the Au Sable River and at Gaylord, with the energizing of the Gaylord Substation, will result in improved service and an increased power supply for the entire Division.

Gaylord is connected to new substation facilities at Mio Dam by a new, 40 mile long, 140,000 volt transmission line.

Hilty also announced that the Company is ahead of schedule in its project to link Cheboygan and Gaylord directly with a new 140,000 volt transmission line.

The new line, Hilty said, is to extend 20 miles to a new Consumers substation at Rondo, north of Wolverine. The Rondo Substation will be energized sometime in August, he said. By next summer, the line will reach the Cheboygan area near Mullet Lake.

Local Men Escape Serious Injuries

Two Charlevoix men, John Rathburn and Clifton Gregory narrowly escaped serious injury Sunday night while enroute home from Detroit.

The accident occured at Pinconning when a car drove out from a side-road into the path of the Gregory car.

B-50 Superfort Exhibit Visits Here on Aug. 30

The United States Air Force will conduct its "Operation Main Street" in Charlevoix on Aug. 30 "Operation Main Street" is part of the Air Force's Air-Age-education program of showing the general public its planes and equipment.

A display tour through 33 cities in seven north-central states will exhibit here, according to S. E. Colemen of the Board of Commerce local sponsor of the exhibit.

Highlight of the exhibit that will be open to free public inspection on Aug. 30 will be the 99-foot fuselage of the "Lucky-LadyII" the Air Force B-50 Superfortress bomber that made the first and only non-stop flight around the world in 1949. In addition to the bomber display the fuselage of an F-84 Thunderjet fighter and two modern cutaway aircraft engines will also be brought here.

• • •

THE EXHIBIT tour is being conducted to further the Air Force's program to keep the public more fully informed on its meaning, scope and role in the future security of the nation by presenting Air Force planes and equipment on the "Main Streets" of America.

New Educational Program Offered To Rural Schools

P.T A.'s and other civic groups who are looking for worthwhile projects will have an opportunity worthy of their efforts this fall. Mrs. C. Clarke Bergeon, county superintendent of schools announced.

The schools of Charlevoix county will have extended to them for the first time the educational program in music and literature which the University of Michigan produced so successfully last year in Washtenaw county.

Working with Paul Bunyon network, the University has set up a series of instructional programs to begin in October and continue until April.

For the schools of this county, particularly the rural schools, participating is contingent on some means of providing receiving sets for the school rooms. Large sets will be unnecessary, since the program will be carried by Petoskey, Gaylnrd and Traverse City stations; however, most of the schools are operating on limited budgets which may not include funds for such purchases.

Any small receiving set and books sold at cost by the University service are only necessary investments.

The county board of education at its meeting July 20 recommended this opportunity for all groups interested in the development of the educational program of the county.

Whether the Charlevoix public schools will enter the program for its lower grades will be decided by the board of education later.

Lee Sherwood Teaches Fishing These Days

Lee Sherwood who has always been considered one of Holy Island's nnluckiest fishermen, is now giving away fish as well as lessons to the Island's so-called professionals.

He doesn't even count them anymore. He has really had some large catches.

Newlyweds Making Home Here

After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. D. Dawson Way who were married at Holland July 14, are making their home here.

The bride, the former Joan Elizabeth Brumm, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Brumm, former residents now living in Holland and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Way of Charlevoix.

The Rev. Robert R. Way of Detroit, brother of the bridegroom officiated at the ceremony which was performed on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents in Holland.

The bride wore a white satin gown designed with a sweetheart neckline and a short train. Her fingertip veil fell from a headdress of orange blossoms and lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Arthur D. Wittenberger of Detroit, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Brumm chose an aqua print dress and matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Way, mother of the bridegroom, wore a green print dress and matching accessories. Both had corsages of white roses.

Attending from Charlevoix were Mr. and Mrs. Way, Mrs. Anna Twining and Ronert Clark.

Klooster Really Proud of New Pasture Plot

A worthless piece of wild pasture was the description of a seven acre plot on the Conrad Klooster farm at Atwood.

But that was before this year. "Con" has really changed his mind since he planted Ladino, alfalfa and brome grass in this plot of land. For several months he has pastured some 30 head of white-faced cattle on this seven acres of pasture and six acres of woodlot.

"Con" now figures that piece of land is the most productive one he has on the farm. Twenty-two head are still grazing on the Ladino, alfalfa and brome grass and are unable to eat it all

The pasture was planted last year and has had two applications of 0-20-20 fertilizer, 200 pounds to the acre. It was clipped a month ago. With the cheap feeding the cattle have had, it's easy to see why Klooster is so pleased.

Klooster appears to be switching to a cattle program as he bought 25 head last week from Sam Viking Mancelona cattle seller.

Farm Loan Group Meets at Boyne City

Charlevoix County Farmer members of the local National Farm Loan association will join other farmers of the area at 8 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 16, 1951 in their annual meeting of stockholders in Boyne Falls.

For more than 30 years, many local farmers have gathered annually for this important event. During this time, many other farmers who are no longer members, have made use of association facilities. About four years ago, the goal of complete farmer ownership of their cooperative loan association and the Federal Land Bank was realized. Meanwhile, the strength of the organization and its ability to serve has improved rapidly. For the past four years, an annual cash dividend has been distributed to members.

At this meeting, each member will have one vote in the selection of a member or members to serve on the board of directors, consisting of five members, for the next three years. The term of office of Melvin Bricker expires at this meeting. This board directs the affairs of the association between annual meetings.

Harry DeNise of Boyne Falls, now serving on this board, has contributed much to the success of the association. Howard Bedell, association secretary-treasurer, suggests that since the prosperity of many of our communities depends upon the prosperity of farmers, the association has rendered a valuable service to the community by offering farmers a dependable credit service fitted to their needs.

High Producing Cow Worth 3 Poor Ones

One high-producing cow can give the dairy farmer as many dollar bills above feed costs as three of her low-producing sisters, says Larry Johnson, dairy extension specialist at MSC.

According to actual records taken from the annual summary of the state Dairy Herd Improvement Associations, one cow producing 500 pounds of butterfat will put the same profit in the farmer's pocket as three average Michigan dairy cows producing 230 pounds of butterfat.

The average cow in the state produced 234 pounds of butterfat and 5,920 pounds of milk in 1949, the Michigan Cooperative Crop Reporting Service shows. The average production of 44,425 cows in 120 local DHIA organizations averaged 366 pounds of butterfat and 9,221 pounds of milk per cow during 1950.

Among other interesting facts about Michigan dairying uncovered by Johnson is the fact that about one in 10 cows in the herd improvement association produced 500 pounds of butterfat or more during last year.

The summary also shows that about one-fourth of the cows were removed from DHIA tested herds. About half of these were culled because their production wasn't up to par. Udder trouble and sterility accounted for most of the others.

Home Specialist Visits County Farms

According to J. C. Young, County supervisor for Charlevoix county, Mrs. Margaret Browne, state home management specialist for the Farmers Home Administration, was in Antrim and Charlevoix County working with loan and FHA families.

The Farmers Home administration is emphasizing the importance of home produced foods, the canning and storage of fruits and vegetables for winter use. Each family has been advised concerning gardens and vegetable production, including replanting of gardens.

Credit Costs Cut by Higher Payment on Farm

Can I reduce my mortgage costs? Many borrowers ask this question when they negotiate a loan. F. E. Ferguson, Michigan State College agricultural economist, offers some answers to the problem.

Most people, he says, pay what obligation their mortgage or contract calls for, with little attention to the possibility of higher payments. Increased repayment, however, will cut interest costs and reduce the overall cost of the loan.

The cost of carrying a $10,000 loan at six percent interest with $400 principal payment each year is $7800 over the life time of the loan. By increasing the repayment schedule just $100 per year, the cost would be reduced to $6300 or a saving of $1500.

• • •

BY STEPPING up repayment on such a loan to $600 per year, total cost of the loan is reduced by $2500. Comparative savings on a four or five percent loan is somewhat smaller, but is still a major reduction in the cost of credit.

Main reason for the reduced cost when repayment schedules are increased is the fewer number of years for which the money is borrowed, Ferguson points out.

A mortgage with a small, required annual payment is desirable. Uncertainties such as reduction in prices or income, sickness, or other circumstance which makes an unusual demand on farm income, makes a low required annual payment desirable. However, every effort should be made to pay as much as possible at any time to help reduce the cost of the loan. This in turn will shorten the period the borrower is in debt.

In shopping for a loan, the cost of credit can be kept at a minimum by obtaining a low interest rate and combining it with as rapid a repayment program as possible, the economist concludes.

"You Can't Tell Security By its Cover"

Too many people these days are trying to put a label on security . . . are trying to pin it down to a matter of retirement plans, old age benefits, socialized this and that. They say "Here, give up a few individual liberties and most of your ambitions, and we'll guarantee that you will almost always have a place to sleep and enough to eat."

Seems to us that these folks are reading the last chapter first. They are saying that subsistence and material security towards the end of life are the purposes of life. We believe that this isn't so. We believe that when a man has the guts and gumption to live by his own individual ideals and ambitions, security will take care of itself.

To give practical applicntion to these beliefs we are offering over $5,000 in awards to foster individual self-hetterment and enterprise. Remember this: Sure we want to sell gasoline . . . you bet your boots we do, hut we also want to do what we can to perpetuate a way of life that makes it possible.

Eveline Farmer Finds Approved Practices Pay Good Dividends

By Ed Rebman & John C. Young

Harold L. Thomas of Eveline Township is one of the county's more progressive young farmers who is finding that the adoption of new ideas being advanced by county agent, Ed Rebman, and Michigan State college, is really paying off.

Thomas informs us that he had hay this year which ran three tons per acre. His cows and young cattle are in alfalfa brome pasture of exceptional quality. Elsewhere on this page, Thomas' picture, along with son, Bob, shows them starting in with this disc on ten acres of buckwheat which he is working down as green manure ahead of his 1951 wheat planting.

In 1950, Thomas began remodelling his barn and increased his farm to 230 acres through cooperation of the Farmers Home Administration. He has adopted his barn to pen type set-up, installed a milking parlor and erected a modern, sanitary, milk house, according to J. C. Young, county FHA supervisor.

• • •

MR. YOUNG informs us that Thomas has a milking herd of twelve cows and is feeding out eight steers in addition to the herd replacements. County agent Rebman states that this herd is making fine progress toward top Red Dane breeding.

A soil conservation plan for the farm has been developed with the cooperation of the Charlevoix Soil Conservation district and Soil Conservation service and Rebman believes that present yields will be maintained and may well be increased with Thomas' program of livestock, green manure and fertilizer.

During this present year, he has filled the silo with grass silage, using only farm-owned equipment consisting of the mower, buck rake, and ensilage cutter. The only labor used was his own and son, Robert's. No corn or other row crop is being grown and the plan for future operation of the farm is hay, small grain, and livestock.

The Thomas' have an excellent garden and Mrs. Thomas' canning is going to cut the year's grocery bill, according to Harold.

ORCHARD NOTES

By Claude Fairman

The few growers that used Nugreen, a nitrogen fertilizer feed, on the trees via the leaves had less leaf drop.

A question often asked is when to sow a cover crop around young trees. Our young trees have a short growing season this far north and should grow as to ripen the wood with the climate during the fall.

One may think that if oats were sown at half past two on a certain day that the tree would immediately stop growing. The sowed cover crop may be applied at a convenient time. Oats is perferred by some. If it gets too brushy or grassy, some late cultivating may be necessary. If weeds start slow and the land is clean otherwise, the trees will continue to grow by stopping the cultivation earlier in the season.

This year all Montmorency cherry trees should be picked clean. If for some reason, the cherries are not harvested as condemned for fruit fly, immaturity etc., let the cherries get real ripe. Then shake the tree. Otherwise the trees will die.

Turkeys Need Shade During Hot Weather

Hot weather can be particularly hard on turkey flocks, says Michigan State college poultrymen. They recommend plenty of shade for the birds during the hot summer months.

Turkeys are often killed by heat prostration during hot weather. Some flocks fail to continue normal growth during hot periods even though few may die from the heat.

In some cases of turkey losses, the flock has shelter but not enough to accommodate all of the birds. Those that can not find room must stand in the sun. When shade is inadequate, the birds try to crowd into the shady space and as a result may pile up and smother.

The poultrymen advise growers to check available shade and to provide more if needed.

No man has more pride than the man who insists that he has none.

Lice And Mites Can Be Curbed, Ed Rebman Says

Lice and mites are two of the greatest offenders of poultry according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Because they are so different in their ways of life, each must have a special method of control.

Lice live on the birds, and attach their eggs to the base of the feathers. In order to kill them, the birds must be treated. A 40 percent solution of nicotine sulphate must be painted in a thin line on every perch. Care should be taken that all birds go on the perches that night (none should sneak into nests or other places to roost). The heat of the birds' body causes the nicotine sulphate to form a gas which slowly spreads through the feathers of the birds, killing all live lice (but not the eggs).

This treatment is sure death for lice found on the hens but a doubtful one when roosters are considered. The bodies of males are longer and it is questionable whether enough of the nicotine sulphate gas reaches the fluffy feathers of the abdomen to do a satisfactory job.

It is a known fact that laying flocks without roosters is more easily kept free from lice than a flock where even one rooster is allowed to survive. The best remedy is to use that rooster for a Sunday dinner or, if more than one, sell them.

• • •

OF COURSE, if hatching eggs are being produced male birds will have to be kept until the end of the hatching season. One method of controlling lice in the male birds is to treat twice at ten day intervals with sodium flouride powder.

A pinch of powder should be placed on the skin between the fluffy feathers about one inch below the vent. The roosters should come in contact with the nicotine sulphate roost treatment.

• • •

WHEN NICOTINE sulphate is used on any laying flock, a second application ten days later is necessary to kill the lice that have hatched since the first treatment.

Lice have chewing mouth parts. Mites are blood suckers. The latter live in and around perches and nests. These pests come on the birds only to drink blood and return to their hiding places in cracks and crevices.

Ormsby Bull Added To Dick Potters Herd

Dick Potter, Charlevoix, recently acquired a registered Holstein-Friesian bull from the herd of S. B. Jones & Son, Watertown, Wis.

Change of ownership for this animal, Joe Prilly Ormsby has been officially recorded by the Holstein-Friesian association of America.

Fat Stock Sale Set for Sept. 6 At County Fair

The first fat stock sale to be held at the Charlevoix County Fair will be held Thursday, Sept. 6 in the afternoon according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent and secretary-treasurer of the fair. Twenty animals will be offered for sale at that time. These animals have been on full feed by their owners since the first of the year.

The above calves have been sponsored for these boys by varions groups and organizations. The three boys at Boyne City who are raising calves are Edward Hunt, Larry LaCroix and Harvey Crozier. These calves are sponsored by the Boyne City Rotary Club. The three boys who are raising calves at East Jordan are Jim Shepard, Lester Howard and Harry Behling. These calves are sponsored by the East Jordan Rotary Club.

The Charlevoix Kiwanis Club have sponsored three calves for boys at Charlevoix. The boys who are raising calves there are Dick Smith, Robert Jolliffe and William Allison. At Ellsworth the Ellsworth Farm Store is sponsoring a calf for John DeVries, the Ellsworth Co-Op Company has sponsored a calf for Bob Farral and the Ellsworth Hardware a calf for Ted Spoelman.

In addition, the East Jordan Bank, the two Charlevoix Banks and the Boyne City Bank have sponsored calves for the following people; Joe Smith and David Smith of East Jordan, Jim Essenberg, Ellsworth, August Knop, Boyne City; Ken Shepard, East Jordan; Victor Oosterbaan, Ellsworth; Jack Zoulek and Ray Adkins, East Jordan.

The committee on this year's sale and scramble would like to have other names of boys who are interested in both the calf scramble and a pig scramble. The committee names are as follows; Charles Murphy and Archie Murphy of East Jordan; Clyde Warner and Clarence Meggison of Charlevoix; Claude Pearsall, Boyne City; Lonnie Adkins, East Jordan and Glen Bush, Ellsworth. Any young person interested in this program please contact one of the above men.

STOP asking for trouble

... Ask for ANTI-RUST SINCLAIR GASOLINE

Rust particles—the result of small amounts of moisture in your gas tanks—can stall your tractor, truck and car by clogging your fuel pump screen or tiny carburetor jets. New Anti-Rust Sinclair Gasoline prevents the formation of rust in your fuel system, because it contains Sinclair's miracle rust inhibitor, RD-119.® It thus protects against hard starting, stalling and repair expense caused by rust and corrosion. No other gasoline ever did this before!

Phone us today for new, Anti-Rust Sinclair H-C® or Sinclair Ethyl Gasoline — extra value at no extra cost.

We deliver direct to farms. Phone or write us.

A good sign to "go" by!

This shining emblem "GMC" is the sparkling sign of the fastest growing line of trucks in the land—with sales growth unmatched this year by any other manufacturer. The reasons for this are sound ones.

For in the chassis of a GMC you find "long-time, stay-with" stamina—truck-building that dares comparison with anything on the road today.

Under the GMC hood you find real power—the kind of truck-built power it takes to keep goods moving year after year. Whether it's a nimble ½- to 2-tonner with horsepower unsurpassed in its class, or the fabulous two-cycle Diesel which is outselling, outperforming every other make—a GMC puts more "go" to the load!

And in the cabs—drivers who work in comfort and safety. They have the look of men who know their truck will get the job done quicker and better.

You'll feel the same way when you try a GMC yourself. Come in—compare the facts, the features, the way they haul. Listen to the savings talk.

Interesting Motor Trip Awaits Charlevoix Guests

If you like to drive and are wondering how to spend an afternoon, here's a suggestion: a trip around Lake Charlevoix with many interesting stops enroute.

Six miles out of Charlevoix on M-66 you'll find the village of Ironton with its renowned ferry across the south arm of Lake Charlevoix.

The ferry operates on a cable across the 550 ft. of the arm and affords an unobstructed view of the surrounding slopes with their many lovely homes and scenic shoreline. There's a nominal charge for your car and it's for free if you just go across for the ride without your car.

At the end of the arm is East Jordan where you'll find Sportsmen's Park with its beautiful swans and other wildlife, the Jordan river where you can enjoy a canoe trip or fishing expedition. A short distance from the town is Deadman's hill which furnishes a wonderful view of the surrounding woods and lakes.

From East Jordan you journey north and east to Boyne City with the road following the shoreline most of the way.

Out of Boyne City, to the east, is the Boyne Mountain lodge where one may ride the ski lift to the top of the mountain for an unforgetable view of Lake Charlevoix and the surrounding hills. Also one may visit the lodge itself at the foot of the mountain.

As you leave Boyne City for the return trip along the north shore of the lake you pass Young State Park and the village of Horton's Bay situated in a maple grove.

Meet Your Friends Here

As you near Charlevoix to the north there's Greensky hill, named for an early Indian chef and the site of the oldest Indian church in the erea.

Nearby are the Council trees, which according to legend, were planted as saplings by Indian chiefs of the territory who pledged peace among their tribes as long as the trees remained.

Honorable Mayor and Common Council
City of Charlevoix, Michigan
Gentlemen:

In accordance with your request, we have made an examination of the books and records of the General City, Electric Fund and Water Fund for the year ended February 28, 1951, and for the Sewage Disposal Fund for the year ended December 31, 1950, as contained in the attached schedules.

These schedules were taken from our complete audit report for the periods covered and are subject to the comments contained in and made a part of that report.

Respectfully submitted

County Residents Buy $1,084 in TB Seals

A final total of $1,084.76 worth of tuberculosis Christmas Seals was purchased by Charlevoix county citizens last year, according to the annual report of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

Packed with tuberculosis prevention information, the account warns that such programs as mass chest x-raying cannot whip tuberculosis unless "people know and observe good health practices."

Showing better ways to attack and defeat the disease, tuberculosis Christmas Seals are pictured on the job from the school rooms to the state legislative chambers.

Finding those infected, promoting tuberculosis hospital beds, helping the sick back to normal lives and year-round research are counted among programs Charlevoix citizens support through tuberculosis Christmas Seals.

Friendly Challenge
Drive at least two new cars, this time, before you buy—and be sure one of them is a new 1951 Packard!
And why do we issue this challenge? The two best reasons in the world:
1 Until you drive a new 1951 Packard, you just don't know what's been happening in the automotive world.
2 The best advertising is "word-of-mouth" advertising. It's to our advantage to start you talking about the advancements that make Packard the newest new car of the year.
P.S. Today's most thoughtful buyers will gladly accept this challenge.

New 1951 Packard Patrician '400'—most advanced motor car in America. Car details as shown subject to change without notice
Some "eye-openers" that await you on your Packard "Challenge Drive":
Top-compression power: New Packard Thunderbolt Engines give you the efficiency of America's highest-compression eights. Plus: service-free simplicity—up to 25% fewer working parts than in engines of comparable power.
New kind of vision: Packard's new, low-level bonnet gives real "close-up" visibility.
Ultramatic Drive—a Packard exclusive combining the smoothness of no gear-changing during acceleration with the efficiency of no slippage when cruising.
New steering magic: New ideas in steering design and weight distribution let you maneuver a Packard with as little effort as it takes to turn a door knob!
New everything: All backed by motordom's greatest durability record. Fact: Of all the Packards built, in the last 52 years, over 50% are still in service!
It's more than a car--it's a PACKARD

World's Best Quartet Heads Jamboree Here

The famous Schmitt Brothers, International SPEBSQSA champions, who harmonized their way to the No. 1 ranking among the world's quartets, will headline a "truly outstanding" Jamboree Sept. 1 at the high school gymnasium.

The list of quartets who will participate in the public show of the four-day songfest, the climax to the summer festivities in northern Michigan, appears to be unbelievable.

International SPEB officials who will attend the festivities of the organization at the Beach hotel over the Labor Day weekend, maintain that the public here will listen to one of the most outstanding harmony shows in the nation.

Scheduled to sing are the Schmitt Brothers, the Harmony Halls, past International champions; the Tune Venders, Michigan State champs, the Note Blenders, international medalists in 1950 and 1951, the Village Aires, International finalists in 1950 and 1051.

• • •

ALSO the Crowmatix, semi-finalists in 1950, the Town Criers of Kalamazoo; Merri-Men of Lansing, Twiliters of Grosse Pointe and the Huron Hoarsmen of Ypsilanti who have been on a five-week television program in New York.

Jack Dollenmaier, general chairman, and J. F. Scuddar, secretary of tha Charlevoix host chapter, who has bean handling most of te arrangements, predict the largest crowd for the weekend that has ever attended the songfest since it was organized eight years ago.

The Schmitt Brothers of Manitowoc are of a family of 17 children, 11 boys and six girls. They won the Land O'Lakes competition and then competed in the international competition at Toledo earlier this year, winning top honors among the world's best harmonizers.

• • •

IT MARKED the first time a quartet had won the international title without having competed in other international events previously.

Reminiscing Was Chief Topic

Former Students Greet Their Professor

Prof Perry G. Holden retired agronomist and father of hybrid corn and the extension service, again became the teacher and his 'boys', all of whom have done outstanding work in the field of agriculture, were again students as the trio visited him here last Thursday.

Reminiscing with Prof. Holdan about their days together at Iowa State wero tha threa classmates who pioneered with their teachers many experiments which are standard farm practices today.

They were Prof. R. K. Bliss of Iowa State College who retired recently after 45 years; Prof M. L. Mosher of the University of Illinois for the same number of years and Dr. M. L. Wilson, director of extension services, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

• • •

ALL WERE students of Prof. Holden's at Iowa State College and all, on graduation, were appointed to positions in the Agricultural Extension Service when it was organized in 1906.

The conversation was full of "Do you remember" as the four spent the day recalling their years together at Iowa State and the years which followed when they devoted their efforts to agriculture.

• • •

THE TRIO recalled the days they traveled the Corn Gospel trains with Prof. Holden bringing to the farmers of the Plain states the ways of increasing the yield of the corn and in so doing saving the farmers from disaster. This project was the forerunner of the present-day extension service.

Prof. Holden beamed with pride and listened intently to their accounts of their work since leaving Iowa State. Even though they are grown men, he spoke to them as he might have in his classroom nearly a half century ago.

They were equally happy to see him and talk over old times.

Their feeling toward him could easily be summed up in a letter Dr. Wilson once wrote to Prof. Holden" You have very rare qualities of inspiration and the capacity to enthuse and stimulate the imagination of these who work with you. I have often said that the most important thing I got at Ames was an intangible something from P. G. Holden."

That they all still feel the same is borne out by the fact that three busy men have left their work to pay a visit to their old professor. This act, more than mere words, proves they mean all they say about him.

Three of the nation's leading men in agriculture took time off from their busy schedules to pay homage to their former professor, Perry G. Holden of Charlevoix, at a reunion of the group last weekend. From left to right are: Dr. M. L. Wilson, director of the extension service; U. S. Department of Agriculture: Prof. M. L. Mosher of the University of Illinois: Prof. R. K. Bliss of Iowa State college and Professor Holden.

Industrial Realtors Pay Visit to City

As a result of the visit of the Michigan chapter of the Society of Industrial Realtors to Charlevoix last week, a digest of the city's advantages as a location will be in the file of every member of this national organization of industrial real estate brokers.

A special brochure is being prepared by the Michigan SIR chapter with the data its delegation collected on a four-day tour covering 11 towns in tha northern part of the lower peninsula.

The group was entertained at the Beach hotel. S. E. Coleman and Mayor Knight handled local arrangements.

The brochure will present lower Michigan north of the Muskegon-Bay City line as a national example of an area with many advantages for decentralizing industry.

There will be a statement signed by Harold McClure, Detroit, president of the Michigan organization, and Lester Steele, Detroit, Middlewestern vice president of SIR, urging industrial realtors everywhere to call their clients' attention to this area. According to the Society of Industrial Realtors in Washington, its approximately 400 members do 90 per cent of the total volume of industrial reol estate business in the country. Twenty-two of its members are in Michigan,

Hospital Crisis

A minimum of $110,000. must be raised in pledges immediately in the hospital campaign in order to receive about $275,000 in government funds, it was announced. This crisis has been brought about by the fact that the state office allocating the funds has set a deadline for the Charlevoix Hospital because other communities are urging that their applications be accepted.

In order to meet this emergency the campaign committee has set up a 12 week program in which to raise the necessary funds. If the goal is not reached it will not be possible to get the government funds as the funds are given on a matching basis and it will not be possible to build the hospital. The approximate cost of the proposed hospital as approved by the state hospital office is $500,000.

The first phase in the newly organized campaign set-up is the solicitation of summer residents which will be conducted by a committee of summer residents. Due to the fact that the season closes on Labor Day, the work of this committee will be completed by that date.

Most Rural Schools Open On Sept. 4

North Michigan's Best Teams Play For Right To Enter State Finals

The Northern Michigan regional softball tournament will be held in Charlevoix Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Aug. 24-26.

This marks the first time that regional tournaments have been scheduled in Michigan to further reduce the number of teams going to the state finals in Lansing.

It also marks the first time that a regional tourney has been held in Charlevoix. Teams coming here from three districts start play Friday at 8 p.m.

District finalists in Class B and C at Cadillac, Cheboygan and Alpena qualified for regional play. District softball fans will get an opportunity to watch some of the best teams in the state.

• • •

THE OPENING game at 8 p.m. Friday finds the B.F. Goodrich team opposing East Jordan which was awarded a disputed decision over the Charlevoix Knight Owls at Cheboygan. Friday night's second games find the Gayety Bar of Cheboygan playing Vaughn's of Alpena in Class B.

The winners of these games will play again Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. Besser of Alpena drew a bye in Class C and Hamlin's of Ludington in Class B.

Quarterfinals will bo playad Saturday night at 8 p.m. and the semi-finals and finols scheduled for Sunday. Sunday's play wilt start at 1:30 p.m.

The finals may not be decided until Sunday night, District Commissioner John Knight announced The tournament is a double elimination affair, meaning that a team must lose twice before being ousted. This means that a team losing its first game could still get the championship.

BULLETIN

A neutral committee, considering the appeal of Charlevoix, ruled Wednesday that the Knight Owls forfeited the game to East Jordan in the final district game at Cheboygan at the end of the sixth inning because the Owls were unable to field a full team.

Al Dorow, Owl pitcher, was ejected from the game, after protesting a disputed decision at home plate. The Owls played the part of the game with eight men. In effect this eliminated the Owls from reginal play, even though they defeated East Jordan 9-7 Sunday in a replay.

ONLY UMPIRES registered with the Michigan Softball association will work this tournament. They include H. Milford and E. Riley of Petoskey, Bill Supernaw, Ken Cellner, Perry Smith and Don Meggison of Charlevoix. Ralph Klein in an alternate.

Admissions are 25 cents for children and 50 cents for adults for each afternoon and night session except Saturday afternoon when admission will be reduced. Tournament tickets for the whole series of games can be bought for $2.50.

Plans Progress For Air Force Exhibit Aug. 30

Details of the Air Force "Operation Main Street" to be conducted here on Aug. 30 were announced by S. E. Coleman of the Board of Commerce.

Feature attraction of the huge display of Air Force equipment is the "Lucky Lady II". This B-50 Superfortress bomber become the first and only aircraft to fly around the world non-stop in 1949. On February 26, 1949 the bomber, piloted by Captain James G. Gallagher of Melrose, Minn., took off from Carswell Air Force Base at Fort Worth, Texas. Ninety-fours and one minute later it landed at Carswell after compleing a 23,452 mile non-stop flight.

Driver Pleads Guilty to Fatal Crash Charge

Judge Charles L. Brown, presiding at the regular August term of court, has had a busy week as he sentenced three persons, granted eight divorces and arraigned the driver of the car in which a man lost his life at East Jordan.

Paul Benevich 28, of Inkster, pleaded guilty to a charge of negligent homicide. The case was referred to the probation officer. He will be sentenced loter.

Benevich was the driver of the car in which Carisle Searls, 42, of Dearborn was a passenger when it left the road at the junction of M-32 and M-66, near East Jordan, Friday. The car hit two light and one utility pole. Searls, who was enroute to Charlevoix, died from a crushed chest.

Murley Shananquet, 23, of Charlevoix, was sentenced to 2½ to five years in southern Michigan prison for unlawfully driving away a car belonging to a Hayes township resident.

William Ford, 40, of Boyne City, was ordered to pay $412.07 in alimony, hospital and doctor bills within the week or be sentenced to southern Michigan prison for 11 to 12 months for nonpayment of alimony.

Martin W. Beer, 33, of Boyne City, charged with non-support, was placed on probation for two years and ordered to pay $10 per week and $25 court costs.

Efficient Hospital Management Pays Off

Not many residents in the Charlevoix area realize the significance of the report that the Charlevox hospital operated in the black for the past year.

To many the news meant little. But to persons close to local hospital affairs as well as others who are familiar with hospital operation in other cities, this year's financial report meant a great deal.

While the Charlevoix hospital has been coming closer to the break-even margin in recent years as the overall operation became more efficient, the institution made a small profit last year.

The fact that the hospital made a small profit is all the more amazing when it is realized that only a small number of public hospitals break even throughout the United States.

Not long ago the writer saw statistics on hospital finances in some 50 cities, both large and small. Of that total only two hospitals, both small, ended the year in the black. So it can be seen that the job of the hospital superintendent, her administrative aides and the medical staff have done a truly outstanding job in operating the hospital.

This augurs well for the new hospital when it is constructed. Reports indicate that henceforth, hospitals will be taxed to capacity in most regions of the nation, chiefly because of the hospital and medical insurance policies.

A few years ago it was only a few persons who had hospital insurance. But that is not true any longer. Now the majority of workers are protecting their families by enrolling in voluntary medical insurance programs.

This results in a great many more persons requiring hospital facilities. Charleviox's small hosiptal has accomodated some 1130 patients in the last 12 months. There have been times when patients were put in the halls temporarily, because the rooms were filled.

It is also noteworthy to report that per diem cost for the hospital in the last year was $15.18, somewhat less than the state average.

The medical staff, the hospital superintendent and others at the hospital who have made such a good showing possible, deserve commendation for a job "well done."

We Must Stay Alert

Some in Congress and elsewhere are asking why President Truman believes it may be necessary to build the country's armed forces beyond the present limit of 3,500,000 men.

The answer is written in cold figures.

Russia now has built its armed strength to 215 divisions. Only a few months ago informed sources estimated the Soviets had only 175 divisions. The new estimate includes artillery and anti-aircraft divisions. In the Russian table of organization an artillery division is a highly mobile unit of great effectiveness in attack.

Including satellite troops, there are more than 5,000,000 men under Communist arms in Europe alone.

The Soviet Union is feverishly stockpiling war materials. She now has a two-year supply of natural rubber, vital in armaments, and has built a huge synthetic rubber industry. Steel production is more than 25,000,000 tons a year. Petroleum production has increased, as has coal and iron output.

Russia has established a secret coordinating headquarters for Central Europe in Sudetenland. The East German "police force" has been brought to 60,000 men. It obviously is part of the Communist Army.

In East Germany, West Poland and Czechoslovakia there are about 32 Soviet divisions, including the Eighth Guards Army, the Third Assault Army, the Sixth Mechanized Army and other crack outfits. An underground headquarters has been established at Karlshorst. The British estimate the Russians have more than 5,000 tanks in East Germany alone.

All the energy and resources of Russia are directed at building for war. The Soviets last year turned out 18,000 planes against 3,000 in this country. They are building fast cruisers and carriers for the Russian Navy. There are more than 300 Russian submarines operating as against less than 90 American submarines.

Satellite armies have been raised far above treaty strength. Bulgaria has between 160,000 and 200,000 men under arms. Romania has more than 300,000, and Hungary about 160,000.

Whatever happens in Korea, Russian intentions of world dominion have not changed.

Though there is hope for a settlement in Iran, there is no assurance whatever that Premier Mossadegh's government can stand the political repercussions from "concessions" to the British. The Tudeh Party, which is Communist, anxiously awaits a chance to step in. Communist agents are active throughout the Middle East, taking every advantage of the nationalist fanaticism that has brought that entire area to a critical stage.

Marshal Tito fears a Russian invasion. Border incidents between Russian and Yugoslav troops have increased in recent months.

Berlin is still tense.

Mr. Truman is properly concerned that we may not be devoting sufficient effort to rearmament. Korea has shown that strength is the only answer to Communist aggression. As always, while Russia talks peace she is vigorously preparing for war. Let the Congress not be deceived again.—

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Martin

We were privileged Thursday to see something we'll always remember . . . In a recent issue of the Courier we had a story about Prof. P. G. Holden and three former students who were to visit him . . . At the time they didn't think they could make it together but Wednesday he received a letter that they were coming . . . It was a joy to See Prof. Holden just beaming and almost bursting with pride as he looked at his 'boys' . . . And they in turn admiring him, marveling at his zest for life and thrilled beyond words at seeing their old friend and teacher again . . . Just seeing them together gave one a warm feeling . . . and a thrill . . and showed as nothing else could the feeling so many of his former students had and still have for him . . . As we said, it was a privilege to see such a thing and also to know the man who inspires so much love and devotion.

• • •

PICTURES were being taken by everyone of the the momentous occasion . . Among those present were our own county agent, Ed Rebman, and a fellow worker, Bob Maddex of Michigan State . . . We were taking a picture of the latter two with Prof. Holden and his guests and were wondering how to place them when Prof. Holden said 'You youngsters, (meaning Rebman and Maddex) can get down in front' . . . which gave everyone quite a laugh because they're really quite grown up . . .

Did you see the beautiful moonrise over Round Lake Sunday night . . . It was one of the prettiest we'd seen in many a moon . . . Which brought to mind the thought . . . how can there be beautiful moonrises and sunsets without a lake . . .

If you've seen a 1929 Dodge about town recently and got the idea that one of the old timers was left here when the club visited here recently . . . please relax . . . It's only Mrs. Walker Miles' latest 'town car' . . . The family's having scads of fun with it . . .

• • •

ANYONE WHO can do things with their hands has own admiration . . . we had occasion recently to see the hand painted textiles done by Mrs. Lloyd Arnold . . . It's done with stencils and textile paints and looks so very difficult . . . but beautiful . . You should have her show them to you . . . They're lovely . .

Talked with Mrs. Pete Sharrow Sunday . . . She tells us her parents, the O. Gattis who spent the summer in Europe were to sail for home this week . . . They're some old timers we've missed around this summer . . .

• • •

THE KIDS in our neighborhood were having a wonderful time one day last week . . . They had 'captured' three tiny rabbits which had been making their home under Mrs. Edith Beaudoin's porch . . . they weren't any more than three inches long and just darling . . . The kids tell me they're still around . . . What's cuter than baby animals . .

Lutherans to Mark Mission Sunday

Next Sunday morning at 8:45 p.m. Bethany Lutheran congregation will observe its annual Mission Sunday with a special service.

Guest preacher for the occasion will be the Rev. Walter O. Kleinhans, superintendent of the Lutheran Old Folks' Home in Monroe. The Rev. Kleinhans served as chaplain in the U. S. Army during World War II, assuming his present charge shortly thereafter. At present Rev. Kleinhans is directing the construction of a new half-million dollar plant for the Old Folks' Home which is to serve the Michigan District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod.

Friends and members of Bethany Church, at 1470 S. Bridge st. Charlevoix, will join in singing some of the mission hymns.

A special offering will be received at the service.

"good", Chapter president Dallas Henry reported, adding that persons wanting to be assured of tickets had better obtain them early as a sellout is almost inevitable They can be bought at the Courier and at Dal's Barbershop or from SPEB members.

Meanwhile, Mr. Scudder reported that reservations are pouring in every day, pointing to the largest turnout for a convention in the city's history.

THOMAS NEEDHAM of Detroit, choral director of the Metropolitan chorus, will lead group singing. Bob Haeger who proved to be such a hit last year with the Bar-B-Que Four, will be the master of ceremonies.

The stage settings which annually impress all visitors promises to be the best yet according to Bob Miles and his committee.

judged with ribbons going to the buyers. Anyone interested in getting a good hunk of beef should attend this sale. The second annual calf scramble will also take place on East Jordan Day. In the evening, WLS National Barn Dance will put on an excellent show.

Ward Beam's World Champion Auto Daredevils will present their show at the Charlevoix County Fair on Boyne City Day, Wednesday, September 5. This, the greatest thrill show on earth, will have 28 great events.

Ward Beam will put on this show both in the afternoon and evening The judging of exhibits will also take place on Boyne City Day.

There will be a separate judge for dairy, beef, crops, 4-H and home economics. Persons interested in watching this judging should be present at the fair on Wednesday morning.

Plans Progress for Air Force Exhibit

flight Normal flight crew of a B-50 is 11 men but 14 were used on this trip to avoid fatigue.

The life of the "Lucky Lady" ended in a blaze of glory in November of 1949 when the National Aeronautics Board presented it and its crew with the MacKay Trophy for "the most meritorious flight of 1949." Each of the crew members received the Distinguished Flying Cross.

For the next two years the wingless fuselage of the plane will tour the United States.

The public will be permitted to actually walk through the plane and inspect all the equipment used by the 85-ton bombers. Remote-controlled gun turrets, flight controls and instruments, radio and radar sets, gas and oxygen storage tanks, bomb bays, the famous Norden bomb sight and crew positions are but a few of the items viewers will see.

The fuselage of the bomber has been mounted on two forty-foot flatbed trailers that are backed together to assemble the exhibit. Spectators enter through a special door in the nose and follow a ramp that has been installed through the complex interior of the Superfortress.

The B-50 is classed as a medium bomber by the Air Force since it is exceeded in size and performance by the B-36 and other late jet bombers. Maximum weight of the plane is 170,000 pounds which permits 20,000 pound interior and 8,000 pound exterior bomb load. The B-50 has a wingspan of 141 feet three inches, a length of 99 feet and stands 32 feet eight inches high

It is powered by four Pratt-Whitney engines which develop 3500 horsepower each, giving the bomber a speed of over 400 miles per hour.

Range of the Superfortress is over 4000 miles with a service ceiling of 40,000 feet. The plane is a refinement of the atom bomb-carrying B-29 Superfortress

In Memoriam

Whereas the Divine Master has called our worthy sister Helena Carlson to her everlasting rest.

Her presence will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Therefore be it resolved we drape our charter for thirty days.

And be it further resolved we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family and send them a copy of this resolution; and have a copy printed in the Michigan Patron and Charlevoix Courier.

One by one we are passing on
One by one we cross the tide
When life at last for us is past
We will stand by her side again

What's Doing at
Camp Charlevoix

The final week of camping here at Camp Charlevoix has come all too quickly. As preparations are being made for the final events of the last week, the boys are winding up their many activities, completing various projects and activity requirements. Perhaps the most important days and evenings for the boys during these concluding days of the 25th Anniversary Year are the Green and Grey Banquet, the Final Banquet, the Annual Rodeo and the Final Council Fire.

The Grey team was victorious in this year's intra-camp competition, and Tuesday evening is the time for the Green and Grey banquet when the winning team's captains: Hugh Drum, Johnnie Watson and Larry Reisinger will deliver the victory speeches and receive the hard-won Green and Grey cup. It was a close race and the winning team was not known until the final event held on Monday.

* * *

THE ANNUAL RODEO under the direction of Buff Geis of Oklahoma, Tex Johnson of Texas, Frank Smith and Merle Jenkins will take place at Camp Charlevoix beginning at 2:30 p.m. this Friday, featuring many new and exciting Rodeo features, as Barrel Bending, Speed and Action, Calf Roping, Counselor Steer Riding, the usual Rodeo Clowns and many other interesting events.

The Final Council Fire under the leadership of Rodney Dale will have many interesting Indian Dances added to this year's impressive closing ceremonial, and will be held Friday evening at 8 15 to conclude a very busy final day

The canoeing activity trip down the beautiful Au Sable River was taken by Jim Keachie, John Logie, Joel Black, Tom Watkins, Tim Barnes, Tom Gravengood, Bob Pimsner, Bob Streadwick, Eddie Vardon, Bob Siewert, Chuck Eisendrath, Allen Merrell, Ames Gardner, Luther Carpenter, Mike Lusignan, Bill Fox, Bob Waddell, and Bob Nester.

An interesting two-day trip was taken by Cabin 1 down to Eastport on Lake Michigan's sand dunes, Rob Waterman, Ben Douglass, Bob Ollison, George Peck, John Haeberlin, Greg Moor, Arthur Blaul and Dirk Scholten composed the cabin group making the enjoyable trip.

With many pleasant camping memories of the summer, another successful season comes to a close, with all of us looking forward very much to the 26th year of camping at Camp Charlevoix.

Jack Pine Loss from Budworm Is Great

Most of the trees in the jack pine belt north and east of here will survive this third year of budworm attacks, the conservation department is advising concerned timberland owners, cottagers, tourists and other inquirers here.

But H. V. Borgerson, regional forester, is cautioning them that some losses are expected to continue next year. Aerial search for brown-topped and needle-defoliated trees to determine light, medium and heavy infestation areas will get underway shortly. The budworm has not spread to Lake Huron areas as yet.

Borgerson is pointing out to property owners that it is too late for them to undertake control spraying this year. Damage is done by the insect in the worm stage, which now has passed. A number of persons spraying earlier at the proper time.

Spraying should be done next June when the larvae are active. Foresters suggest DDT as a suitable spray, on the basis of experiments with it last year.

Foresters decline to hazard a guess as to the amount of damage caused by the budworm but do warn that some trees will be a total loss, other jack pine will have growth retarded, and that there will be some loss of reproduction resulting.

Charlevoix County Farm News

Side Dressing Corn Proves Value in County

There has been much talk on the side dressing of corn with nitrogen fertilizer in Charlevoix county according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent.

Curtis Nicloy, a Peninsula farmer, for the past two years, has been side dressing his corn. Instead of using nitrogen fertilizer, he has been using a complete fertilizer containing all three elements.

A tissue test on corn is recommended before nitrogen fertilizer is added. County agent Rebman made a large number of tests this summer and has found that wherever a farmer has followed a good soil conservation program with a legume crop in his rotation the corn did not lack nitrogen and any application of it would not have returned dividends.

Corn, however, on real light sandy soils in the absence of a legume program did show a need for nitrogen fertilizer.

A demonstration was put on the Lyle Wilson farm near the Ironton ferry. This field following tests showed that nitrogen was needed. Fertilizer was applied at the rate of 200 pounds per acre with a special fertilizer drill on Wednesday, July 25.

Today the difference can be seen by a greener, more healthier corn stalks and by less firing or browning of the lower leaves where the fertilizer was applied than where it wasn't. Interested farmers are urged to stop at the Lyle Wilson farm and look over this demonstration.

Graded Spuds More Important For Marketing

What will discontinuance of the potato marketing order on August 15 mean to Charlevoix and Antrim county growers of "Irish" potatoes?

Clarence Prentice, Michigan State college extension specialist in marketing, believes it will mean little. However, the grower marketing a quality product, free from waste and defects, will be in a better position to gain and hold a high demand for his product.

Past experience with a certain brand or pack is the most important point housewives make in determining what package of potatoes to buy when they market. Prentice cites a Michigan State college research survey which shows this factor rating well above the price of the package.

• • •

GROWERS IN Michigan and five other neighboring states last month voted against continuance of the marketing order which established a committee for making regulations on the size and quality of potatoes that cnuld be marketed in any year.

Last year, operation under the order was thought necessary because of support prices. But since supports are no longer available to potato growers, many of them saw no value to the order.

Potatoes will continue to be sold under federal grade standards and consumers will likely find nn difference in the quality of Michigan potatoes offered in retail stores.

Growers, however, will be able to build up a "repeat" order business for their trade-marked package by offering consumers high quality. Other states ship only their highest quality product into Michigan because paying freight rates on lower quality products does not pay. Prentice feels growers can meet this competition by marketing equal quality at a lower price.

Eggs should be held in a cool, moist, well-ventilated room, say Michigan State College poultrymen. Never put warm eggs in a case, it will hold the heat in the eggs. Market at least twice a week.

Eight Granges Take Part in Mystery Ride

Charlevoix and Emmet county granges staged their mystery ride with eight granges participating after two rendezvous.

A caravan of 52 cars with 161 persons arrived at the peninsula grange Tuesday night. A program followed by potluck and dancing was highlighted by the election to Cinderella for Charlevoix county of Bonnie Jean Lumley and Alice Shier as Cinderella of Emmet county. These girls will go to state Grange to compete for state honors.

Plans are now being formed for another successful ride next year.

Breeding Gilts Should Be Grown Specialist Says

Swine producers who raise their own breeding stock find that it pays to "grow" their gilt rather than "fatten" them.

That is the observation of some of Michigan's leading swine raisers and Michigan State college extension swine specialists. They all agree that prospective brood sows should be separated from the market herd when they are 3 or 4 months old. By handling them separately the farmer can put the gilts on a growing ration to develop the stretch and strong bones desired in brood sows.

Gilts taken directly from the market herd in the fall may raise good litters but more often they don't, the hog specialists say. They often get too fat while on full feed and there is mnre possibility of fat gilts becoming weak in their pasterns and legs.

Good pasture is an important part of the feeding program recommended for growing gilts. The grain ration can be made up of two-thirds oats and a third corn. The gilts should have access to a good mineral mixture they recommend.

With this ration and good pasture the need for protein supplement is not high, they point out. A fourth of a pound per day should be enough.

Lumber Is Topst

Lumber Is America's most popular material—80 per cent of the country's homes are made of wood.

Milk Fever Hits Top Dairy Cows, MSC Says

Milk fever is loaded with bad features and the safest thing to do is call the veterinarian when you first discover it, Glen Reed, Michigan State college extension veterinarian, advised dairy farmers today.

Among the worst features of the disease are that it has a tendency to strike well-fed cows that are usually less apt to get other diseases, and it usually atacks between the third and seventh calving—the best period in a cow's life.

Dr. Reed said that the disease most often strikes the best milkers and told how to recognize it. A cow coming down with milk fever will stop eating, and become listless and slow moving. She gets weak and has trouble standing. A coma often follows, and death will result in a few hours or a few days unless the cow is treated.

It usually shows up within two days of calving. As the cow starts producing heavily she draws a lot of calcium from the blood. A calcium salt injected into the veins will usually cause cows to get well in a hurry. Sometimes several treatments will be needed.

Some cases are different and require additional salts such as magnesium or cobalt. Another method of treating is to pump air into the udder, but unless great care is taken, this can damage the udder and introduce infection causing mastitis.

Apply Lime On Wheat Land

Applying lime now on wheat land that will be seeded to a legume next spring reduces the danger of seeding failure, loss of seed and interruption of your crop rotation plan, according to James Porter, soil scientist at Michigan State college.

Liming materials should be applied only in amounts indicated by soil test. If the soil needs no lime don't put any on—it's apt to be harmful, Porter advises.

If the soil test indicates a need for 1 or 2 tons per acre, apply limestone while the seedbed is being prepared, after plowing. If the soil is highly acid—needs more than 2 tons of limestone to the acre—split the application. Apply half the lime before and half after plowing.

DEARBORN REVERSIBLE

LIFT TYPE BUSH and BOG HARROW

Gangs tilt down in middle for making or clearing ditches.

Gangs set for throwing dirt out, instead of in.

Here is the harrow for real tough discing . . . for heavy soil, chopping trash, discing cover crops, working in bogs and new ground. Gangs are reversible so the notched, sharp-cutting blades throw dirt out or in.

Extra uses, too! You can make ditches by tilting gangs down in middle . . . or tilt up the middle when gangs are reversed for making beds. Can be attached to Ford Tractor in one minute, lifted and lowered by Ford Tractor Hydraulic Touch Control. When lifted, blades clear ground for road travel, turning and backing into corners. A great time and work saver!

BOOST GRAIN YIELDS AS MUCH AS 30%

Extensive tests indicate that drilling fertilizer in the row may boost grain yields as much as 30 per cent. You, too, can enjoy bigger grain yields by fertilizing as you plant with a John Deere-Van Brunt Model "FB" Grain Drill.

This dependable drill cuts planting time in half. It drills with dependable accuracy at 6 M.P.H. . . . in favorable conditions . . . and can be transported 15 M.P.H. or faster on highways. The new low-wheel design and automotive-type wheels make possible smoother, faster travel.

The faster-acting power lift and short turning radius make it easier to do a good drilling job. The welded-steel frame, crank-type axles, direct-reading land measurer and the non-spill box covers are important new features you'll really appreciate.

Get complete details about this new low-wheel fertilizer grain drill. You'll like it! See us soon.

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

Mary LaFreniere

Recent guests at the King Strang Hotel were Jonathan Tuarmby and Dr. William Behan of Lansing. While on the island they painted several picturesque scenes. They were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Palmer during their visit.

Mr and Mrs. Stanley Floyd had as their guests during the past week Mrs. Flora Floyd, Mrs. Mae Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ott and Nancy Thomas, all of Toledo.

Mrs. Rolland McClean and family and Tom Malloy of Pontiac are vacationing at Pat LaFreniere's cabin. Mrs. McClean is the former Leona Malloy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunbar of Seattle are visiting Mrs. Dunbar's brother, Emmett and James McCann.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendson of Highland, Indiana spent two weeks at their cottage at Nomad. They had as their guest, Mrs. Hendson's cousin, Mary Dales.

• • •

THE FRANK Gillespie's had a housefull when their daughters' Mrs. Henry Supernaw and Mrs. LeRoy Osborne and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Gillespie were here with their children. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDonaugh were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonaugh on their yacht Sea-Legs. They enjoyed a delightful trip to Mackinac Island.

A sad blow to all of the island was the death of Gus Mielke Sunday afternoon at the Charlevoix hospital. Mr. Mielke ran a saw mill up until a few months ago when his failing health caused him to sell out.

• • •

WE WERE also sorry to hear of the death of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Gillespie's baby daughter.

Mrs. Ted Wojan and sons left Friday to join Mr. Wojan at Sault Ste. Marie. They plan on making their home there.

Miss Catherine Martin of Petoskey was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert McDonaugh. Mrs. McDonaugh returned with Catherine to visit her family.

Dan O'Donnell is on the sick list. He was taken to the Charlevoix hospital Sunday afternoon where he will remain for a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Gallagher are visiting Mr. Gallagher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gallagher.

LaDonus and Eugene Mooney returned to Chicago with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McCafferty for a vacation. In return the McCaffertys left their little daughter, Donna Mae, much to the delight of the doting grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McCafferty and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mooney.

Others who were here for the homecoming that weren't mentioned last week are: Mrs. Kitty McCauley, Miss Mayme McCauley, Marty Marstaw, Bussey LaFreniere, Erwin and Merrill Belfy, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gatliff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Licanati and daughter of Detroit, Mrs. Margaret Raddy and Billy O'Donnell of Chicago, Miss Gallagher and Charles Pischner of Green Bay.

Your new Beaver Island reporter would appreciate any news concerning Beaver Island both on the island and away.

Couple Exchange Vows in Beaver Island Rites

Beaver Island — Miss Rose Josephine Greene, daughter of Mrs. Mary Greene and John Edward Connaghan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Connaghan were married Thursday morning at Holy Cross Church with Father Giles officiating.

The bride wore a beige pinstriped suit with white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations. Her sister, Mary Margaret Greene was her only attendant.

She wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Jewell Gillespie was the best man. After the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast at the brides home for their families and friends.

A reception and a dance followed that evening. Mr. Connaghan is returning to sail on the lakes and Mrs. Connaghan will remain here for a short time.

Fish Haul Falls In Great Lakes

Lansing—Commercial fish haul from Michigan Great Lakes waters fell about 14 percent to 3,898,000 pounds in May and June, according to latest reports of fishermen received by the conservation department.

Over 4,527,000 pounds were taken in the same period last year.

Carp, not among the four most caught species the previous May and June period, was first in production with over 775,000 pounds. Over 650,000 pounds were from Lake Huron, with fishermen concentrating on carp in the absence of lake trout and the decline in other species.

Another newcomer to the first four list was herring which placed second with 614,000 pounds, again mainly due to increased fishing pressure for the species. All except 02,000 pounds were from Lakes Superior and Huron.

Lake trout provided the third best harvest with 594,000 pounds, a decline from the two-month take last year of 737,000 pounds. Over 501,000 pounds were from Lake Superior, 2,537 from Lake Michigan, and one pound from Lake Huron.

BEER
AMERICA'S BEVERAGE OF MODERATION

The American Way

The words "Michigan" and "fishing" are practically synonymous at this time of the year. And after a day's fishing, it's the "American Way" to enjoy a glass of cool, refreshing Michigan brewed beer.

For beer belongs . . . to pleasant living, to good fellowship, to sensible moderation. And our right to enjoy it, this too, belongs . . . to our own American heritage of personal freedom. Beer Belongs . . . Enjoy It

Final Concert Planned for Next Wednesday

The Charlevoix city band, under the direction of C. A. Odmark, will present its final concert of the summer series in East Park at 8:30 p m Wednesday, Aug. 29.

The final concert will feature Bruce Shanahan as Sousaphone soloist playing the familiar "Asleep in the Deep". Also featured on the program will be a group of America's favorite marches with Sousa's Stars and Stripes Forever climaxing the program.

Soloists at last night's concert, the sixth in the series, was Dwight Smith, clarinetist, who played "Concertino" by Von Weber and the Barbershop quartet, The Saturday Nighters.

The band this season has totaled 40 musicians and will have played seven regular concerts plus three special concerts for various festive events in Charlevoix.

THEY HAVE played a total of nearly 100 different compositions and has spent one night each week in strenous rehearsal preparing for the weekly concert.

All band members are volunteers donating their time and talents to the residents and visitors of Charlevoix in order that the weekly concerts may be heard.

The city council provides financial support necessary to pay the salary of the director and the purchase of supplies and music plus the expense of transporting the equipment to and from the band stand in East Park.

• Mrs. Ronald Fairbanks and daughter, Shyne, returned to Grand Rapids Sunday after spending the summer at their Oyster Bay cabin. Mr. Fairbanks came for them. Their son, Bruce, will remain until Labor Day.

• Mrs. Rex Gorsline and children of Lansing who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Eccleston, for the past month, returned home Sunday with Mr. Gorsline who had been here for a week.

County Draft Quota Boosted For September

The Charlevoix county draft quota for September has been upped to four men, the Charlevoix county draft board has announced.

The four, who will be selected at a meeting of the draft board, Aug. 23, will leave Tuesday, Sept. 4, for Detroit, where they will be inducted into the armed services.

This is the largest number to be called for induction since last spring.

Red Cross Seeks $400 in County

The Charlevoix county chapter of the American Red Cross is making an appeal for $400 as its quota of the Greater Kansas City flood disaster fund, Frances Martin, chapter chairman, has announced.

No door to door solicitations will be made but the chapter has opened an account in all banks in the county to handle any contributions.

The funds raised will go directly into the flood area for disaster relief there.

Contributions may be made to the Greater Kansas City disaster relief fund at the Charlevoix State Savings bank here or to Frances Martin, chapter chairman, Charlevoix.

Industrial Realtors Pay Visit to City

THE BROCHURE will include a one-page industrial survey of each town on the tour. In the order visited, the towns are Traverse City, Elk Rapids, Charlevoix, Petoskey, Harbor Springs, Rogers City, Alpena, Oscoda, East Tawas and Tawas City.

Harris Miller, industrial agent of the Michigan Economic Development Department who accompanied the tour, will work with a committee of industrial realtors on preparation of the brochure. They are Neil Reikse, Emerson Snyder, Roger Hubbard and Sidney Schott of Detroit, J. J. Fagan of Muskegon, and Charles Slayman, Cleveland realtor on the tour who until recently was C. and O. railway industrial commissioner.

* * *

THE TOUR was planned by the Michigan SIR's and the Economic Development Department with the assistance of an area committee consisting of Dwight Wood, industrial commissioner of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway, Tawas City; Miss Helen Bradley, secretary of the Petoskey Chamber of Commerce; Robert Hilty, Traverse City, division manager of Consumer Power Co., and Ward Stubbs, Frankfort, president of the Northwest Michigan Industrial Development Council.

The tour began at Traverse City Thursday morning and ended at Tawas City Sunday afternoon.

At Charlevoix the Industrial realtors inspected sites and available factory buildings.

• Mr and Mrs. Dan Gallagher and daughter of Milwaukee are spending a week with relatives and friends here.

HI-LITES

Rain and wet grounds have limited play in the second round Ellsworth Hdw. still has to get by Cad-Olds, Mailhots and Par-Freedmans before clinching the championship of this round. Silver Birches and Par-Freedmans still have a good chance of winning or tying.

All rained out games will be played next week provided they have a bearing in determining the winner The All-Star League game which was rained out, may possibly be played on Labor Day depending on the time necessary to hold the play-offs. All league play will end as of Sept. 1 because many teams will be losing the majority of their players.

Attention is focused on the Regional Softball Tournament to be held in Charlevoix on this weekend, starting Friday night . . Tournament tickets may be purchased for a $2.50 donation which will admit the contributor to all 10 games. All competing teams will be Champions either in class C or B. Charlevoix will be represented by the Knight Owls, "C" winners at the District Tournament at Cheboygan.

The tournament will be a double elimination affair, in other words, before a team is put out of play they will have to be beaten twice.

Leading hitters of each team in the Major league are:

Silver Birches, F. Boss	.500
Ellsworth Hdw., T. Weiland	.500

Core Anglers Buy Licenses in State

Lansing—Fishing liscense sales continued to rise during June with more anglers purchasing licenses before July-August vacation season than in 1050, reports of conseration department license agents show.

Sales of all types of fishing licenses through June were ahead of the same period last year. Resident fishing licenses sold for the first six months of 1951 were 372,892, nine per cent more than 1050's 342,061. Temporary non-resident licenses totaled 1,840 and were 2.7 per cent ahead of the 1,702 of 1050. Annual non-resident license sales were 10.7 per cent more than last year with 21,391 sold compared to 19,330 of record a year ago. Trout fishermen purchased 88,450 trout stamps, 5.6 per cent more than the 83,768 for the corresponding period of 1950.

Help Given on How To Cut Water Weeds

Lansing—Cottage owners wanting to clear beaches of water weeds are advised by the conservation department that cattails should be cut off at the roots now gut it has no solution to the problem of floating and submerged weeds.

For best results cattails should be cut during the flowering period, by mid-July in most areas of the state. They should be cut close to the bottom not leaving any stubs. A corn hook is suggested as an efficient tool for small areas or when working from a boat. In some areas a scythe is effectie.

Research work is being carried on under the direction of the institute for fisheries research, but no chemical as been discovered that can be recommended for ridding lake shore property of floating and submerged weeds. Weed-killing chemicals now known are either harmful to tish or dangerous for animals and humans.

Interesting Motor Trip Awaits Charlevoix Guests

If you like to drive and are wondering how to spend an afternoon, here's a suggestion: a trip around Lake Charlevoix with many interesting stops enroute.

Six miles out of Charlevoix on M-66 you'll find the village of Ironton with its renowned ferry across the south arm of Lake Charlevoix.

The ferry operates on a cable across the 550 ft. of the arm and affords an unobstructed view of the surrounding slopes with their many lovely homes and scenic shoreline. There's a nominal charge for your car and it's for free if you just go across for the ride without your car.

At the end of the arm is East Jordan where you'll find Sportsmen's Park with its beautiful swans and other wildlife, the Jordan river where you can enjoy a canoe trip or fishing expedition. A short distance from the town is Deadman's hill which furnishes a wonderful view of the surrounding woods and lakes.

From East Jordan you journey north and east to Boyne City with the road following the shoreline most of the way.

Out of Boyne City, to the east, is the Boyne Mountain lodge where one may ride the ski lift to the top of the mountain for an unforgetable view of Lake Charlevoix and the surrounding hills. Also one may visit the lodge itself at the foot of the mountain.

As you leave Boyne City for the return trip along the north shore of the lake you pass Young State Park and the village of Horton's Bay situated in a maple grove.

Visitor to Alaska Gets Surprise Welcome from Beaver Islander

'It's a small world' is an expression heard almost daily but Mrs. A. J. Stelter who was in Alaska recently with the National Editorial Association cruise will vouch for its truth.

The following is her account of an unexpected meeting with Neil (Sweeney) Gallagher, a former Beaver Island resident, who has lived in Alaska for the past 41 years.

We had docked at Juneau at 5 a.m. and at seven the deck steward knocked at my cabin door announcing that a man was aboard who would like to speak with me.

• • •

NATURALLY I was all excited wondering whom I might know in Alaska and advised the steward I would be in the lounge directly.

The gentleman I found waiting for me was Neil Gallagher of Beaver Island who had read the passenger list in the previous evening's paper and noted that one of them was a Mrs. Stelter from Charlevoix, Michigan.

'How we all like to have news from our old home town!

He took me in tow . . . first to breakfast at the Baranoff Hotel (the Waldorf-Astoria of Alaska) He told me of his many and varied experiences in Alaska, making his tales very vivid to me, having just seen some of the places he spoke of.

I RECIPROCATED by giving him items of interest concerning Charlevoix, Beaver Island and about his friends there.

He then piloted me about the city. He left me at one of the gifts shops, as I had some purchases to make, to get me a momento from his home for me. Back he came with a trinket I shall always prize, a gold nugget, panned by him, which he had made into a stick pin.

I left him there at the shop as a reception was being given for the members of the NEA by Gov. and Mrs. Greening at the Governor's Mansion. Mr. Gallagher and I were to meet again after the reception but the time element intervened. I was sorry to miss the second meeting, as I had hoped to take some messages back to you all, though he asked to be remembered to all through this letter.

• • •

I ASKED IF he would care to return to Michigan. He said he only desired to make a visit there as he loved Alaska and was content to remain. It seemed quite universal that all who were originally from the states only cared to go back for visits. They were happy to make Alaska their home.

Among the places of interest Mr. Gallagher showed me in Juneau were the Juneau Cold Storage Co. plant valued at $900,000. It has a storage capacity of 9,000,000 pounds. During 1947 the plant purchased about five million pounds of assorted fish for which it paid the local fishermen $2,250,000. There are 12 canneries in the district which contribute to the business of the community throughout the season.

• • •

EXCELLENT harbor facilities are provided in Juneau and there are a number of marine hardware and fishery supply stores. We went past the Alaska-Juneau mine, now closed because of present adverse spread between the price of gold and production. It is one of the largest mines of its type in the world.

Twenty-one denominations are represented in Juneau's churches and religious organizations. The Greek Orthodox Russian church; constructed in the Russian style, is one of interest to tourists.

There are three banks in Juneau with combined resources of more than $15,000,000.

The city has one daily and one weekly newspaper, both affiliated with the best news services and both having modern newspaper equipment and facilities.

Within a short distance from the city can be found large black, brown and grizzly bears, moose and mountain goats. In the sheltered ocean waterways there are King salmon, silver salmon, halibut and deep sea bass.

Ralph Hamilton Wed for 25 Years

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton gathered at the couple's home Thursday evening in honor of their silver wedding anniversary.

A social hour was followed by refreshments served from a table decorated with flowers and lighted tapers and centered with a cake topped by a miniature bridal couple.

The couple was presented with a lovely gift from the group.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Lemieur, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Browe, Mr. and Mrs. George Haggard, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelious Geiken, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oleksy, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Foster, Mrs. John Zeitler, Sr., Mrs. Jean Gallagher, and Ann Dolly.

Local Couple Feted At Housewarming

Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Bergmann were honored Saturday night at a house-warming at their south Bridge st. home which they purchased recently.

Friends gathered for a social evening, card games and potluck lunch.

The couple was presented with a gift from the group.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bergmann, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bergmann, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bergmann, Mr. and Mrs. William Bergmann, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bergmann, Mrs. George Bergmann, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bergmann, Fred Bergmann, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kroll, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gould, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert French of Battle Creek.

Announce Betrothal Of Wilma Thorp

Mrs. William Thorp announces the engagement of her daughter, Wilma Rose, to Ronald Sitzema, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sitzema of Ellsworth.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school. Mr. Sitzema attended Ellsworth high school.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Nursing Course Opens At Traverse Sept. 5

The North Central school for practical nurse education announces September 5, as beginning date for classes in the year's course. This training gives four months of classroom study in the school and seven months supervised clinical practice in one of the approved affiliating hospitals.

The need is still great for the contributions made by the practical nurse in the hospital, convalescent home and private home. Although 127 graduates received their diplomas this June the 'daily calls cannot be filled because of continuous demand

Anticipated number for the fall enrollment is 45. At the present time 32 women have completed their applications and are ready to begin their work to qualify them to become trained practical nurses.

Anyone interested and able to qualify are urged to call Traverse City 2977 or write to North Central school for practical nurse education, Traverse City High school, Traverse City.

Origin of Soap

Soap has been in use for many centuries. In the first century A.D., Pliny described a soap of tallow and wood ashes used by Germanic tribes to brighten their hair. A soap factory and bars of scented soap have been excavated at Pompeii.

Important Chest Meeting Set For Sept. 6

The organizational meeting of the Charlevoix Community Chest has been called for Wednesday, Sept. 5 at the courthouse by Jack Mailhot, president of the organization.

Plans for the 1951 drive including the date and the various chairmen will be decided at this important meeting.

Mailhot has urged that the public attend this meeting to help in the organization of the drive which affects the community as a whole.

A representative of the Michigan United Health and Welfare group will also be present to discuss the work of his organization whose drive is combined with the local Community chest campaign.

Other Community Chest officers and directors are: vice president, Mrs. Herbert Campbell; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Heilig; treasurer, Lawrence Feindt; directors, Roy G. Bennett, Charles Bleha, Robert Bridge, Archie Rounds with Gordon Freedman serving as an alternate.

Former Barnard Resident Dies In Arizona

Thomas Matchett, 78, former resident of Barnard, died Saturday at his home in Glendale, Ariz., where he had lived for the past eight years.

Funeral services and burial were in Glendale Monday.

Born at Barnard, he grew to manhood there and for some years was employed at the Chicago Club. For 16 years he lived at Gunnison, Colo., returning to Bay City where he operated a hotel. He went west in 1943.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. George Steenberger of Colorado and Mildred of California; three brothers, Adelbert of Miami, Fla., Frank and Robert of Charlevoix and a sister, Mrs. Walter Taylor, also of this city.

Mr. Heering Better

Two New Teachers Join Staff As School Opens Here Sept. 11

The often-postponed All-Star game will be played here at 8 p.m. Labor Day. The league's All-Stars chosen by Dean Davenport, league secretary, will face the Knight Owls. This should be a top-notch attraction for residents and guests.

The Charlevoix public schools will open Tuesday, Sept. 11, for the 1951-52 school year, Supt. Roy G. Bennett has announced.

Preceding the opening a teachers' conference has been called for Monday, Sept. 10.

Two new teachers are joining the staff here. They are Miss Marjorie Small who will be assistant kindergarten teacher and K. L. Robbins who has accepted a position in the Veterans Institute.

Mr Robbins is a 1951 graduate of Michigan State college and has been attending the summer term there. He succeeds the late Ellsworth I. Besemer.

Earlier Henry Methner joined the Veterans' Institute. He formerly taught in Traverse City Veterans' Institute three years and prior to that taught agriculture at Pinconning and other southern Michigan schools. He is a Central Michigan College graduate.

Other teachers who are returning and the subjects they will teach follow: Mr. Bennett, superintendent and government; H. E. Bingham, high school principal and government S. E. Summer Residents Spark Drive

The activity of the summer residents' committee and the generous contributions of our summer friends in the Charlevoix hospital building fund campaign is an inspiration to all of us.

With their help it will be possible to build the proposed hospital which will afford adequate medical service to all who need it.

To our summer friends Charlevoix is a "second home" and for many it has been such for several years. Furthermore, they are interested in the people of Charlevoix and the surrounding area. Likewise, the local people are interested in them. This is the spirit which makes America great.

Council Tables Pay Increase For Workers

A recommendation for an increase in pay for city salary workers was taken under consideration by the city council Monday night.

Following a recent meeting of the finance committee of the council, aldermen tabled the proposal which called for a five percent boost on the first $100 of salary each month until Alderman Carl Kohler returns to the council in two weeks.

Ony four aldermen were present. William Heering was ill and Mr. Kohler was out of town. Other features of the finance committee's report included a two week vacation for hourly workers and additional sick leave.

CITY COMPTROLLER, Don Swinton reported that 43 percent of the summer taxes have been paid to date. This amounts to $24,162.75, leaving $33,838 to be collected before penalty time next month.

The Michigan Mutual Insurance Corp., was awarded the city's workmen's compensation policy on a bid basis. Ross Plow Co. was low bidder on the new snow plow. Its bid was $605.

IT IS EXPECTED that slips will be constructed at the foot of Mason street instead of the previously announced dock. Hal Forbrig, contractor, said the steel situation is "very tight" at present but efforts will be made to obtain steel.

Alderman Ralph Hamilton announced that henceforth he would vote no on any appropriation involving the sale of goods or service to the city by any member of the council.

City attorney Norman Ance said he will issue a ruling on the legality involved when a member of the council sells to the city.

Herman Jerichow, Hayes Farmer, Dies At Grandvue

Funeral services for Herman Jerichow, 75, retired Hayes township farmer, were held at the See Funeral Home Friday with the Rev. L. L. Lewis officiating. Burial was in the Undine cemetery.

He died Wednesday at Grandvue Hospital where he had been a patient for two years.

Born in Wisconsin Aug. 24, 1875, he came to Hayes township in 1900 and operated a farm there until two years ago when he was forced to retire because of failing health. His wife, the former Edna Vermillian whom he married after coming to Michigan, died about 17 years ago.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Matilda Owens of Beaverton, Mrs. Mary Blasko of Granger, Ind., and Mrs. Alice Lyk of Detroit; two sons, Herman Jr., of Tampa, Fla., and John of Harbor Springs; a brother, Charles of Charlevoix; two sisters, Mrs. E. L. Petoskey of Zion, Ill., and Mrs. E. A. Mock of Charlevoix and several grandchildren.

Parade of Quartets Program Saturday Highlights Songfest

The largest turnout of barbershoppers since the SPEBSQSA Jamboree was started in Charlevoix nine years ago, is expected this weekend.

The vanguard of visitors will begin to converge on Charlevoix and the Beach Hotel, SPEB Headquarters, Friday for the four-day event which concludes Labor Day.

Heading the barbershoppers will be many international SPEB and Michigan district officers.

Focal point of the early convention activity will be Saturday night's Jamboree, open to the public, at the high school gymnasium. The show starts at 8:30. Tickets are available at the Courier or Dal's barber shop.

The program is considered to be the best harmony songfest ever held here.

In fact the program is so outstanding that officers of the international group term the parade of quartets this year to be "equal or better" than any metropolitan show.

• • •

HEADLINING the program Saturday night will be the famed Schmitt Brothers of Manitowoc who were crowned 1051 International champions earlier this year. Supporting them will be the Harmony Halls, international champs in 1944, who have a terrific following.

Other quartets include the Village Aires of Palo Heights, Ill., international finalists, the Note Blenders of Oakland County, another international medalist, the Tune Vendors of Dowagiac, state champions, the Merri-Men of Lansing, Crowmatix of Muskegon, 1950 international semi-finalists, the Huron Horsemen, the Town Criers and the Twiliters.

Dallas Henry, president of the local chapter will introduce Robert M. Haeger of Chicago, master of ceremonies. Thomas F. Needham of Detroit, director of the Detroit Metropolitan chorus will lead community singing.

International officers expected to attend are Edwin S. Smith of Wayne, Mich., first vice president; John Z. Means of Manitowoc, Wis., vice president; B. F. Marsden of Detroit, Cecil Fisher, international board members.

Other officials from states other than Michigan include Howard A. Visel of Chicago, president of the Chicago chapter and Julius A. Krenzke, president of the Racine, Wis., chapter.

Michigan district officers: Jack Dollenmaier, general chairman of the show here and

Step Up Drive To Raise Fund For Hospital

A committee of summer residents are working toward an objective of $75,000 to be raised by Aug. 31 in the Charlevoix hospital building fund campaign.

This emergency drive is being conducted because about $225,000 must be raised soon in order to receive about $275,000 in government funds. Toward the summer residents' goal about $15,000 was reported at the Monday morning meeting held at the city hall.

Several summer residents have already taken memorial rooms in the proposed hospital. Members of the Belvedere Club who have made memorial gifts include: Mrs. D. Eckhart Williams, Mrs. Charles C. Gilbert with Mrs. Robert H. Flint and Mrs. William P. Stevens. Memorial gifts reported Monday from members of the North Side association are from Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gilbert, Mrs. Charles Rice, and John E. and Fred Simon.

Summer resident chairmen include: John P. Wilson, Chicago Club; Dr. Charles Hattauer, Sequanota; Mrs. D Eckhart Williams, Belvedere; Julius Gilbert, North Side association; Mrs. W. B. Stewart and Ernest Loeb are members of the campaign executive committee. The memorial opportunities appeal to many summer residents because they say Charlevoix is their "second home". Members of their families spending summers here for many years and as they are vitally interested in the welfare of all of the people here.

George Burns Recalls The Old Days

A Graveyard of Sunken Ships of An Early Era

By Fran Martin

If, some dark summer night, residents at Oyster Bay should think they are seeing the sails of old schooners or hearing sea chanties on the night air, George Burns, 96, pioneer resident who has lived on the Bay for half a century, wouldn't be a bit surprised.

After all, such things as ghosts and eerie sounds are expected in a graveyard and Oyster Bay is a graveyard for old ships.

Located three miles from Charlevoix on the north side of Lake Charlevoix, the bay is about one-third of a mile wide and runs about a mile inland creating an inlet protected from the prevailing west and northwest winds. Because of the protection it afforded, sailing vessels often were tied there when not in use.

• • •

THE BAY became a graveyard quite by accident, Mr. Burns relates and now there are six vessels which are identified and two smaller unidentified fishing boats whose last resting places is the bay's bottom.

Probably the first vessel to go to its watery grave there was the Jennie Muller, a two-masted 206 ton schoner which had been built in Chicago in 1866 and had plied the lakes with tan-bark and other wood products. One day while she was being loaded off what is now Boulder Park, a sudden summer squal came up, snapping the ship's line to the tug, James Martin, which was holding her and leaving the Mullen high and dry on the beach.

• • •

THE LATE Capt. Tim Smith hauled the vessel off and claimed her for the salvage bill. It was stored at his boat yard on the south side of Round Lake and later towed to Oyster Bay after the canvas and other parts had been stripped from her.

The hull of the 117 ft. schooner can still be seen below the water just west of the middle of the bay.

Lying close by the Mullen to the north and east is the old Joseph Gordon, a 56-ft. steam

"See that one? That's the old three-masted schooner, Avery. I'll tell you about her." George Burns tells his young grandson, David Burns, 8, of Detroit as he relates the story of the ships 'graveyard' at Oyster Bay."

Let Them Choose--And Be Chosen

The now-famous case of the West Point 90 has been a shock to the American people and a tragedy for their great national military academy. But it promises to be truly the shot heard round the campuses of country that may set off the needed wave of reform.

Ten years ago denunciations of commercialized college athletics, save in a few citadels of journalistic and academic probity, met with smiles of pained tolerance. "That's the way it is," or "The public wants it," or "Why shouldn't a young man use his athletic prowess to get a college education?" Today a chorus of editorial and individual indignation is shouting, "This thing has gone too far."

Perhaps there had to be the Madison Square Garden basketball scandals to show what can happen when commercialism approaches its ultimate. Perhaps the West Point tradgedy has been necessary to bring home the fact that such a blight could reach into one of the nation's finest symbols of integrity — the 134-year-old West Point honor system.

One nationally known sports writer exclaims that intercollegiate sport is rotten to the core and that only the educators can cure it. Such forthright condemnation from the sports page fraternity is courageous and heartening. To many such writers big-time collegiate athletics have meant bread and butter and professional distinction. But. the charge needs a bit of qualification on one count and definition on the other.

For not all big universities have gone in for stadium sports. And where they have it is not the educator's. Strictly speaking, who are to blame.

Probably no universities stand higher in their respective fields than do Chicago and Massachusetts Institute of Technology Yet they have done without "big league" teams for many years. There are others, too, and scores of fine little liberal arts colleges throughout the country whose teams win or lose with boys who have entered their gates for reaons considerably more valid than athletic scholarships.

As to who must cure this blight: The very bigness of today's institutions of higher education has brought forth a new type of man for the prexy's chair. College and university presidents average high in ability and integrity. But many of them are executives whose talents for promotion and management are more in demand than their capacity as educators. Academics they leave to the deans and the faculties.

It is not surprising that such men and the boards behind them should be vulnerable to the pressures of competition in money raising and enrollment and from the two really root sources of the difficulty: the alumnus-who-never-grows-up (everywhere) and local business groups (in some places). It is, however, right to expect that henceforth these pressures will be resisted more sturdily.

For the valley of decision is here. Colleges can no longer carry on their sports under shabby pretenses of education and amateurism. The mask is off. They must be either centers of learning which include athletics among their educational tools. Or they must as frankly hire athletes for advertising purposes as do some merchants and manufacturers. Let them choose. And then let thinking Americans choose between them.

It's time for yellow transparents apples, as you no doubt they don't know, they know bees or something got fouled up and one tree we know about in the yard of the Ralph Hamilton is now in blossom . . . A little late . . . but then, this is a late 'summer' . . .

Speaking of fruit, we never cared particularly for apricots until we had some right off the tree given us by Mrs. E. C. Sterritt and now we think they're wonderful . . .

HERE'S A tidbit the 1951 graduating class will be interested in . . . the high school annuals, believe it or not, have finally arrived . . . You can pick them up from 9-12 or 1-3 at the school office Monday through Friday. .

It was good to see Irene Erskine from Battle Creek recently . . . She'd come here for the first time with the Michigan Photographers Society, last fall and returned recently for a few days enroute to Milwaukee for another convention . . . With her was Miss Fahg of West Virginia . . . It's good to have our visitors return . . .

• • •

WE HAD the good fortune, nearly 20 years ago, to meet Rev. and Mrs. Henry Koopman who were at the Atwood Reformed church for several years . . . They'd lived in California for a while and are now back in Debuque, Iowa . . . They returned last week for a visit with their many friends here. . . It was so good to see them . . . They left a big 'hello' for everyone they didn't see . . .

If you were out Monday night you heard a preview of what's in store for you at the Barbershop Jamboree Labor Day weekend . . . The Four Hoarsemen who will appear on the program Sept. 1 were at the Beach Hotel Monday and can those boys sing . . . And that from someone who doesn't care for barbershopping.

Congratulations and good wishes and all that to Gene Schlesinger and his bride, the former Betty Feldman, who were married in Detroit Saturday and now are honeymooning here . . . Both had been here before and thought it a delightful spot for their wedding trip . . . Be sure and come back again . . .

The Clayton Smiths returned from a fishing trip to Grand Marais recently with news of a former resident . . . he's Alair Beattie, who was burned so badly while serving with the Navy during the war and spent just ages in the hospital . . . He is now teaching school at Newaygo and during the summer operates a boat out of Grand Marais . . . taking fishing parties deep-sea trolling . . . He's doing well, the Smith's report, and sends a hello to all his friends here with an invitation to them to stop in if they're up in his country on Lake Superior . . .

• • •

A BIG THANK YOU to Don Campbell and Will Bellinger who helped so much with the data used in the ships' graveyard story . . . both checked dates and furnished other information . . . Incidently, if you ever want to know anything 'marine' about Charlevoix, ask those two . . . If they Don't know, they know where to find out.

Don't forget . . . the S.S. North American is making Charlevoix its port of call Sunday afternoon . . . from 1:30 to 3:30 . . . If you're like we are you enjoy seeing the boat, no matter how often she comes in . . .

LOTS OF mail this week . . . a card from Clair Webster who was spending some time at St. Petersburg, Fla. with the news that he'd seen an old Charlevoix high school friend of his, Leo Butters, in Clearwater . . . Perhaps some of you remember him . . . From Mrs. Harry Hammond comes the news that Charlevoix was represented at the big Red Cross Blood bank at Grand Ledge Aug. 18 . . . She gave her pint while attending a meeting there . . . She writes "It was a thrilling sight to see people lined up for half a block waiting to give their blood for the boys in Korea" . . . Newsmen and Life magazine photographers were there . . . Wish you could have seen it, all . . . it went on all day . . .

A Graveyard of Sunken Ships

vessel which was built by Capt. Louis Guard in 1881 and operated by him as a passenger vessel between Charlevoix and East Jordan. The beam of the boat was only 11 ft. and one time when she was being loaded at the Ironton dock she capsized. She was 'buried' about 1912.

• • •

TO THE NORTH end of the bay is the 133-ft. three-masted schooner, the T. Y. Avery, built in Chicago in 1865. For years she sailed the lakes carrying tanbark and lumber.

As the vessel's sailing days came to an end she was towed to the bay by the Humes brothers, William and Herbert, her riggings removed for use on the schooner, Peoria, and left to a watery death. Later the hulls of these three ships were burned to the water line.

Near the west shore are two smaller ships, the Pottowatmee and the Onekema

The first was a 48-ft. steamer built in 1871 at Frankfort by George Watar who is now 95 years old. He visited here recently and is still going strong. She was operated as a passenger boat between the city dock and the railroad depot by the late George Smith. The late William Parmalee also owned the boat at one time. She went to her grave about 1912.

The Onekema, 57-ft. steamer, was built at Northport in 1883 by J. V. Emery and was also used as a passenger boat. She was 'buried' about 1908.

The Beaver Queen, lying to the south of these two was a sailing scow. She was built at Beaver Island and used to haul tanbark, lumber and other wood products.

• •

THE STORY is told of the time her owner built a cabin on her, covered it with tar-paper and sailed her to Chicago, a foolhardy thing to do but sailors of those days were known for their daring deeds. She was towed to Oyster Bay in 1918, and like her predecessors, later sank to the bay's sandy bottom.

Another ship which barely missed such a fate was the steamer, Beaver, operated on the Beaver Island run for many years by the late Capt. P. D. Campbell. The ship was towed to the bay after it burned at Wilbur's dock in 1915 but after three years was sold to John McCann of St. James. He sold it to a Wisconsin firm which converted it to a towing tug.

As if in retaliation for earlier wrongs, the ship took the life of a sailor when a boiler tube exploded a few years later.

Another ship in Lake Charlevoix some miles from the accepted graveyard is the three-masted schooner, the Ebenezar, which lies off Chula Vista toward Boyne City. When this ship's days were ended it was towed to the spot and sunk to form a base for a dock.

• • •

THE MAN who remembers when all these ships were brought to the bay on their last voyages is George Burns, who has owned the farm at the north end of the bay since 1896 and who has lived there since 1906.

Born in Montreal Dec. 25, 1854, he came to a farming community south of here which was later named Barnard, for his father, Barnard Burns. He operated a livery stable here for many years, leaving the business in 1906 to settle on his farm.

Despite his age, he is in fair health and still enjoys reminiscing about the days when Charlevoix was young.

igated the Roe accident believe Roe who was alone in the car went to sleep at the wheel. The car left the road and overturned throwing him from the car. A passing motorist reported the accident and officers found Roe unconscious beside the car. He was taken by ambulance to the Charlevoix hospital where his condition is satisfactory.

Summer Tea

Patsy Raligan and Cynthia Smith were co-hostesses at a late summer tea at the latter's home Sunday afternoon.

Guests called between two and four o'clock and were served tea and other refreshments from a table decorated with a bouquet of summer flowers in pastel shades and tapers.

A social afternoon was enjoyed by the guests.

Sugar Bowl Leased By Mrs. Denemy

The Sugar Bowl cafe has been leased by Mrs. Clara Denemy who has served as cook since it was re-opened last April, it was announced today.

During the summer months the popular eating place was operated by C. H. Sternberg.

Lyle King Comes Home After 2 Years

Lyle King, USN, has returned to the west coast and is enroute home, he informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam King in a phone call from the west coast Wednesday. He expects to arrive Saturday.

A graduate of the Charlevoix high school, he enlisted in the navy in Oct. 1948 and after boot training was stationed in the east. For more then a year he has served aboard a repair ship with the task force off Korea.

This will be his first visit home in two years.

I will not be responsible for any debts other than those contracted by myself. Robert Knudsen. 35-36-37c

UNSURPASSED

in Grain-Saving Ability in Economy of Operation
in Speed of Harvest

Just consider what makes a better combine—its grain-saving ability, its economy of operation, and its speed of harvesting. Then—check these advantages with the performance of a dependable John Deere No. 12-A and you'll understand why it's today's leading small combine.

It's a straight-through, full-width combine that has amazing capacity . . . harvests more clean, uncracked grain per acre. It's a light, compact combine that's easy to handle in tough field cnnditions where heavier machines are idle. Power requirements and upkeep costs are low, assuring dependable, economical performance, year after year.

It will pay you to check over the No. 12-A, feature by feature. It's a combine you can't afford to be without. See us soon for details.

3 Easy Steps...into your new 1951 Packard

1 Check the little extra cash difference! Just compare the slight difference in your 18 monthly payments (after ⅓ down) between a "low-priced" car and a Packard

If you've been planning to pay	extra monthly payments for a Packard can be as low as
$2100	$11*
$2200	7*
$2400	0*

*Generous trade-in allowances make these figures even smaller! Figures above are based on Detroit-delivered prices, but cash differences are comparable throughout the country

2 Check the long-lasting newness! Packard alone gives you: Exclusive new Packard Thunderbolt Engines, America's highest-compression eights—with the service-free simplicity of a design with up to 25% fewer working parts than in engines of comparable power. New everything . . . and all of it backed by motordom's greatest durability record. Fact: Of all the Packards built, in the last 52 years, over 50% are still in service!

3 Check our generous trade-in allowances! We're offering top allowances for all makes of cars to build up a varied selection of used cars to meet current demand. So—don't sign for any new car until you've heard our offer.

COME IN—
see and drive the newest new car of the year

Weather Holds Key To Success Of County Fair; Opening Sept. 4

The Charlevoix County Fair which will be held next week September 4 through 8 at East Jordan, will be open next Tuesday for the entry of all exhibits according to Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent and secretary-treasurer of the fair board. Tuesday is entry day.

All agricultural exhibits must be entered before 5:00 p.m. If you wish to avoid confusion and loss of time bring your exhibits in the morning as we always seem to be more rushed in the afternoon. Also first come first served as far as space is concerned. Premium books and entry blanks will be available at the secretary's office. The judging of exhibits will take place Wednesday both in the morning and in the afternoon.

Jason Shinn of Bellaire will judge the dairy starting at 9:00 a.m. Ray McMullen of Gaylord will judge the other livestock including the fat stock fed by the 4-H and F.F.A. boys starting at 1:00 p.m. Bob Lincoln of Petoskey will judge the vegetables, crops, fruits and grains starting at 9:00 a.m. George Johnson of Cheboygan will judge the 4-H exhibits also starting at 9:00 a.m. The home economics work will also be judged on that day.

* * *

WARD BEAM'S thrill show consisting of 28 events will give a two hour performance both in the afternoon and evening on Wednesday, September 5. This will be one of the grestest thrill shows ever performed in this part of the country. If you enjoy seeing some good fast entertainment, be sure to attend the Charlevoix County Fair on Wednesday.

The sale of the 20 4-H and F.F.A. fat Hereford and Short Horn cattle will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. These boys have done a wonderful job and will see some good stock. If anyone wishes to obtain some good quality meat for their locker come and buy one of these animals.

Following the sale there will be another calf scramble of 12 calves with about 18 boys trying to catch a steer. This was the outstanding program for last year. Don't miss it at this year's fair. A new event, a pig scramble of 20 pigs will also be held Thursday afternoon for the younger folks. WLS National barn dance will put on a good vaudeville show Thursday evening.

Horse racing will take place Friday and Saturday afternoons. Friday evening will see the horse pulling contest of both light and heavy teams. Saturday evening, the Gus Sun variety show will furnish the acts for the grand stand.

B-50 Exhibit Arrives Here On Friday

"Operation Main Street", scheduled for exhibit here on Aug. 30 will be set up at Charlevoix. City officials approved the site today according to the Board of Commerce sponsorer of the local stop-over of the Air Force planes and equipment.

The first and only plane to circle the globe non-stop, a B-50 bomber, is highlighted in the exhibit. Providing fighter cover for the huge medium bomber will be the fuselage of one of our latest jet fighters, the F-84 Thunderjet.

The body of the fighter has been modified to let spectators peer into the cockpit and view the flight controls and instruments. The right side of the fuselage has been replaced with a plexiglas window which reveals the placement of the giant J-35 engine, gas storage tanks and interior construction features of the plane which is in the 600 mile an hour speed class.

* * *

ALSO VISIBLE will be the six .50 calibre machine gun nose stinger. Provisions for as many as 32 five inch rockets or 2,000 pounds of bombs together with radar equipment have made the Thunderjet an effective fighter, fighter-bomber and general purpose interceptor.

The Republic-built fighter has a range of over 1,000 miles with external wing fuel tanks. It can fly at altitudes of over 45,000 feet.

Dimensions of the fighter are wingspan 36 feet five inches, length 37 feet three inches and height 12 feet 10 inches. Its maximum take-off weight is 16000 pounds.

Although the F-84 is not our newest jet fighter, it has proven its worth in Korea's tactical air operations.

Ludington Team Wins Regional

Besser of Alpena won the Class C title by winning the rubber game with B. F. Goodrich of Cadillac 6-3. Hamlin appeared to be the best in the tournament, showing good pitching and strong reserves.

Slugging honors for the tourney went to Leo Sommerville of East Jordan Ironworks which lost out to Goodrich twice.

Interesting Motor Trip Awaits Charlevoix Guests

If you like to drive and are wondering how to spend an afternoon, here's a suggestion: a trip around Lake Charlevoix with many interesting stops enroute.

Six miles out of Charlevoix on M-66 you'll find the village of Ironton with its renowned ferry across the south arm of Lake Charlevoix.

The ferry operates on a cable across the 550 ft. of the arm and affords an unobstructed view of the surrounding slopes with their many lovely homes and scenic shoreline. There's a nominal charge for your car and it's for free if you just go across for the ride without your car.

At the end of the arm is East Jordan where you'll find Sportsmen's Park with its beautiful swans and other wildlife, the Jordan river where you can enjoy a canoe trip or fishing expedition. A short distance from the town is Deadman's hill which furnishes a wonderful view of the surrounding woods and lakes.

From East Jordan you journey north and east to Boyne City with the road following the shoreline most of the way.

Out of Boyne City, to the east, is the Boyne Mountain lodge where one may ride the ski lift to the top of the mountain for an unforgetable view of Lake Charlevoix and the surrounding hills. Also one may visit the lodge itself at the foot of the mountain.

As you leave Boyne City for the return trip along the north shore of the lake you pass Young State Park and the village of Horton's Bay situated in a maple grove.

Farmers Can Save Fuel If They Cut Waste

Many tractor owners could save more than 100 gallons of tractor fuel every year by stopping waste around storage tanks and in tractor operation, Michigan State College extension agricultural engineers estimate.

Leaks and carelessness cause most of the waste around storage tanks, waste that takes an indirect bite out of your pocketbook and may cause a direct accident. This waste and danger can be cut down by making sure there are no leaks in the tank, faucet or hose. Check that the tank man doesn't spill the gasoline or fill the tank too full.

Further suggestions include keeping the tanks or barrels in the shade with the caps on tight. Fuel stored more than 4 months may have enough gum in it to cause valves to stick.

The agricultural engineers suggest the same precautions for filling the tractor tank. Repair any leaky hoses, and don't fill the tractor tank too full. If you take an extra 5 gallon can full of fuel to the field be sure it doesn't leak out the bottom or splash out the top. Use a funnel for filling the tank.

Set Meeting Date Of Hunting Club

Annual meeting of the Banks-Norwood Hunt association has been set for Wednesday evening, Sept. 5 at the Norwood town hall, according to an announcement by the president, Archie Brown.

Brown says that it is necessary to elect officers and formulate plans for this years operation at an early date in order to obtain the co-operation of the State Conservation department.

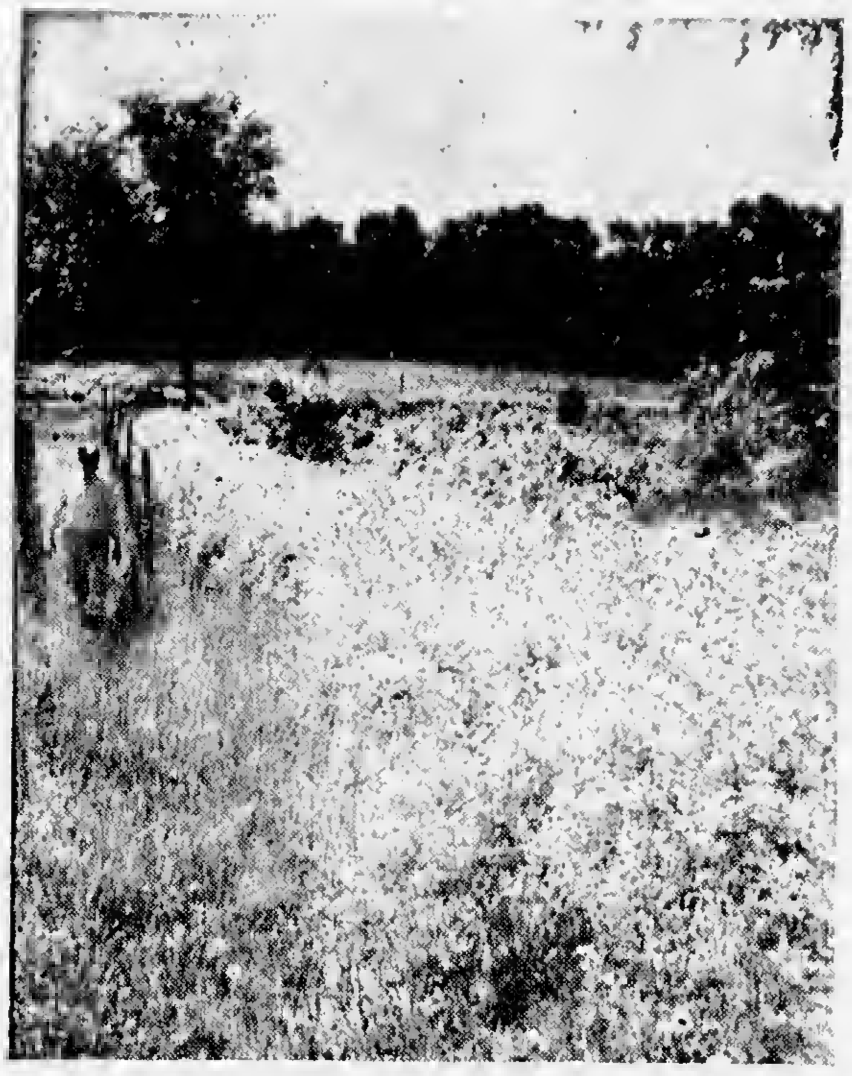
The meeting will include all present members and other persons who are interested in becoming members.

For saving fuel in tractor operation they advise adjusting the carburetor only for full loads and only when the engine is warmed up. Correct setting of the carburetor asd idling needle is important in saving fuel. Also, use the right fuel and right spark plugs for your tractor.

Here are some examples of how costly some of these mistakes in tractor maintenance can be. The right carburetor setting can save up to 100 gallons of fuel a year. The idle needle and idling speed screw correctly set also can save 100 gallons.

Using an higher gear and throttling down can save up to 5 gallons a day.

A Living Fence



A different type of fencing is becoming conspicuous on a growing number of southern Michigan farms. This row of two-year-old blossoming multiflora rose shrubs, providing a living fence and food and cover for small game, is replacing a post and wire fence on the William R. Hale farm north of Charlotte. Including 675 farms recently planted, 1,755 southern farms have received stock in the co-operative farmer-conservation department wildlife habitat improvement program started in 1948. Here, department program adviser W. C. Ryder inspects the Hale farm hedge. Once roots are established, the rose shrubs need a minimum of future attention.

Improved Feeds May Cure Turkey Ailment

Improved feeds may be the answer to big hock trouble in turkeys, according to William A. Aho, extension poultry specialist at Michigan State College.

He reported that Cornell University researchers have uncovered evidence that certain samples of fish liver oil reduces the amount of an essential chemical, called creotine, in the muscle causing big hock trouble.

They have corrected the turkey ailment with rations containing 5 per cent dried brewers yeast and 0.1 per cent choline, betaine or methionine.

The trouble has arisen in some Michigan flocks of broad breasted bronze in confinement, Aho said. The hocks of the large toms develop soreness and become lame. Birds in this condition do not maintain or increase their weights since they cannot feed normally.

Traveling Hogs Need Close Attention

Increasing numbers of hogs will be traveling in August and September, going to shows and market, and a lot of them will be heat-prostrated unless precautions are taken, Michigan State College swine specialists warned farmers today.

Hogs should not be crowded during hot weather. One way to prevent losses and crippling during summer heat is to move hogs during cooler periods of the day, preferably in late evening or during the night.

The MSC hog experts adivsed bedding the truck with wetted-down sand and making sure the truck is well-ventilated. For heavy hogs it wil help to put a few chunks of ice into the truck. And hogs will stand the trip better if not fed to heavily first—especially if they are to be hauled any long distance.

Wilted Wild Cherry Leaves Poison Cows

A Michigan State college extension veterinarian today warned farmers that wilted wild cherry leaves are poisonous to cattle.

Dr. Glen Reed says that they often contain large amounts of hydrocyanic acid. Symptoms of poisoning include rapid, shallow breathing, a fast heart rate and staggering gait. Affected cattle go down and may die in as little as 20 minutes.

ORCHARD NOTES

By Claude Fairman

Several new growers contemplate planting sweet cherry orchards.

This foreward I may advance to them. First of all, this is a favorable location for sweet cherries but sites for sweets are a little more difficult than for the sour kind. I urge new growers to call on several sweet cherry growers for information and ideas.

While the local market is fairly well supplied, there is no limit to the amount needed for the Detroit market. Many of the sweets reaching Detroit are shipped to other cities. Cherries for Detroit markets should be picked with stems and packed in 12 quart flats.

A fairly large planting is needed unless there are several growers co-operating or shipping on the same load. There is also a good market for maraschino cherries at the canning plant. For out of the area trade, a limited number of varieties. On my place, the sweets are scattered too much to make the bird and crow season easy. We planted for the roadside and trucker trade, using 14 varieties from the earliest to the latest.

We also did not reserve enough sweet cherry land to rotate our planting. We have to fill in with young trees instead of starting a new block where the trees would be the same size and age. This would be the same for montmorency or other pie cherries.

It's better to start a new block rather than to fill in an old block until all of the old trees have died out or uprooted.

Mica

Mica is a mineral having the property of "perfect cleavage," so that when it is struck it splits cleanly along parallel lines into flat sheets or layers. It can be split so thinly that 1,000 sheets make a pile only an inch high.

TRACTOR

All over America, on big farms and little farms, it's proving itself "The Year 'Round Tractor". . . winning fame for all 'round performance, all 'round the farm, all year 'round.

You'll respect the Ford Tractor for the way it buckles down to heavy jobs of plowing or discing. You'll like it, and Dearborn Equipment, too, for the way you can do such jobs as scraping, leveling, loading, ditching, terracing, excavating, digging post holes or sawing wood. Most Dearborn implements lift or lower at a touch on the Ford Hydraulic Touch Control. Ask for a demonstration.

Science invades the silo to aid dairy farmers

Michigan weather, especially in the upper peninsula, hinders the making of good quality field-cured hay. Tests conducted by Michigan State College's Agricultural Experiment Station measured the range of feeding values possible in hays put up at different periods during the haying season, using three curing methods: early hay crop silage, mid-season barn-dried hay and late field-cured hay. Michigan farmers who find it difficult to cure hay in the field will be interested to learn that more milk was produced on hay crop silage than on either field-cured or barn-dried hay. Further information on curing and storing forage is available by calling, writing or visiting your County Agricultural Agent.

Seeding for Late Rye

Seed now with Balbo Rye for late fall and early spring pasture. We have a good supply of Balbo Rye seed and Yorkwin wheat seed.

Open Formula Seeds

Those well-known Open Formula feeds supply those extra needs. Pasture alone is not enough for dairy cows. Grass won't supply all the nutrients for peak production and good body health.

Farm Bureau feeds are designed to keep cows in top condition and in high production.

The herds which get Farm Bureau Balancer in home grown grains or Farm Bureau 18 percent Service Dairy Ration fed straight are the herds in top condition and production.

IT HAPPENED ON ....
BEAVER ISLAND

Mary LaFreniero

Guest, at the Beaver Lodge this past week were the Misses Ferda Lucht, Electa Murronaugh, Ethelyn Baade of Grand Rapids; James McBryde and Lt. William Karns of the U. S. Navy, Miss Marie C. Holloway, Miss Elsie Braegger and Dr and Mrs. Harry Striffler of Pontiac, Mich., Victor L. Kochajda of Detroit, H. E. Foate, Jr. and I R. Rummel of San Antonio, Tex., and Holland, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. John F. Howard of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Groves of Dayton, O., and Harber Springs, and Harold VanEek and John Brohalm of Kalamazoo.

Those who attended the funeral of Gus Mielke from the island were Vernon LaFreniere, James H. Gallagher, Sylvester Howard, Elston Pischner and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pischner.

Mrs. Evelyn Varden has returned to the island for a few days. She then will return to California.

Art Pischner of Two Rivers, Wis., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pischner.

• • •

SISTER Mary Leonara who has taught here the past two years left Monday for Marywood in Grand Rapids. We were all sorry to see her leave as her work here was of a great benefit to the entire island.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilmat of Cleveland are visiting Mrs. Wilmot's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher. Their daughter, Kay, who has been here for the summer will return home with them.

• • •

MR. FRANK McCourt of Chicago joined his wife here where she has been vacationing at their cottage.

The Gene Kinneys had as their guest this past week Mrs. Mae Tremane of Detroit.

The Charlie Martins are the proud parents of a baby son, Joseph Bernard.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cross and daughter, Deharah, are visiting Mrs. Cross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sunagel and daughters have gone to Cleveland to visit Mr. Sunagel's family.

• • •

Patrick LeFreniere, Jr., has left to work on the U. S. Survey ship Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Sargel and boys of South Haven are here for a few days.

• • •

THE ISLAND soon will have a good library of its own. Many thanks go to Sisiter Mary Robert and Sister Mary Leonora whose efforts made it possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDonough celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday the 25th. The day was started with a High Mass at Holy Cross church. That evening a dinner was had at the Beaver Lodge for 24 guests. After dinner there was singing and dancing with Father Giles and Kay McDonough at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pike of Montague, Mich., flew in that day for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. John McDonough of the yacht Sea-Legs and their friends Captain Bill Mangan and daughter, Mary, left Thursday morning for their home in Chicago after spending eleven days here. This will be their last trip of the season.

Mrs. William Boyle is in the Charlevoix hospital after fracturing her hip in a fall.

Old Resident of Island Succumbs

Beaver Island—Funeral services for Hugh D. Gallagher, 82, resident of Beaver Island for 65 years, were held at Holy Cross church Wednesday, Aug. 22, with the Rev. Fr. Giles officiating. Burial was in Holy Cross cemetery.

He died Monday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Early.

Born in County Donegal, Ireland, June 12, 1869, he came to Beaver Island with his parents at the age of 17 years. He was a farmer until he retired ten years ago because of failing health.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Early and Mrs. James McCann of Charlevoix and a brother, Dan of St. James.

Mistaken Idea

A mistaken idea among owners that hog cholera strikes a large percentage of a herd at one time is blamed by veternarians for many needless swine losses.

Attendance Drops At State Parks

Lansing—Attendance at State park and recreation areas is off over a half million visitors with the 60 locations drawing 4,821,000 persons as compared to 5,358,000 through last year at this time.

Camping permits number 9,787 as contrasted to 10,927 before the conservation department's parks division disclosed.

The villian is the weather, with especially early July intermittent rain storms holding down crowds at the top of the park season. Closing of the pier to anglers at Grand Haven, the most popular park in the state, has markedlly cut attendance there. When the repairing of the pier is finished, a large boost over the present attendance of 378,185 is anticipated.

Two of the more popular locations have attracted more picnickers and other users so far this year. Holland count is 493,000 as compared to 473,100 before, and Island Lake near Brighton totals 360,600 or over 48,000 more.

Leading all parks to date is Bay City with 522,000 visitors, or 55,000 fewer than in the same 1950 period. Other leaders are Sterling near Monroe, 340,700; and Muskegon, 225,000.

Trim Shrubs

Now is a good time to cut branches from plum, cherry, pusseywillow, forsythia, spirea, and almost any woody, flowering shrub. The nearer to spring you cut them, the more quickly they'll burst into flower. Pick a day when the temperature is above freezing.

THE FORDOMATIC FORD GIVES YOU AN ENTIRELY NEW KIND OF DRIVING!

Combines best features of previous drives! Fordomatic gives you two automatic drives in one—a torque converter for smoothness—and automatic gears for get-up-and-GO.

Fordomatic Drive optional at extra cost on V-8 only. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice.

Practically drives itself! Fordomatic thinks for you. It smoothly and automatically provides a countless number of drive ratios through which engine power is fed to the rear wheels.

You're boss every second. Step down on the accelerator and you get an extra spurt of power for hill climbing and passing. Going downhill you can shift to low at any speed for extra engine braking.

Easier rocking! It's even easier to "rock" out of sand, snow or mud with Fordomatic than with Conventional drive. Just move the selector back and forth between low and reverse.

It's a gas-saving powerhouse! Fordomatic's automatic intermediate gear provides smooth, fast, economical "getaway" without wasteful engine racing. Uses no more gas than the savingful conventional Ford.

Dorothy Dykhouse---Peter Postmus Speak Vows at Candlelight Service

Ellsworth— A candle light service was held in the Prosper Christian Reformed Church where Miss Dorothy Joanne Dykhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Dykhouse of Falmouth and Peter Postmus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Postmus of Ellsworth were united in marriage Friday, Aug. 17.

Rev. Walter Tolsma preformed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladiolis, pompons, palms and candelabra. Mrs. Carl VanderPol played the traditional wedding music, she accompanied Miss Ruth Jenema, soloist who sang, "I Love You Truly", Because" and "The Lords Prayer".

The bride was dressed in a white taffeta gown, designed by herself, with a full floor-length skirt, low neck with bertha collar and puff sleeves. A capulet of matching material trimmed with seed pearls secured her finger tip veil of French illusion. She also wore three strands of pearls. She carried a white Bible covered with white carnations and pompons with satin streamers.

Maid of Honor

Miss Lois Mulder, maid of honor, selected a gown of yellow taffeta. Miss Joyce Tacoma was bridesmaid, her gown was of blue taffeta. Both carried a colonial bouquet of pastel mums centered with a rubrum lily.

Mr. Postmus had as his attendants Adrin and Gerald Postmus, twin brothers of the groom. Those ushering were Wilfred Jansen of Ellsworth and Henry VanStedum of Grand Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. Gail Nystrom of Cadillac were the master and mistress of ceremonies.

Wedding Reception

Following the wedding a reception was held in the chapel of the church with 100 guests attending.

A three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the refreshment table. The reception also honored the brides parents 40th wedding anniversary.

The bride, a graduate of Northern Michigan Christian high school in McBain has sung with the Ellsworth choir.

Following a northern wedding trip they will be at home on the farm with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerritt Postmus.

Annual Summer Music Program Closes

The fourth annual summer program for instrumental music, sponsored by the Charlevoix board of education, has drawn to a close.

Directed by C. A. Odmark, the program has provided individual instruction for 60 students over a period of eight weeks.

Of the 60 students who completed the course, only six were members of the senior high school band. The others were members of the beginning and junior group.

Counts Days Until School Opens

The first day of school is a major event in any young man's life and no one realizes it anymore than Steven Bergmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bergmann, as he purchases school supplies in preparation for the momentous day. He is one of some 80 youngsters who will be enrolled in the kindergarten this year.

Record Throng Treated to Top Performance at SPEB Show

"It was really a top performance", "The singing was superb."

These were only a few of the superlatives used to describe the ninth annual SPEB jamboree which concluded its four-day songfest Monday.

Townspeople and visitors agreed that the parade of quartets at the Saturday night program was the best ever presented here and comparable with any SPEB program in the metropolitan cities. Scores of persons were turned away as a large crowd jammed every corner of the gymnasium.

HEADED BY THE Schmitt Brothers of Manitowoc, Wis., 1951 international SPEB champions, the show was greeted with thunderous applause and demands for encore from nearly all quartets. Robert M. Harger, master of ceremonies, kept the program moving at a fast pace.

The stage settings received plenty of attention and gasps of wonderment from the record throng. The Harmony Halls, international champs in 1944, the Village Aire, Huron Hoarsemen and the Tune Venders received great ovation. Every quartet in the parade was a big hit, however.

The four-day event was attended by scores of international and district officials. The attendance at this year's jamboree was greater than ever before. More than 400 were served at the Sunday night casino party at the Belvedere, Dal Henry, host chapter president, reported.

Thomas F Needham, director of the Detroit Metropolitan chorus, said that the community singing was some of the best he had ever heard. His comment typified that of other musical leaders who attended.

Having a major role in arrangements for the event were Jack Dollenmaier, district president, and Jerry F. Sendder who handled hundreds of details in caring for reservations and other matters.

Workers Finish Summer Job At School

Workmen are busy at the Charlevoix high school this week installing 100 new seats in the study hall in preparation for the opening of school next Tuesday for the school year, Supt Roy G Bennett announced.

Installation of new furniture will complete the work for the summer. Earlier several rooms were painted as well as the trim on the elementary school building. The finishing and waxing of floors and minor repair work has also been completed.

• • •

THE ANTICIPATED enrollment for the school year is expected to be about the same as last spring Mr. Bennett said. Although several families have moved away, others have come to take their place keeping the school census about static.

Parents are informed that school busses will start operating at the usual time Tuesday transporting children over allready scheduled routes. Classes will be dismissed at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The hot lunch program will start Wednesday,

Monday will be given over to a teachers' conference. The entire faculty will meet with Mr. Bennett and later with school principals to map the school year.

BOWLERS NEEDED

Charlevoix Bowling League will roll its first time at East Jordan Wednesday, Sept. 12, at 9 o'clock. Three teams are much the same as last year, the other three are still short a few bowlers. Come on lets get together. Contact H. A. Thierry, Ironton, Call Charlevoix 1031-W1 if you are interested.

Hayes Man To Run For State Office

Forrest G. Brown of Hayes township Wednesday announced his candidacy for state representative in next year's Republican primary Louis Anderson of Northport is the incumbent.

Mr. Brown, a resident of Hayes township since 1945, has been a county taxpayer since 1933. He spent 10 years in government service, eight of which he served in the U. S Department of Labor.

A native of Lenawee county, he is a member of the Grange and Farm Bureau.

Mrs. VanDusen Honored

Nine guests surprised Mrs. Orton Van Dusen of Charlevoix recently on her birthday. Dinner was served, highlighted by a birthday cake, and relatives and friends called to congratulate her during the evening.

Rayder Step Up Drills for Grid Opener

With 10 days of practice under their belts, the Charlevoix Red Rayders are undergoing intensive twice-daily drills in preparation for the season's grid opener against Boyne City Sept. 22.

Coach Del Terrill, starting his second year as grid mentor here, has nearly 50 players on his 1951 squad.

Eight lettermen and a number of others who saw a lot of action last fall give him a fair-sized nucleus around which to mould his team.

Football practices are being held from 8-10 a.m. and 6-8 p.m. daily until school starts next week.

• • •

HEADING the list are eight lettermen from the 1950 squad including two backs and six linemen. They include Norm Ketchman, quarter, Gerry Left, half back, Dean Boss, Stan Whitley and Bud Barber, ends, Ted Browe and Nathan Boss, guards and Charles Krahnke, tackle. Browe was a member of the 1950 all-conference squad.

Backing up this group of veterans will be many who saw action last year short of required time for letters. This group includes Leo Allard and Frank Lagerman, seniors: Dean Davenport, Paul Johnson, Jack Cross, Don Vratinina, Chuck Mutrell, Louis Mason, Jim Lewis and Jack Niswander, juniors.

Also Bill Mosier, Bill Goss, Bill Bennett John LaBlance Jack Mol and Don Smith.

Coach Terrill has had little opportunity thus far to take stock of the material available and make any comment on the team's prospects this season.

The Rayders will open the 1951 season with a night game at Boyne City Sept. 22.

Ex-Alderman Taken by Death In Florida

News of the unexpected death of Clair S. Webster, 50, at his home in Coral Gables, Fla., early last Thursday was a shock to his relatives and friends here.

Since going to Florida last February he had been southern Florida representative for the Atlantic Marine Boat Yard of Miami and had been in apparent good health until a sudden attack shortly before his death.

Funeral services were held at the Philbrick Chapel in Coral Gables Saturday with burial in a cemetery there.

Mr. Webster had been widely known in civic and business circles before going south. He had been local representative for the Standard Oil Co. here for 18 years before becoming associated with Foster Boat Co. about ten years ago. He had also served as first ward alderman on the city council and as a member of the Board of Education.

He was a member of the Congregational church.

Born here Dec. 27, 1900, he had attended the Charlevoix schools. On Sept. 8, 1923, he was married to the former Mildred Cross.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Clair, Jr., who with his family was enroute to Florida to join his parents and accept a position; a daughter, Suzanne, of Coral Gables; one grand-daughter; his step-mother, Mrs. Amos Webster of this city; a sister, Mrs. Richard K. Paddock of Midland and a half-sister, Marjorie Webster also of Charlevoix.

Billy McClanaghan left Monday to spend a week at St. Johns, He will return home this weekend with his grandmother, Mrs. Martin Pedersen, who has been with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Roughton for three weeks.

Summer Residents Raise $60,000 Toward Goal of $75,000

With approximately $60,000 reported in the summer residents' emergency drive for the new hospital, their goal of $75,000 is in sight, as some summer residents are yet to be contacted, it was announced.

Former contributions made by summer residents to the Hospital Building Fund makes a total of about $105,000 received to date from summer residents.

This brings the grand total in the campaign to about $170,000, leaving a minimum of $55,000 yet to be raised.

Included in the reported total is a $21,000 gift given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom E. Olds. The gift was made by Gladys Olds Anderson and Bernice Olds Roe. The memorial room selected was the major operating room in the new hospital.

Other memorial rooms have been given by Mrs. W. B. Stewart with her daughters, Mrs. Glenn W. Tracr and Mrs. C. L. Retherford (in memory of W. B. Stewart), Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Block, Mrs. C. C. Gilbert with Mrs. Robert H. Flint, Mrs. D. Eckhart Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Julius W. Gilbert, John P. Wilson, Mrs. William P. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Milton D. Mendle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Goldman with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Goldman, Frederick and John Simon with Mrs. Edgar J. Moch, Mr. and Mrs. James G. F. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sucher, Mrs. Alma Loewenstein with Richard Loewenstein, Mrs. Charles Rice with Mrs. William Eisendrath, Jr., S. J. T. Straus Family, Mr. and Leo F. Butzel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Wisok.

School Opens . . . Let's Drive More Carefully

Jimmy is going to school next week for the first time.

It's a big event in his life. His head is crammed with warnings of mother and father. He is in a whirl of activity awaiting the big moment when he enters school.

But there is a worry just the same. He doesn't realize it, although his mother has warned him about the streets and approaching traffic.

Yes, his mother and father are worried. Like other parents in Charlevoix and other communities, they are truly concerned with their children's safety on the streets. Jimmy promises his mother he will be on the lookout for cars and that he will "stop, look and listen" when he approaches an intersection.

His mother knows he will try hard to obey. But sometime because of a distraction of a thrown ball or a playmate ahead of him, he may forget the best of intentions.

He's only five and that is pretty young when his head is filled with the joys of school and fun.

That is why it's going to take the cooperation of all motorists to be more careful than ever, particularly around school areas.

No amount of police protection is going to do the job. It's up to every motorist to pledge himself to utmost precaution in driving, particularly now that school is starting and streets will be filled with youngsters like Jimmy.

Let's make it a special point to slow up when we see a child near a street or intersection. One never knows what that child will do. But motorists can prevent his injury if they will be careful.

County Road System Ranks High in Nation

The county road system in Michigan is given little recognition, chiefly because the more heavily traveled highways receive more attention.

It goes without saying that the county road system is outstanding. Only six states in the nation have a greater road mileage administered on a local level. In fact there are only 12 states whose total road mileage of all types exceeds the mileage administered by the Michigan county road commissions.

Michigan believes in local control of local functions, where local personnel prove they have the ability and the desire to efficiently manage these functions.

The total mileage of roads and streets under road commission jurisdiction is some 85,349 miles. Of this total mileage, some 21,670 miles will be the more important rural primary roads and streets.

The local county road portion of the county road system is composed of some 63,679 miles of roads. Although these local roads compose the greater percent of the total county road mileage, they are not just trails but are roads that are necessary to residents who live on those roads.

In our rural areas, they are the farm to market, oil to market, lumber to market, resort and tourist to market roads. This system has been well screened, and every mile is essential to the driving public.

The county roads should and probably will be improved in the future. While it is perfectly all right to wish for something better, it is also good common sense to be grateful for a good series of county roads. They are basic to any economy in northern or southern Michigan.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Martin

The S. S. North American stopped Monday and even though it didn't stay long, everyone was around to see it enter and leave the harbor . . . on the dock were several visiting Jamboree quartets who serenaded the arrivals in great style . . The majority of people left the boat, shopped and walked around town . . . And, we might add, few returned to the boat without packages of items purchased in Charlevoix stores.

Wonder of wonders: Labor Day and no rain . . . Can you believe it? . . . Met a former resident last week, John Nowland . . . who was visiting relatives here and in Petoskey . . . Seems he lived here years and years ago and had known many of the old-timers . . Had quite a chat with him . . .

• • •

Remember Salud Rarayno? . . . Of course you don't but we know you'll remember Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Alexander who were at the Methodist church here . . . You'll also remember they lost their only child, Evelyn, about 1941 following an operation . . . For years she'd corresponded with a little Filopino girl . . . After the war, in memory of their daughter, they brought her here to study . . . When she came we did a story on her . . . one of those things we'll always remember . . Last week Salud and the Alexanders were in Charlevoix on a brief visit . . . She now has her degree in library science . . . is working on her master's degree in education . . Certainly a fine girl . . . who not only has done herself and family but the Alexanders proud . . . It was wonderful seeing them again, believe us . . . Another one of the good things about this job . . .

OUR DEEPEST sympathy to the family of Clair Webster whose untimely death came as such a shock to everyone here . . . He was doing so well in Florida and everyone was so happy for him . . . And now this . . . The family address is 230 Phoenetia ave. in Coral Gables, in case you'd like to drop them a line . . .

It's great to have talented friends but one fellow we know is wishing his friend would be a little more careful . . . It's like this, Capt. H. E. Paddock had a friend here last week who is a member of the American Amateur Magicians organization . . . One afternoon they went out in the country to get some Michigan maple syrup . . . they found some, paid for it with a five dollar bill, the friend, Cecil Agate, gives forth with a few tricks involving folding money and after the impromptu show gets in the car to leave . . . But the people from whom they had purchased the syrup couldn't find the five dollar bill . . . After much looking they asked Mr. Agate about it . . . and sure 'nuff, he'd put the money back in his wallet after the show . . . And was his face red . . .

• • •

WE HAD the grandest chat with Mary Ann Puhek, whose parents have Al-Clair Terrace on West Dixon . . . She returned recently from a two months hostel tour of several European countries . . . She was full of stories of the trip and the fun and the grand sights . . . But when they visited Venice the gondoliers were on strike and when in Paris the musicians were on strike . . . Venice without its gondolas and Paris without its music . . . a horrible disappointment . . . But there were other things to make up for it . . . It all sounded like great fun . . .

Our hats off to a grand gal, Carrie Sessions . . . laid up with a fractured leg since last winter, on crutches for a while and now a walking cast she lets nothing stand in her way . . . She does everything . . . perhaps a bit slower then before . . . but she does it and that's what counts . .

Sept 22 is listed as the last day of summer . . . but in Charlevoix it will never last that long . . . as far as our summer visitors are concerned . . . Labor Day weekend saw the majority of them go . . . You can notice the difference already . . . another week and the only people around, with a few exceptions, will be the 'natives' . . From that we can pick up it wasn't such a bad summer . . . certainly not as bad as 1950 . . . in all, pretty good, despite the weather . . . But don't give up . . . maybe sometime in the not too distant future we'll again know one of those old-fashioned summers . . .

Hundreds Get View Of Air Force Exhibit

Hundreds of Charlevoix residents viewed the U. S. Air Force's "Operation Main Street" here Thursday.

Feature attraction of the huge display of Air Force equipment was the "Lucky Lady II". This B-50 Superfortress became the only first and only aircraft to fly around the world non-stop.

The Air Force's F-84 Thunderjet fighter also attracted a great deal of attention. It was mounted on a 40 foot trailer and one side was replaced with plexiglass to permit closer inspection.

Youth Groups Raise Money for Hospital

The youngsters passed a canister among their friends and turned in a total of $16.66, Herbert Schofield secretary of the fund has announced.

Participating in the event were Bruce Colton, Lenore Oseff, Marilyn Colton, Hilda Rosenberg, and Elizabeth Oseff.

Two "gangs" from the Belvedere Club have contributed a total of $22.87. The children raised the money through their own efforts.

Petoskey Man Is Partner of Hess Furniture

The announcement that Reginald Greenway of Petoskey will become a partner of Hess Furniture, was made Tuesday by Ralph V. Hess.

Mr. Greenway, associated with Petoskey Housefurnishings for three and one-half years, specializing in the art of interior decorating, will assume his new duties Monday, Sept. 10.

A veteran of World War II with more than three years service as instructor and engineer on a B-17 bomber, he returned to Petoskey after the war and joined Bremmeyr-Bain in Petoskey.

He brings to Hess Furniture a wealth of experience in interior decoration and draperies. Hess Furniture intends to add draperies to their present lines of merchandise by next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenway (Margaret Bremmeyr) have three sons, Joe, Douglas and James. They will live on Hurlbut street.

Center for Polio Research to Open

Ann Arbor—A new respiratory center to provide facilities for extensive clinical research on the most serious kind of polio will be opened at University Hospital within a month.

The center, the third of its kind in the country, will be jointly sponsored by the hospital and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc.

A check for $27,380 was presented Friday to Dr. Albert Kerlikowske director of the hospital, by Dr. Kenneth S. Landauer, director of medical care for the foundation and a former Detroiter.

The center will have a threefold purpose in addition to providing facilities for the complete care of a limited number of polio patients who require treatment in a respirator, better known as an "iron lung."

First, the center will be used to seek a better understanding of what goes wrong with the physiology of a polio patient who has breathing difficulties and also to find ways to get these patients out of respirators as soon as possible.

Letter from Struthers Family in Jamaica Relates Intensity of Bad Storm

A hurried letter from the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Struthers and family Church of God missionaries stationed at Kingston, Jamaica, brought the news to their families and friends that they were safe following the recent hurricane which hit the island more then a week ago.

Mr. Struthers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Struthers and Mrs. Struthers, the former Florence Palmer, is the daughter of Mrs. John Funk. The hurricane struck on the fifth anniversary of their arrival in Jamaica. They have two sons, John and Fred.

Their recent letter, written Aug. 20, follows in part: We know you must be worried by this time for perhaps the news of the hurricane (which started late the night of Aug. 16 and raged for more then five hours) has reached your ears. We are allright but allow me to say that thousands are homeless and foodless. I really don't know what is going to happen. If we in our rather pleasant state of condition feel helpless then how must they, who have nothing, feel.

This terrible storm has wiped down Kingston as though it was nothing. We have no electricity and may not for from six weeks to six months. The wires are hanging in the street everywhere. It makes it hard for refrigeration washing and cooking.

Even that might not be so bad but we have no water for ourselves, the cows or donkeys. Charles has been trying to haul some from higher up where some folks still have it. We are fearful of sickness and surely do feel dirty, but when we look around us we are grateful.

Charles is out sawing right now trying to save what stumps of trees remain in hopes that they will take new life and grow again. Most of the trees were destroyed by the storm. All I can say is that be assured that we are safe. Don't be surprised if John and Fred come home. We cannot send cablegrams so would have to instruct John carefully before leaving and somehow trust God that they will arrive to you safely."

Reserve Unit Leases North Side School

The 310th Ordnance Depot Company, a reserve army unit, moved into its new home Tuesday evening.

The new meeting place is the former North side school building which until last fall housed the District Health Unit No. 3 and the Bureau of Social Aid. These offices were moved to the city hall when the heating plant failed.

The reserve unit will meet twice a month in the building which is being renovated to care for their needs. A heating unit is also being prepared for their use.

The Ordnance Depot Company, whose officers are Capt. James Pringle of Petoskey and Lt. James Foster of Charlevoix, is composed of approximately 50 men who meet every two weeks for lectures and specialized training.

The unit outgrew its temporary home in Boyne City and hopes to make Charlevoix its permanent home. Men from Emmet, Antrim and Charlevoix are members of the unit.

Hanging Gardens

The Hanging Gardens of Babylon, one of the Seven Wonders of the ancient world, were built by King Nebuchadnezzar for Amytis, his fair young Median Queen. The gardens were "mountain-high, terrace piled on terrace, with flash of fountains, shade of trees, and fragrance of pomegranates."

Charlevoix IN UNIFORM

Sgt. Major Charles Greeley sailed from Japan, late Monday he told his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Forbes in a telephone call from Tokyo at 6 a. m. EST Monday.

Sgt. Major Greeley has been in Korea for the past year and is enroute home on the army rotation plan. He expects to arrive here in about three weeks.

• • •

Sgt George Fratrick arrived home last week from a year's service in Korea with the Third Infantry Division. After a 30-day furlough he will report at Fort Custer for re-assignment.

While here he is visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Fratrick. They were joined by another brother, Alfred of Detroit and a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Sladek and two children, of Chicago for a family reunion.

• • •

Cpl. Leonard Dubey left Monday to report at Fort Custer for re-assignment after spending a 30-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Edna Howe. He returned home last month after a year's service with the army in Korea.

• • •

Cpl. Patrick Martin of Fort Campbell, Ky. spent the Labor Day weekend with his mother, Mrs. John Martin, and other relatives.

He returned there last week after participating with the 51tth Airborne Division in Operation Southern Pine at Fort Bragg.

• • •

Announce Bethrothal Of Fern Waffle

Mr. and Mrs. Medrick Waffle announce the engagement and the approaching marriage of their daughter, Fern Eleanor, of Ferndale, to Donald E. Keegstra, also of Ferndale, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Green of Grand Rapids.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school.

The wedding will be an event of late September.

Personal Items

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reed were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Emans of Grand Rapids and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Munk of Grosse Pointe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Haney of Lansing, Mrs. Anna Britz of Minooka, Ill., and Mrs. Eva Votruba of East Jordan visited last weekend with Mrs. John Zeitler, Sr.

Phyllis Steffens who spent the summer with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Allard, has returned to her home in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Anna Hummell returned to Detroit Monday following a visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bacot. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hummell and family came from Detroit for her.

Mrs. Charles Stevens and son, Bruce, who spent several weeks at their farm here left Monday for Newaygo. They returned with Mr. Stevens who was here for the weekend. He will be employed there on a construction project.

Gov't Farm Position Open to Young Men

The U. S. Civil Service Examiners for the Department of Agriculture announced that an examination is open for conservation aid.

No written test is required and specialized experience is necessary for the GS-2 grade. Any farm boy who is 18 and completed a high school education with two years of vocational agriculture can qualify.

Suggest Ways to Help Stop Bloat

Although livestock men haven't yet found the complete answer to the problem of bloat, George Parsons, Michigan State College dairy extension specialist, has some ideas for helping prevent it.

He advises having plenty of water available for the animals, with salt and minerals self-fed near the water supply. Some dry roughage, such as straw or hay, should be fed along with the pasture as another help in solving the bloat problem.

Most losses from bloat are reported on pastures containing legumes. Parsons recommends some grass in the legume pasture mixture.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Gene Alleman
Lansing Observer for Michigan Press Association

Michigan's outstate legislators declined to appropriate funds for Southeastern Michigan TB sanitoriums, and went home from the Special Session with the hot breath of reapportionment fanning their necks.

Detroit's Herman Keifer hospital was granted $300,000. (It asked for $2,000,000). Oakland county hospital receiving nothing. (requested $230,000). Wayne county delegation cried it was "sold down the river", and the drive for reapportionment received added impetus.

Senator George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale) sounded the warning when he shouted: "You men (outstaters) are bringing about a constitutional amendment reapportioning the legislature . . , then the shoe will be on the other foot".

Outstate lawmakers, who control both houses, continually have blocked reapportionment for fear of losing control to the heavily populated Southeastern area.

However, state lawmakers did boost old age assistance. The state will double any amount given by the federal government (not to exceed $70). It now is $30, but a bill before Congress would increase it to $33 monthly, making a total of $66. Gov. Williams, who had asked a $70 guarantee, expressed his disgust at the "Rube Goldberg arrangement'. He is also disgruntled when $5,000 was not appropriated for state flags to be sent to Korea.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT padding investigation continues. The North Adams board of education has admitted receiving $2,012 in overpayment on the school-lunch program and has returned a check in that amount to the state.

Crop progress in the state looks good despite heavy damage in Berrien county from hail. The loss was localized and will not affect the overall picture.

A bumper crop of Michigan babies is expected this year. Already 80,795 babies have been registered in the first six months . . . an increase of 1,904 over 1947, previous high year. Births for the same period last year, 72,348.

Michigan's Prohibition party this year has started a rehabilitation program. Plan underway would finance the party with from one to five-cents-per day contributions from party members. Party's executive committee this fall will open a drive for 9,627 petitioners to put the party back on the state ballot.

• • •

A SMALL chuckle was heard in Lansing when the Michigan Table Top Licenses Congress (tavern owners association) received by error the bank statement of the Michigan Temperance Foundation. The Foundation, of course, was sent the Table Top accountings. It wasn't pleased.

Consumers Power Company has asked permission to add 10,000 new gas space heating customers. Request arrived one day before federal restrictions froze space heating. Consumers vice president, M. W. Arthur, said the timing was purely coincidental. "We filed the petition when we thought we were ready to add customers," he said.

Charles Figy, director of the state department of agriculture, was a bit crushed when he was criticized for NOT spending state money. The Michigan Association of County Drain Commissioners condemned him for sending only two (not four) men to a recent meeting. Says Figy: "Governor has asked us to cut down on all unessential travel." He saved the state $200.

THEE MICHIGAN State Fair has an estimated 15,000 exhibits, some 3,000 more than last year . . a trend reflected in most county fairs this year.

Labor Day no longer marks the end of Michigan's tourist season. Recent surveys shows some 70 percent of the resorts in Western Michigan will remain open through September and some even in October.

Vitriolic, Red-hunting Joseph R. McCarthy will come before a Michigan crowd Sept. 14 when he speaks at the Branch county 4-H Club fair in Coldwater. His speech will highlight "Republican Day" an event of no mean importance in Southern Michigan.

A HUGE display of military might at the National Air Races gave a Russian army officer a belly ache. After a quick inspection, Major Leonid Pivnev said: "I have a stomach ache, I think it's appendicitis. I am going back to Washington right away."

The Michigan State Federation of Women's clubs plans a campaign to establish a Girls' Town similar to Nebraska's Boy's Town. The state's 30,000 federated clubwomen will be asked to raise $150,000. Land in the Western part of the Upper Peninsula is being considered.

A Detroit official urges prospective home owners not to be stampeded into buying by "wild talk" about "drastic shortages" of essential metals and its effect on future home building.

I will not be responsible for any debts other than those contracted by myself. Robert Knudsen.

Lillian Connaghan, who is in Nurses Training at Mercy Hospital in Grand Rapids spent the weekend with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Townsend and sons, Bob and Warren, of Holland are here for the weekend.

A hard-time party for Myrtle Ditlefsen was held Wednesday night at the Shamrock. Everyone came in the toughest looking cloths they could procure. A good time was had by all.

The weather this past week has really been terrible. The first part of the week the island was inclosed with a thick blanket of fog. When that left a heavy wind set in. The storm reached its peak early Friday morning with continual rain, thunder and lightening.

Charlie "Harlem" Gallagher's barn was struck with the lightening. Outside of that there was no damage.

Doc Collins of Mason, Mich., had a longer than expected vacation, thanks to the weather. He flew in last weekend for two days, but was unable to leave due to the fog and wind. By the time the weather was suitable for flying another weekend had rolled around so he is still here.

• • •

ARCHIE LAFRENIERE and Ed Burke flew over High Island Wednesday evening with Doc Collins to see if they could see the horses they left there and to throw a salt block to them. They saw the horses all right and they claim it was a beautiful sight. First they saw the two wild horses followed at quite a distance by the stallion. Directly behind the Stallion came the mares. By the appearance of things they think that as yet the wild horses will have nothing to do with the new ones.

Trim Reynolds of Boyne City and Karl Erber of Charlevoix were business callers here last week.

• • •

MRS. NELLIE Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Stacey of Grand Rapids spent a week at Mrs. Olson's cottage on Lake Geneserath.

Mrs. Vera Wojan entertained Mrs. Lloyd McDonough, Mrs. Lawrence McDonough, Mrs. James Elms, Mrs. Patrick LaFreniere, Mrs. Vernon LeFreniere, and Mrs. Irene LeFreniere Wednesday night. The gathering was in honor of Mrs. Elm's Birthday.

Fall Pig Loses Can Be Reduced Specialists Say

Timely tips on preventing little pig losses in fall litters came today from J. A. Hoefer, swine specialist at Michigan State college.

Dr. Hoefer explains that 80 to 90 percent of pig losses occur during the first five to seven days after farrowing. He finds that good management of the sow and new litter during this crucial time can cut your losses an average of one pig or more per litter.

Whether litters are farrowed on pasture or in a central hog barn, sanitation is a most important requirement. Clean and disinfect your hog houses or farrowing pens. Wash sows thoroughly three or four days before they are due to farrow, and put them into the pens on clean bedding.

Be sure the young pigs run on clean ground. Don't use a pasture where pigs have run for the previous full year. If you take your sows and pigs to pasture, haul them. These are all precautions against disease suggested by Dr. Hoefer.

Get your farrowing pens and houses ready by making needed repairs ahead of time. Put in guard rails and enough panels, self-feeders and waterers.

Rosquist Develops New Sweet Cherry

A new variety of sweet cherry, developed by John Rosquist, owner of the Longview Orchards, is undergoing tests by Stark Bro's of Louisiana, Mo., the nation's largest fruit nursery farm.

A planting of the bud wood was sent to Stark last week by Rosquist. The new cherry is a cross of four varieties of sweet cherries.

The new cherry, of which Rosquist has only one tree, was requested by Stark's several weeks ago when it learned of its development. Rosquist declined to divulge details of it but pointed out the new cherry, yet unnamed, is more resistant to rot.

* * *

THIS WOULD make it ideal for long distance shipping. The nursery will make a score or more of plantings of the propagated wood before revealing the value of the new cherry.

Rosquist who bought the Armstrong orchard, one of the oldest in this area, is a comparative new comer in the orchard business. He started 11 years ago and since that time has made rapid strides in improvement of his orchards. He had about 1,000 trees most of which are bearing fruit.

Claude Fairman, another area orcharists, said recently that the Longview orchard was one of the most improved he has seen in recent years. One of the unusual features about Longview orchards is the age of some of the trees.

A NUMBER of the trees are 60 years old but they are still bearing, some bearing more fruit in the last few years than ever before.

Rosquist tells of a neighbor, Howard Gornell, who recently planted some young cherry trees at Longview. Gornell planted some of the older trees in the orchard 50 years ago.

Long known for its Bing sweets, the Longview orchard specializes in sweet cherries. However, there are some apricot, plum and pear trees producing fruit.

Rosquist a former Chauffeur for a Charlevoix summer resident for many years, was born in Sweden and came to the United States when he was 21.

Test Soils Now For Good Results With Seeding

Many alfalfa and clover seedings fail each year because fertilizers, lime or marl, ordered for April or early May delivery, cannot be obtained in advance of spring seedings.

So the farmer takes a chance, makes the seeding without the proper plant food and more often than not loses in the gamble. As a result, the farmer is not only short of good quality roughage the following year, but finds his whole rotation scheme upset, E. D. Longnecker, extension soil scientist at Michigan State college said.

He advised checking the condition now of fields that are to be seeded to alfalfa or clover next spring. Farmers complying with the PMA program may request their PMA chairman to have a committeeman call and assist in the collection of samples. This service is available in many of the counties. Or the farmer may collect his own samples.

Each sample should represent the general situation in the field or a considerable portion of a field. Each sample should be a composite of several samples taken 30 to 50 feet apart, and should represent the entire plow layer, not be taken entirely from the surface or from the bottom of the furrow slice.

Clean equipment should be used in taking soil samples and clean containers used in storing and transporting samples. If you are in doubt as to where the soil testing service can be obtained, ask Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent. Usually a reasonable charge is made to cover the cost of the service.

Now Is The Time To Cull Loafers

Now is the time to lay it on the line for the birds that lay down instead of laying eggs.

That's a lot of laying but Carl G. Card, head of Michigan State college's department of poultry husbandry, says that August is the time to spot the loafers in the laying house and take out the poor-doing pullets before housing them.

ORCHARD NOTES

By Claude Feirmen

The apple crop in northern Michigan and the rest of the state is reported to be good.

The state's crop will be above average and will come at a time when the large apple producing states of Washington and Oregon are having a poor year. About half a crop is reported from the western states.

Peaches look good in this sector although the crop is poor in other parts of the state, chiefly because of heavy damage from sub-zero weather last winter.

Sweet cherries were heavy up here, but sour cherries were light, all over the state. The quality and pack was not as good as in other years. This condition did not hold true in the Charlevoix area as use of local help aided in making the pack much better.

Cherries coming into this area from districts south of us were very poorly picked, handled and graded as a result of migrant labor.

Fruit growers who have four or more kinds of fruit are still in the lead as two or more of the fruits will be profitable every year.

This fruit season in Michigan is an early one, resulting in early harvests of peaches, pears, prunes etc.

A FULL SIZE TANDEM DISC THAT

Lifts and Lowers at a touch

This is the tandem disc harrow that you have been dreaming about . . . one that the Ford Tractor can pick up to carry over roads at highway speed without blade damage. And you can lift it for fast short turns on headlands, for passing over grassed waterways, for backing into corners. This is the Dearborn Lift Type Tandem Disc for the Ford Tractor with Hydraulic Touch Control. It can be quickly attached to a Ford Tractor, and it really pulverizes and levels the dirt because pre-angled gangs are mounted in a rigid frame . . . therefore gangs do not float.

make a pledge on their own volition now that we are so near to our goal."

John P. Wilson, Chairman of the Chicago club committee, stated, "We are glad to have a part in the fund raising program for the new hospital, which is so greatly needed."

• • •

MRS. D. ECKHART Williams, Chairman of the Belvedere Club committee, stated, "I am personally happy that the response to the appeal for funds for the new hospital has been so good at the Belvedere Club. Six of our families have taken memorial rooms, and the majority have given, and it is hoped that more will respond also."

Other summer resident committee chairmen are Ralph Price for the Ironton area, James Gibbs for Torch Lake, and Mrs. Hiram Marple for Chula Vista.

All summer residents who have not yet made pledges are urged to contact members of the summer residents' committee or campaign headquarters, 405 Bridge Street, Charlevoix. The phone number of campaign headquarters is Charlevoix 847.

Sir Stork Is Busy In State This Year

Michigan will have a bumper crop of babies this year, the Michigan Department of Health anticipated today.

Births recorded in the first six months of 1951 exceeded by 1,904 the births for the first six months of the previous record high year, 1947.

Most of the increase is linked to the marriage upswing that began in June of 1950 at the start of the Korean war. If the increase of births continues through the rest of the year, 1951 births will set an all-time record, the Department said.

A total of 80,795 births were registered in Michigan in the first six months of this year, a gain of 11.7 percent over the 72,348 births recorded in the same months of 1950; and a gain of 2.4 percent over the 78,891 births recorded in the same months of the previous record year, 1947.

Horse Pulling Event Is Friday at E. Jordan

Hospital Drive Moves to $40,000 of Goal

Chest to Hold Annual Budget Meet Thursday

The Community Chest will hold its annual budget meeting Thursday, Sept. 13, at the courthouse, Jack Mailhot, chest president announced.

The meeting is called for 8:30 p.m.

All local organizations which plan to participate in the annual drive are urged to have a representative present to make a request for funds. Representatives are also asked to bring a budget for the amounts requested.

Dick Herrick is chairman of the drive. Dates of the drive have not been set.

Among the organizations expected to participate in the drive are the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, United Health and Welfare, Community Nurse, Santa Claus Anonymous and cancer.

Any other organization with a legitimate request is invited to participate.

No other meeting will be held to set the budget so all participating groups are urged to attend the meeting Thursday at the court house.

Road Group Likely to Meet Here in '52

There appears to be a strong likelihood that the Northern Michigan Road Commissioners association will return to Charlevoix next fall for their twenty-eighth annual convention.

While definite action of the executive board has not been taken, B. D. Jeffs of Lake City, secretary of the organization, expressed a favorable opinion that the convention would return here in 1952.

His remarks were made as the association closed its two-day convention at the Charlevoix Beach Hotel Friday.

The convention was the largest ever brought to Charlevoix with 458 registered for the sessions and 418 attending the banquet Thursday evening.

• • •

THE RECORD crowd heard Charles M. Ziegler, Michigan state highway commissioner, discuss in detail the new legislation concerning Michigan highways and streets.

S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Charlevoix Board of Commerce, as toastmaster introduced visiting officials of the association, the Michigan state highway department and other guests. Among them were Sen. Charles Prescott and Sen. Frank Andrews and Representatives Emil Peltz, Harry Werner and Louis Anderson.

Following the program Fred Roner, international light-finger artist and magician, delighted the crowd with his clever act.

• • •

AT THE business meeting Friday morning Wayne W. Wood of Barryton was named president to succeed Albert Sachs of Lewiston. John T Frederick of Glennie was elected vice president.

Other officers are Mr. Jeffs, secretary, and Nelson E. Wicks of Irons, treasurer.

The new highway legislation which became effective this summer was the main issue discussed at all special meeting with authorities on various phases of the Act, giving detailed reports.

During their two-day visit the wives of the commissioners were entertained at a luncheon and style show and taken on a tour of points of interests around Charlevoix.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beattie of Detroit visited recently with Mr and Mrs. George Meggison.

Enrollment Up In High School

The enrollment in the Charlevoix high school which includes the top six grades was the highest it has been in recent years, Supt. Roy G. Bennett announced Wednesday.

The registration was 382 on the first day of school with a few more expected. The figure has not been broken down to the number in each grade. These will be released later. The enrollment on the first day last year was 357.

The enrollment in the elementary school which includes the kindergarten and the first six grades was 416, an increase of 46 pupils over the enrollment when school closed in June.

City Ponders Abandonment Of Parkway

A request for the abondonment of the State street parkway between Antrim and Mason streets was taken under consideration of the city council Monday night.

Several county officials urged the city to do away with the parkway as a means of lessening added congestion when the bus station is moved to Norton's Standard station. The bus station change will take effect late this month.

The council appeared to be divided on the abandonment of the parkway. Mayor Knight urged interested residents to attend the next council meeting Sept. 24 when the matter will be decided.

• • •

ED SWANSON and Leo Allard were asked to prepare estimates on the cost of removing the parkway.

City Attorney Nurman Ance was instructed by the council to prepare the legal resolution necessary for the Petoskey avenue sewer project. The resolution is expected to be completed in the next week or so.

Plans for the sewer project have been speeded up, Comptroller Don Swinton informed the council. The project must precede the paving work planned for next year by the state highway department.

No action was taken by the council on the suggestion of Herb Schofield, hospital fund secretary, on the using of the lumber in the games stand in East Park for a portable booth for local organizations which sponsor bake sales and the like.

He thanked the city for the use of the park fur games parties for the hospital fund.

The city decided to ask for bids on repairs for the municipal warehouse at the city dock, bituminous aggregate machine, combination mobile-stationary sound system. Deadline for bids is 8 p.m. Sept. 28.

Group Pushes Addition for School Here

A group of school-conscious residents in the Charlevoix area unanimously approved a plan calling for $225,000 addition to the present Charlevoix school.

Meeting at Barnard Grange Monday night, the 26 persons, representing the Barnard and Maple Grove Granges, the Kiwanis club, McGhee Farm Bureau, Norwood Farmers Union local, Knights of Pythias and the Barnard Farm Bureau, decided to call another meeting for Sept. 24 at 8:30 p.m. at Barnard Grange.

The Sept. 24 meeting was scheduled to gain a greater expression of opinion on the school issue and to suggest to the school board the millage, for the proposed school addition, Al Smith master of the Grange, disclosed.

The proposed addition would mean the construction of four rooms to the grade school building plus shop and music rooms. Residents interested in relieving the overcrowded condition in the local school are urged to attend the meeting.

Floyd Black's Team Wins Second Place

Winners were. Light, Ross Renner of Farwell; second, Bob Mushlock of Cheboygan and Bob Green of Traverse City, third; heavyweight class, Earl Hayfer of Rosebush, first; Floyd Black of Charlevoix, second; and Harry Scott of Lake, Michigan, third.

Health Department Commended For 'Fine Job' by State Director

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, commissioner of the Michigan State Department of Health was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of District Department 3 at the Boyne Mountain Ski lodge Thursday.

In speaking to the more than 60 department members and their guests he explained the aims of the Department of Health and went on to tall how each small unit within each department combines its efforts to make the whole department a success.

Because children in each community are immunized and receive regular examinations, epidemics are prevented, tuberculosis is held to a minimum and the general health of the area is improved, he explained.

• • •

HE SPOKE OF the co-operation of the department and the doctors in the various communities and how the two work hand in hand to make a healthier community.

He also showed how dollars and cents put into prevention of illness is far less than that needed to stop epidemics or care for tubercular patients.

He commended Dr. A. F. Litzenberger, director of department 3 and his staff for the fine work in the four northern counties serviced by them, Antrim, Charlevoix, Emmet and Otsego counties. He mentioned particularly work done by the sanitation division of the department.

Preceding the luncheon at which Dr. Heustis spoke, Dr. Litzenberger presided at business and executive meetings.

Dr. J. K. Altland, also of the Michigan Department of Health, spoke briefly.

Hearing Set for Anchorage Area In Round Lake

A hearing on the "special anchorage area" in Round Lake, Charlevoix's harbor, will be held at 2 p. m., Sept. 28 at the City hall, the office of the corps of engineers, U. S. Army, in Milwaukee, announced.

The applications of the Board of Commerce, Charlevoix Power Squadron and the Marine club for the establishment of a special area wherein vessels not more than 65 feet in length when at anchor shall not be required to carry or exhibit a white light, will be considered at the hearing.

All interested parties are invited to attend the hearing, particularly navigation interests and the officials of any county, city, town or local association whose interests may be effected by the proposed anchorage area.

Belvedere Group Elects Mr. Walker As New President

D. D. Walker of St. Louis, Mo., was named president of the Belvedere Association at an annual meeting.

He succeeds Woodbury Ransom of Daytona Beach, Fla., who became a member of the board of trustees.

E. J. Edwards will continue as manager of the Belvedere Hotel as well as warden and assistant treasurer. Marvin Sugden is assistant warden.

The association which includes the hotel and 86 cottages has completed a successful summer according to reports made to the officers.

Edward C. Orr was re-elected president of the Belvedere Golf Club. Other officers are: vice president, Gordon L. Geilfus of Cincinnati and secretary-treasurer, G. B. Leatherman of Robinsonville, Miss.; directors, Richard M. Moss, Samuel J. Pingree, Mr. Waker of St. Louis and Mr. Fox of Clayton.

Goldman Fund Completes 10 Years of Aiding Needy

The Lenore Goldman Meyer Fund has completed its first decade of service in Charlevoix.

The Fund, set up as a living memorial to Mrs. Meyer following her untimely death in August, 1941, has expended more than a $1,000 each year in aiding the needy of the Charlevoix area.

Because Mrs. Meyer, whose home was in St. Louis and who had spent her summers here since childhood, loved the north her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Goldman and members of her immediate family chose to establish the fund in her memory.

• • •

THAT HER thoughtfulness and generosity to those less fortunate has continued through the years is exemplified in a letter from Supt. of Schools Roy G. Bennett to Mr. Goldman who heads the sponsors of the fund.

It portrays more than mere words the work being accomplished by the fund. It reads in part:

• • •

"EVERY YEAR as we make plans for the opening of school here, we become aware of the splendid work accomplished by the Lenore Goldman Meyer Fund. There are many under-privileged children in our community who, as a result of the help they receive, are able to live a more comfortable and happier life.

Last year there were more people in the smaller income group than any year since I have been in Charlevoix. Our hot lunch program showed a deficit of more than a $1,000, brought about because of free lunches to those whom investigation showed a lack of money for their meals.

The two parts of your program that deserves particular comment from us are the milk and clothing projects. We have found that if a child can have clean, comfortable clothes he can fit in with the other children and have a normal childhood. Those who receive milk were, in practically every case, those who had no breakfast before coming to school.

May I extend my deepest appreciation and the appreciation of the teachers and the community, to you for this service to our children." Signed: Roy G. Bennett.

During the past year the fund contributed $431.00 for milk for children who otherwise would not have had it. In addition $156.00 was spent for clothing and $158.00 for shoes, most of which were for children.

• • •

IN ALL $911.00 was spent during the year aiding a total of 14 cases involving 32 individuals.

In addition to the milk, clothing and shoes, other items included in the expenditures were fuel, food, bedding and miscellanous items.

This figure brings to more than $11,000 spent over a ten-year period for emergency aid to needy persons.

The fund disperses only emergency assistance to those who are in need of immediate aid other than medical care and who are not receiving help from any other source.

• • •

IT WILL provide warm clothing for a child who has none, good milk for an empty tummy or assistance to a whole family if the need should arise.

Members of Mrs. Meyer's immediate family made the first large contribution when the fund was established in 1941. They

Campaign Officials Step-Up Effort to Hit Goal by Nov. 8

With completion nearing of the successful drive among summer residents to raise funds for the proposed new area hospital in Charlevoix, organizations of leadership for the second phase of the campaign was announced today at campaign headquarters.

The total amount pledged to date is about $185,000, leaving a minimum of $40,000 yet to be raised.

Members of the recently organized campaign executive committee are: Mrs. E. D. Hawley, Harold Withers, Robert Bridge, William Parsons of Norwood, Elmer Rood of Ellsworth, Theodore Malpass of East Jordan, Mrs. Kit Carson, Dr. Gerald Gibbons, and Mrs. W. B. Stewart and Ernest H. Loeb, summer residents.

Mrs. Carson and Mr. Malpass are co-chairmen of the new campaign organization which will seek three-year pledges from residents of Antrim and Charlevoix counties.

In accepting their appointments, Mrs. Carson and Mr. Malpass said, "In setting up an entirely new campaign organization for solicitation of three-year pledges on a fair-share basis from the population of the hospital's service area, the executive committee has adopted the principle of selecting two co-chairmen for each group, so that the entire area is fully represented and all interests recognized."

Solicitation of memorial and sponsor contributions is now in progress. Memorial donors are those who pledge $2100 and up. Those gifts provide for the building and furnishings of a room, and each room will have a plaque with the name of the donor.

Sponsor gifts are those of $1000 and up, and all sponsors will have their names on a plaque at the main entrance of the hospital.

Since the urgency of the situation requires a selective and personal approach to all prospective donors, and because it will be necessary to seek gifts from everyone, it was stated by the campaign executive committee that no special events will be undertaken during the drive.

Another reason for this policy is that duplication of appeal must be prevented, for larger than average, "once in a lifetime" pledges are needed in order to have a successful campaign.

The advance solicitation will continue through the week of Oct. 14 and be followed by the public phase, with the entire campaign to be completed by or before Nov. 8. The plan calls for an enrollment of at least 400 leaders and committee workers.

Five Grid Teams Open Season Friday

The Northern Michigan Class C football schedule will get underway this week with five of the seven teams of the league opening the 1951 season with non-conference games.

Charlevoix, along with Pellston, however, will have one more week of practice before sending teams onto the gridiron.

Coach Del Terrill is daily putting 52 prospective players through drills and an occasional scrimmage in preparation for their opening game Sept. 21 under the lights at Boyne City.

WITH ONLY eight returning lettermen, newcomers feel they have a fine chance for a berth on the Varsity squad so are giving the veterans plenty of competition for positions.

Each line position has at least three candidates. Lettermen Dean Boss and Bud Barber, ends, are finding competition from Dean Davenport, Frank Lagerman and Jack Denemy.

Charles Krahnke, back at tackle and Stan Whitley who has been shifted from end to tackle are finding Ivan Whitley, Bill Mosier and Jack Cross likely candidates for the tackle positions.

Barnard Grange Starts Ball Rolling on School Issues

The steps taken by the Barnard Grange to interest other farm groups as well as local groups in reaching a solution on the school addition question, should be welcomed and commended.

While it remains to be seen what the final answer will be in solving the overcrowded conditions at the school, much can be gained from an open discussion on such an issue.

Through the leadership of the Grange's leaders, a meeting was called to start the ball rolling on a proposed school addition. It appears that definite plans will be settled on the proposed $225,000 addition to the present school.

This proposal received the greatest support in an informal survey made of the voters' list after the last school election when the plan to build a $600,000 high school was voted down.

Most rural and local townspeople appeared to be agreed that something should be done to relieve the overcrowding which has overtaxed present facilities from the seventh through the twelfth grades.

But until now there has been nothing but disagreement on what the proper steps should be. The $225,000 addition to the present facilities would be a step in the right direction, even if it would not be the final step.

It seems likely that from the discussion this week at the Barnard Grange, plans for the new addition may be formulated and speeded toward actual presentation to the school district's voters.

The Barnard Grange deserves a big hand for instituting a much needed discussion on the school situation.

Governor's Act Results in Stormy Blasts

The recent action of Governor Williams' commutation of the sentence of a labor leader convicted of picket line violence, has aroused the wrath of many public officials and countless residents.

The governor's action brought out the charge of the Berrien county prosecutor who blasted the clemency of the union boss. The prosecutor protested to Attorney General Frank Millard against the commuting the sentence of Thomas Flynn, a picket line leader sentenced to 18 months to four years for strike violence and malicious destruction of property.

Flynn served 30 days in prison before Williams commuted the sentence after hearing pleas for clemency from union officials. The sentence was sustained by the state supreme court but Williams said that Flynn was tried under an "archaic statute."

"The governor is ignorant or mistaken concerning the facts", said the prosecutor. "The record shows Flynn was convicted under a 1941 act of the legislature applied generally by prosecutors to malicious destruction of property cases involving damages greater than $50."

The prosecutor in Berrien county where the labor violence occurred said that Williams must have two rules of clemency . . . one for the labor bosses and the other for rank and file workers.

Two rank and file members are now serving 45 days in jail for putting sugar in the gas tanks of workers during the strike in Benton Harbor. The damage they caused was under $50. They have served nearly all of their sentence. The Berrien prosecutor asks why Williams doesn't free these men.

In his blast at Williams, the Berrien prosecutor pointed out that the state supreme court sustained Flynn's conviction but he failed to appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court, apparently believing that the governor would act.

Mrs. Frank Martin Honored at Shower

Mrs. Frank Martin was guest of honor at a pink and blue shower given by Mrs. Lloyd Cummings and Mrs. John Martin, jr., Friday evening at the home of Mrs. John Martin.

Guests enjoyed games with prizes followed by refreshments served at a table decorated with autumn flowers.

Mrs. Martin received many gifts.

Invited guests were Mrs. Clare Martin, Mrs. Earl Kroll, Mrs. Irving Manville, Mrs. Nel E. Evanoth, Mrs. George Bergmann, Sue LaBlance, Mrs. Eugene Bergmann, Mrs. Watson Gregory of Petoskey and Mrs. Jay Adams.

Attendance in Parks Better Than in '50

LANSING—Labor Day crowds in state parks pushed 1951 attendance figures close to the 12-million mark.

While unseasonably cold weather of early summer kept this year's attendance total below the record 13,108,000 of 1949, last year's total of 11,699,000 was exceeded two weeks ago.

Camper permits also have fallen behind 1949's record, according to the conservation department's parks division, but are expected to exceed 37,000. The total was 32,675.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Mertin

Have you heard the story of the wild animal out at North Point? We'd love to tell you about it . . . Seems Marilyn and Dean Boss have been having troubles . . . nothing less than a bear, they knew, was making nightly forays to their big garbage can in back of their cottage . . . He regularly removed the top, ate what he wanted and tossed rubbish every which way . . .

Finally they decided to do something about it . . . They thought they'd at least like to know how big a bear it was . . . So . . . they rigged the shutter release camera up to the house, attached a string from the top of the garbage can and sure enough, the next morning, the shutter had been tripped and the bulb had gone off . . . They rushed the film to be finished and what do you suppose they had a picture of . . . The most surprised looking raccoon you've ever seen . . . He was standing on his hind legs and removing the cover of the 30-inch garbage can with his mouth when the camera, as Marilyn said, "caught him in the act of stealing a midnight snack . . . P. S. He hasn't been back since the picture-taking episode.

From Mrs. W. L. Freeburn in Detroit came a clipping from a recent issue of the Detroit Times . . . Perhaps you saw it . . . "When CKLW's Myrtle Labbitt vacationed in Charlevoix recently she was a little puzzled at first to hear her neighbors greet each others with the question: 'How are the skunks down at your house?' Later she found that the little animals were star boarders at that vacation spot" . . . Miss Labbitt should come back anytime now and she'll meet them on practically any street corner . . . Last week they were ambling across Michigan ave. just north of the bridge.

* * *

ABOUT Mrs. Freeman, she's the former Byrnece Lamphear, you'll remember . . . She also made the Times . . . in a picture taken atop the Detroit Memorial Hospital of the new Receiving Hospital addition . . . She's at Memorial . . . Bill's with Blue Cross and young Bill will enter high school this fall . . .

ALSO IN THE MAIL: a card from Ann Gill who spent last weekend in Chicago where she saw "South Pacific", Duke Ellington and his band and scads of other wonderful things . . . And from Mrs. George LaBlance, Sr., a card from the Shrine of St. Anne deBeaupre where she visited the wonderful shrine.

THE LAST FEW days we've been like many of you . . busy saying good-bye to our summer friends . . . We went to the train Sunday evening to see one off and found we knew many who were leaving . . . It's always a little sad for it means the end of the summer . . . We've often wondered what it would be not to live in a summer resort where you greeted your friends in the spring, met many new ones during the summer and had to say good-bye in the fall . . . We suppose it might be allright but no doubt a little dull . . . This way you meet so many grand people . . . In behalf of ourselves and Charlevoix we'd like to say to our summer visitors, If we may borrow the lines from the song, "May the good Lord bless and keep you til we meet again." . .

DID YOU happen to see that private cruiser, a converted bus, on the street Saturday . . . It was the George Dousts who didn't like a trailer so bought a bus, made it into a home on wheels and were enroute from their home at Ottowa Beach to Duluth . . . If they like it they're going to make some more improvements and go to Florida . . . It had everything from a welcome mat to twin beds and all the comforts of home . . even to a dog named Duke . . .

THE 310th Ordnance Depot Co had a real welcome when they moved into Charlevoix and their new home last week . . . Irish Coleman representing the Board of Commerce appeared to say "Welcome to Charlevoix" and added coffee and donuts to show them we really meant it . . . Since then the outfit's literally torn the place apart to remodel it for their needs . . . Looks like they're to stay . . .

Had an opportunity Sunday to see Harbor Springs new football stadium . . . it without a doubt is one of the most unusual and beautiful stadiums you'll find any place . . . With a steep side hill . . . almost a bluff, forming the north side of the stadium where the seats are set into the hill and woods on about two and a half sides . . . it's a sight to see . . . the field itself was sodded last June and is like a carpet . . . The light poles and steel goal posts were being placed in preparation for the dedication and opening game against Cheboygan Friday . . . It's over the hill and highway from the old field on the edge of town so if you're over there stop and see it . . . it's worth your while

A "GLAD YOU could come" to the Northern Michigan Road Commissioners Association . . . It was grand seeing old friends from among those present and meeting just scads of new people . . . We hoped you liked it well enough to return another year . . .

Lutherans to Show Two Movies Thursday

Bethany Lutheran church will show two newly released movies at the church at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 13. Both pictures were recently filmed in Hollywood with casts of professional actors.

"Torn Between These Two", the first picture to be shown, is a dramatic story of what happens when selfishness rears its ugly head in a family. It's the age-old story of selfishness masking in the guise of parental love. Young love finally wins out, and objecting parents discover wherein the secret of true happiness lies.

The other picture is titled, "Tammy", and filmed in color. This is the touching and sometimes humorous motion picture story of a little girl named "Tammy," who succeeds in winning a stubborn and embittered father to faith in God and active membership in the church.

The public is invited to see these heart-warming motion pictures, a free-will offering will be taken.

Janet Bulow and William Clark Exchange Vows In Home Ceremony on Saturday Afternoon

Janet Elizabeth Bulow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton R. Bulow, became the bride of William E. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clark of South Lyon at a ceremony solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Saturday afternoon.

Baskets of pastel gladioli formed an improvised altar.

Preceding the service Joyce Butler sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because" accompanied on the piano by Mrs. D. Dawson Way who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white nylon net styled with a full skirt. The fitted bodice was trimmed with lace flowers centered with rhinestones. Her gown of bridal illusion fell from a lace net tiara. She wore a single strand rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white carnations centered with white gladioli.

Attends Sister

Marilyn Bulow, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a lime green marquisette gown trimmed with lace, matching lace headdress and mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of coral gladioli.

Ralph E. Clark of South Lyon, assisted his brother as best man.

Mrs. Bulow selected an aqua print gown, black accessories and a corsage of white gladioli for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Clark wore a navy ensemble with navy accessories and a corsage of pink gladioli.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. A tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple centered the refrehment table which was decorated with autumn flowers in pastel shades. Mrs. C. Clarke Bergeon assisted by Phyllis Trimble of Big Rapids and Erma Mitchell of East Lansing served.

Traveling East

After a wedding trip through the east to New York and Washington the couple will reside in Lansing. For traveling the bride wore a burgundy suit, navy accessories and a white gladioli corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and the Detroit Business Institute. The bridegroom is a graduate of the South Lyon high school and is attending Michigan State College.

Out of Town Guests

Among those from away who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clark, Ralph E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bailo and son, Michael, Harry MacIntosh and Donna Stewart of South Lyon; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hamilton of Detroit; Patricia Hamlin Mr. and Mrs. Wilmott McDowell and daughter, Cathy, of Lansing; Mrs. Arthur Newton of Clifford Ont., and Mrs. G. A. Graham of Alliston, Ont.

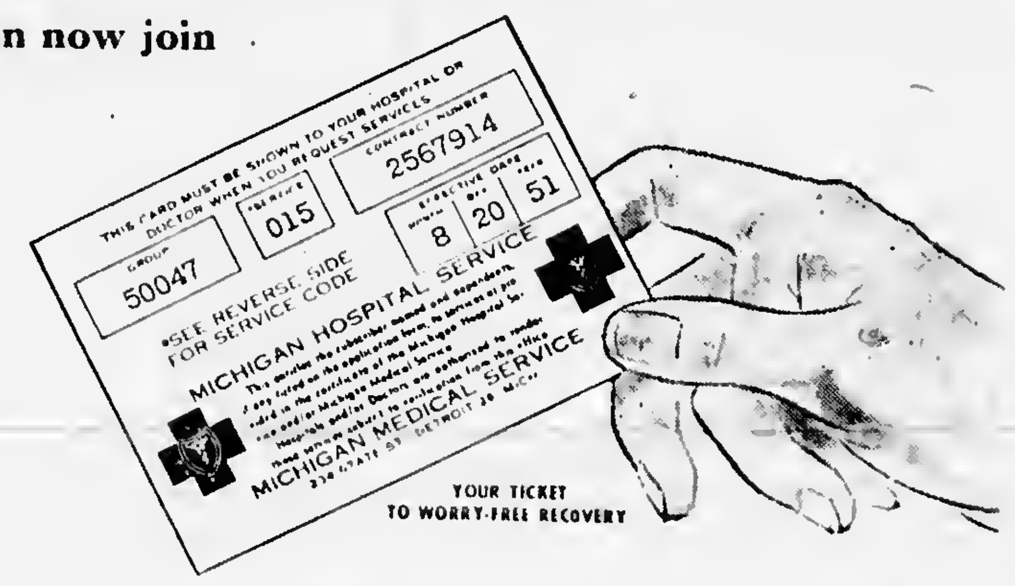
CAN JOIN BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD THROUGH THE NEW NON-GROUP PLANS FOR HOSPITAL-SURGICAL CARE!

THIS SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY ENDS SEPTEMBER 22nd!

If you act fast and are under the age of 65, you can now join Michigan's most widely used health-care plans without belonging to a group!

What is Blue Cross-Blue Shield?

These are the popular names of Michigan Hospital Service and Michigan Medical Service—to which 2,500,000 of your Michigan neighbors belong—organized as a non-profit public service to help you take care of today's high cost of illness requiring hospital-surgical care.



THIS CARD MUST BE SHOWN TO YOUR HOSPITAL OR DOCTOR WHEN YOU REQUEST SERVICES
GROUP 50047

YOUR TICKET TO WORRY-FREE RECOVERY

Look at the benefits these Non-Group BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD plans make available to YOU!

★ 30 full days of hospital care for each enrolled family member. Another 30 days available when you have been out of the hospital for at least 6 months.
★ Surgical Plan pays your doctor liberal stated amounts for surgical operations.
★ Help with hospital and doctor bills for your new baby after only 9 months membership.
★ No waiting period for acute conditions requiring hospital or surgical care.
★ Chronic and pre-existing conditions covered after only 6 months membership.
★ Diagnostic X-ray up to $15 per year. Anesthesia by a doctor of medicine according to "Schedule of Benefits."
★ Unlimited use of operating room, anesthesia (when administered by hospital employee), laboratory, drugs and dressings, physical therapy, oxygen, basal metabolism examinations and other listed hospital services for 30 full days of care when performed at 191 Blue Cross participating hospitals.
★ Up to $8 or up to $10 a day hospital room and board allowance, according to plan for which you enroll, when admitted to a Blue Cross Participating Hospital.
★ Surgical plan pays licensed doctors of medicine anywhere in the world according to "Schedule of Benefits."
★ Enrolled persons may keep their protection after age 65, with no reduction in benefits. Your membership will not be cancelled by us for health reasons.
★ Special benefits to provide hospital care anywhere in the world.

What does it cost?

A single person can get Blue Cross-Blue Shield protection for as little as 10¢ a day. Protection for husband and wife can be yours for as little as 27¢ a day. To enroll your whole family costs only a few pennies more.

Can I get Blue Cross-Blue Shield now?

Yes immediately, but only during this special Non-Group campaign. No physical examination, no health statement is necessary. You don't even have to be employed.

How do I get it?

Just fill out and mail the coupon below. When we get the coupon, we'll send you literature and an application blank. Fill in the application and return to us—we'll mail you your Blue Cross-Blue Shield certificates and identification card.

No enrollment fee, no health statement, no one will call on you.

Send coupon today for application blank and descriptive folder—or get them from your doctor, local hospital or nearest Blue Cross-Blue Shield office.

IMPORTANT! This is the only way you can join Blue Cross-Blue Shield Non-Group Plans. No one will call on you!

TECUMSEH DAIRY
FORD TRUCK ECONOMY RUN

F-3 Express hustles milk over Michigan country roads, demonstrated its low running cost in the nationwide Ford Truck Economy Run.

C. W. GILMAN in the dairy business 20 years, operates three Ford Trucks. He says: "Ford Trucks save me money every mile. Ford Truck power gets me there faster too."

"I move milk in a hurry for less than 2½¢ a mile!"

"I figure that my Ford Truck with its Power Pilot gas saver has helped cut my running costs by 7%," says C. W. Gilman.

The Tecumseh Dairy Ford was one of 5,500 trucks that took part in the nationwide, 50-million-mile Ford Truck Economy Run. Daily running-cost records were kept.

F.D.A.F.

Mr. Gilman says: "In 5,183 miles of the Run, with an average load of 1,594 lbs., I had no repairs, spent a total of $129.21 for gas, oil and maintenance. That'a a running cost of only 2.49 cents a mile!"

The POWER PILOT is one of many reasons for Ford Truck economy. The POWER PILOT gives you the most power from the least gas, under all conditions, on all jobs!

FORD TRUCKING COSTS LESS

... because Ford Trucks last longer! Using latest registration data on 7,318,000 trucks, life insurance experts prove Ford Trucks last longer!

Lesson for Wives

Long ago Euripides said, "A man's best possession is a sympathetic wife." This still is true. With a wife who believes in him, a man can reach great heights. His friends will think he is witty, wise, and kind because she tells them so. He will be a successful person even though he piles up no store of worldly goods. A woman gains by giving freely of her faith to her husband. Her fate is so closely tied with his that when he succeeds, she benefits too.

Softball Results

The City Softball league ended play last week with an extremely well played series between Silver Birches, winner of the first round and Ellsworth Hdw. winners of the 2nd. round.

When everything was all over the City had a new champion in the Silver Birches Court team. The champs found the competition quite rough at times as the Ellsworth boys forced the play-offs right down to the last inning of the 3rd. game.

The series featured the fine fielding of Ellsworth boys and the fireball pitching of Bob Potter from Silver Birches. Results of all three games:

1st Game (8 innings):	R	H	E
Ellsworth Hdw.	7	9	3
Silver Birches	6	7	2

Winning pitcher Jim Smith with J. Postmus catching. Losing pitcher Bob Potter and F. Boss catching.

2nd Game
Silver Birches	2	4	3
Ellsworth Hdw	1	5	2

Winning pitcher Bob Potter with F. Boss catching. Losing pitcher K. Wassner and M. Balser catching.

3rd. Game (8 innings)
Silver Birches	4	5	3
Ellsworth Hdw.	3	3	0

Totals of the three games; Silver Birches. 12 runs, 16 hits, 8 errors, 2 doubles, 2 triples, 15 walks and 7 strike outs. Ellsworth Hardware: 11 runs, 17 hits, 5 errors, 2 doubles, 1 triple, 10 walks and 21 strike outs.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Easy Makes His "Cat" Tread Lightly

Driving home on Three Ponds Road yesterday, I was flagged down by Easy Roberts' boy Skeeter. "Take it slow," he advised. "Dad's crossing this road with our tractor, just beyond the bend."

Around the curve I saw why Skeeter stopped me. Easy had laid two rows of old truck tires across the road, and was driving his new "Cat" tractor over them!

"More trouble this way," Easy explains, "but it does keep those tank tracks from tearing up the asphalt when I have to cross over to our other fields. After all, the roads belong to all of us and I guess I'd get mad if someone else chewed them up."

From where I sit, Easy is my kind of citizen. He doesn't just give democracy lip service. He honestly believes it's his duty to consider the other fellow's interests. Whether it's the right to use the public highways or the right to enjoy an occasional glass of beer, Easy's out to protect his neighbor's "right of way."

Mr. and Mrs. Bede Mitchel, Jr. and Mrs. Mitchels sister, also Bill Mitchel of Detroit, after enjoying a short vacation at Dr. Mitchel's cottage here, have returned to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Hyatt who spent the summer at their cottage near here, returned to their home in Detroit last week. While they were here the Jensen family held a reunion at their cottage. Mrs. Hyatt is the oldest of the Jensen sisters.

Miss Elane Gunther has returned to Big Rapids to continue her studies at Ferris Institute. She is preparing to enter the teaching profession.

East Jordan schools re-opened Monday.

Still Seek Ways to Trim Deer Herd

Lansing—To better determine the portion of Michigan's estimated one million deer which should be harvested each fall, the conservation department is going to fence in two natural northern study areas of about 700 acres each.

Game men say there is no question that the present herd needs considerable cropping in certain parts of the state, to get it down to a size more consistent with the available deer range. However, research biologists are looking for a better means of studying annual productivity and survival, with the facts regularly gathered serving as a guide in setting fall hunting regulations for future years as well.

One fenced area will be near the Cusino wildlife experiment station in the upper peninsula. The other will be at an undetermined northern lower peninsula location in the vicinity of the recently established Houghton Lake experiment station. Extreme care is being taken in selecting the two approximately 700-acre study areas in order that they may be representative of typical deer range in the upper peninsula as well as in the northern lower peninsula where the winter food shortage is more acute

Plan is to live-trap and liberate a number of deer, comparable to local upper peninsula populations on the same size range, late next winter or early spring. The sex and age composition will be duplicated as near as possible.

Tree Owners Asked To Look for Oak Wilt

Recent discoveries of oak wilt in six Michigan counties has created a need for watchfulness among tree owners, advises Forrest Strong, tree disease research scientist at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station.

An aerial survey, under the auspices of the State Department of Conservation, has just been completed with reports showing many dying oak trees in the southern part of the state. Counties where the disease has been found thus far include, Berrien, Cass, St. Joseph, Calhoun, Jackson and Washtenaw.

Oak wilt is a serious disease which has already caused the loss of hundreds of valuable timber trees in forest areas and woodlands as well as ornamental trees in parks and residential areas, especially in Wisconsin, Iowa, and Illinois.

New York State

New York state ranks 29th in area among the states of the country, having a land area of 47,929 square miles and 1,647 square miles of water. Practically half of the national clothing output is produced in New York state, which has a yearly production total of $1,500,000,000, the New York state department of commerce reports. Manufacture of women's dresses, coats, blouses and furs in the state represents 70 per cent of the country's production.

Farmers Warned To Check Grain For Pest Damage

Farmers were warned today to check their stored grain for bran bug and weevil damage if they want to avoid the cost of spoiled grain.

Ray L. Janes, extension entomologist at Michigan State college, advised farmers to examine their stored grain every week or two for possible infestations.

As a preventive measure against the profit-eaters, Janes said that grain should be dried out and cooled down as soon as possible after storage. Any conditions that tend to keep temperatures and moisture high in the grain are ideal for insect damage.

Fumigation is the best way of getting rid of bran bugs and weevils once they infest the grain.

There are several points to keep in mind in fumigating for the pests.

The granary must be tight enough to prevent the fumigating material from escaping through the walls and floor during the process. Temperature of the grain must be above 65 degrees Fahrenheit when the work is done.

Janes recommends a mixture of three parts of ethylene dichloride and one part of carbon tetrachloride for fumigating. Both substances are poisonous and must be used with great care. Avoid breathing the fumes.

Now Is Time to Plan for Winter Egg Production

Egg production from pullets next winter depends a lot on the kind of care and management poultry raisers give their birds now, according to H. C. Zindel, Michigan State College extension poultry specialist.

He points out, for instance, that you don't need to wait until you house the birds to start culling the poor-doing ones from the flock you plan to put in the laying house.

That'll raise your eggs-per-bird average and save the cost of feeding the stragglers in the meantime.

"Pullets need a well-balanced feed to grow," he said, and warned, " Don't rely on the neighbor's good luck and his feed formula. It's better to buy a good quality prepared feed, or if home grown grains are available, it might be economical to have a mill in the vicinity add them to the supplement in correct amounts."

There's a considerable discussion as to whether pullets need to be raised out-of-doors. A good range may save up to 20 percent on the feed bill but there are some additional costs too.

No chickens should have been raised on the range for the previous 2 years or more . . . that's a disease precaution. Good growing feeds are still a necessity on a range, and they must be given shelter protection, adequate water and feeding facilities. Good legume or grass range is best. Figure about 200 birds per acre, Zindel advised.

Advantages Listed In Washing Udders

Washing the cow's udder with a chlorine-water solution before milking has double-barrelled advantages according to George Parsons, extension dairy specialist at Michigan State College.

For one thing, the massage before milking helps the cow let down her milk so the job is easier. And washing with warm chlorine water will aid in destroying bacteria on the udder which otherwise might get in the milk.

Parsons advises washing the udder about 1 minute before you start milking for best results.

Some Michigan dairymen have started using paper towels for the operation. This saves washing individual cloth rags for each cow. After the paper towels have been used they are put into a container to dry. Then they can be burned or otherwise disposed of easily.

Legume in Stubble May Need Help Now

If the straw from your grain fields looks too heavy or hunched for the legume seeding underneath the stubble can be clipped high, then raked and put up for use as bedding next winter.

That's the suggestion from Michigan State College farm crops specialists. They emphasize that if you cut the legume seeding you should do it early. That will give the legume a chance to recover before cold weather hits it.

In case weeds come in to threaten the seeding it will pay to clip them, the specialists say. Sweet clover should not be cut unless weed growth makes clipping a must. If you have to clip sweet clover, do it in early August to assure recovery before cool weather.

Fertilizer Supply To Be Tight for 1952

Michigan farmers are again facing a tight fertilizer situation for the coming year. The supply of superphosphate is short because of the shortage of sulfuric acid.

Suggestions for meeting the situation came this week from Michigan State college soil scientists.

The first thing to do is to take soil samples and have them tested now ahead of the winter rush. Armed with an accurate analysis of your soil you can order your fertilizer needs immediately. If you wait until next spring it may be too late to get the most desireable analysis.

You'll also be helping fertilizer manufacturers make room for more supplies, the soil specialists point out.

Swampy Muckland Can Be Converted To Good Pasture

Farmers who want to convert areas of cattails, swamp grass and swamp weeds wet muck land into a highly productive pasture should look into the merits of Reed canary grass.

That's the advice of Michigan State College farm crops specialists. They reminded farmers today that now is the time to plow and fit wet muckland areas for seeding. This job can best be done during the dry part of the summer since the land is usually too wet during other times of the year.

They recommended a marsh breaking plow, followed by a disk and roller for the job. They also advised applying a muck fertilizer at 400 to 600 pounds of 0-9-27 or 0-20-20 per acre.

Seeding should be done from August 10 to 25 or from November 1 to 15. The November seeding will lie dormant until early spring. Seeding in September and October is not recommended because they are quite apt to heave out during the winter.

The MSC crops specialists advised sowing the Reed canary grass at 5 pounds per acre on wet muckland. When well fertilized and properly managed this grass makes a long season pasture. Enough stock should be kept on the grass to keep it eaten to about a foot in height.

Best way to get a move on

Ask any GMC owner about hauling performance.

For when it comes to packing home a pay load—he's got a lot of solid experience.

He knows what the right kind of horsepower can do for trucking profits. Whether he powers his load with a gasoline pickup model—or requires one of the sensational new GM-Diesel "Million-Milers"—he's right in the driver's seat for performance unexcelled by any other carrier in its class.

But he's not just "riding an engine."

He'll tell you the way his GMC shoulders the load, year after year, is proof of perfect teamwork of axle, chassis and frame—truck-engineered to outlast anything on the roads today.

Want to profit by the same long-time benefits of GMC's truck-building experience? Let us recommend the right combination of hauling performance to fit your particular needs.

Tax Decision Due Sept. 28 on County Appeal

★ ★ ★

State Tax Group Meets with Supervisors And School Leaders

A decision will be handed down Sept. 28 by the Michigan State Tax commission on the appeal of two Charlevoix county supervisors regarding the county's 1951 equalization report.

The tax commission members will meet with the county board of supervisors at 11 a.m. Sept. 28 to discuss the appeals of Supervisors Rudy Korth, Charlevoix township, and Joe Topolinski of Boyne Valley township.

A report on the spot-check of assessments through-out the county, conducted the last few months by state tax officials will also be made.

A second meeting is set for 1:30 p.m. Sept. 28 when the commission will meet with the county tax allocation board on appeals made by Chandler township, Boyne Valley, East Jordan, Boyne City, Melrose and Charlevoix on the total allocation of school millage.

Four mills were allocated to the schools, which had to vote a fifth mill in order to qualify for state aid. Eight mills were authorized for county operations, two for the sinking fund for the courthouse and one mill to all but Charlevoix and Hayes townships.

Korth and Topolinski appealed the equalization in their respective townships. Korth at the time said he went to the state to spot-check the townships to establish a yardstick. He said he did not feel qualified to judge what assessments should be in the other part of the county.

The supervisors at the April session adopted [illegible] report of $14,021,130. This was about a 14.5 percent increase from the 1950 equalization report figures.

* * *

THE APPEALS have resulted in a freezing of the tax rolls until a decision is handed down. Supervisors are scheduled to spread the taxes at the October session. The appeal did not affect city taxes because they were spread in May.

'Overconfidence' Perils Hospital Drive

★ ★

Much Work Remains to Be Carried Out

The hospital drive to raise a minimum quota of $225,000 for a new hospital apparently was stalled this week, chiefly because of overconfidence on the part of some of the workers and residents in the area.

While the advance phase of the campaign moves slowly, there has been a definite feeling on the part of some that the drive is over and that the fund has been raised.

This is not true, emphasized Theodore Malpass of East Jordan and Mrs. Kit Carson, co-chairman of the drive. They exhorted workers and prospective contributors to keep this in mind. The drive to date, thanks to the generosity of summer residents and other contributors, has raised $191,000.

* * *

DURING THE last week, some $6,000 has been pledged or contributed above the $185,000 total reported last week. Half of this increase came from one donor.

"The drive to obtain a new hospital for the area can become a reality," Mrs. Carson and Mrs. Malpass said. "But it is going to take a lot of hard work and much sacrifice to reach the objective. This is no time to let down. The goal may be in sight, but there is much to be done now before we can call the campaign a success."

Organization of the advance phase of the campaign among residents of Antrim and Charlevoix counties proceeded today with the announcement from campaign headquarters that Robert Bridge and Arlo Wickersham of Marion township

Chest Drive Opens Sept. 27 For $4,128 Goal

Community Chest workers in Charlevoix will attempt to raise $4,128.34 in this year's drive. The campaign is expected to start Sept. 27.

Drive chairman Richard Herrick appealed to Chest workers to attend a public meeting at 8 p.m. Sept. 21 at the courthouse when final plans will be made for the campaign.

He indicated that this year's drive should be a week-long, provided that enough workers volunteer for the job to raise funds for a half dozen local agencies and United Fund agencies.

* * *

AMONG THE United Fund agencies this year is the USO which is being asked to do a much greater job than at anytime since World War II. Charlevoix's share for the United Fund is $1,028, roughly a third of the county quota.

Local organizations who presented requests to the Chest board of directors last Thursday night include: Boy Scouts, $850; Girl Scouts, $450; Community Nurse, $850; Charlevoix hospital, $500; Santa Claus Annonymous, $150.

A request for $300 for the Salvation Army which directors said is carrying on activities in this county, was included in the budget.

Jack Maillot, president of the Chest, reported that this year's budget is some $1,700 less than the goal last year. The drive in 1950 raised $3,852, Maillot added that activities of certain organizations had to be curtailed because of the failure to reach the Chest's goal.

Gets Trans-Atlantic Call on Birthday

A trans-Atlantic phone call from her son in Paris, France, was one of the highlights of Mrs. E. Josephine Madill's birthday anniversary recently.

Her son, Edwin J. Madill of Washington, D. C., who was in Europe on business, called to wish her a happy birthday.

She was also guest of honor at a dinner party and received many lovely gifts and cards.

Attends Convention

Earl A. Young, realtor, attended a three-day meeting of the State Association of Realty Boards last week.

Leo Allard's appearance on the State street parkway brings out several county and city officials who express their sentiments on why the parkway should be abandoned. Left to right are Leo Allard, Police Chief Clarence Hesse, County Clerk F. R. Bulow, Alderman Hamilton and Probate Judge Floyd Supp.

Fate of State Street Parkway to Be Decided

The fate of the State street parkways, particularly the one between Antrim and Mason streets, will be the major issue at the city council meeting next Monday night.

Interested persons have been invited to attend and voice their ideas on the issue at 8 p.m.

The parkways which extend three blocks from Park ave. to Antrim st., became a controversial issue when several county officials urged the abandonment of the Antrim-Mason st. parkway as a means of lessening added congestion when the new bus station is opened in that block this week.

Most persons feel the decision regarding this parkway will eventually affect the other four islands in the blocks to the north.

* * *

THIS ISLAND is 18 ft. wide, approximately 171 ft. long and is flanked by 17½ ft. roadways.

In the three blocks in questions are four churches, the public library, a funeral home, Bell Telephone business office, the city hall and courthouse. The new bus station at Norton's Standard station is being added to the list this week.

Those who are in favor of removing the islands which have boulevard lights, flower beds and lawn, contend they are a traffic hazard. Cars parked along the street particularly in the winter months when snow piles up, makes it one of the most difficult streets to travel. It is also their contention that with the buses stopping regularly it will create more of a problem than ever before.

* * *

FORMER MAYOR Ray Hamilton in voicing his opinion said he was always in favor of removing the islands as he felt they served no purpose and have always been a traffic hazard, particularly in the winter. Mrs. Allen Campbell, is also among those who feels that they create a hazard and should be removed.

Others feel that it is one of the beauty spots of the city and should be preserved if the town is to retain its boast of being Charlevoix-the-Beautiful.

They contend that there is no reason, if one drives carefully, why they should have trouble driving, even in winter. Fire Chief Charles Marshall and many others say they will do their best to keep the parkways which make State st. the loveliest in town. Some of these persons also feel that the removal of the parkways will make State st. just another speedway which so many of the [illegible] streets have become.

* * *

A THIRD group admits a certain traffic hazard and concede that something should be done to alleviate the congestion. They however suggest the islands be narrowed several feet on each side, thus allowing for a wider highway and retaining the beauty. Former mayor and present second ward supervisor Arthur Bergeon is among those who feels this should be done.

Few people realize that when the city of Charlevoix was platted, the city fathers at that time marked State st. in the blocks mentioned above as the main street of the thriving village. Their idea was to remove the business district from the unsightly waterfront. For this reason it was platted as the widest street in town.

When Bridge st., despite their plans, became the business district, the city decided to make State st. one of the beauty spots of the town and thus planned the parkways which were built when the street was paved in 1915 and '16.

Courier to Publish Pictures of Children

Before you answer that question, this newspaper wants to frankly say that there are no strings attached.

Arrangements have been made by the Courier with a nationally-known photographer to have pictures taken of any child or children. Pictures will be taken Friday and Saturday, Oct. 5-6 at the American Legion hall. Hours will be from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

There is no charge for these pictures. There are no strings attached to this invitation. There is no age limit. It is a bonafied offer every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers or even readers of the Courier.

THERE IS NO obligation to buy pictures after they are taken. Those parents who desire additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative of Woltz-Allen when they select the pose they want printed in the paper.

It is entirely up to the parents whether they want pictures.

The Courier simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more the better. Mothers and fathers of the community and surrounding area in which this paper circulates are reminded to keep Oct. 5-6 in mind for taking their children's pictures at the Legion hall.

The only way this newspaper can give the readers a chance to view the "Citizens of Tomorrow" is to publish them in a series later this fall. To assure the latest and best reproduction in pictures, the Courier has made arrangements with Woltz-Allen studios to take these special pictures.

Rayders Point For Early Test At Boyne City

The Charlevoix Rayders, Northern Michigan Class C defending champs, coached by Del Terrill, will play their initial game of the 1951 season under the lights at Boyne City at 8 p.m. Friday.

With four weeks of practice behind them the team has been molded into shape for the season's opener which will be one of the toughest games on this year's schedule.

The tentative line-up for this all-important game is expected several regulars and lettermen up from last year's squad and an import in Bill Denemy, a letterman from Petoskey's '50 squad who is expected to add greatly to the Rayder backfield.

* * *

THE PROBABLE starting lineup for the game will include Norm Ketchman, a regular from last season who will be calling the plays. Gerry Left, who became a regular mid-way in the '50 season and who will be handling the left half spot; Denemy or Jim Lewis, up from the reserves, will start in the fullback position and the choice for the right half position will be between two newcomers, one a freshman, Joe McDermott and the other a member of the fleet-footed Jolliffe family, Fred Jolliffe.

Denemy is also expected to take over the punting and kicking duties of the backfield while Ketchman will do the passing.

Although the line boasts only two regulars from last season, it has several lettermen who saw action last season and have proven in practice they are ready for regular slots.

Among them will be Dean Boss, Bud Barber, both lettermen, and Dean Davenport, up from the re-

District Garden Clubs to Meet Here on Sept. 27

Members of 16 Garden Clubs in 15 northwest Michigan Cities will meet here Thursday, Sept. 27, for the fall meeting of Region No. 5, Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan.

The one day meeting will open with registration at the Congregational Church at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Wayne Smith of Petoskey, regional president, will be in charge of the morning business sessions. A luncheon at the Congregational church will follow at 1:00 p.m.

Dr. August Miller of Petoskey, outstanding entomologist, will speak at the afternoon session the subject of "Insect and disease control in the garden."

Mrs. Harley I. Oehs is president of the local Garden Club which will be host to the assembled regional group.

Enrollment Hits New High In Top Grades

This year's enrollment in the top six grades is the highest in the school's history.

The increased enrollment in the top six grades of the junior and senior high schools, which has threatened for several years, has finally come to pass.

The enrollment has jumped from 362 in 1950 to 384 in 1951. The increase of 22 students has made more acute problem of congestion which has resulted in no home rooms for some students and insuffiecient desk and locker space.

In the elementary school the enrollment is up from last spring but about the same as the initial enrollment last fall.

The present number of students by grades follows: kindergarten, 72; first grade, 59, second, 51; third, 61; fourth, 59; fifth, 61 and sixth, 58.

In the top six grades the figures are: seventh, 74; eight, 72; ninth, 73; tenth, 51; eleventh, 57; and twelfth, 57.

Military Rites Friday for Hubert Olach

Flags have flown at half-staff here since Tuesday when the body of Sgt. Hubert Olach, Charlevoix's only Korean War fatality, was returned for burial.

The Requiem Mass will be held at St. Mary's church at 9 a.m. with the Rev. Malinowski officiating. Full military rites will be observed. Burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery. The body is at the See Funeral Home where the Rosary will be said at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Sgt. Olach, a veteran of World War II and reservist who was recalled to active service in October 1950, was killed in action Feb. 9, 1951. He had gone overseas in December 1950 and was serving as a replacement with the 24th Infantry Division.

* * *

Born in Charlevoix April 15, 1920, Hubert graduated from St. Mary's school and the Charlevoix high school. He enlisted in the army shortly after graduation in 1944 and was serving in the Philippines when World War II ended. Later he served with the army of occupation in Japan, returning home late in 1947.

He enrolled at Central Michigan College in January 1948 and had returned there for his third year studies when he was recalled to service last fall.

On July 2, 1948, he was married to the former Dorothy Young who now resides in Detroit with their son, Peter, who was born Sept. 20, 1950.

Abandonment of Parkway Stirs Discussion

The possible abandonment of the parkway on State street between Antrim and Mason appears to be a prime topic of conversation and discussion.

The city council 10 days ago heard demands for the removal of the parkway opposite the courthouse, coincident with the announcement that the Greyhound bus depot was being shifted from Brown Motors to Norton's

Advocates of the parkway's removal cite the present congestion on State street, particularly when there is increased activity at the courthouse. They emphasized that the shifting of the bus station will mean that from one to three busses will be parked at various times every day on the narrow street.

They also emphasize that the situation on the street becomes intolerable in the winter, particularly when there is deep snow which is shunted to the boulevard. This makes driving hazardous, they say.

But the parkway has its supporters. In fact there are many who think the proposal to remove the parkway is idiotic. One of the city's supervisors termed the scheme as "crazy and without much thought of the beauty."

He went on to say that the parkway on State street is one of the most beautiful features in Charlevoix. Another official went on record as saying that to remove the parkway would mean taking the beautiful out of Charlevoix the Beautiful.

It appears that beauty is in a battle with traffic practicality. Which should win?

One alternative was to reduce the size of the parkway, measuring 18 feet, thereby providing more driving space and yet leaving a green island of sod and flowers.

In any event the council meeting on Sept. 24 promises to be a lively one. The council is urging persons who have opinions on the parkway question to be sure to attend the meeting and assist the council in coming to a decision favored by most of the residents.

Help the council by attending the meeting and giving vent to your feelings on the parkway question.

Poses As Champion of Controls

The President continues trying to pose as the champion of controls. Republican Senator Homer Capehart of Indiana, Minority member of the Banking and Currency Committee, has ripped the mask off this dodge with a withering blow-by-blow account of history. The President waited until a month after the Korean War Started to ask Congress for controls legislation. In that short interval alone the consumer price index rose 1.9 per cent and the wholesale price index 4.4 per cent. But on August 1, 1950, the President wrote the Senate Committee that price control was not necessary, and repeated the performance before a press conference ten days later.

Republicans pressed for all out controls, but a compromise was reached in September. By that time, the wholesale price index had jumped 7.5 per cent and th consumer index 2.6 per cent. When the Chinese Communists entered the Korean War in November the wholesale and consumer price indexes were up another 9 and 4.6 per cent respectively. But controls still were not in effect. During the following 30 days Truman only promised to invoke the law, while wholesale price index soared still another five per cent and consumers prices three per cent. Republicans have again advocated firm controls—just as they did in the first place.

The people will not forget the political football the President has made of their economic life.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fren Martin

Last week we had the good fortune to have given to us by our old friends, the Floyd Supps, a copy of the new book, "Lady Unafraid", written by Prof. J. Raleigh Nelson of the University of Michigan . . . Most of you know him as a summer resident of Ironton for many, many years.

The book is about his mother, Rebecca Jewel Francis, a young Cornish girl who at the age of 17 years went among the Ojibway Indians on the L'Anse district on Lake Superior in the upper peninsula in 1862 . . . The title is the English translation of the Indian name given her while among the people .

We do not profess to be a book critic but to us it is a beautiful story, beautifully told . . . In fact when you've finished the book you'll feel that you've lived among the Indians with her . . . you'll rejoice with her and weep a little . . . It is without a doubt one of the sweetest and most poignant stories we've ever read . . . We won't tell you more but don't miss it . . .

And now that we've read it we can't help but feel great admiration for its author, Professor Nelson, about whom we've heard for years . . . The book shows us why he is loved by all who know him . . .

* * *

THE CHARLEVOIX Rayders will open their '51 season this week . . . They've given us a lot of good football in the past and we're looking forward to another equally good year . . . So to the Rayders and Coach Terrill . . . lots of luck for a successful season . . .

Who says our Courier doesn't get around? . . Remember the picture of the Venetian Queen and her court which appeared early last month" . . . Since then Colleen Reed has had a letter from a soldier in a Carolina camp who somehow or other had seen the pix and thought he'd like to write to her . . . And from a Communications Company in Korea a letter, saying, after seeing her picture in the Courier (only heaven knows how it got there), they'd voted her the girl they'd like most to communicate with . . . In neither case were Charlevoix boys mentioned . . .

* * *

IF MORAL support will win football games for the Rayders, believe us, they're all set . . . One night last week we saw Lyle King Jerry Ypma, Albert Fox, and Pat Martin, all former Rayders and Gerritt Elzinga, who were all home on leave, plus Jim Roberts and Larry Petersen also former players . . . giving the team the once over . . . On other nights there have no doubt been others . . . Some of them have been gone from school for quite some time but the old 'pull' is still there . . . And it's really something to see . . .

Sept 13 was quite a day at the Lance Neff residence . . . it not only marked the arrival of a new grandson to their daughter, Mrs. Basil Kennedy of Traverse City but it was the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Kennedy's mother, Mrs. Neff and of Mrs. David Bergstrom, Bob Neff's mother-in-law . . . That family just can't afford to be superstitious . . .

If you want to go mad just watch those streamers in front of the Charlevoix Oil Co. . . they're just about the screwiest things we've seen

Many Charlevoix residents mostly store operators are going to see a familiar face on the cover of the Life magazine in the near future . . . It's of that supersalesman of juices, C W. Johnson of Grand Rapids . . . who travels in this territory . . . We think it's the Oct 16 issue . . . So don't forget to watch for it . . .

An aerial view of Charlevoix taken by Bill Oens was on the cover of "Garden Gate", the magazine of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan recently . . . Quite a plug for the town . . . through the efforts of the local Garden Club and the Charlevoix Board of Commerce . . .

Voice of Our Readers . . .

The following is a reprint of a column of Dick Allgire, editor of the Petoskey Evening News. His pertinent remarks represent the opinion of a visitor. The Courier reprints these remarks in the hope that they will stimulate thought on the issue which faces the city council.

Charlevoix, to my mind, is the most beautiful town in the north — bar none.

I hope they keep it that way.

On a quick trip over there Thursday afternoon, however, I learned of a proposal to do away with one block of the State Street parkway.

County officials appealed to the city council to open the street so there would be less congestion for the new bus station now under construction The issue will be decided at a council meeting on Sept. 24.

Now one block of parkway is not going to make or break the town from the standpoint of beauty. In fact the parkway is not one of the real "beauty" spots in Charlevoix.

But it does add a certain air to the town—gives you a feeling of peacefulness.

If I were a citizen of Charlevoix I'd go to the council meeting and argue that a little traffic congestion now and then isn't going to do any great harm. I'd argue that you're either going to have a place you can call "Charlevoix The Beautiful" or a small town where traffic moves with big-city ease and speed.

Those who want to dig up the grass parkway and replace it with a street argue that the street is too busy to tolerate the waste space of a parkway. They point to four churches, one funeral home, the city hall, library, courthouse, telephone company and bus station on this street.

Actually those who feel as I do about this haven't much of an argument. Ripping out the parkway is a very poor solution to a problem.

Go ahead and do it.

A lot of other very practical projects will follow and maybe in 10 years you can junk your Slogan, "Charlevoix The Beautiful"

Then you can advertise yourselves as "Charlevoix the Practical"

Dick Allgire

A Tribute to Our Children

To Publish Pictures of LOCAL CHILDREN

● Pictures of the children in this community are to be published in this newspaper as a special tribute to our young citizens. Tomorrow the responsibility for world destiny will rest heavily upon their shoulders. As Americans, they will meet those responsibilities without faltering. Among them, in the years to come, will be many with fame and fortune. But, just as they are right now . . . with the dawn of a greater tomorrow in their fresh young faces . . . we, the publishers, want a picture of these future professional men and women, teachers, scientists and, who knows, perhaps a future president of this great country. We want to publish these pictures in a forthcoming special feature. So, Mother and Dad, we will need your cooperation to help make this event a colorful and inspiring exhibit!

Arrangements have been made with The Woltz-Allen Studios, nationally known children's photographers, to take the pictures for us at the time and place given below. All you have to do is bring your children as our guests. There is no charge or obligation. However, all children must be accompanied by one parent or other guardian.

You do not have to be a subscriber to this newspaper and you do not need to purchase photographs, although you may do so if you wish. Just bring your children down and have the pictures taken. Later you will be shown proofs from which you select the pose you prefer having printed in the paper. The pictures will be published at a later date. It is as simple as that!

You can clip these pictures from the paper and thus obtain a memento of childhood which will become a treasured keepsake and memory record for both you and your children when they grow up.

Need of Juvenile Home Is Stressed

A juvenile home for the eight counties of northwest counties was the major topic discussed at the meeting of District 2 of the Association of Supervisors and County clerks held at Leland last week.

The need of such a home and how the problem could be worked out was presented by Probate Judge Floyd A. Supp. The members voted to work out a resolution which will be adopted by the group in December and later presented to the state legislature.

Attending the meeting from here were Rudy Korth, Clarence B. Meggison, Fenton R. Bulow and Judge Supp.

Miss Kuiper, Earl Hansma Exchange Vows

Miss Lorian E Kuiper, daughter of Mr and Mrs Anthony Kuiper of Ellsworth and Earl Hansma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hansma of Harvax Lake were united in marriage Saturday, Sept 15

The rites were solemnized at the home of the groom's brother, Mr and Mrs. Joel Hansma before a marble fireplace decorated with yellow and flame gladiolis and candelebra.

The Rev. Ralph Veenstra, of Bethel Christian Reformed church Grand Rapids performed the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a toast-colored ballet-length lace frock, bronze slippers and tulle picture hat. Her corsage was of yellow baby mums and roses. Miss Kuiper was attended by Mrs. Kenneth Hansma a sister-in-law of the groom. She wore a peacock-blue satin frock and hat to match. Her corsage was of yellow mums.

Mr. Hansma had as his attendant, Dr. Kenneth Hansma, brother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Joel Hansma were the master and mistress of ceremonies. The wedding was followed by a reception and was attended by 100 guests. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the refreshment table.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kuiper wore a simple navy blue dress. Her corsage was of bronze mums. The bridegroom's mother chose a plum-colored dress. Her corsage was of yellow mums.

After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hansma will make their home at 649 Platt street S. W. in Grand Rapids.

Ebenezer PTA Names Officers for Year

Ellsworth—Officers were elected for the Ebenezer PTA at a recent meeting. They are: Rev. Boeve, president; Peter Pott, vice president; Mrs W. J. Karsten, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Henry Burns, vicar.

Miss Theola Veenstra sang "Whispering Hope". A trio composed of Donald Heeres, William Koover and Jean Kooyer sang. Dr. J. Van Dellen of East Jordan showed pictures of "America's Wonderland."

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Nick Brock, Mrs. Harold DeYoung, Mrs. Paul Doctor, Mrs. Louis Essenberg and Mrs. Gerty Elzinga.

On and after this date I will not be responsible for any debts other than those contracted by myself

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION STATE OF MICHIGAN

The Probate Court for the County of Charlevoix.

At a sesion of said Court, held at the Probate Office in the City of Charlevoix in said County, on the 18th day of September, A D. 1951.

Present, Hon. Floyd A. Supp, Judge of Probate.

Esther Krohn, Administratrix of said estate, having filed in said Court her petition, praying for license to sell at private sale the interest of said estate in certain real estate therein described, for the purpose of paying the debts, expenses and charges of said estate;

It is Ordered, That the 17th day of October, A.D. 1951, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Office, be and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition, and that all persons interested in said estate appear before said Court, at said time and place, to show cause why a license to sell at private sale the interest of said estate in said real estate should not be granted,

It is Further Ordered, That public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order, for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing, in the Charlevoix Courier, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

General Clay Calls on Americans to Help Truth Fight Communism

25,000,000 ENROLLEES SOUGHT IN CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM DRIVE

TRUTH is the most deadly weapon against Communism! And today TRUTH is blasting Soviet propaganda behind the Iron Curtain . . . revealing Kremlin lies . . . exposing secret Red informers.

Hard-hitting, aggressive Radio Free Europe is striking with deadly impact . . . sowing fear and confusion among the Communist rulers and their collaborators.

But an even better job must be done! Two additional transmitters are needed at once to bring more TRUTH broadcasts to the millions in the captive countries.

Your dollars will help win the cold war . . . prevent a global hot war!

Enroll now in the Crusade for Freedom and HELP TRUTH FIGHT COMMUNISM

General Lucius D. Clay, organizer and commander of the Air-Lift that stopped the Red Menace in Berlin, and now Chairman of the Crusade for Freedom, calls on every American to help Radio Free Europe fight Communism with TRUTH. Your dollars will help win the cold war . . . prevent a global hot war!

See Record Number Of Fisherman in '51

Lansing—Conservation department license officials are forecasting a record-breaking number of fishermen this year, although final confirming license figures will not be available until next year.

Resident angling permits so far total 563,813, or about 13 percent more than the 497,944 purchased through the same period in 1950. However, Arden McNeil license division official, does not expect the dealer sale returns to continue at this pace. But he does anticipate 1951 final figures will top the 1949 record of 1,101,872 resident and non-resident licenses. The 1950 final was 1,056,060 licenses.

Annual non-resident permits total 67,833 or nearly nine percent more than the 62,307 of record at this time last year. Temporary non-resident licenses total 21,595, five percent more than the 20,544 before. Trout stamps are up ten percent with 118,618 purchased as compared to 107,653 before.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Gena Alleman
Lansing Observer for Michigan Press Association

State political policies and campaign material is being molded behind the scenes by both Democratic and Republican State Central Committees. But little has been said for the press.

At a Democratic party conference at Mackinac Island "whole hearted support" was pledged to President Truman for re-election-who has not yet declared himself in the race—the biggest outward political dispaly in recent weeks.

At that same conference Vice Pres. Barkley waxed eloquent. Said the Veep: "Acheson has been hounded by men unworthy to lace his shoes . . . Troman will win again . . . No one has worked as hard as Harry Troman to prevent World War III . . . If the United Nations fails all hope for peace is gone . . . Between now and next year's election every garbage can in the nation will be overturned to find something to use against the administration . . World War II might have been prevented if the League of Nations had been stronger . . . And through Democratic efforts in the last 1 9 years the nation has been made economically strong enough to withstand defense spending."

The Veep has expressed his willingness, at 74, to run again

ARTHUR SUMMERFIELD Republican national committeeman from Michigan, was very angry. At the Democratic conference, Gov. Williams had referred to him as a representative of "special interest". Summerfield called the Mackinac Island conference a "hoorah for Truman-Moody-Williams affair" and added the Democrats "don't care about the minks, stinks and pinks in Washington which have turned our national government into a farce".

DID YOU know—Michigan with 4.23 percent of the nation's population paid 8.24 percent of total U. S. tax payments? Combined efforts of Michigan California, Illinois, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania constitute one-half the nation's tax income?

As iron and steel shortage has been predicled "before mnay months" by Arthur J. Fushman, chairman of Detroit Scrap Mobilization Committee.

At the end of the fiscal year (June 30, 1951) Michigan was $41,100,000 in the red. June 30 1950, the deficit was $23,311,231.

The last fiscal year was the fourth in which expenditures from the general fund exceeded revenues. In 1948 there was a surplus of $33,000,000 in the general fund. Operating expenses for 1950-51 were aboot $475,300,000 compared to $443,200,000 the previous year. Most of the increase was in payments benefitting local units of government, Controller Robert F. Steadman said.

THE CONSERVATION Department wants red pine and white spruce cones to replenish state nursery seeds. District foresters will pay $5 a bushel for red pine and $6 a bushel for sproce. Cones must be ripe.

Adulteration of sausage and hamburg in Michigan is increasing alarmingly, according to the State Department of Agriculture. Twelve packers have been taken to court; 13 cases pending yet. Packers are inserting too much fat, milk, cereals and vegetable flours—a result of meat shortages and climbing prices.

A LARGE —and pertinent—piece of Michigan's moveable highway will be in operation by the time deer hunting season opens. The S. S. Vacationland will begin operating at the Straits. The combination ferry and ice breaker will be 460 feet long and will carry 150 cars. Cost $4,650,000.

Michigan christmas trees are exempt from price control. After they are cut they come under the classification of greens for decorative purposes—non freezable.

THIS YEAR continues as an "average" polio year—if such a thing is possible. From 100-125 new cases are reported each week in the state.

The Michigan Education association has complained that "irresponsible' attacks are being made on the school system by various national "front groups" with assorted selfish motives. MEA says they are trying to discredit the schools, reduce financial support and curtail programs, No names or groups were mentioned.

Some 100 farmers in Livingston county have organized to post their property against any honting whatsoever in protest against deer hunting with rifles. They even have ordered no hunting signs. There was talk of patrolling their lands.

OUT OF Washington: A new car shortage is likely soon.

The cost of striking? In Lansing 2,675 workers in two strikes (Kold-Hold Manufacturing company and Reo Motors, Inc.) lost $190,00 a week in salaries.

Growth

The peanut, "the nut that is not a nut," is a legume like a pea or bean. The plant is strange, sending its seed pods under the surface of the soil to develop and matore. So to harvest peanuts, they must be dug. After that the plants and nuts are well dried before a threshing machine separates out the nuts.

Bow, Arrow Hunting Set for Nine Counties

Lansing—To clear up a misunderstanding of sportsmen in some areas, the conservation department emphasizes that bow and arrow deer hunters next fall may shoot only bucks in nine counties and parts of Bay and Huron.

These nine are Keweenaw, Houghton, Dickinson, Menominee, Emmet, Cheboygan, Otsego, Clare and Chippewa except Drummond Island.

Archers can take either sex deer in all other coonties and in those portions of Bay and Huron south of townline 16.

In setting the regolar fall hunting dates of Oct. 1-Nov. 5 recently, the conservation commission also repeated the Allegan county bow season with no date change. Either sex whitetails are legal bow targets in Allegan, Oct. 1-Dec. 15.

Special Deer Cards To be Filled Properly

LANSING—Incomplete application cards, for hunting in the special western Michigan deer season, will not be considered, the conservation department cautions.

A number of persons wanting to hunt in the December extra season are sending in applications with the individual hunting license number and the license dealer's name missing. Application deadline is October 1.

To be issued are 16,000 permits for hunting either sex deer in six Traverse Bay area counties, including Charlevoix and Antrim coonties, December 1-5. Another 800 permits will be allowed to crop antlerless deer only, December 1-10.

Game Licenses to Be Ready Soon in Area

Lansing—Distribution of 1,260,000 fall small game and deer licenses to 4,000 honting license agents will be completed by September 15, the conservation department annoonces.

The department advises hunters that many agents now have copies of the new game law digest and all will have the waterfowl regolation supplement not later than October 1.

The folder outlines basic honting laws, season dates and bag limits. The supplement is necessary since information on possible waterfowl shooting dates and bag limits was not available from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service before digest printing time.

Shooting timetable for migratory waterfowl will be printed in many state newspapers and copies of the table will be available from any district or regional conservation department office.

Agent issued 1,052,684 hunting and trapping licenses last year. License fees, which are the same as before, are listed in the digest.

Feed Sows Minerals Is Experts' Advice

Make sure yoor fall brood sows get plenty of minerals, swine specialists at Michigan State college warn hog raisers of the state.

Unborn pigs reqoire lots of calcium and phosphorus which may be taken from the mother's bones. Poor bone strength in the sow results if these minerals aren't replaced.

Iodine deficiency, common in Michigan, may cause abortions, stillborn pigs, or hairless pigs.

A mixture of two parts steamed bone meal, two parts finely ground limestone and one part of iodized salt self-fed will protect the sow and prospective pigs.

Soil Tour Is Set for Sept. 24 In This County

A soil conservation tour sponsored by the Charlevoix soil conservation district, the soil conservation service and the extension service will be held Monday, Sept 24 at the farm of Harold Thomas near East Jordan, Ed Rebman county agricultural agent announced. The group will assemble at the Harold Thomas farm which is located near Eveline orchards at 1:30 p.m. Two or three short stops may be made later in the afternoon if time permits.

SOME OF THE items to be shown at the Harold Thomas farm are the contour strips, grass silage, a complete grass program and the use of the Walker Quickie in disking down buckwheat for wheat.

Leonard Braames, extension specialist in soils from Michigan State College and Guy Springer, district conservationist, soil conservatinn service from Traverse City, will be present to lead the discussion. Clayton Healey, chairman of the Charlevoix Soil Conservation district urges all farmers to attend this soil conservation tour and also everyone in the towns who are interested should attend. Bankers, co-op managers, machinery dealers, and others will find this tour very interesting.

It Costs Farmers $264 Per Year To Keep Bull

Farmers using artificial breeding for dairy cows spend just half as much on each female animal in the herd for breeding services as dairymen keeping a herd sire. That's what a recent cost survey of records of 75 farmers in the Detroit milkshed made by Michigan State College agricultural economists revealed.

The total cost of keeping a bull averaged $264 a year.

And if you think a teen-aged boy consumes a lot of food consider this bill of fare: 1,458 pounds of grain, 5,500 pounds of hay and 3,000 pounds of silage. That's what the average herd bull consumed in feed in a year. The feed alone cost $106 and labor in feeding and taking care of the animal cost another $73.

Herd owners with less than 20 animals of breeding age paid out an average of cost of $13.10 a hard to maintain a bull. But those with 30 or more females maintained the sire at a cost of half that much for each animal.

Many of the dairymen covered in the survey not only could have bought breeding service cheaper through the Michigan Artificial Breeders Cooperative, but could have obtained the use of better sires. They also could have eliminated the danger of keeping a bull and provided space for more producing dairy cows in the area occupied by the bull, the economists contend.

Kerosene Lantern Can Aid in Filling Silo

Although it may seem a little out of place, a kerosene lantern is an important tool to have around when silo-filling time comes.

It's a handy gadget for checking the silo for carbon diozide and may save someone a lot of trouble, according to David Steinicke, Michigan State College farm safety specialist.

He says that there is always danger of carbon dioxide in a silo, especially if silage has stood overnight or longer. His suggestion is to tie a rope onto the lantern handle and lower it into the silo. If the light goes out, watch out.

Among other silo-filling suggestions, Steinicke urges farmers to repair their silo ladders before filling time comes. That job and removing or covering the bottom rungs to protect young children may save a costly injury.

Farmers Should Avoid Losing Legume Seed

Many farmers harvesting alfalfa, alsike clover or red clover seed lose a high percentage of their seeds because they insist on getting it too clean from the combine.

Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent, advises these farmers to adjust the combine so a lot of chaff and foreign materials gets into the bag. Then do the recleaning with a fanning mill.

He also gave some other pointers for success in saving the most legume seed possible. The most efficient method from the standpoint of saving the highest percentage of seed is to combine from the swath. Under some conditions it may be more favorable to combine from windrow.

In this case the windrow is made at time of cutting by using a windrow attachment on the mower, Rebman says.

Getting half of the seed on the first trip through the combine is considered good. Re-threasing the crop again may recover an additional 20 percent of the valuable seed.

Ed Rebman pointed out that handling or moving should be done while the plant is moist or tough with dew to prevent seed shattering. Of course that doesn't hold true for the actual threshing operation.

Spoiled Hay Reported Good Mulch Source

Untimely rains that have spoiled a lot of hay this summer on Michigan farms may have "blown someone some good" by providing orchardists with valuable mulching material.

Dr. H. B' Tukey, head of the Michigan State College horticulture department, reports that more and more orchardists are turning to some form of mulching because their experience with it has been good.

"Mulch is better than we know," says Dr. Tukey. "We explain that it adds organic matter, improves the physical condition of the soil, prevents run-off, and makes nutrients availbale.

"While this is a sizable package of virtues, there are seemingly still some little understond values. Somehow, many troubles that assail an orchard disappear under a good mulching program," he concludes.

In mulching, hay, straw, marsh similar material is brought into grass, sawdust, or any other the orchard and spread under the drip of the branches and to leave the space between the trees in sod which is kept mowed.

Feeding Livestock

Feed all your livestock a high phosphorus mineral and trace mineral salt, and you won't have to worry about mineral shortage

Grinding Home Grown Feeds Pays at Times

"When does it pay to grind home grown feeds for livestock?" That's a question frequently put to Ed Rebman county agricultural agent.

It's a question that can't be answered right off the bat, he says, but he offers some pointers that will help the individual farmer to do his own deciding.

He points out that it seldom pays to grind corn for hogs. But when corn is fed as part of a mixed ration, grinding the corn makes mixing easier. All feed for baby pigs should be ground.

Some hog raisers grind ear corn for older breeding stock to add bulk to the ration and hold down excess fat. The county agent points out that when alfalfa is fed to sows it supplies that bulk without adding cobs to the ration. And alfalfa should be fed

• • •

EAR CORN for fattening cattle should be coarsely ground, he advises. Grind other grain if there are no hogs following the cattle.

Sheep carry a good set of their own grinders so they can easily handle whole grain if their teeth are good.

Extension dairy specialists at Michigan State College recommend grinding all grain fed to dairy cows and older calves but young calves are patient and they'll do a good job of chewing whole grain.

Weather which lowered the quality of much of Michigan's hay crop has some farmers worried. They ask, "Should this hay that has few leaves and lots of steins be chopped?"

Michigan State dairy specialists doubt if it pays. Chopped hay is no better than whole hay from the nutritional standpoint, they explain.

Proper Handling Safeguards Seeds

Proper handling after harvest is necessary to safeguard the quality and germination of grass and legume seeds in storage.

That's the reminder today from Michigan State college farm crops specialists. They point out that the main danger of damage is from heating.

Heating may occur in seeds that were not completely ripe and dry at harvest time or as a result of pieces of green plants and trash that weren't screened out during threshing.

They suggest spreading the harvested seed in a shallow layer over the bin floor. If any signs of heating appear, it's a simple matter to turn the seed to cool it and make it dry out faster.

Cleaning the seed to remove the trash before storing is a good idea, too

ORCHARD NOTES

By Claude Fairman

I do not mean to use this column for an advertising campaign. However, I feel some mention should be made of the peach situation

The peach grower faces many problems. Peaches are either overripe or too green. They ripen too fast or too slow. A hot spell will hasten ripening and then the peaches start dropping to the ground.

A cold spell comes and the peaches ripen so slowly and purchasers cannot obtain them on expected dates. Some of the best varieties ripen late in the season. For instance the early Elberta, a fine-grained peach is good for canning. This peach is different from the regular Elberta in size and flavor.

The regular Elberta peach has a black eye today presumably because of shipped-in Elbertas which are picked too green. In this area it keeps us hustling to supply early kinds and late varieties go begging usually.

Late varieties consist of Wilmas, Elbertas, Kalhaven and J. H Hale. The favorites are in this order of ripening. Red Haven, Fair Haven, Hale Haven, Kalhaven, early Elberta and Wilmas.

Football Season Gets Underway

Rayders Open with Tough Boyne City 11 Under Lights Friday Night

Realizing that they face a difficult task this fall, the Red Rayders of Charlevoix will receive their acid test at the outset of the grid season tomorrow night when they tangle with a tough Boyne City 11.

Coach Del Terrill and his lads, making their bow for the season, will need to be at peak strength and top speed if they are going to prevent the Ramblers from achieving something they have not been able to do against the Rayders on the gridiron in several years.

On the block will be Charlevoix's long winning streak . . . one of the longest in Michigan high school history. The Rayders have gone 43 games without a loss. Only close ones in that skein are two ties, both with East Jordan.

Needless to say, the Boyne City boys will be really keyed up for this one . . . they always are when they oppose Charlevoix. They will be trying to do something that Rayder opponents have not been able to do in five years in football.

With eight letterwinners back as a nucleus, Coach Terrill, entering his second season here as mentor, has no illusions. He is fearful of several losses this year unless the Rayders go all-out to play their best type of football.

It will be the Rayders' first experience with night football, but the same can be said of their opponents.

Bolstering the returning lettermen are a number of boys who saw considerable action last year and this fall may come into their own.

Boyne City under Coach Art Gillespie's direction will field a tough team against the Rayders. A fair number of veterans are returning and the younger players are said to show plenty of promise.

Boyne, smarting under that defeat by the Rayders last fall, will be geared to upset the Charlevoix team and throw them off the victory path at the outset.

MSC Claims Largest Group Of Charlevoix College Students

Applications made long ago to various school and colleges by Charlevoix high school graduates are now becoming a reality as they pack their bags and make plans for registration at the school of their choice.

As in the past Michigan State still claims the largest number of Charlevoix students. Among them are Bob and Bill Carey who left earlier this month to report for football practice. Others returning for classes are Clarke Bergeon, Marge Browe, Sally Miller, Betty Orvis, Gerry Gibbons and Ruth Blanchard.

• • •

The number of Charlevoix graduates enrolling at the University of Michigan has increased the past few years and today more than half a dozen are enrolled there.

Among them are Bob Shanahan, a third year student, and Bruce Shanahan who is starling his second year as is Brad Foster.

• • •

JAMES Gibbons, who has been attending the University of Detroit, has entered the U. of M. pre-medical school and Larry Petersen, a former Davenport Institute student, is enrolling in a regular college course at the University.

Central Michigan continues to claim a large number of Charlevoix graduates. Among the new enrollees are Ron Cunningham and Bill Wallace who left early for freshman football practice, Dwight Smith, Sara Coleman and Donna Everts. Warren Shadko has transferred from Michigan State a third year student.

• • •

Jim Roberts, a 1951 graduate of Central Michigan, has transferred to Wayne University to work on his master's degree.

Patsy Hamilton, a junior, and Beverly Trimble and Roger Sweet, sophomores, are returning to Albion College; Frank Partridge will return to his senior studies at Aquinas College in Grand Rapids, Tom Hamlin will resume his classes at Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind.

Phyllis Trimble, and William Poole have returned to their studies at Ferris Institute and Harry Stutt has enrolled for the first time at the Big Rapids school.

• • •

BETTY WARNER, another recent graduate, has enrolled at Davenport Institute in Grand Rapids; Joan Lewis is the only member of the recent graduating class to enter the field of nursing. She has enrolled at Highland Park General Hospital. Joyce Paul has returned to Missionary Emmanuel College at Berrien Springs.

Greg Bryan has enrolled at Michigan State Teachers College, Ypsilanti.

Others may be enrolling in various other schools and have not been brought to the Courier's attention. If this is true please call No. 2 with the student's name and school.

serves who will be selected for the end positions; Charles Krahnke, a regular and Stan Whitley, a letterman who was shifted from end, in the tackle spots; Nathan Buss, a letterman and Sunny Mason of the reserves will add much to the line in the guard position; Ted Browe, a regular last season as guard, who will play center.

• • •

In the line will be Frank Lagerman, end; Ivan Whitley, Bill Mosier and Jack Cross, tackles; Leo Allard, Larry Burns and Johnny LaBlance, guards and Carl Foster, center.

Petoskey Kiwanis to Stage Kids' Day

Petoskey—The Kiwanis Club Kids Day Fishing Rodeo here Sept. 22 is expected to draw youngsters from Emmet and Charlevoix counties.

They'll compete off the city dock for some 30 prizes, including two complete Shakespeare steel rods, Bal Chi thumbless reels, casting plugs, a dozen complete fishing kits, and free refreshments.

The Kiwanis Club of Potoskey, with Better Fishing, Inc., and city officials, has invited all youngsters from toddlers through age 16 to join in the fun.

Mrs. Walstad Heads Auxiliary Again

Mrs. Vance Walstad was reelected president of the Charlevoix American Legion Auxiliary at the business meeting held Monday evening at the Legion Hall.

Other officers named were: first vice president, Mrs. Lela Allard; second vice president, Mrs. Abbey Powers: secretary, Mrs. Clara Hamilton: treasurer, Mrs. Josephine Moore.

Chaplain, Mrs. Lillian Ulrich; historian, Mrs. Liela Goss; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Margaret Bacot; publicity, Mrs. Allard.

Real Estate Course Offered in Extension

Real Estate Business II will be offered this fall in Petoskey, Charlevoix, Traverse City and Cadillac as a monthly seminar, the University of Michigan Extension Service announces.

The course, which follows the same pattern as that established a year ago, is being given with the cooperation of the Emmet County Real Estate Board and the Antrim-Charlevoix, the Traverse City, and the Paul Bunyan Boards of Realtors. The boards of Education in these centers are also interested in the course.

First of the four day-long monthly meetings will be held at the Perry hotel in Petoskey on Saturday, Sept. 22. Four class periods will be covered in one day, the sessions convening at 10 a.m. and adjourning at 9 p.m.

Mrs. Lowell Merica and children returned last week to Spokane, Wash.

Said Bridge, who is also a cochairman of the campaign, and Wickersham in accepting their appointments, "Memorial gifts to the Hospital Building Fund offer an unusual opportunity to many families for creating living memorials to loved ones.

• • •

WE FEEL that many in the area served by our hospital will be interested in this opportunity, and our committee will be glad to discuss the matter with anyone. Thirty-seven of the proposed building's 62 rooms are still available for selection."

The appointment of sponsors committee co-chairmen was also announced. They are Conrad Klooster of Atwood and E. D. Hawley of Charlevoix. They issued the following joint statement: "The communities in Antrim and Charlevoix Counties, which comprise the service area of the Charlevoix Hospital, need modern and up-to-date hospital facilities.

They have resources sufficient to provide them, and the systematic campaign that has been planned will make possible a new and adequate hospital. Three-year pledges can and must be obtained by or before November 8 of this year in order that we may confirm the existing priority on matching federal funds before it expires."

No Salt, No Barnacles

Barnacles, curse of shipping in many parts of the world, soon die and drop off from hulls that reach Seattle's saltless piers.

Card of Thanks

We would like to thank the hospital staff, nurses and Dr Grate for the excellent care given Mr. Fred Myers during his stay at the Charlevoix hospital.

Council Tables Issue After Hearing Pleas; Workers Get Wage Hike

The city council tabled action Monday night on the parkways until the next meeting, after hearing pleas from a number of residents on the advantages and disadvantages of removing them.

Sharing the spotlight with the parkway question was the issue of wage increases for city employes. A five per cent boost was given salary employes on the first $100 of monthly pay, retroactive to May 21, and five cents an hour was given to hourly rated employes, effective Sept. 24.

The wage increase will cost the city an estimated $4,000 a year, City Comptroller Don Swinton revealed. Wage adjustments were made on salaries of the police department and departmental heads.

• • •

THE COST of removing the parkway between Antrim and Mason streets was put at $750 by Leo Allard and Ed Swanson. They were asked to prepare cost estimates of reducing the parkway for a report at the next meeting.

In a straw vote of persons attending the council meeting, 17 voted to leave the parkway as it is and nine voted to remove it. Two others voted to narrow the parkway.

It was also revealed that the Greyhound will park on Antrim street instead of State street as previously believed.

• • •

FOLLOWING A motion by Alderman Ralph Hamilton that bids be asked for all insurance premiums above $500, the council voted 4-3 to ask for them. Alderman Carl Kohler, Charles Bellinger and Bill Heering voted no and Alderman Harry Gebeau, Harry Zeitler and Hamilton voted yes. The Mayor cast the tie-breaking vote.

Mayor Knight who had not intended to vote was advised by City Attorney Norman Anre that he could vote on the issue if he so desired. Knight told the council he will not bid on the fleet insurance pending a ruling from the attorney general as to the legality of his selling insurance to the city.

• • •

THE POSSIBLE sale of the hydro plant at Bellaire to the city of Bellaire will be discussed at the next council meeting. Persons interested are asked to attend.

E. J. Wissel appeared before the council and requested police protection from the hordes of seekers of night crawlers who he said tear up his yard, flash lights into his home and threaten him with bodily harm.

The city attorney wil look into the possible need for an ordinance curbing this condition.

Charles Meyer stated his objections to the moving of a small frame building onto the property adjacent to his. Swinton was asked to check into this matter and report back to the council.

A meeting on the sewer project on Petoskey avenue will be held at 8 p. m. Monday, Oct. 1 at the city hall.

Present Gold Watch To Angus Fochtman

Angus Fochtman of the Charlevoix Oil Co., was presented a gold wrist watch Saturday by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., in recognition of his 20 years service as a Firestone dealer.

The factory representative who made the presentation said that it was only the second such award in this district, north of Grand Rapids, in the last six years.

The watch was engraved with Mr. Fochtman's name and commemorated his long and active service as a dealer.

Report State May Hike County Tax Levy

Speculation arose this week that the Michigan State Tax Commission may increase the county's equalization of the 1951 assessments.

A decision on this matter as well as on appeals made by six school districts are expected to be handed down Friday when the Commission meets with the Charlevoix county board of Supervisors and the county tax Allocation Board.

The meeting with the board of supervisors has been set for 11 a. m. in the court house here. The session with the tax Allocation group will be held at 1:30 p.m.

• • •

TWO SUPERVISORS. Rudy Korth of Charlevoix township, and Joe Topolinski of Boyne Valley township, appealed the equalization in their respective townships last April following the 14.7 percent increase made by the Board of Supervisors at their April session.

At that time the county's equalization figure was boosted to $14,021,130 from $11,340,712.

The appeals resulted in a spot-check of assessments throughout the county by the commission. A report on the findings is also expected to be revealed at the special meeting.

In the afternoon meeting the Commission will act on appeals made by six school districts after the county allocation board allowed the schools only four mills in the final allotment of the county's 15 mills.

The county was allowed ten

Retired Painter Edward Davy, 80 Taken by Death

Edward N. Davy, 80, retired painter and decorator, died Friday at the Charlevoix hospital where he had been a patient since Tuesday. He had been in failing health for several months and seriously ill a week.

Funeral services were held at the See Funeral Home Monday with the Rev. W. D. Wood officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Born in Ontario, Canada, March 14, 1871, Mr. Davy came to Michigan 75 years ago. Prior to coming here 51 years in 1900 he was married to Myrtie Bogart who died Dec. 24, 1944. He continued to live here until three years ago when he went to Boyne City to make his home.

He is survived by his wife, the former Theresa Strange, whom he married in December 1949; two sons, Royal E. of Miami, Fla., and Claude L. of Charlevoix, two daughters, Mrs. Wallace Earl of Royal Oak and Mrs. Sam King of Charlevoix a brother, John of Tacoma, Wash., a sister, Mrs. Gus Kabel of Evanston, Ill.; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Kiwanis Approval

The Kiwanis club went on record Monday night by a 24-0 vote in favor of the proposed $225,000 addition to the Charlevoix school. Clarence Meggison explained the details of the proposal.

Rayders Face Tough East Jordan Team

Undaunted by its scoreless tie last week, the Red Rayders meet another formidable opponent, East Jordan, tomorrow afternoon at Kipke field.

Friday's football game between Charlevoix and Boyne City developed into a defensive battle as the two teams battled it out toe to toe in a scoreless tie, one of the few such scores seen in the north in recent years.

The entire game became one of a few running plays climaxed by a punt which pushed the ball deep into the opponent's territory.

In the game which saw the Rayders go onto the field the underdog, Boyne City managed six first downs while holding Charlevoix to only three.

• • •

ONLY ONCE did the Rayders get very far into Rambler territory; that was when they made it to the 17 yard line but the Boyne line held and they lost the ball after kicking on a fourth down. Boyne City fought as far as the 20 yard line but once and the Rayder line held to stop the threat.

Most of the game was played between the 30-yard markers.

The loss of Boyne halfback Denny Pratt, with an ankle and knee injury which will bench him indefinitely was felt deeply by the Ramblers who had depended on him as a ball carrier. Norm Ketchman was relieved at various times because of a recurrence of a shoulder injury.

100 Garden Club Members Will Attend Meeting

Dr. August Miller of Petoskey, entomologist, will speak on the subject "Control of Insects and Disease in the Garden" at the annual fall meeting of Region 5, Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan here Thursday.

He will speak at an open meeting at the Congregational church at 2:45 p. m. Thursday afternoon. Anyone intersted in gardening may attend the meeting.

Mrs. Wayne Smith of Petoskey, regional director, will introduce Dr. Miller and also preside at other meetings.

Registration at 9:30 a. m. at the Congregational church will be combined with a coffee hour. A business meeting with president or delegates' reports and roll call will conclude the morning session.

The Belvedere Golf Club will be the scene of a luncheon at 1 p. m. At that time greetings from Mrs. S. L. Wing, state president, will be delivered.

Mrs. H. I. Ochs is president of the host club, the Charlevoix Garden Club. Registration will be in charge of Mrs. Karl Erber, Mrs. Allen Campbell and Mrs. Carl F. Kohler.

Clubs of the region which will send representatives include Boyne City, Petoskey, Ludington, Manistee, Cheboygan, Elk Rapids, Rapid City, Onekama, Lake City, Reed City, Wellston, St. Ignace, Newberry and two from Traverse City.

Ellsworth Juniors Hold Hobby Show

ELLSWORTH — THE Junior class hobby show which was held Friday evening was a great success. There were many local entries which consisted of odd china ware, old books, ties, shells, salt and pepper shakers, dolls. Mrs. Dawson and Mrs. Munion, button collectors of Charlevoix showed many valuable buttons, and Mr Heise of Charlevoix showed his collection of guns.

BULLETIN

The condition of E. L. Kramer, owner of the Beach hotel, remains critical in University of Michigan hospital, Ann Arbor. He regained consciousness Tuesday and showed slight improvement. He underwent two operations for a blood clot. He was rushed to Ann Arbor, after being ill for several weeks.

Island Priest Dies Suddenly

BEAVER ISLAND—Residents of Beaver Island were shocked late Tuesday when the news of the unexpected death of their pastor, Fr. Biles Berthiaume, 45, O. F. M. Conv., while on a vacation trip in the upper peninsula reached the island.

Fr. Giles and Walter McCauley had left the island Sunday for a vacation trip to the upper peninsula. It is understood Fr. Giles was stricken Tuesday while the pair was on the Porcupine Mountain, near Ontonogan. He was taken to the Ontonogan hospital where he died a short time later.

At noon Wednesday funeral arrangements had not been completed.

A native of Windsor, Ont., Fr. Giles was a member of the Franciscan Order Conventuals whose Michigan headquarters are in Lansing. He had been the pastor at Holy Cross church at St. James for three years.

Hospital Fund Climbs to $198,000

After report meetings of the sponsors and memorials committees this week, slightly improved progress was seen in the current drive to raise a minimum quota of $225,000 by Nov. 8 for the proposed new area hospital in Charlevoix.

A total of $7,000 more has been received since last week's report, for a total of 198,000. Some $3,000 of this came from sponsors pledges.

All commitee members were urged to redouble their efforts by E. D. Hawley and Conrad Klooster, co-chairman of the sponsors committee. "With only 20 percent of our committee's mininum quota obtained," they stated, "we must finish our part of the campaign by every member of the group expediting their endeavors."

Complete organization of the drive's advance phase came with the appointment of Frank Bird and Archie Livingston as co-chairmen of the Charlevoix special gifts committee, and Gerrit Drenth of Ellsworth and William A. Shepard of South Arm township as co-chairmen of the area special gifts committee.

• • •

Chest Drive Opens Today In City

Charlevoix residents begin to heed the mercy call of the Community Chest today as the annual drive to raise $4,128.34 gets underway.

Leaders and workers expressed confidence that residents will contribute generously to the campaign which provides funds for many local character building and charity organizations as well as to the United Health and Welfare fund.

Drive Chairman Dick Herrick discussed final plans with his captains, Mrs. Mildred Terr, Mrs. Margaret Campbell, Mrs. Ernest Wissel and Mrs. Archie Rounds. They were expected to confer with their block leaders on detailed plans to complete the fund raising in a week's time.

Persons who can spare a little time during the coming week or 10 days are asked to contact any of the captains or Herrick and they will be assigned duties.

• • •

THIS YEAR'S goal is some $1700 less then the budget goal last year. The campaign raised slightly more than $3800 in 1950, resulting in a curtailment of certain activities of organizations receiving Chest funds.

Herrick appealed to workers and residents to co-operate in making the drive a success this year, emphasizing the increased need of several organizations including the USO which is helping the servicemen with varied services in camps in the United States and overseas.

Local organizations slated to receive Chest funds are: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Community Nursing program, Charlevoix hospital, Santa Claus annonymous. The Salvation Army is a new member of the Chest. The United Health and Welfare fund will also participate.

Death Claims Mrs. Schrader, 79

Funeral services for Mrs. Ella Schrader, 79 Hayes township resident, were held at the See Funeral Home Saturday with Rev. L. L. Lewis officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

She died Thursday at the Charlevoix hospital after a long illness.

Ella Maucey was born in Oceana county March 2, 1872, and was married to Albert Schrader who preceded her in death. She had lived in Charlevoix county 20 years and in Hayes township for eight years.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Baker with whom she has resided and a sister, Mrs. C. A Brezee of Pontiac.

Take Pictures Of Kiddies Here

The Camera and the birdie await Charlevoix county kiddies at The American Legion Hall, Charlevoix.

Your Child's picture may be published in this newspaper without charge.

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 5 and 6 are the big days for the picture taking of your youngsters! The Courier is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the Legion hall between 10 a. m. and 6 p. m. absolutely free of charge. The Woltz-Allen Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, nationally known children's photographers, will be in charge of the photography. The Courier wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature "Citizens of Tomorrow," a series of photographic studies of local children. The more we get the better the feature will be, so the cooperation of mothers and fathers is urged.

• • •

IT OFTEN seems to parents that children are little one minute and are grown up the next, so fast does a child's growing stage pass. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at this present stage for the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this, your home town newspaper, and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Courier, nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures, either, though you may obtain a limited number of additional prints by arranging direct with the Studio if you want them. That is entirely up to you! There is no age limit.

That children are looking forward to the fun, since our previous announcement of this coming event, is shown in numerous instances. One child's mother was uncertain about the date and they had a slight discussion which ended with child saying firmly, "Well, I'm going to the Courier and see about it."

To help things run smoothly and avoid unnecessary waiting we will appreciate it, if parents with initials A to K will come in on Friday and those with initials L to Z on Saturday. If you have other plans made for your day—come in when you can, but we will appreciate your cooperation.

VFW Breaks Ground for Home

The next few weeks will be busy ones for members of Post No. 1153, Veterans of Foreign Wars, as they devote their spare time to raising the walls of their new home on Petoskey avenue before winter sets in.

The ground-breaking ceremony for the new structure was held Sunday on the property given the organization recently by the city and located approximately 1½ miles north of Charlevoix on US 31 near the ninth hole of the former Municipal golf course.

• • •

CARL HANSON, of Oden District Commander, and Ray Rogers of Petoskey district public relations director, joined with Clarence Goldstick, comander of the local post, and members for the ceremony which preceded the actual job of laying out the lines and the construction of batter boards for the foundation of the local post's first real home.

The one-story building of frame structure with brick and stone veneer will be 32x72 ft. with a utility wing of 16x24 ft.

An entrance way will open into the main hall which will have a fireplace. The utility wing will house a modern kitchen, rest rooms and [illegible] heating plant.

• • •

IN DISCUSSING the new building Commander Goldstick said, "We hope to have the building [illegible] fall! With a little cooperation from the weatherman we should be able to do [illegible] If we [illegible] we can proceed [illegible] winter months. That will be the only way we can get into the new home next summer".

The majority of the work will be done by volunteer labbor with members being assisted by friends of the post.

The new building will be the first permanent home of the local post which has had several meet-

School Board To Receive Plan For Addition

A plan whereby school district voters would cast ballots on the proposed $225,000 addition to the Charlevoix school will be recommended to the Board of Education at its next meeting by a volunteer group of school advocates.

The group's meeting sponsored by the [illegible] Grange Monday night at [illegible] Grange was attended by representatives of eight organizations. Al Smith, Grange leader, presided.

It is believed that the school addition can be financed by an eight-mill levy for a 10 year period. It is also possible that the levy may actually be only six mills. Discussion at the meeting brought out the fact that it will not be necessary to tear down existing buildings and that no new property is needed for the construction.

These two factors played a major role in the defeat of the school bonding proposal earlier this year. Many voters objected to tearing down the present high school and the buying of any additional property.

The proposed addition would place four new rooms onto the elementary building and the shops and music room onto the rear of the present high school.

Beaver Island Visitor to Get High Gov't Post

BEAVER ISLAND—A visitor to Beaver Island this summer is slated to become assistant secretary of the U. S. Navy, it was learned Wednesday.

The visitor was Herbert R. Askins, 52, president of Phoenix Auto Supply and other Arizona enterprises, who spent a week on the Island this past summer.

According to Mary Mangan of Chicago, who relayed the word of the pending appointment, Dan Kimball, secretary of the Navy, has been associated with Mr. Askins in many civic enterprises during the last 25 years.

In his new position, Mr. Askins will supervise the multi-billion dollar expenditures of the Navy for ships, aircraft, weapons and other items.

The Peoples Challenge to Communism

Join the Crusade for Freedom!

The Crusade for Freedom is the American people's challenge to world Communism.

It offers each one of us in Charlevoix and Antrim counties and others in the nation to strike a blow for freedom—to add our voice to the voices of truth piercing the iron curtain.

It tells the Communists: you tell your lies and we'll tell the truth, and truth will win.

Every day, hour after hour, the hard-hitting transmitters of Radio Free Europe pierce the Iron Curtain, sending hope to the enslaved people, spiking Communist lies with truth, and undermining the influence of the Red rulers.

In launching the Crusade for Freedom, last fall, General Eisenhower said, "Radio Free Europe" has the simplest, clearest charter in the world. "Tell the truth." Gen. Lucius Clay, commander of the Berlin airlift, is directing the Crusade for Freedom.

The Ford Motor Company has graciously given much time and effort to promoting this crusade. You can enroll in the crusade and contribute at the Northern Auto Co., to help strike a blow for freedom.

In the last year 16 million Americans responded to the appeal. Their support made possible the World Freedom Bell, erected in Berlin as a permanent symbol of free men's determination to resist aggression.

Their contributions of $1,317,000 gave Radio Free Europe the most powerful transmitter in the free world. Built in record time, this giant 135,000 watt medium-wave station—Radio Free Europe, Munich, went on the air, beamed exclusively to Czechoslovakia in direct competition with Kremlin-controlled Radio Prague.

The important factor today is the great need for more freedom stations to overcome the enormous propaganda might of the Kremlin. You now have the opportunity—through the 1951 Crusade for Freedom—to provide at least two more powerful transmitters for Radio Free Europe and to establish a freedom station in Asia to stop the spread of communism in the Far East.

This year's goal: 25 million Crusade members and 3½ million dollars in contributions.

Every resident is urged to give a few cents toward fighting Communism.

Voice of Our Readers . . .

How about a new lease on life? If you are one of the many who have worked hard all your life and have seen your family grow up and leave, you are probably lonely now and feel there's not much left to live and work for, and you're most certainly not young anymore.

When you look in the mirror for those wrinkles that seem to prove it, just look a bit harder and see if it's really the wrinkles that make you old. It's probably the way you think and live that's doing it.

The one thing that will change all that and give you a new lease on life is a project. The best one in the world is in your own back yard and it's there because you've done nothing about it.

This particular project will not only help your own life but the lives of others. Your work and money will be a living memorial and make you a better person for doing it. While you're figuring out how to pay your pledge you'll have no time for petty jealousies and you'll come to know what really swell folks live here.

When that wonderful worker comes to call on you think hard how much you can do or give, then just double it. It may mean your new car this year, but you won't really mind. I know this is true because it happened to me, so if you don't see me around much it's because I have a project to work on, the New Charlevoix Hospital.

Dear Sirs:

I wish to thank the Charlevoix Servicemen's Organization and any others who have made it possible for me to receive the Courier. It is great encouragement far from home.

Thank you.

James G. Fiedler, S. A.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Martin

Don't forget to enjoy the weather . . if it remains nice, that is . . . as long as you can. It won't be long before snow flies and then you'll have to stay in

The unseasonable weather has brought out all sorts of flowers and fruits . . an Easter lily is in full bloom in Mrs. Harrison Trimble's garden . Mrs. Frank Milward told friends recently she was picking both strawberries and raspberries. We understand Mrs. Max Damoth of East Jordan appeared in church Sunday morning with a corsage of lilacs . . . from bushes in their yard . . . and the fall flowers are so beautiful . . . And leaves are beginning to turn . . . Mother Nature's last fling before winter.

We don't know much about puff balls but last week Mrs. Clayton Trumble showed us one of the biggest ones we'd seen. It was about 17 inchess in diameter and about nine inches thick. It grew in their strawberry bed.

Remember the book, "See Here, Private Hargrave," which appeared during World War II and gave everyone such a chucklo . . . We ran across something the other day, also by Marion Hargrove which was equally as funny . . . It Ain't Like the Old Army" in the October Argosy . . . if you like him don't miss it . . . you former servicemen should get a big wallop out of it.

• • •

DANDELION usually are one of the first flower (or weeds, depending on where you're sitting) of the spring . . . but the other day Nancy Novak and Katie Kroll appeared with bouquets of them for their mothers . . . a little out of season but nice.

We'd like to introduce you to two new children in town . . . we think you'd like to hear about them . one is named David . . . he's almost five and he came recently to live with the Ralph Roberts . . . the other is seven year old Caroline who has joined the Homer Brady family. They've made two families very happy and we're sure they're also going to be happy to be here. It gives one a warm feeling to know people who are so willing to share what they have by taking for adoption two lonely children.

And speaking of adopting children . . we're willing to bet Charlevoix has more adopted children than any other town this size and we'll also bet you'll have to think who they are because they've become so much a part of the families they've joined.

THE CHARLEVOIX Rayders had their first game Friday night . . and for our money came through with flying colors. Continued luck, fellas, for a repeat performancee against East Jordan this week-end.

NOT LONG ago we mentioned Mrs. Walker Miles and her 'new' 1929 Dodge last week she informs us, she returned home from a 1137 miles trip through southern Michigan . . . and quite a jaunt it was too. She had troubles only once when the gas station attendant had to go into Lansing for parts, Mrs Miles even tended the business for him . . . putting in gas, checking the oil and what have you . . . but she made it home OK and the jalop's still going strong.

Plans Made to Remodel Legion Home Post

Improvements on the Legion Hall of the Leslie T. Shapton Post No. 226, American Legion, and the winter activity program were the chief subjects discussed at a recent meeting of the organization

Plans are well underway to remodel the basement and first floor with new walls and ceilings, entrances on both levels and other measures to make it comfortable for winter occupancy. Storm windows will also be installed.

An expanded program for the organization and the community is also being planned.

The first Tuesday of every month has been the date set for a full-dress meeting with entertainment and refreshments.

The local post now has 93 members. It was organized in 1919.

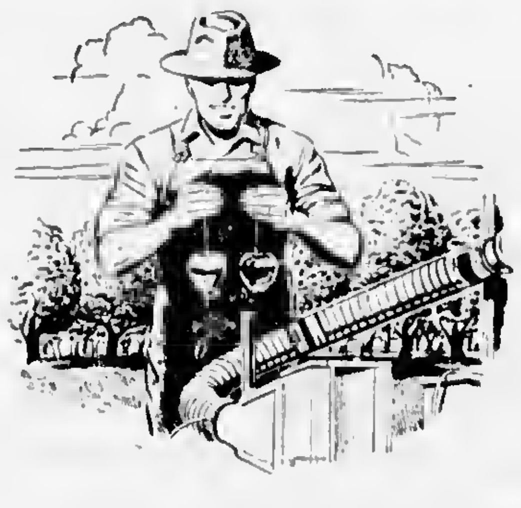
Electrostatic duster developed for farmers



This farmer is holding two apples which were dusted with the same amount of insecticide. The apple on the right had insecticide blown on it from a conventional-dusting machine The heavily coated one on the left was dusted by a new electrostatic process developed by agricultural engineers at Michigan State College As it leaves the duster's nozzle, dust is highly charged with electricity from special equipment carried on the farmer's tractor and is strongly attracted to plants or fruit, covering them underneath as well as on top Laboratory tests have reported coverage up to eleven times greater than that accomplished with dusters not equipped with the electrostatic device. Information on this new electrostatic dusting process for insecticides or fungicides can be obtained from the Michigan State College Agricultural Engineering Department, East Lansing.

New battery helps telephone service

In Michigan Bell's telephone central offices there are giant storage battery cells, some of them 5 feet high! They operate some of the telephone switching equipment, and provide power to carry your voice over telephone lines. Not long ago Bell Telephone Laboratories developed a new type battery which uses calcium instead of antimony as a hardener in the battery lead It holds its charge five times longer, uses less water, goes many months without attention, and stands up many more years Bell System research is one of the reasons why the most efficient telephone service in the world is yours for such little cost

Miss Rotha Alofs, Theo Essenberg Exchange Vows

Ellsworth—Miss Rotha June Alofs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Alofs of Holland, became the bride of Theodore Lewis Essenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Essenberg of Atwood, Friday evening, Sept. 14, at the Gratschap Christian Reformed church. The Rev. T. Verhulst preformed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms, ferns, gladioli and candelabra.

Miss Bermayne Miedema, cousin of the bride, played wedding music. Mrs. Wallace Boeve played the traditional wedding march. She also accompanied Mrs. Oliver Den Bleyker, soloist, as she sang "Oh Rest in the Lord" and "The Wedding Benediction".

Father Escorts Bride

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white slipper satin gown fashioned with a sheer sweetheart yoke edged with chantilly lace scattered with rhinestones. Long tapered sleeves, fited bodice and a full skirt inserted with chantilly lace scattered with rhinestones, terminated in a chapel-length train. A bridal veil of illusion, piped with lace and held in place with a tiara of rhinestones and seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli and mums.

Miss Leona Busscha was maid of honor. She wore a pale green net dress over taffeta and matching mitts. Her headdress was of rose orchid mums. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli with rose orchid mums.

Bridesmaids

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Russell Goeman and Miss Lorraine Essenberg, sister of the groom. Flower girl was Elaine Potts, cousin of the bride. Kenny Essenberg, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer.

Attends Groom

James Essenberg, brother of the groom, was best man. The guests were seated by Wayne Alofs, brother of the bride, and Russell Goeman, cousin of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Potts, uncle and aunt of the bride, presided as master and mistress of ceremonies.
